V. By accepting a $16,000 loan from the People to Re-elect Bedell Committee Respondents violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

VI. By failing to report contributions made to candidates as a result of expenses incurred in staging the debate, Respondents violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(1).

X. Respondents agree that they will not undertake any activity which is in violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, 2 U.S.C. § 431, et seq.

XI. The Commission, on request of anyone filing a complaint under 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(1) concerning the matters at issue herein or on its own motion, may review compliance with this agreement. RE: MUR 1695

Dear Mr. Brown:

Enclosed herewith please find two executed Conciliation Agreements on behalf of my clients, People to Reelect Bedell, James Walsh, Treasurer (MUR 1695) and People Encouraging Arms Control Efforts, John T. O'Brien, Treasurer (MUR 1695). It is very important to note that both my clients recognized, with our assistance, their unintentional transgressions of the Act and promptly called it to the Commission's attention. Considering the minor penalties attached to these proceedings, it can be inferred that the Commission supports my conclusion. I understand that this conclusion will be further supported by the General Counsel's memorandum to be released with this Conciliation Agreement, although pursuant to the policy of the Commission I have been denied a review of this memorandum prior to its release to the general public.

I have one last request that affects my office. Mark Fitzgerald was an associate in my office who worked on this matter as head of our team. There were other attorneys and staff that played an equally, all be it, less public role. The delicate work of explaining to respondents the full ramifications of the Commission's range of options as well as its decisions was left to me. Accordingly, I request that the final memorandum reflect that the Law Offices of Stephen Daniel Keefe filed this matter with the Commission so all our staff can share in the result as opposed to any one individual. Alternatively, I request that my designation of counsel be recognized because Mr. Fitzgerald withdrew before completion and was at all time working under my direction.

✓ Allow me to express my appreciation for the work you have done on this matter and for your assistance to all my staff and par-

RE: MUR 1695
Americans With Hart, Inc.
Michael R. Moore, as treasurer

Dear Mr. Moore:

On July 31, 1984, the Commission found reason to believe that Americans With Hart, Inc. and you, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(a)(1) and 441a(f), provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act") in connection with the above referenced MUR. However, after considering the circumstances of this matter, the Commission has determined to take no further action and close its file as it pertains to you and your committee. The General Counsel's Factual and Legal analysis which formed a basis for the Commission's finding is attached for your information.

The file in this matter will be made part of the public record within 30 days after this matter has been closed with respect to all other respondents involved. Should you wish to submit any materials to appear on the public record, please do so within 10 days of your receipt of this letter.

The confidentiality provisions of 2 U.S.C. §§ 437g(a)(4)(B) and 437g(a)(12)(A) remain in effect until the entire matter is closed. The Commission will notify you when the entire file has been closed.

The Commission reminds you that accepting an excessive contribution and failing to report contributions nevertheless appear to be violations of 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(a)(1) and 441a(f). You should take immediate steps to insure that this activity does not occur in the future.

MUR 1695

RESPONDENT: Americans With Hart, Inc.
Michael R. Moore, as treasurer

SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

People Encouraging Arms Control Efforts ("PEACE") sponsored a debate which was held on August 13, 1983, at the Civic Center in Des Moines, Iowa. Four Presidential candidates including Senator Gary Hart participated in the debate.

According to 11 C.F.R. § 110.13:

A non-profit organization which is exempt from federal taxation under 26 U.S.C. §501(c)(3), and a non-profit organization which is exempt from federal taxation under 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(4) and which does not endorse, support or oppose political candidates or political parties may stage nonpartisan debates.

In addition, any funds provided to or used by such an organization for the purpose of defraying costs incurred in staging nonpartisan candidate debates are exempt from the definitions of contribution and expenditure. 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.7(b)(21) and 100.8(b)(23). Because PEACE does not qualify under 11 C.F.R. § 110.13, as a non-profit organization, the funds it used to finance the debate are not exempted the definitions of contribution and expenditure. Furthermore, pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 106.1(a):

Expenditures . . . made on behalf of more than one candidate shall be attributed to each candidate in proportion to, and shall be reported to reflect, the benefit reasonably expected to be derived.

It appears that PEACE made expenditures in the amount of $13,323.86 as the result of its sponsorship of the debate. Because there were four candidates in the debate, one fourth of the expenditure, or $3,330.97 must be attributed to each candidate.

Consequently, by making the expenditures to finance the debate, PEACE also made an excessive contribution to the Americans With Hart Committee ("Hart") in the amount of $2,330.97 which the Hart Committee and Michael Moore, as treasurer, accepted in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f). Additionally, the Hart Committee and Michael R. Moore, as treasurer, failed to report the $3,330.97 contribution from PEACE in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(1).

People Encouraging Arms Control Efforts ("PEACE") sponsored a debate which was held on August 13, 1983, at the Civic Center in Des Moines, Iowa. Four Presidential candidates including Senator John Glenn participated in the debate.

According to 11 C.F.R. § 110.13:

A non-profit organization which is exempt from federal taxation under 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(3), and a non-profit organization which is exempt from federal taxation under 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(4) and which does not endorse, support or oppose political candidates or political parties may stage nonpartisan debates.

In addition, any funds provided to or used by such an organization for the purpose of defraying costs incurred in staging nonpartisan candidate debates are exempt from the definitions of contribution and expenditure. 11 C.F.R.

§§ 100.7(b)(21) and 100.8(b)(23). Because PEACE does not qualify under 11 C.F.R. § 110.13, as a non-profit organization, the funds it used to finance the debate are not exempted from the definitions of contribution and expenditure. Furthermore, pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 106.1(a):

Expenditures . . . made on behalf of more than one candidate shall be attributed to each candidate in proportion to, and shall be reported to reflect, the benefit reasonably expected to be derived.

It appears that PEACE made expenditures in the amount of $13,323.86 as the result of its sponsorship of the debate. Because there were four candidates at the debate, one fourth of the expenditure, or $3,330.97 must be attributed to each candidate.

Consequently, by making the expenditures to finance the debate, PEACE also made an excessive contribution to the John Glenn Presidential Committee, Inc. ("Glenn") in the amount of $2,330.97, which the Glenn Committee and William R. White, as treasurer, accepted in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f). Additionally, the Glenn Committee and William R. White, as treasurer, failed to report the $3,330.97 contribution from PEACE in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(1).

Dear Mr. Landau:

On July 31, 1984, the Commission found reason to believe that Cranston for President Committee, Inc. and you, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(a)(1) and 441a(f), provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act") in connection with the above referenced MUR. However, after considering the circumstances of this matter, the Commission has determined to take no further action and close its file as it pertains to you and your committee. The General Counsel's Factual and Legal analysis which formed a basis for the Commission's finding is attached for your information.

The file in this matter will be made part of the public record within 30 days after this matter has been closed with respect to all other respondents involved. Should you wish to submit any materials to appear on the public record, please do so within 10 days of your receipt of this letter.

The confidentiality provisions of 2 U.S.C. §§ 437g(a)(4)(B) and 437g(a)(12)(A) remain in effect until the entire matter is closed. The Commission will notify you when the entire file has been closed.

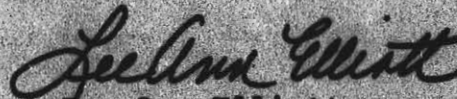

The Commission reminds you that accepting an excessive contribution and failing to report contributions nevertheless appear to be violations of 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(a)(1) and 441a(f). You should take immediate steps to insure that this activity does not occur in the future.

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

BACKGROUND

Mark Fitzgerald, Esq., voluntarily contacted General Counsel staff for the purpose of providing information regarding the possible violation of the Act by his client, People to Reelect Bedell ("the Bedell Committee").

In filing the information with the Commission, the Bedell Committee states that it made a loan of $16,000 in five installments to a group known as People Encouraging Arms Control Efforts ("PEACE"). 1/ The source of the funds came from excess campaign funds of the Bedell Committee from the 1983 General

1/ PEACE is registered with the Commission as a political committee with John T. O'Brien as its treasurer.

Election. The loan was used to help finance a debate among five <sup>2/</sup> presidential candidates in Iowa. The debate was held on August 13, 1983, and a ten dollar admission fee was charged by PEACE to defray the cost of staging the debate. The proceeds of the loan from the Bedell Committee were used to pay some of the remaining expenses.

The debate was said to be the sole political activity of PEACE during 1983. Further, the Bedell Committee asserts that the debate was a nonpartisan event and at no time during 1983 did PEACE make any contributions to, or expenditures on behalf of any identifiable candidates for federal office. The submission further states that the officers of the Bedell Committee and PEACE were not aware that loans between committees were subject to the contribution limitations. Once advised to the contrary by Fitzgerald, PEACE obtained a loan in the amount of $11,000 from a bank and repaid the Bedell Committee bringing the loan from the Bedell Committee to PEACE to $5,000. The $11,000 loan was then guaranteed by three individuals, so as not to exceed the contribution limitations.

The Bedell Committee continues by arguing that the spirit of the law was not violated since PEACE made no contribution to or

<sup>2/</sup> In a telephone conversation with Mark Fitzgerald Esq., Mr. Fitzgerald explained that although his original submission to the Commission indicated that five presidential candidates appeared at the debate, the correct number was four. expenditure on behalf of any candidate for Federal office. Moreover, the Committee argues, the loan was not intended to be used to support any particular candidate for Federal office, but, instead, to finance a non-partisan educational debate. Under these circumstances, the Committee argues that any possible infraction should be seen as de minimis.

2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(C) states that:

No person<sup>3/</sup> shall make contributions<sup>4/</sup> . . . to any other political committee in any calendar year which, in the aggregate, exceed $5,000.

It appears that by loaning PEACE $16,000 in 1983, the Bedell Committee and James C. Walsh, as treasurer, made an excessive contribution to PEACE totalling $11,000 in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(C).

2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) states that:

No candidate or political committee shall knowingly accept any contribution . . . in violation of the provision of this section.

Consequently, by accepting the excessive contribution, PEACE and John T. O'Brien, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

Counsel for the Bedell Committee further argues that the debate was the sole political activity of PEACE, that PEACE did not make contributions to or expenditures on behalf of any identifiable candidates for federal office and that PEACE did not receive any earmarked contributions on behalf of any identifiable candidates for federal office. Counsel goes on to conclude that if PEACE were a tax-exempt organization, the loan it received from the Bedell Committee would be exempt from the contribution limitations pursuant to 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.7(b)(21) and 110.13. According to 11 C.F.R. § 110.13:

A non-profit organization which is exempt from federal taxation under 26 U.S.C. §501(c)(3), and a non-profit organization which is exempt from federal taxation under 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(4) and which does not endorse, support or oppose political candidates or political parties may stage nonpartisan debates.

12 In addition, any funds provided to or used by such an 13 organization for the purpose of defraying costs incurred in 14 staging nonpartisan candidate debates are exempt from the 15 definitions of contribution and expenditure. 11 C.F.R.
16 §§ 100.7(b)(21) and 100.8(b)(23). Based on statements in 17 Counsel's submission, it appears that PEACE does not qualify as a 18 non-profit organization under 11 C.F.R. § 110.13.

8 4 0 4 0 4 0 5 3
The 1983 Reports of Receipts and Disbursements filed by PEACE did not clearly indicate the amount which may have been spent by PEACE to sponsor the debate. In addition, neither the reports nor counsel's submission indicated which presidential candidates were present at the debate. Consequently, the General Counsel recommended in a First General Counsel's Report that the Commission approve interrogatories in an effort to ascertain the total amount spent on the debate and the total which may be allocable to each of the presidential candidates appearing at the debate.

On June 7, 1984, counsel for both the Bedell Committee and PEACE submitted his response to the Commission's reason to believe findings (Attachment I). On May 28, John O'Brien, treasurer for the PEACE Committee, delivered his answers to the Commission's interrogatories (Attachment II). 5/

It appears that four presidential candidates appeared at the debate hosted by PEACE. Senators Alan Cranston, John Glenn, Gary Hart and former Vice President Walter Mondale participated in the debate. At also appears that PEACE made expenditures in the amount of $13,323.86 as the result of its sponsorship of the debate. Since PEACE does not not qualify as a non-profit organization in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 110.13, the funds used to finance the debate are not exempted from the definition of contribution and expenditure. Furthermore, pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 106.1(a):

Expenditures . . . made on behalf of more than one candidate shall be attributed to each candidate in proportion to, and shall be reported to reflect, the benefit reasonably expected to be derived.

Consequently, by making the expenditures to finance the debate, PEACE also made contributions to the Cranston for 5/ Page 4 of the interrogatories has "Berkley Company" listed as having made a $5,000 contribution to PEACE. In telephone conversations with General Counsel staff, Mark Fitzgerald indicated that the entry was a typographical error. The name Berkley Bedell was to have been listed as giving the $5,000 to PEACE. In fact, PEACE's 1983 Year End Report shows the contribution from Berkley Bedell.

President Committee, Inc. ("Cranston"), John Glenn Presidential Committee, Inc. ("Glenn"), Americans With Hart Committee, Inc. ("Hart") and the Mondale for President Committee, Inc. ("Mondale") each in the amount of $3,330.97. Since PEACE is not a multicandidate committee, the amounts contributed by it to the four presidential candidates over $1,000 are excessive contributions. Therefore, not only did PEACE fail to report the contributions made to the four candidates, and the four candidates each fail to report the receipt of the contributions from PEACE in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(1), but PEACE made, and the four candidates accepted an excessive contribution in the amount of $2,330.97 in violation of 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(a)(1)(A) and 441a(f), respectively.

DISCUSSION OF CONCILIATION PROVISIONS AND CIVIL PENALTY

The Bedell Committee and PEACE, through counsel's letter of May 31, expressed a desire to enter into negotiations directed toward reaching a conciliation agreement in this matter. The General Counsel's Office recommends that the Commission accept the proposal in an effort to conclude this matter as it pertains to the Bedell Committee and PEACE.

The Bedell Committee and PEACE violated the Act when the Bedell Committee made an excessive contribution of $11,000 in the form of a loan to PEACE and when PEACE accepted the excessive contribution in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(C) and 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f), respectively. PEACE sponsored the debate and hosted four presidential candidates, but failed to meet the

These disclosures were made to the Commission on a voluntary basis once both PEACE and the Bedell Committee realized that the loan from the Bedell Committee to PEACE was excessive. Both Committees, under their own initiative, took the appropriate steps to correct the loan violation prior to its voluntary disclosure to the Commission. Both Committees have fully cooperated with the Commission throughout the investigation. However, a violation has occurred and a civil penalty should be included in the conciliation agreement. RE: MUR 1695

Dear Mr. Brown:

I am writing in response to the letter dated May 14, 1984, from Lee Ann Elliot, Chairman, Federal Election Commission. At this time the People To Reelect Bedell and PEACE desire to enter into negotiations directed toward reaching a conciliation agreement pursuant to 11 C.F.R. §111.18(d). In that regard, I have enclosed for your file a completed Statement of Designation of Counsel authorizing me to represent the People To Reelect Bedell in this matter. A similar form designating me as counsel to PEACE will be forwarded to you shortly along with answers to the Interrogatories submitted by Ms. Elliot.

In Chairman Elliot's letter of May 14, 1984, she indicated that the Commission had found reason to believe that the People To Reelect Bedell had made an "excessive contribution" to PEACE. First, PEACE did not make any contribution to, or expenditures on behalf of, any identifiable candidates for federal office. PEACE's expenditures consisted primarily of staff and non-partisan mailing expenses, and expenses associated with the debate held on August 13, 1983. PEACE never supported or opposed any identifiable candidate for federal office. Its mission was an educational one designed to raise public awareness and provide information concerning the issue of nuclear arms control. The loan from the People To Reelect Bedell was used to help defray the costs of the August 13th debate and the other administrative expenses incurred by PEACE. Since the activities of PEACE did not benefit any particular candidate or candidates for federal office they were not attributed in that manner under 11 C.F.R. §106.1.

Second, it should be noted that the term "contribution" is defined in pertinent part as including "any gifts, subscription, loan, advance, or deposit of money or anything of value made by any person for the purpose of influencing any election for Federal Office " 2 U.S.C. § 431(8) (emphasis added). In the instant case the loan in question was not made for the purpose of influencing any election for Federal office since it was not made to assist any particular candidate or candidates. Therefore, the loan was not a "contribution" as defined under the Act and no violation of the Act has been committed by the People To Reelect Bedell in making this loan or by PEACE in accepting it.

Third, and most importantly, there was never any intention on the part of PEACE or the People To Reelect Bedell to violate Federal Election Laws. The parties involved were simply not aware that loans were treated like contributions under the Act. When the possible violation was discovered, both organizations took immediate steps to rescind the transaction and voluntarily disclosed the matter to the FEC. Additionally, both committees have retained legal counsel to advise them of Federal Election Law requirements so as to assure full compliance with FEC regulations in the future.

It is the desire of the People To Reelect Bedell and PEACE to reach a settlement with the FEC as expeditiously as possible. However, it is our firm position that any potential fine against the People To Reelect Bedell or PEACE should be minimal in light of the serious question of whether an actual violation has occurred, the voluntary disclosure of this matter to the FEC and the lack of any intent to violate the Federal Election Laws on the part of either organization. If the Commission is interested in commencing conciliation negotiations at this time, please contact me at your earliest convenience to discuss this matter.

Very truly yours,

RESPONDENT: Mondale for President Committee, Inc.
Michael S. Berman, as treasurer

SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

People Encouraging Arms Control Efforts ("PEACE") sponsored a debate which was held on August 13, 1983, at the Civic Center in Des Moines, Iowa. Four Presidential candidates including former Vice President Walter Mondale participated in the debate. According to 11 C.F.R. § 110.13:

A non-profit organization which is exempt from federal taxation under 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(3), and a non-profit organization which is exempt from federal taxation under 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(4) and which does not endorse, support or oppose political candidates or political parties may stage nonpartisan debates.

In addition, any funds provided to or used by such an organization for the purpose of defraying costs incurred in staging nonpartisan candidate debates are exempt from the definitions of contribution and expenditure. 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.7(b)(21) and 100.8(b)(23). Because PEACE does not qualify under 11 C.F.R. § 110.13, as a non-profit organization, the funds it used to finance the debate are not exempted from the definitions of contribution and expenditure. Furthermore, pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 106.1(a):

Expenditures . . . made on behalf of more than one candidate shall be attributed to each candidate in proportion to, and shall be reported to reflect, the benefit reasonably expected to be derived.

It appears that PEACE made expenditures in the amount of $13,323.86 as the result of its sponsorship of the debate. . Because there were four candidates in the debate, one fourth of the expenditure, or $3,330.97 must be attributed to each candidate.

Consequently, by making the expenditures to finance the debate, PEACE also made an excessive contribution to the Mondale for President Committee, Inc. ("Mondale") in the amount of $2,330.97, which the Mondale Committee and Michael Berman, as treasurer, accepted in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

Additionally, the Mondale Committee and Michael S. Berman, as treasurer, failed to report the $3,330.97 contribution from PEACE in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(1).

It appears that PEACE made expenditures in the amount of $13,323.86 as the result of its sponsorship of the debate. . . Because there were four candidates on the debate, one fourth of the expenditure, or $3,330.97 must be attributed to each candidate.

Consequently, by making the expenditures to finance the debate, PEACE also made an excessive contribution to the Cranston for President Committee, Inc., ("Cranston") in the amount of $2,330.97, which the Cranston Committee and William Landau, as treasurer, accepted in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f). Additionally, the Cranston Committee and William M. Landau, as treasurer, failed to report the $3,330.97 contribution from PEACE in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(1).

Re: P.E.A.C.E., MUR # 1695

Dear Mr. Brown:

This is to confirm in writing the typographical error discussed in our conversation of June 19, 1984. In P.E.A.C.E.'s itemized receipts and expenses submitted in response to the F.E.C.'s Interrogatories, a $5,000 loan from Berkley Bedell was mistakenly listed as a receipt from Bedell Company. This fact is confirmed by P.E.A.C.E.'s year end report for 1983, which lists on Schedule C a loan of $1,000 from Berkley Bedell on February 12, 1983, and a loan of $4,000 on March 9, 1983, from Berkley Bedell.

The loan taken by P.E.A.C.E. from Toy National Bank, Sioux City, Iowa, to repay the People To Reelect Bedell Committee was made on January 26, 1984.

RE: MUR 1695
People Encouraging Arms
Control Efforts
John T. O'Brien, as treasurer

Dear Mr. O'Brien:

On May 8, 1984, the Federal Election Commission determined that there is reason to believe that People Encouraging Arms Control Efforts and you, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) a provision of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act") by accepting an excessive contribution from the People to Reelect Bedell Committee. The General Counsel's factual and legal analysis, which formed a basis for the Commission's finding, is attached for your information.

Under the Act, you have an opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken against you and the committee. Please submit any factual or legal materials which you believe are relevant to the Commission's consideration of this matter. Additionally, please submit answers to the enclosed questions within ten days of your receipt of this letter. Statement should be submitted under oath.

In the absence of any additional information which demonstrates that no further action should be taken against your committee and you, as treasurer, the Commission may find probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred and proceed with conciliation. Of course, this does not preclude the settlement of this matter through conciliation prior to a finding of probable cause to believe if so desired. See 11 C.F.R. § 111.18(d).

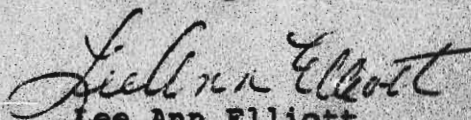

If you intend to be represented by counsel in this matter, please advise the Commission by completing the enclosed form stating the name, address and telephone number of such counsel, and a statement authorizing such counsel to receive any notifications and other communications from the Commission.

Letter to John T. O'Brien

The investigation now being conducted will be confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. §§ 437g(a)(4)(B) and 437g(a)(12)(A), unless you notify the Commission in writing that you wish the investigation to be made public.

For your information, we have attached a brief description of the Commission's procedures for handling possible violations of the Act. If you have any questions, please contact Duane A. Brown, the attorney assigned this matter, at (202)523-4000.

MUR # 1695

SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

Mark Fitzgerald, Esq., voluntarily contacted General Counsel staff for the purpose of providing information regarding the possible violation of the Act by his client, People to Reelect Bedell ("the Bedell Committee").

8 4 0 4 0 4 8 0 5 8 6
In filing the information with the Commission, the Bedell Committee states that it made a loan of $16,000 in five installments to a group known as People Encouraging Arms Control Efforts ("PEACE"). The source of the funds came from excess campaign funds of the Bedell Committee from the 1983 General Election. The loan was used to help finance a debate among five presidential candidates in Iowa. The debate was held on August 13, 1983, and a ten dollar admission fee was charged by PEACE to defray the cost of staging the debate. The proceeds of the loan from the Bedell Committee were used to pay some of the remaining expenses.

The debate was said to be the sole political activity of PEACE during 1983. Further, the Bedell Committee asserts that the debate was a nonpartisan event and at no time during 1983 did PEACE make any contributions to, or expenditures on behalf of any identifiable candidates for federal office. The submission further states that the officers of the Bedell Committee and PEACE were not aware that loans between committees were subject to the contribution limitations. Once advised to the contrary by Fitzgerald, PEACE obtained a loan in the amount of $11,000 from a bank and repaid the Bedell Committee bringing the loan from the Bedell Committee to PEACE to $5,000. The $11,000 loan was then guaranteed by three individuals, so as not to exceed the contribution limitations.

The Bedell Committee continues by arguing that the spirit of the law was not violated since PEACE made no contribution to or expenditure on behalf of any candidate for Federal office.

Moreover, the Committee argues, the loan was not intended to be used to support any particular candidate for Federal office, but, instead, to finance a non-partisan educational debate. Under these circumstances, the Committee argues that any possible infraction should be seen as deminimis.

FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(C) states that:

No person<sup>1/</sup> shall make contributions<sup>2/</sup> . . . to any other political committee in any calendar year which, in the aggregate, exceed $5,000.

Therefore, it appears that by loaning PEACE $16,000 in 1983, the Bedell Committee and James C. Walsh, as treasurer made an excessive contribution to PEACE totalling $11,000 in violation of

2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(C). 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) states that:

No candidate or political committee shall knowingly accept any contribution . . . in violation of the provision of this section.

<sup>2/</sup> 2 U.S.C. § 431(8)(A)(i) defines the term "contribution" to include loans.

Consequently, by accepting the excessive contribution, PEACE and John T. O'Brien, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

Counsel for the Bedell Committee further argues that the debate was the sole political activity of PEACE, that PEACE did not make contributions to or expenditures on behalf of any identifiable candidates for federal office and that PEACE did not receive any earmarked contributions on behalf of any identifiable candidates for federal office. Counsel goes on to conclude that if PEACE were a tax-exempt organization, the loan it received from the Bedell Committee would be exempt from the contribution limitations pursuant to 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.7(b)(21) and 110.13. According to 11 C.F.R. § 110.13:

A non-profit organization which is exempt from federal taxation under 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(3), and a non-profit organization which is exempt from federal taxation under 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(4) and which does not endorse, support or oppose political candidates or political parties may stage nonpartisan debates.

In addition any funds provided to or used by such an organization for the purpose of defraying costs incurred in staging nonpartisan candidate debates are exempt from the definitions of contribution and expenditure. 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.7(b)(21) and 100.8(b)(23). Based on statements in Counsel's submission, it appears that PEACE does not qualify as a non-profit organization under 11 C.F.R. § 110.13. Consequently, the funds PEACE received and used to finance the debate may not be exempted from the definitions of contribution and expenditure. Furthermore, pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 106.1(a):

Expenditures . . . made on behalf of more than one candidate shall be attributed to each candidate in proportion to, and shall be reported to reflect, the benefit reasonably expected to be derived.

Based on the foregoing, the Office of the General Counsel recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that People Encouraging Arms Control Efforts and John T. O'Brien, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

RE: MUR 1695
People to Reelect Bedell
James C. Walsh, as treasurer

Dear Mr. Fitzgerald:

On May 8, 1984, the Federal Election Commission determined that there is reason to believe that your clients, People to Reelect Bedell and James C. Walsh, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(C), a provision of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act") by making an excessive contribution to People Encouraging Arms Control Efforts. The General Counsel's factual and legal analysis, which formed a basis for the Commission's finding, is attached for your information.

Under the Act, you have an opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken against your clients. Please submit any factual or legal materials which you believe are relevant to the Commission's consideration of this matter.

In the absence of any additional information which demonstrates that no further action should be taken against your clients, the Commission may find probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred and proceed with conciliation. Of course, this does not preclude the settlement of this matter through conciliation prior to a finding of probable cause to believe if so desired. See 11 C.F.R. § 111.18(d).

The investigation now being conducted will be confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. §§ 437g(a)(4)(B) and 437g(a)(12)(A), unless you notify the Commission in writing that you wish the investigation to be made public.

MUR # 1695

SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

Mark Fitzgerald, Esq., voluntarily contacted General Counsel staff for the purpose of providing information regarding the possible violation of the Act by his client, People to Reelect Bedell ("the Bedell Committee").

In filing the information with the Commission, the Bedell Committee states that it made a loan of $16,000 in five installments to a group known as People Encouraging Arms Control Efforts ("PEACE"). The source of the funds came from excess campaign funds of the Bedell Committee from the 1983 General Election. The loan was used to help finance a debate among five presidential candidates in Iowa. The debate was held on August 13, 1983, and a ten dollar admission fee was charged by PEACE to defray the cost of staging the debate. The proceeds of the loan from the Bedell Committee were used to pay some of the remaining expenses.

The debate was said to be the sole political activity of PEACE during 1983. Further, the Bedell Committee asserts that the debate was a nonpartisan event and at no time during 1983 did PEACE make any contributions to, or expenditures on behalf of any identifiable candidates for federal office. The submission further states that the officers of the Bedell Committee and PEACE were not aware that loans between committees were subject to the contribution limitations. Once advised to the contrary by Fitzgerald, PEACE obtained a loan in the amount of $11,000 from a bank and repaid the Bedell Committee bringing the loan from the Bedell Committee to PEACE to $5,000. The $11,000 loan was then guaranteed by three individuals, so as not to exceed the contribution limitations.

The Bedell Committee continues by arguing that the spirit of the law was not violated since PEACE made no contribution to or expenditure on behalf of any candidate for Federal office. Moreover, the Committee argues, the loan was not intended to be used to support any particular candidate for Federal office, but, instead, to finance a non-partisan educational debate. Under these circumstances, the Committee argues that any possible infraction should be seen as deminimis.

FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(C) states that:

No person<sup>1/</sup> shall make contributions<sup>2/</sup> . . .
to any other political committee in any calendar year which, in the aggregate, exceed $5,000.

Therefore, it appears that by loaning PEACE $16,000 in 1983, the Bedell Committee made an excessive contribution to PEACE totalling $11,000 in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(C).

2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) states that:

No candidate or political committee shall knowingly accept any contribution . . . in violation of the provision of this section.

1/ 2 U.S.C. § 431(11) defines the term "person" to include political committees.

2/ 2 U.S.C. § 431(8)(A)(i) defines the term "contribution" to include loans.

Consequently, by accepting the excessive contribution, PEACE violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

Counsel for the Bedell Committee further argues that the debate was the sole political activity of PEACE, that PEACE did not make contributions to or expenditures on behalf of any identifiable candidates for federal office and that PEACE did not receive any earmarked contributions on behalf of any identifiable candidates for federal office. Counsel goes on to conclude that if PEACE were a tax-exempt organization, the loan it received from the Bedell Committee would be exempt from the contribution limitations pursuant to 11.C.F.R. §§ 100.7(b)(21) and 110.13. According to 11 C.F.R. § 110.13:

A non-profit organization which is exempt from federal taxation under 26 U.S.C. §501(c)(3), and a non-profit organization which is exempt from federal taxation under 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(4) and which does not endorse, support or oppose political candidates or political parties may stage nonpartisan debates.

In addition any funds provided to or used by such an organization for the purpose of defraying costs incurred in staging nonpartisan candidate debates are exempt from the definitions of contribution and expenditure. 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.7(b)(21) and 100.8(b)(23). Based on statements in Counsel's submission, it appears that PEACE does not qualify as a non-profit organization under 11 C.F.R. § 110.13. Consequently, the funds PEACE received and used to finance the debate may not be exempted from the definitions of contribution and expenditure. Furthermore, pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 106.1(a):

Expenditures . . . made on behalf of more than one candidate shall be attributed to each candidate in proportion to, and shall be reported to reflect, the benefit reasonably expected to be derived.

Based on the foregoing, the Office of the General Counsel recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that People to Reelect Bedell and James C. Walsh, as treasurer, violated
2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(C).

RE: MUR 1695

Dear Mr. Brown:

I am writing in response to the letter dated May 14, 1984, from Lee Ann Elliot, Chairman, Federal Election Commission. At this time the People To Reelect Bedell and PEACE desire to enter into negotiations directed toward reaching a conciliation agreement pursuant to 11 C.F.R. §111.18(d). In that regard, I have enclosed for your file a completed Statement of Designation of Counsel authorizing me to represent the People To Reelect Bedell in this matter. A similar form designating me as counsel to PEACE will be forwarded to you shortly along with answers to the Interrogatories submitted by Ms. Elliot.

In Chairman Elliot's letter of May 14, 1984, she indicated that the Commission had found reason to believe that the People To Reelect Bedell had made an "excessive contribution" to PEACE. First, PEACE did not make any contribution to, or expenditures on behalf of, any identifiable candidates for federal office. PEACE's expenditures consisted primarily of staff and non-partisan mailing expenses, and expenses associated with the debate held on August 13, 1983. PEACE never supported or opposed any identifiable candidate for federal office. Its mission was an educational one designed to raise public awareness and provide information concerning the issue of nuclear arms control. The loan from the People To Reelect Bedell was used to help defray the costs of the August 13th debate and the other administrative expenses incurred by PEACE. Since the activities of PEACE did not benefit any particular candidate or candidates for federal office they were not attributed in that manner under 11 C.F.R. §106.1.

Second, it should be noted that the term "contribution" is defined in pertinent part as including "any gifts, subscription, loan, advance, or deposit of money or anything of value made by any person for the purpose of influencing any election for Federal Office;" 2 U.S.C. § 431(8) (emphasis added). In the instant case the loan in question was not made for the purpose of influencing any election for Federal office since it was not made to assist any particular candidate or candidates. Therefore, the loan was not a "contribution" as defined under the Act and no violation of the Act has been committed by the People To Reelect Bedell in making this loan or by PEACE in accepting it.

Third, and most importantly, there was never any intention on the part of PEACE or the People To Reelect Bedell to violate Federal Election Laws. The parties involved were simply not aware that loans were treated like contributions under the Act. When the possible violation was discovered, both organizations took immediate steps to rescind the transaction and voluntarily disclosed the matter to the FEC. Additionally, both committees have retained legal counsel to advise them of Federal Election Law requirements so as to assure full compliance with FEC regulations in the future.

It is the desire of the People To Reelect Bedell and PEACE to reach a settlement with the FEC as expeditiously as possible. However, it is our firm position that any potential fine against the People To Reelect Bedell or PEACE should be minimal in light of the serious question of whether an actual violation has occurred, the voluntary disclosure of this matter to the FEC and the lack of any intent to violate the Federal Election Laws on the part of either organization. If the Commission is interested in commencing conciliation negotiations at this time, please contact me at your earliest convenience to discuss this matter.

Very truly yours,

The debate was said to be the sole political activity of PEACE during 1983. Further, the Bedell Committee asserts that the debate was a nonpartisan event and at no time during 1983 did PEACE make any contributions to, or expenditures on behalf of any identifiable candidates for federal office. The submission further states that the officers of the Bedell Committee and PEACE were not aware that loans between committees were subject to the contribution limitations. Once advised to the contrary by Fitzgerald, PEACE obtained a loan in the amount of $11,000 from a bank and repaid the Bedell Committee bringing the loan from the Bedell Committee to PEACE to $5,000. The $11,000 loan was then guaranteed by three individuals, so as not to exceed the contribution limitations.

The Bedell Committee continues by arguing that the spirit of the law was not violated since PEACE made no contribution to or expenditure on behalf of any candidate for Federal office. Moreover, the Committee argues, the loan was not intended to be used to support any particular candidate for Federal office, but, instead, to finance a non-partisan educational debate. Under these circumstances, the Committee argues that any possible infraction should be seen as deminimis.

FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(C) states that:

No person<sup>1/</sup> shall make contributions<sup>2/</sup> . . .
to any other political committee in any calendar year which, in the aggregate, exceed $5,000.

Therefore, it appears that by loaning PEACE $16,000 in 1983, the Bedell Committee and James C. Walsh, as treasurer, made an excessive contribution to PEACE totalling $11,000 in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(C). 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) states that:

No candidate or political committee shall knowingly accept any contribution . . . in violation of the provision of this section.

Consequently, by accepting the excessive contribution, PEACE and John T. O'Brien, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

Counsel for the Bedell Committee further argues that the debate was the sole political activity of PEACE, that PEACE did not make contributions to or expenditures on behalf of any identifiable candidates for federal office and that PEACE did not receive any earmarked contributions on behalf of any identifiable candidates for federal office. Counsel goes on to conclude that if PEACE were a tax-exempt organization, the loan it received from the Bedell Committee would be exempt from the contribution limitations pursuant to 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.7(b)(21) and 110.13.

<sup>1/</sup> 2 U.S.C. § 431(11) defines the term "person" to include political committees.

<sup>2/</sup> 2 U.S.C. § 431(8)(A)(i) defines the term "contribution" to include loans.

According to 11 C.F.R. § 110.13:

A non-profit organization which is exempt from federal taxation under 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(3), and a non-profit organization which is exempt from federal taxation under 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(4) and which does not endorse, support or oppose political candidates or political parties may stage nonpartisan debates.

In addition any funds provided to or used by such an organization for the purpose of defraying costs incurred in staging nonpartisan candidate debates are exempt from the definitions of contribution and expenditure. 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.7(b)(21) and 100.8(b)(23). Based on statements in Counsel's submission, it appears that PEACE does not qualify as a non-profit organization under 11 C.F.R. § 110.13. Consequently, the funds PEACE received and used to finance the debate may not be exempted from the definitions of contribution and expenditure. Furthermore, pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 106.1(a):

Expenditures . . . made on behalf of more than one candidate shall be attributed to each candidate in proportion to, and shall be reported to reflect, the benefit reasonably expected to be derived.

The 1983 Reports of Receipts and Disbursements filed by PEACE do not clearly indicate the amount which may have been spent by PEACE to sponsor the debate. In addition, neither the reports nor Counsel's submission indicates which presidential candidates were present at the debate.

Accordingly, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission open a MUR and find reason to believe that the Bedell Committee and James C. Walsh, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(C) and that PEACE and John T. O'Brien, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f). In order to ascertain the total amount spent on the debate and the total which may be allocable to each of the five presidential candidates, interrogatories have been drafted to PEACE in an effort to clarify concerns not answered by the reports or the submission.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Open a MUR.
2. Find reason to believe the People to Reelect Bedell Committee and James C. Walsh, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(C).
3. Find reason to believe People Encouraging Arms Control Efforts and John T. O'Brien, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

Moreover, the Committee argues, the loan was not intended to be used to support any particular candidate for Federal office, but, instead, to finance a non-partisan educational debate. Under these circumstances, the Committee argues that any possible infraction should be seen as deminimis.

FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

2 U.S.C. § 441a(a) (1) (C) states that:

No person<sup>1/</sup> shall make contributions<sup>2/</sup> . . .
to any other political committee in any calendar year which, in the aggregate, exceed $5,000.

Therefore, it appears that by loaning PEACE $16,000 in 1983, the Bedell Committee and James C. Walsh, as treasurer made an excessive contribution to PEACE totalling $11,000 in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a) (1) (C). 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) states that:

No candidate or political committee shall knowingly accept any contribution . . . in violation of the provision of this section.

1/ 2 U.S.C. § 431(11) defines the term "person" to include political committees.

2/ 2 U.S.C. § 431(8) (A) (i) defines the term "contribution" to include loans.

Consequently, by accepting the excessive contribution, PEACE and John T. O'Brien, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

Counsel for the Bedell Committee further argues that the debate was the sole political activity of PEACE, that PEACE did not make contributions to or expenditures on behalf of any identifiable candidates for federal office and that PEACE did not receive any earmarked contributions on behalf of any identifiable candidates for federal office. Counsel goes on to conclude that if PEACE were a tax-exempt organization, the loan it received from the Bedell Committee would be exempt from the contribution limitations pursuant to 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.7(b)(21) and 110.13. According to 11 C.F.R. § 110.13:

A non-profit organization which is exempt from federal taxation under 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(3), and a non-profit organization which is exempt from federal taxation under 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(4) and which does not endorse, support or oppose political candidates or political parties may stage nonpartisan debates.

In addition any funds provided to or used by such an organization for the purpose of defraying costs incurred in staging nonpartisan candidate debates are exempt from the definitions of contribution and expenditure. 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.7(b)(21) and 100.8(b)(23). Based on statements in Counsel's submission, it appears that PEACE does not qualify as a non-profit organization under 11 C.F.R. § 110.13. Consequently, the funds PEACE received and used to finance the debate may not be exempted from the definitions

of contribution and expenditure. Furthermore, pursuant to

11 C.F.R. § 106.1(a):

Expenditures . . . made on behalf of more than one candidate shall be attributed to each candidate in proportion to, and shall be reported to reflect, the benefit reasonably expected to be derived.

Based on the foregoing, the Office of the General Counsel recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that People to Reelect Bedell and James C. Walsh, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(C).

SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

Mark Fitzgerald, Esq., voluntarily contacted General Counsel staff for the purpose of providing information regarding the possible violation of the Act by his client, People to Reelect Bedell ("the Bedell Committee").

In filing the information with the Commission, the Bedell Committee states that it made a loan of $16,000 in five installments to a group known as People Encouraging Arms Control Efforts ("PEACE"). The source of the funds came from excess campaign funds of the Bedell Committee from the 1983 General Election. The loan was used to help finance a debate among five presidential candidates in Iowa. The debate was held on August 13, 1983, and a ten dollar admission fee was charged by PEACE to defray the cost of staging the debate. The proceeds of the loan from the Bedell Committee were used to pay some of the remaining expenses.

The debate was said to be the sole political activity of PEACE during 1983. Further, the Bedell Committee asserts that the debate was a nonpartisan event and at no time during 1983 did PEACE make any contributions to, or expenditures on behalf of any identifiable candidates for federal office. The submission further states that the officers of the Bedell Committee and PEACE were not aware that loans between committees were subject to the contribution limitations. Once advised to the contrary by Fitzgerald, PEACE obtained a loan in the amount of $11,000 from a bank and repaid the Bedell Committee bringing the loan from the Bedell Committee to PEACE to $5,000. The $11,000 loan was then guaranteed by three individuals, so as not to exceed the contribution limitations.

The Bedell Committee continues by arguing that the spirit of the law was not violated since PEACE made no contribution to or expenditure on behalf of any candidate for Federal office. Moreover, the Committee argues, the loan was not intended to be used to support any particular candidate for Federal office, but, instead, to finance a non-partisan educational debate. Under these circumstances, the Committee argues that any possible infraction should be seen as deminimis.

FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(C) states that:

No person<sup>1/</sup> shall make contributions<sup>2/</sup> . . . to any other political committee in any calendar year which, in the aggregate, exceed $5,000.

Therefore, it appears that by loaning PEACE $16,000 in 1983, the Bedell Committee made an excessive contribution to PEACE totalling $11,000 in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(C).

2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) states that:

No candidate or political committee shall knowingly accept any contribution . . . in violation of the provision of this section.

1/ 2 U.S.C. § 431(11) defines the term "person" to include political committees.

2/ 2 U.S.C. § 431(8)(A)(i) defines the term "contribution" to include loans.

Consequently, by accepting the excessive contribution, PEACE violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

Counsel for the Bedell Committee further argues that the debate was the sole political activity of PEACE, that PEACE did not make contributions to or expenditures on behalf of any identifiable candidates for federal office and that PEACE did not receive any earmarked contributions on behalf of any identifiable candidates for federal office. Counsel goes on to conclude that if PEACE were a tax-exempt organization, the loan it received from the Bedell Committee would be exempt from the contribution limitations pursuant to 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.7(b)(21) and 110.13.

According to 11 C.F.R. § 110.13:

A non-profit organization which is exempt from federal taxation under 26 U.S.C. §501(c)(3), and a non-profit organization which is exempt from federal taxation under 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(4) and which does not endorse, support or oppose political candidates or political parties may stage nonpartisan debates.

In addition any funds provided to or used by such an organization for the purpose of defraying costs incurred in staging nonpartisan candidate debates are exempt from the definitions of contribution and expenditure. 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.7(b)(21) and 100.8(b)(23). Based on statements in Counsel's submission, it appears that PEACE does not qualify as a non-profit organization under 11 C.F.R. § 110.13. Consequently, the funds PEACE received and used to finance the debate may not be exempted from the definitions of contribution and expenditure. Furthermore, pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 106.1(a):

Expenditures . . . made on behalf of more than one candidate shall be attributed to each candidate in proportion to, and shall be reported to reflect, the benefit reasonably expected to be derived.

Based on the foregoing, the Office of the General Counsel recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that People Encouraging Arms Control Efforts and John T. O'Brien, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

Dear Mr. Gross:

This office has recently been retained by a political committee known as the People To Reelect Bedell to represent and advise it concerning compliance with federal election law. People To Reelect Bedell is the authorized political committee of Representative Berkley W. Bedell of the Sixth District of Iowa. After consulting with the Bedell Committee and your office I am hereby submitting on behalf of the Committee this voluntary disclosure of a possible infraction of FEC regulations. It is the desire of the People to Reelect Bedell to fully comply with the federal election laws. Accordingly, it has taken steps to correct this matter on its own initiative and is now voluntarily disclosing this transaction to the FEC.

The matter which has concerned the Committee involves a loan of $16,000 which was made during 1983 to a political committee entitled PEACE (People Encouraging Arms Control Efforts). The loan was made in five installments, dated May 9, July 6, September 13, October 31, and December 9, 1983. Copies of the cancelled checks have been enclosed for your review. The source of funds for this loan were excess campaign funds of the People To Reelect Bedell from the 1982 general election. The loan was made to help finance a debate sponsored by PEACE among five of the presidential candidates. The Debate was held at the Des Moines, Iowa, Civic Center on August 13, 1983. A ten dollar admission fee was charged by PEACE to help defray the costs of staging the debate. The proceeds of the loan from the People to Reelect Bedell were used to pay some of the remaining expenses.

The August 13th debate was the sole political activity of PEACE during 1983. The debate was a nonpartisan event and at no time during 1983 did PEACE make any contributions to, or expenditures on behalf of, any identifiable candidates for federal office. Furthermore, PEACE did not receive any earmarked contributions for identifiable candidates for federal office. Thus, it is clear that were PEACE a tax exempt organization, the loan it received from the People To Reelect Bedell would be exempt from the contribution limitations pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 100.7 (b)(21) and § 110.13.

The officers of People To Reelect Bedell and PEACE were not aware that loans to political committees were equivalent to contributions and subject to the contribution limitations until they consulted with me in January of 1984. Since being advised of this potential violation they have rescinded the transaction. PEACE has taken a loan for $11,000 from a federally insured bank and repaid the People To Reelect Bedell. This brings the Bedell Committee's loan to PEACE for 1983 within the $5,000 contribution limit. The loan has been guaranteed by three individuals so that no guarantor violates the contribution limitation.

In reviewing this transaction it is requested that the FEC consider the following significant factors:

1. The People To Reelect Bedell did not intentionally violate the federal election laws. They were not aware that loans to political committees were subject to the contributions limitations.
2. Upon learning of a potential election law violation the People To Reelect Bedell and PEACE voluntarily rescinded the transaction. This was done without any inquiry or request by the FEC.
3. The People To Reelect Bedell, with the full consent and cooperation of PEACE, have voluntarily reported this matter to the FEC.
4. The staff of the People to Reelect Bedell and PEACE have been advised of the federal election law requirements to prevent this type of problem from occurring in the future.

Finally, it is submitted that the spirit of the federal election laws was not violated. The contribution limitations are intended to prevent excessive contributions to identified candidates for federal office and the potential for corruption incident thereto. In the instant case, PEACE made no contributions to, or expenditures on behalf of, any identifiable candidate for federal office. Moreover, the People to Reelect Bedell loan was not intended for or used to support any particular candidate for federal office. It was used to partially finance a non-partisan educational debate. Under these circumstances, any possible infraction should be considered de minimis.

The People to Reelect Bedell and PEACE wish to cooperate fully with the FEC and comply with all FEC regulations. Copies of the Committee's and PEACE's year-end reports are enclosed with this letter. Should you have any questions or require additional information please call me and we will use our best efforts to comply with your requests.

Very truly yours,

RE: MUR
People Encouraging Arms
Control Efforts
John T. O'Brien, as treasurer

Dear Mr. O'Brien:

On , 1984, the Federal Election Commission determined that there is reason to believe that People Encouraging Arms Control Efforts and you, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) a provision of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act") by accepting an excessive contribution from the People to Reelect Bedell Committee. The General Counsel's factual and legal analysis, which formed a basis for the Commission's finding, is attached for your information.

Under the Act, you have an opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken against you and the committee. Please submit any factual or legal materials which you believe are relevant to the Commission's consideration of this matter. Additionally, please submit answers to the enclosed questions within ten days of your receipt of this letter. Statement should be submitted under oath.

In the absence of any additional information which demonstrates that no further action should be taken against your committee and you, as treasurer, the Commission may find probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred and proceed with conciliation. Of course, this does not preclude the settlement of this matter through conciliation prior to a finding of probable cause to believe if so desired. See 11 C.F.R. § 111.18(d).

If you intend to be represented by counsel in this matter, please advise the Commission by completing the enclosed form stating the name, address and telephone number of such counsel, and a statement authorizing such counsel to receive any notifications and other communications from the Commission.

12 DAY REPORT

RESPONDENT'S NAME: People to Reelect Bedell
People Encouraging Arms Control Efforts
RELEVANT STATUTE: 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a) (1) (C)
2 U.S.C. § 441a(f)

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

On his own volition, Mark Fitzgerald contacted General Counsel staff for the purpose of providing information regarding the possible violation of the Act by his client, People to Reelect Bedell ("the Bedell Committee"). In filing the information with the Commission, the Bedell Committee states that it made a loan of $16,000 in five installments to a group known as People Encouraging Arms Control Efforts ("PEACE"). The source of the funds came from excess campaign funds of the Bedell Committee from the 1982 General Election. The loan was used to help finance a debate among five presidential candidates in Iowa.

The debate was said to be the sole political activity of PEACE during 1983. Further, the Bedell Committee asserts that PEACE made no contributions to or expenditures on behalf of any identifiable candidates for Federal office. The submission further states that the officers of the Bedell Committee and PEACE were not aware that loans between committees were subject to the contribution limitations. Once advised to the contrary by Fitzgerald, PEACE obtained a loan in the amount of $11,000 from a bank and repaid the Bedell Committee bringing the loan from the Bedell Committee to PEACE to $5,000. The $11,000 loan was then guaranteed by three individuals, so as not to exceed the contribution limitations.

The Bedell Committee continues by arguing that the spirit of the law was not violated since PEACE made no contribution to or expenditure on behalf of any candidate for Federal office. Moreover, the Committee argues, the loan was not intended to be used to support any particular candidate for Federal office, but, instead, to finance a non-partisan educational debate. Under these circumstances, the Committee argues that any possible infraction should be seen as de minimis. However, another issue which remains is whether a political committee such as PEACE is permitted, under the Act, to sponsor a non-partisan debate. If not, is the money used to finance the debate attributable as a contribution to the candidates who appeared? The Bedell Committee voluntarily notified the Commission of the fact that a violation had occurred. PEACE corrected the problem by obtaining a bank loan and repaying the Bedell Committee. Thus, if PEACE's actions in sponsoring the debate were permissible, my recommendation will be to open a MUR, find RTB but take no further action and close the file.

STATEMENT OF PRELIMINARY DISCOVERY PLAN

There does not appear to be any additional information needed to establish the elements of this violation, except for possibly obtaining the amount expended by PEACE in conducting the debate and determining which candidates were involved.
