RE: MUR 1890
Stanley Harrison
Edythe Harrison for U.S. Senate
Alvin A. Wall, as treasurer

Dear Mr. Bauer:

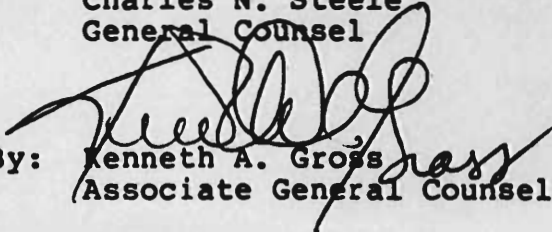

On July 1, 1985, the Commission accepted the conciliation agreement signed by you in settlement of violations of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f), 441a(a)(1)(A) and 434(b)(3)(A), provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended.

Accordingly, the file has been closed in this matter, and it will become a part of the public record within thirty days. However, 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(B) prohibits any information derived in connection with any conciliation attempt from becoming public without the written consent of the respondent and the Commission. Should you wish any such information to become part of the public record, please advise us in writing.

Enclosed you will find a fully executed copy of the final conciliation agreement for your files.

This matter was initiated by the Federal Election Commission (hereinafter "the Commission"), pursuant to information ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities. The Commission found reason to believe that the Edythe Harrison for U.S. Senate Committee ("the Committee") and Alvin A. Wall, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) by accepting a contribution which exceeded the limitations in 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A), and that the Committee and Alvin A. Wall, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A) by improperly reporting the receipt of a contribution, and that Stanley L. Harrison violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) by making an excessive contribution to the Committee.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Commission and Respondents, having participated in informal methods of conciliation, prior to a finding of probable cause to believe, do hereby agree as follows:

RECEIVED
GENERAL COUNSEL
JUN 5
ALL: 56

I. The Commission has jurisdiction over the Respondents, and the subject matter of this proceeding, and this agreement has the effect of an agreement entered pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(A)(i).

II. Respondents have had a reasonable opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken in this matter.

III. Respondents enter voluntarily into this agreement with the Commission.

IV. The pertinent facts in this matter are as follows:

1. Respondent, Edythe Harrison for U.S. Senate Committee, was the principal campaign committee for Edythe Harrison, a candidate for the U.S. Senate in 1984.
2. Respondent, Alvin A. Wall, is the treasurer of the Committee.
3. Respondent, Stanley L. Harrison, is the husband of Edythe Harrison.
4. Respondents contend that, in the course of Edythe Harrison's campaign for the United States Senate, Mrs. Harrison and Stanley Harrison discussed the Committee's immediate need for additional funding and the alternatives for securing such funding, including a bank loan. Respondents further contend that neither Edythe Harrison nor Stanley Harrison had any prior familiarity with the treatment of bank loans under the Federal Election Campaign Act ("the Act"), and particularly the limitations on contributions applicable to loans and on the security provided for a loan by a candidate's spouse or any other person.

5. On June 29, 1984, Mr. Harrison obtained a $100,000 loan from the Dominion National Bank of Greater Hampton Roads, used as security a non-transferable certificate of deposit issued in his name, and transferred the proceeds to the Committee.
6. Within 30 days of the receipt of the bank loan in question, Edythe Harrison and Stanley Harrison learned for the first time that the Dominion National Bank loan, and the security for the loan in the form of a certificate of deposit in the name of Stanley Harrison, caused Mr. Harrison to exceed the statutory limitations on individual contributions to the Committee. The Committee promptly retained counsel, refinanced the loan lawfully in accordance with the requirements of the Act, and notified the Commission of the apparent violation and its intention to pursue settlement under the relevant provisions of the Act.
7. Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A), it is unlawful for any person to make a contribution to a candidate and his or her authorized committees which, in the aggregate per election, exceeds $1,000.

8. Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f), it is unlawful for a candidate or political committee to knowingly accept a contribution in excess of the limitations in 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).
9. Respondents contend that, owing to Committee misunderstanding over the Act's treatment of the Dominion National Bank loan, including the security provided by Stanley L. Harrison, the Committee's July quarterly report for 1984 disclosed the funds received from Mr. Harrison as a personal loan to the Committee from candidate Edythe Harrison.
10. 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A) requires the treasurer of a political committee to disclose the identification of each person who makes a contribution to the reporting committee during the reporting period, whose contribution or contributions have an aggregate amount or value in excess of $200 within the calendar year, together with the date and amount of any such contribution.

V. Respondents agree that:

1. The transactions described in paragraph 5 above constituted a contribution by Respondent Stanley L. Harrison in violation of the $1,000 limitation imposed by 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) and, that Respondents the Committee and Alvin A. Wall, as Treasurer, accepted the contribution in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

85040550114

2. Respondents the Committee and Alvin A. Wall, as Treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A) by improperly reporting the receipt of a contribution from Mr. Stanley Harrison.

VI. Respondents will pay a civil penalty to the Treasurer of the United States in the amount of Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000), pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(5)(A).

VII. Respondents will file with the Commission an amended report of receipts and disbursements which will accurately reflect the contribution received from Mr. Stanley L. Harrison.

VIII. Respondents agree that they shall not undertake any activity which is in violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, 2 U.S.C. § 431, et seq.

IX. The Commission, on request of anyone filing a complaint under 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(1) concerning the matters at issue herein or on its own motion, may review compliance with this agreement. If the Commission believes that this agreement or any requirement thereof has been violated, it may institute a civil action for relief in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia.

X. This agreement shall become effective as of the date that all parties hereto have executed same and the Commission has approved the entire agreement.

XI. Respondents shall have no more than thirty (30) days from the date this agreement becomes effective to comply with and implement the requirements contained in this agreement and to so notify the Commission.

XII. This Conciliation Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties on the matters raised herein, and no other statement, promise or agreement, either written or oral, made by either party or by agents of either party, that is not contained in this written agreement shall be valid.

Re: MUR No. 1890

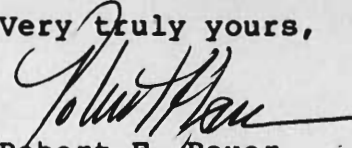

Dear Beverly:

Pursuant to our telephone conversation last week, I am submitting on behalf of Edythe Harrison this statement of her equity share in the residence used as collateral for the refinancing of the Dominion Bank loan.

In August 1983, in connection with family tax planning, Mr. Harrison transferred to Mrs. Harrison a full and undivided interest in their personal residence. Prior to that time, the residence had been jointly owned by the Harrisons. It is my understanding from communications with the Harrison family estate planning advisors, that the purpose of the transfer related to estate planning benefits achieved with respect to the unified credit available under the estate and gift tax provisions of the Internal Revenue Code.

A copy of the Deed of Gift effecting this transfer, dated August 30, 1983, is attached. At the time that the loan at issue in this matter was refinanced, with Mrs. Harrison's residence as collateral, appraisals were procured from two qualified real estate appraisers which established the fair market value of the residence in the range of $275,000 to $300,000. Copies of these appraisal reports are also attached. As you will note, the established fair market value of the property was more than sufficient to secure the Dominion Bank loan of $100,000.

If you have additional questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

Re: 7305 Barberry Lane
Norfolk, Virginia

Dear Mr. Harrison,

Pursuant to your request, I have made an inspection of the above mentioned real property and wish to make my report herewith.

Land: Unnumbered site on the Plat of North Shore Point, containing 29,750 square feet.

Improvements: The site is improved with a two story single family dwelling with brick siding and a composition roof. Interior consists of a large entrance foyer, living room, dining room, kitchen, breakfast room, family room, library, utility room, 1½ baths on the first floor and four bedrooms and 3 baths on the second floor. The home is heated by a central forced warm air system fired by a gas boiler. It is centrally air conditioned and the domestic hot water is provided by a gas fired heater.

The residence was constructed in 1966 and contains approximately 4,400 square feet of living area plus an attached garage with 625 square feet. Both the exterior and interior of the building are in prime condition and the site is beautifully landscaped.

In my opinion, the present day fair market value of subject property is $275,000.

Yours very truly,

Re: 7305 Barberry Lane

Dear Mr. Harrison:

Recently you asked that I give you an opinion of the value of your home located in the North Shore Point section of Norfolk. The dwelling is situated on a large site with 206 feet of frontage and has a total of 29,750 sq.ft.

The dwelling has two stores with an attic. Total floor area is 4,573 sq.ft. with living room, den, library, plus the kitchen, utility room and maid's room, four bedrooms, four and a half baths, playroom and two open fireplaces; plus a large two-car garage. This home has been well maintained and is in one of the best residential areas of Norfolk.

Sales in this area have ranged from $200,000 to $350,000 and even higher in some instances. There are no available sites such as this, and if a family wants to locate in the neighborhood, they must seek existing property.

After reviewing the local market, I would conclude that the present value of this property would be in the $275,000 to $300,000 bracket. If you need further data of any type, be sure and let me know.

Sincerely,

Robert L. Garrett

GENERAL COUNSEL'S BRIEF

I. STATEMENT OF THE CASE

This matter originated sua sponte from a letter filed on behalf of Edythe Harrison for U.S. Senate and its treasurer Alvin A. Wall. Based on the information submitted, the Commission on February 6, 1985, found reason to believe that Stanley L. Harrison, candidate Edythe Harrison's husband, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) by making an excessive contribution to the Edythe Harrison for U.S. Senate Committee. In addition, the Commission found reason to believe that the Edythe Harrison for U.S. Senate Committee and Alvin A. Wall, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) by accepting an excessive contribution from Stanley L. Harrison and 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A) by improperly reporting the contribution received from Mr. Harrison. At the respondents' request, the Commission agreed to enter into conciliation prior to a finding of probable cause to believe.

85040550152

II. LEGAL ANALYSIS

A. Excessive Contribution

1. The Law

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) it is unlawful for any person to make contributions to a candidate and his or her authorized political committees with respect to any election for Federal office which, in the aggregate, exceed $1,000. Furthermore, it is unlawful for any candidate or political committee to accept any contribution which exceeds the limitations in 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a). 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

2. The Facts

On June 29, 1984, Stanley L. Harrison, candidate Edythe Harrison's husband, obtained a $100,000 loan from the Dominion National Bank of Greater Hampton Roads. As security for the loan, Mr. Harrison used a non-transferable certificate of deposit issued in his name. The proceeds of this loan were transferred to Edythe Harrison's principal campaign committee and were used to finance the costs of Edythe Harrison's campaign for the United States Senate.

The respondents admit that the above-described transactions caused Mr. Harrison to exceed the contribution limits in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A). Furthermore they admit that the Committee's acceptance of the excessive contribution violates 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

Since there is no dispute concerning the factual allegations with respect to this issue, the Office of the General Counsel recommends that the Commission proceed to a vote of probable cause to believe that Stanley L. Harrison violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) and that the Edythe Harrison for U.S. Senate Committee and Alvin A. Wall, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

A. Reporting Violation

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A), the treasurer of a political committee is required to disclose the identification of each person who makes contributions to his or her committee during the reporting period, whose contribution or contributions have an aggregate amount or value in excess of $200 within the calendar year, together with the date and amount of any such contribution.

In their second quarterly report for 1984, the respondents improperly disclosed a $100,000 contribution from Mr. Stanley Harrison as a personal loan to the Committee from candidate Edythe Harrison. The improper disclosure of the contribution from Mr. Harrison violates 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A). Accordingly, the General Counsel's Office recommends that the Commission find probable cause to believe that the Edythe Harrison for U.S. Senate Committee and Alvin A. Wall, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A).

III. GENERAL COUNSEL'S RECOMMENDATION

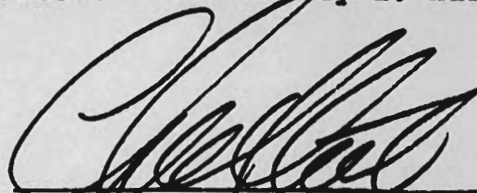

1. Find probable cause to believe that the Edythe Harrison for U.S. Senate Committee and Alvin A. Wall, as treasurer violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

2. Find probable cause to believe that the Edythe Harrison for U.S. Senate Committee and Alvin A. Wall, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A).

3. Find probable cause to believe that Stanley L. Harrison violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

Dear Mr. Bauer:

Based on information ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities, and information supplied by you the Federal Election Commission, on February 6, 1985, found reason to believe that your clients had violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(a)(1)(A), 441a(f) and § 434(b)(3)(A) and instituted an investigation in this matter.

After considering all the evidence available to the Commission, the Office of the General Counsel is prepared to recommend that the Commission find probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred.

Submitted for your review is a brief stating the position of the General Counsel on the legal and factual issues of the case. Within fifteen days of your receipt of this notice, you may file with the Secretary of the Commission a brief (10 copies if possible) stating your position on the issues and replying to the brief of the General Counsel. (Three copies of such brief should also be forwarded to the Office of General Counsel, if possible.) The General Counsel's brief and any brief which you may submit will be considered by the Commission before proceeding to a vote of probable cause to believe a violation has occurred.

If you are unable to file a responsive brief within 15 days, you may submit a written request to the Commission for an extension of time in which to file a brief. The Commission will not grant any extensions beyond 20 days.

A finding of probable cause to believe requires that the Office of General Counsel attempt for a period of not less than thirty, but not more than ninety, days to settle this matter through a conciliation agreement.

Dear Mr. Bauer:

On February 6, 1985, the Commission found reason to believe that Mr. Stanley L. GENERAL COUNSEL'S FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

MUR 1890

RESPONDENTS: Edythe Harrison for U.S. Senate
Alvin A. Wall, as treasurer
Stanley L. Harrison

GENERATION OF MATTER

This matter originates based on a letter submitted on behalf of the Edythe Harrison for U.S. Senate Committee ("the Committee") on October 12, 1984. The letter, which admits a violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"), was supplemented by information submitted by the Committee on November 21, 1984. 1/

SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

Information provided by the respondents in this matter indicates that Mr. Stanley L. Harrison, candidate Edythe Harrison's husband, made a contribution to the Committee which exceeded the contribution limits of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A). The Committee's acceptance of the excessive contribution violates 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f). In view of the apparent violations, the Committee requests to enter into pre-probable cause conciliation with the Commission.

1/ The Committee's original letter was void of facts concerning the violation at issue. After repeated requests by this Office, the Committee finally submitted the information necessary to proceed with this case.

In addition, a review of the public records indicates that the Committee and Alvin A. Wall, as treasurer violated the reporting provisions of 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A) by improperly reporting the contribution from Mr. Stanley Harrison as a personal loan to the Committee from candidate Edythe Harrison.

FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

A. Excessive Contribution

1. The Law

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) it is unlawful for any person to make contributions to a candidate and his or her authorized political committees with respect to any election for Federal office which, in the aggregate, exceed $1,000. Furthermore, it is unlawful for any candidate or political committee to accept any contribution which exceeds the limitations in 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a). 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

2. The Facts

On June 29, 1984, Stanley L. Harrison, candidate Edythe Harrison's husband, obtained a $100,000 loan from the Dominion National Bank of Greater Hampton Roads. As security for the loan, Mr. Harrison used a non-transferable certificate of deposit issued in his name. The proceeds of this loan were transferred to Edythe Harrison's principal campaign committee and were used to finance the costs of Edythe Harrison's campaign for the United States Senate.

8 5 0 4 0 5 5 0 1 6 5

The Committee admits that the above-described transaction caused Mr. Harrison to exceed the contribution limits of 2 U.S.C § 441a(a)(1)(A). On this matter the Committee requests to enter into pre-probable cause conciliation. In mitigation of the violation, the Committee calls the Commission's attention to the measures taken by Mr. Harrison and the Committee to correct the violation. Specifically, the Committee calls to the Commission's attention to the fact that once the Harrisons realized the potential violation, the loan was refinanced in August of 1984. As collateral for the refinancing, a second trust on the Harrison's residence in Richmond was executed. According to the Committee, Mrs. Harrison's share of equity in the residence used as collateral exceeds the amount of the loan.<sup>2/</sup> Citing to the Commission's spousal property regulations at 11 C.F.R. 100.7(a)(1)(i)(D), the Committee states that although Mr. Harrison is a cosigner on the Deed of Trust and Note, no contribution is made by him on the refinanced loan.

In view of the foregoing, the Office of the General Counsel recommends that the Commission take the following actions in this case: 1) Open a matter under review; 2) find reason to believe that Stanley L. Harrison violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A); 3) find reason to believe that the Edythe Harrison for U.S. Senate

<sup>2/</sup> Documentation of Mrs. Harrison's equity share in this residence has not been submitted, however the Committee indicates that these materials will be forthcoming.

Committee and Alvin A. Wall, as treasurer violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f); and 4) enter into pre-probable cause conciliation.

B. Reporting Violation

The public record reveals that in its second quarterly report for 1984 (covering the period of April 1, 1984 through June 30, 1984) the Committee improperly disclosed the contribution from Mr. Stanley Harrison as a personal loan to the Committee from candidate Edythe Harrison. 3/ The improper disclosure of the contribution from Mr. Harrison violates the reporting provisions of 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A). Accordingly, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that the Edythe Harrison for U.S. Senate Committee and Alvin A. Wall, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A). In addition we recommend that the Commission enter into pre-probable cause conciliation in this matter as it pertains to the same nucleus of facts surrounding violations which the Committee has already requested to enter into pre-probable cause conciliation.

3/ The Reports Analysis Division sent a request for additional information on November 20, 1984, concerning the disclosure of a loan from candidate Edythe Harrison. When the Committee failed to respond, the General Counsel's Office determined to incorporate the matter in this MUR for consistency in handling.

GENERATION OF MATTER

This matter originates based on a letter submitted on behalf of the Edythe Harrison for U.S. Senate Committee ("the Committee") on October 12, 1984. The letter, which admits a violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"), was supplemented by information submitted by the Committee on November 21, 1984. 1/ See Attachments at pages 1-16.

SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

Information provided by the respondents in this matter indicates that Mr. Stanley L. Harrison, candidate Edythe

1/ The Committee's original letter was void of facts concerning the violation at issue. After repeated requests by this Office, the Committee finally submitted the information necessary to proceed with this case.

Harrison's husband, made a contribution to the Committee which exceeded the contribution limits of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A). The Committee's acceptance of the excessive contribution violates 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f). In view of the apparent violations, the Committee requests to enter into pre-probable cause conciliation with the Commission.

In addition, a review of the public records indicates that the Committee and Alvin A. Wall, as treasurer violated the reporting provisions of 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A) by improperly reporting the contribution from Mr. Stanley Harrison as a personal loan to the Committee from candidate Edythe Harrison.

FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

A. Excessive Contribution

1. The Law

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) it is unlawful for any person to make contributions to a candidate and his or her authorized political committees with respect to any election for Federal office which, in the aggregate, exceed $1,000.

Furthermore, it is unlawful for any candidate or political committee to accept any contribution which exceeds the limitations in 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a). 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

2. The Facts

On June 29, 1984, Stanley L. Harrison, candidate Edythe Harrison's husband, obtained a $100,000 loan from the Dominion

35040550171

National Bank of Greater Hampton Roads. See Attachments at 4-5. As security for the loan, Mr. Harrison used a non-transferable certificate of deposit issued in his name. See Attachments at 6-7. The proceeds of this loan were transferred to Edythe Harrison's principal campaign committee and were used to finance the costs of Edythe Harrison's campaign for the United States Senate. See Attachments at 2.

The Committee admits that the above-described transaction caused Mr. Harrison to exceed the contribution limits of 2 U.S.C § 441a(a)(1)(A). On this matter the Committee requests to enter into pre-probable cause conciliation. In mitigation of the violation, the Committee calls the Commission's attention to the measures taken by Mr. Harrison and the Committee to correct the violation. Specifically, the Committee calls to the Commission's attention to the fact that once the Harrisons realized the potential violation, the loan was refinanced in August of 1984. As collateral for the refinancing, a second trust on the Harrison's residence in Richmond was executed. See Attached Deed of Trust and Deed of Trust Note. According to the Committee, Mrs. Harrison's share of equity in the residence used as collateral exceeds the amount of the loan.<sup>2/</sup> Citing to the Commission's spousal property regulations at 11 C.F.R. 100.7(a)(1)(i)(D), the Committee states that although Mr. Harrison is a cosigner on the Deed of Trust and Note,

<sup>2/</sup> Documentation of Mrs. Harrison's equity share in this residence has not been submitted, however the Committee indicates that these materials will be forthcoming.

no contribution is made by him on the refinanced loan.

In view of the foregoing, the Office of the General Counsel recommends that the Commission take the following actions in this case: 1) Open a matter under review; 2) find reason to believe that Stanley L. Harrison violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A); 3) find reason to believe that the Edythe Harrison for U.S. Senate Committee and Alvin A. Wall, as treasurer violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f); and 4) enter into pre-probable cause conciliation.

B. Reporting Violation

The public record reveals that in its second quarterly report for 1984 (covering the period of April 1, 1984 through June 30, 1984) the Committee improperly disclosed the contribution from Mr. Stanley Harrison as a personal loan to the committee from candidate Edythe Harrison. 3/ See Attachments at pages 17-18. The improper disclosure of the contribution from Mr. Harrison violates the reporting provisions of 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A). Accordingly, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that the Edythe Harrison for U.S. Senate Committee and Alvin A. Wall, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A). In addition we recommend that the Commission enter into pre-probable cause

3/ The Reports Analysis Division sent a request for additional information on November 20, 1984, concerning the disclosure of a loan from candidate Edythe Harrison. See Attachments at p. 19. When the Committee failed to respond, the General Counsel's Office determined to incorporate the matter in Pre-MUR 134 for consistency in handling.

conciliation in this matter as it pertains to the same nucleus of facts surrounding violations which the Committee has already requested to enter into pre-probable cause conciliation.

DISCUSSION OF CONCILIATION & CIVIL PENALTY

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Open a matter under review.
2. Find reason to believe that Stanley L. Harrison violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a) (1) (A).
3. Find reason to believe that the Edythe Harrison for U.S. Senate Committee and Alvin A. Wall, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).
4. Find reason to believe that the Edythe Harrison for U.S. Senate Committee and Alvin A. Wall, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b) (3) (A).

Re: Harrison for Senate Committee
Pre-MUR

Dear Mr. Gross:

Pursuant to our meeting of September 9, 1984, this letter serves as formal notice of the intention of the Harrison for Senate Committee to seek pre-probable cause conciliation with respect to certain apparent violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971 (the Act). At our meeting, I advised you, as counsel to the Committee, that a loan obtained in connection with the Committee's ongoing election-related activities may have been inconsistent with the requirements of relevant provisions of the Act. 2 U.S.C. §§ 431(8) (A), 431(8) (B) (vii).

The Committee has made full disclosure of this matter to the Commission, on its own initiative, toward the goal of prompt and satisfactory resolution in accordance with the Act's conciliation procedures. This letter confirms the Committee's intention to pursue those conciliation procedures. In this regard, the Committee requests that pre-MUR Commission procedures be triggered to commence formal negotiation, and that, as a now-pending compliance matter before the agency, the confidentiality provision of the Act be considered immediately effective. 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(B)(i).

At our September 9 meeting, you requested certain additional information about the nature of the loan transactions at issue, including the Committee's management of its related reporting obligations. The Committee is currently assembling this information for my review, and you may expect this information no later than the week of October 15, 1984.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert F. Bauer

Re: Pre-MUR 134

Dear Ms. Kramer:

As you requested in our telephone conversation on Monday, November 19, please find enclosed copies of documents relevant to your investigation in the above-captioned Matter Under Review. As of this time, I have not received the additional materials we discussed from the Harrison campaign representatives in Virginia. I expect delivery shortly, however, and I will contact you promptly.

For your information, the documents enclosed include both the original note for $100,000 (Exhibit 1) and second note for the same amount (Exhibit 2).

The first loan, evidenced by the original note, was taken out on June 29, 1984. Security for the loan, was in the form of a nontransferable certificate of deposit issued in the name of Stanley Harrison, the candidate's husband. A copy of the CD is attached to the loan documents. The proceeds of this loan were then transferred to the Harrison principal campaign committee used to finance costs of Edythe Harrison's campaign for the United States Senate.

When the Harrisons realized that the use of Mr. Harrison's CD as security for the original loan might cause him to exceed the contribution limits of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a), the original loan was refinanced in August 1984. As collateral for the refinancing, a second trust on the Harrison residence in Richmond was executed. The Deed of Trust and Deed of Trust Note are both enclosed.

Under the FEC's spousal property regulations, 11 C.F.R. 100.7(a)(1)(i)(D), Mrs. Harrison's share of equity in the residence used as collateral exceeds the amount of the loan. Thus, although Mr. Harrison is a cosigner on the Deed of Trust and Note, no contribution is made by him under the refinanced loan. Documentation of Mrs. Harrison's equity share in this residence will be forthcoming shortly as part of the materials being prepared, at my request, by the Harrison Committee.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

Robert F. Bauer

Further, in event of failure to make any payment of Finance Charge when due, the Bank, at its option, may declare the entire indebtedness due and payable. From and after the date when the entire indebtedness is due and payable, whether by acceleration or otherwise, it shall bear interest at the rate applicable immediately prior thereto.

DEMAND LOANS. If this is a demand loan (i.e., payable at any time upon demand of Bank), in accordance with Federal law for disclosure purposes the Finance Charge shown above represents an "assumed maturity" of one-half year. This assumption does not guarantee that the Bank will refrain from demanding payment for such period nor that the Annual Percentage Rate will remain fixed for such period.

DEFAULT. Upon default as set forth on the reverse side hereof, Bank may, at its option, without notice or demand, declare all obligations evidenced hereby immediately due and payable, together with an attorney's fee of 25% of the amount then owing and unpaid by Borrower, if services of an attorney are employed to effect collection, and other expenses of collection and enforcement.

ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

If the Collateral is in the nature of securities, it includes all stock dividends, dividends representing distribution of capital assets and rights to subscribe to additional capital stock, with authority to collect, sell, transfer and rehypothecate such Collateral. In the event the securities pledged as Collateral should at any time and for any reason become inadequate as Collateral security in the sole judgment of the Bank, the Borrower agrees to deposit with the Bank such additional securities as it may require to render the Collateral adequate.

If Collateral is in the possession of Bank, it shall be the duty of Borrower to take all necessary steps to preserve rights against prior parties on any instrument or chattel paper, and Bank shall have no responsibility for ascertaining any maturities, calls, conversions, exchanges, offers, tenders or similar matters relating to any of the Collateral, nor for informing Borrower with respect to any thereof. Bank may cause the Collateral to be registered in its name or in the name of a nominee.

Borrower shall be in default upon the happening of any of the following: default in payment or performance of any obligation, covenant or liability hereunder or under the security agreement, if any; any warranty, representation or statement made by or furnished to Bank by or on behalf of Borrower is or was false or misleading in any material respect when made or furnished; loss, theft, substantial damage, destruction, sale, abandonment, encumbrance, levy, seizure, attachment or removal from the State of Virginia of the Collateral without permission of the holder; death, dissolution, termination of existence, insolvency or business failure of a Party; appointment of a receiver or assignment for the benefit of the creditors of all or any part of the property of a Party; commencement of any proceeding in bankruptcy by or against a Party; or if the holder, in good faith, believes that its prospect for payment or performance hereunder is impaired.

Upon default, in addition to the remedies herein provided, and where applicable, Bank shall have all rights and remedies available at law or in equity, including rights of a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code as adopted in Virginia, all which, to the extent permitted by law, shall be cumulative.

Bank may apply the net proceeds of any sale of Collateral, if any, after deducting all costs and expenses of every kind incurred therein or incidental to the retaking, holding, preparing for sale and sale of the Collateral or in any way relating to the rights of Bank hereunder, including attorney's fees and legal expenses, to the payment of the sums due hereunder, and only after such application to account for the surplus, if any, as required by law. Each Party shall remain liable to the Bank for the payment of any deficiency with interest.

Each Party hereby waives presentment, demand, protest and notice of dishonor and protest, and also waives the benefit of any homestead or similar exemption, and agrees that extension or extensions of the time of payment of this obligation or any instalment or part thereof may be made before, at or after maturity by agreement by the Bank with any one or more of the Parties hereto without notice to and without releasing the liability of any other Party. Each Party consents that payment of any of the securities held as Collateral may be extended by the Bank in whole or in part at any time without notice to any Party hereto; and that any or all of the Collateral may be exchanged, surrendered, released, compromised or its terms extended or compromised by the Bank at any time without notice to any Party hereto.

Bank shall not by any act, delay, omission or otherwise be deemed to have waived any right or remedy which Bank may have on any future occasion. No waiver shall be binding unless in writing and signed by Bank. Acceptance of payment of arrears shall not waive or affect any prior acceleration. In case any one or more of the provisions contained herein should be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions contained herein shall in no way be affected or impaired thereby. All rights of the Bank hereunder shall inure to the benefit of its successors and assigns. All obligations of the Parties are joint and several, if more than one, and shall bind his personal representatives, successors and assigns.

Bank shall have the right, immediately and without further action by it, to set off against this note, and all other liabilities of any party to the Bank all money owed by the Bank in any capacity to any party, whether or not due, and the Bank shall be deemed to have exercised such right of set-off and to have made a charge against any such money immediately upon the occurrence of a default hereunder even though such change is made or entered on the books of the holder subsequent thereto.

The Bank may continue to hold any collateral after payment of this note if at the time of payment and discharge hereof any of the parties to this note shall be then directly or contingently liable to the Bank, and the Bank may thereafter exercise all rights with respect to said collateral granted herein even though this note shall have been surrendered to the parties.

The maker or makers, endorser or endorsers, do hereby constitute and appoint Joseph A. Leafe, Carlyle E. Stull, Jr., Charles D. Robison III, Herbert R. Hamlet, and Anthony M. Thiel, any of whom may act individually as their true and lawful attorney-in-fact to acknowledge and accept service of process in any suit brought for the collection of this note and to confess judgment on their behalf in the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of the City or County shown in the upper left corner of this note. I/we the endorser or endorsers agree that from time to time payment of this note, in whole or in part, may be extended without notice, and that other indulgences may be granted the makers, after maturity, without affecting our liability.

The Parties also agree that other indulgences may be granted to any Party without notice and that such indulgences will not change or release the liability of the remaining Parties. The Parties also waive the benefit of all homestead exemptions as to this debt and any right which they may have to require the holder to proceed against any person. The Parties further agree to pay all the expenses incurred in collecting this Note and in enforcing the Bank's rights in the property subject to the deed of trust and in any other collateral, including without limitation an attorneys fee of twenty-five percent (25%) if services of an attorney are employed.

holder of this Note, in good faith, believes that his prospect for payment or performance hereunder is impaired. Upon default, in addition to the remedies herein provided, and where applicable, Bank shall have all rights and remedies available at law or in equity, and said rights and remedies shall be cumulative.

ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS. Bank shall not by any act, delay, omission or otherwise be deemed to have waived any right or remedy which Bank may have on any future occasion. It being the same property conveyed to the said Edythe C. Harrison by Stanley L. Harrison and Edythe C. Harrison, husband and wife, by deed dated August 30, 1983 and duly recorded in the Clerk's Office aforesaid in Deed Book 1704, at page 694.

This deed of trust shall be deemed to be a security agreement with respect to all fixtures on the Property and that portion of the Property which shall not be construed to be real property under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, granting Dominion National Bank of Greater Hampton Roads (hereinafter the "Bank") a security interest therein in accordance with the Uniform Commercial Code as adopted in the Commonwealth of Virginia (the "Code"). As to all such personalty or fixtures, the Bank shall have, without limitation, all of the rights and remedies of a secured party under the Code. The recordation of this deed of trust shall also constitute a fixture filing under the provisions of the Code with respect to that portion of the Property which shall be deemed to be fixtures under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia. The party of the first part shall, at the request of the Bank, execute and deliver to the Bank any additional instruments, documents and agreements which the Bank may require in order to further perfect such security interest. All rights and remedies granted under this deed of trust shall be in addition to rights and remedies granted under the law and under any separate security agreement, financing statement or collateral documents.

This conveyance is made expressly subject to the lien and terms of that certain other deed of trust dated January 27, 1966, made by Stanley L. Harrison and Edythe C. Harrison to David L. Strain, et al, Trustees, duly of record in said Clerk's Office in Deed Book 1045 at page 305, and originally securing the principal sum of $35,000 and interest thereon.

The Grantors covenant that they will well and truly pay the remaining balance of the indebtedness thereby secured, as and when the same matures, and that any default thereunder shall ipso facto constitute a default hereunder.

IN TRUST, to secure to the holder or holders (the "Noteholder") of the hereinafter described note, without preference, payment of the indebtedness evidenced by a note (the "Note") of even date made by Edythe C. Harrison in the principal sum of $100,000.00 together with interest as provided for in the Note, payable to the order of the Bank in accordance with terms set forth in the Note, with the balance of the indebtedness, if not sooner paid, callable after December 30, 1994; and also to secure the payment of any sums advanced by the Bank or Noteholder as provided for herein and to secure any note or notes, bond or bonds, given and received in curtail or renewal, in whole or in part, of the indebtedness.

The deed of trust is given to secure a debt in accordance with the provisions of Sections 55-59 and 55-60 of the Code of Virginia (1950), as amended and effective on the date hereof, and as therein provided, shall be construed to impose and confer upon the parties hereto, and the beneficiaries hereunder, the duties, rights and obligations set forth herein. As authorized and permitted by said Sections the following additional provisions are herein incorporated in short form, to be construed as therein provided:

ADVERTISEMENT REQUIRED: Advertisement of the time, place and terms of sale shall be in a newspaper having general circulation in the City or County wherein the property or any portion thereof lies, on a daily basis once a day for three consecutive days or on a weekly basis once a week for two weeks.

BIDDER'S DEPOSIT of not more than ten percent (10%) of sales price may be required;
IDENTIFIED BY TRUSTEE'S SIGNATURE OR ONE OF THE TRUSTEE'S SIGNATURES IF THERE ARE MORE THAN ONE TRUSTEE;
EXEMPTIONS WAIVED;
SUBJECT TO ALL UPON DEFAULT;
RENEWAL, EXTENSION, OR REINSTATEMENT PERMITTED;
RIGHT OF ANTICIPATION RESERVED;
INSURANCE REQUIRED: $
SUBSTITUTION OF TRUSTEES PERMITTED;
ANY TRUSTEE MAY ACT

The Noteholder is authorized, but expressly and specifically not required, for the account of the party of the first part, to make any payments due by reason of any lien or obligation affecting the Property, or under this deed of trust, including, but not limited to, principal and interest payments, taxes and hazard insurance premiums. All sums so advanced shall bear interest at the same rate of interest applicable to sums remaining due on the Note from the date of the advance to the date of repayment, shall attach to and become part of the lien created hereunder, shall become payable at any time on demand therefor, and the failure to pay the same on demand shall, at the Noteholders option, constitute a default hereunder giving rise to all of the rights and remedies herein provided in the event of other defaults, and such other remedies permitted by law.

The Noteholder, at Noteholder's option, shall have the right to establish an escrow account for the payment of taxes and insurance premiums. Upon establishment of such account, the party of the first part agrees to pay to the Noteholder such sums as Noteholder may require to fund said account in order to insure the payment of said taxes and insurance premiums as they become due. Thereafter, the party of the first part agrees to pay to the Noteholder monthly, along with and in addition to the payments of principal and interest payable under the terms of the Note, the pro rata sum as determined by the Noteholder that will be necessary to pay taxes on the Property and insurance premiums as they become due. If the total payments made to the Noteholder pursuant to this provision are less than the amount required to pay such taxes and insurance premiums as they become due, then the party of the first part agrees to pay on demand to the Noteholder such sum as is necessary to make up such deficiency and, if not so paid, agrees that such amount may be added to the debt hereby secured at Noteholder's option. In the event there is an excess in any such payments, such excess will reduce the subsequent pro rata payments. Any such escrow account shall remain in existence until the Noteholder terminates it or until the entire balance due under the Note and under any of the provisions hereof is paid in full.

If the Property, or any part thereof or any interest therein, is sold, transferred, assigned or conveyed by the party of the first part without the Noteholder's prior written consent, Noteholder may, at Noteholder's option, declare all sums secured by this deed of trust to be immediately due and payable. Noteholder may make consent contingent upon such terms and conditions as Noteholder may require, which may include, without limitation, any one or more of the following: (1) Approval of the credit of the person(s) to whom such sale, transfer or conveyance is made; (2) Execution and recordation of a valid deed of assumption obligating such person(s) to assume the obligation of the party of the first part under the

Note and under the provisions of this deed of trust; (3) Compliance by such person(s) with all requirements of the Noteholder for assumption of the party of the first part's obligations, including the payment to Noteholder of an assumption fee fixed by Noteholder; (4) Agreement by such person(s) to an increase in the rate of interest. If the party of the first part is a corporation, there shall be no sale, transfer or assignment of stock resulting in a change in majority ownership thereof without the prior written consent of the Noteholder. If the party of the first part is a partnership, there shall be no sale, transfer or assignment of a general partner's interest without the prior written consent of the Noteholder.

If there is any breach or failure of any of the covenants, terms or conditions of this deed of trust, or any other deed of trust, encumbrance or lien to which the Property may be subject, or if the Note is in default, then this deed of trust shall be in default and all sums due under the Note and hereunder shall at once become due and payable, without notice, at the sole option of the Noteholder. Failure to exercise such option shall not constitute a waiver so to do at any future time or times.

No delay, act or failure to act, by the Trustees or Noteholder, or any or either of them, however long continued, shall be construed as a waiver of any of their rights hereunder or of any default by the party of the first part. Nothing in this deed of trust shall be construed to impose any obligation upon either the Noteholder or the Trustees to expend any money or to take any other discretionary act herein permitted, and neither the Noteholder nor Trustees shall have any liability or obligation for any delay or failure to take any discretionary act.

In the event of any default hereunder, and for the duration thereof, the Trustees, in addition to all other remedies, shall be entitled to take possession of the Property, to dispossess the owner or owners thereof or any tenant of said owner or owners, and to collect any and all rents, issues and profits of the Property for the use and occupancy thereof and may apply said rents, issues and profits for the following purposes: to the cost and expenses of the Trustees in and about the administration of the trust; to the cost and expense of any repair to the Property deemed necessary or desirable by said Trustees; to the payment of taxes and premiums of insurance on said Property; and on account of the indebtedness hereby secured. The Trustees are further empowered to lease the Property for such time and upon such terms and conditions as they may deem advisable and to distrain for rent or take any other legal action to enforce the collection thereof, or to repossess the Property.

This deed of trust shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties of the first part, the Bank, the Noteholder and their respective heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns, and any descriptive term used herein shall include such heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns. The nouns, pronouns, and verbs set forth herein shall be construed as being of such number and gender as the context may require.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties of the first part have set their signatures and seals.

GENERAL COUNSEL'S FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

MUR _____

RESPONDENTS: Edythe Harrison for U.S. Senate
Alvin A. Wall, as treasurer
Stanley L. Harrison

GENERATION OF MATTER

This matter originates based on a letter submitted on behalf of the Edythe Harrison for U.S. Senate Committee ("the Committee") on October 12, 1984. The letter, which admits a violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"), was supplemented by information submitted by the Committee on November 21, 1984. 1/

SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

Information provided by the respondents in this matter indicates that Mr. Stanley L. Harrison, candidate Edythe Harrison's husband, made a contribution to the Committee which exceeded the contribution limits of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A). The Committee's acceptance of the excessive contribution violates 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f). In view of the apparent violations, the Committee requests to enter into pre-probable cause conciliation with the Commission.

1/ The Committee's original letter was void of facts concerning the violation at issue. After repeated requests by this Office, the Committee finally submitted the information necessary to proceed with this case.

In addition, a review of the public records indicates that the Committee and Alvin A. Wall, as treasurer violated the reporting provisions of 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A) by improperly reporting the contribution from Mr. Stanley Harrison as a personal loan to the Committee from candidate Edythe Harrison.

FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

A. Excessive Contribution

1. The Law

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) it is unlawful for any person to make contributions to a candidate and his or her authorized political committees with respect to any election for Federal office which, in the aggregate, exceed $1,000. Furthermore, it is unlawful for any candidate or political committee to accept any contribution which exceeds the limitations in 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a). 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

2. The Facts

On June 29, 1984, Stanley L. Harrison, candidate Edythe Harrison's husband, obtained a $100,000 loan from the Dominion National Bank of Greater Hampton Roads. As security for the loan, Mr. Harrison used a non-transferable certificate of deposit issued in his name. The proceeds of this loan were transferred to Edythe Harrison's principal campaign committee and were used to finance the costs of Edythe Harrison's campaign for the United States Senate.

8 5 0 4 0 5 5 0 1 9 7

The Committee admits that the above-described transaction caused Mr. Harrison to exceed the contribution limits of 2 U.S.C § 441a(a)(1)(A). On this matter the Committee requests to enter into pre-probable cause conciliation. In mitigation of the violation, the Committee calls the Commission's attention to the measures taken by Mr. Harrison and the Committee to correct the violation. Specifically, the Committee calls to the Commission's attention to the fact that once the Harrisons realized the potential violation, the loan was refinanced in August of 1984. As collateral for the refinancing, a second trust on the Harrison's residence in Richmond was executed. According to the Committee, Mrs. Harrison's share of equity in the residence used as collateral exceeds the amount of the loan.<sup>2/</sup> Citing to the Commission's spousal property regulations at 11 C.F.R. 100.7(a)(1)(i)(D), the Committee states that although Mr. Harrison is a cosigner on the Deed of Trust and Note, no contribution is made by him on the refinanced loan.

In view of the foregoing, the Office of the General Counsel recommends that the Commission take the following actions in this case: 1) Open a matter under review; 2) find reason to believe that Stanley L. Harrison violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A); 3) find reason to believe that the Edythe Harrison for U.S. Senate

<sup>2/</sup> Documentation of Mrs. Harrison's equity share in this residence has not been submitted, however the Committee indicates that these materials will be forthcoming.

Committee and Alvin A. Wall, as treasurer violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f); and 4) enter into pre-probable cause conciliation.

The public record reveals that in its second quarterly report for 1984 (covering the period of April 1, 1984 through June 30, 1984) the Committee improperly disclosed the contribution from Mr. Stanley Harrison as a personal loan to the Committee from candidate Edythe Harrison. 3/ The improper disclosure of the contribution from Mr. Harrison violates the reporting provisions of 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A). Accordingly, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that the Edythe Harrison for U.S. Senate Committee and Alvin A. Wall, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A). In addition we recommend that the Commission enter into pre-probable cause conciliation in this matter as it pertains to the same nucleus of facts surrounding violations which the Committee has already requested to enter into pre-probable cause conciliation.

3/ The Reports Analysis Division sent a request for additional information on November 20, 1984, concerning the disclosure of a loan from candidate Edythe Harrison. When the Committee failed to respond, the General Counsel's Office determined to incorporate the matter in this MUR for consistency in handling.

Re: Pre-MUR 134

Dear Ms. Kramer:

As you requested in our telephone conversation on Monday, November 19, please find enclosed copies of documents relevant to your investigation in the above-captioned Matter Under Review. As of this time, I have not received the additional materials we discussed from the Harrison campaign representatives in Virginia. I expect delivery shortly, however, and I will contact you promptly.

For your information, the documents enclosed include both the original note for $100,000 (Exhibit 1) and second note for the same amount (Exhibit 2).

The first loan, evidenced by the original note, was taken out on June 29, 1984. Security for the loan, was in the form of a nontransferable certificate of deposit issued in the name of Stanley Harrison, the candidate's husband. A copy of the CD is attached to the loan documents. The proceeds of this loan were then transferred to the Harrison principal campaign committee used to finance costs of Edythe Harrison's campaign for the United States Senate.

When the Harrisons realized that the use of Mr. Harrison's CD as security for the original loan might cause him to exceed the contribution limits of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a), the original loan was refinanced in August 1984. As collateral for the refinancing, a second trust on the Harrison residence in Richmond was executed. The Deed of Trust and Deed of Trust Note are both enclosed.

Under the FEC's spousal property regulations, 11 C.F.R. 100.7(a)(1)(i)(D), Mrs. Harrison's share of equity in the residence used as collateral exceeds the amount of the loan. Thus, although Mr. Harrison is a cosigner on the Deed of Trust and Note, no contribution is made by him under the refinanced loan. Documentation of Mrs. Harrison's equity share in this residence will be forthcoming shortly as part of the materials being prepared, at my request, by the Harrison Committee.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

If Collateral is in the possession of Bank, it shall be the duty of Borrower to take all necessary steps to preserve rights against prior parties on any instrument or chattel paper, and Bank shall have no responsibility for ascertaining any maturities, calls, conversions, exchanges, offers, tenders or similar matters relating to any of the Collateral, nor for informing Borrower with respect to any thereof. Bank may cause the Collateral to be registered in its name or in the name of a nominee.

Upon default, in addition to the remedies herein provided, and where applicable, Bank shall have all rights and remedies available at law or in equity, including rights of a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code as adopted in Virginia, all which, to the extent permitted by law, shall be cumulative.

Bank may apply the net proceeds of any sale of Collateral, if any, after deducting all costs and expenses of every kind incurred therein or incidental to the retaking, holding, preparing for sale and sale of the Collateral or in any way relating to the rights of Bank hereunder, including attorney's fees and legal expenses, to the payment of the sums due hereunder, and only after such application to account for the surplus, if any, as required by law. Each Party shall remain liable to the Bank for the payment of any deficiency with interest.

Each Party hereby waives presentment, demand, protest and notice of dishonor and protest, and also waives the benefit of any homestead or similar exemption, and agrees that extension or extensions of the time of payment of this obligation or any instalment or part thereof may be made before, at or after maturity by agreement by the Bank with any one or more of the Parties hereto without notice to and without releasing the liability of any other Party. Each Party consents that payment of any of the securities held as Collateral may be extended by the Bank in whole or in part at any time without notice to any Party hereto; and that any or all of the Collateral may be exchanged, surrendered, released, compromised or its terms extended or compromised by the Bank at any time without notice to any Party hereto.

Bank shall not by any act, delay, omission or otherwise be deemed to have waived any right or remedy which Bank may have on any future occasion. No waiver shall be binding unless in writing and signed by Bank. Acceptance of payment of ar-rears shall not waive or affect any prior acceleration. In case any one or more of the provisions contained herein should be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions contained herein shall in no way be affected or impaired thereby. All rights of the Bank hereunder shall inure to the benefit of its successors and assigns. All obligations of the Parties are joint and several, if more than one, and shall bind his personal representatives, successors and assigns.

Bank shall have the right, immediately and without further action by it, to set off against this note, and all other liabilities of any party to the Bank all money owed by the Bank in any capacity to any party, whether or not due, and the Bank shall be deemed to have exercised such right of set-off and to have made a charge against any such money immediately upon the occurrence of a default hereunder even though such charge is made or entered on the books of the holder subsequent thereto.

The Bank may continue to hold any collateral after payment of this note if at the time of payment and discharge hereof any of the parties to this note shall be then directly or contingently liable to the Bank, and the Bank may thereafter exercise all rights with respect to said collateral granted herein even though this note shall have been surrendered to the parties.

The maker or makers, endorser or endorsers, do hereby constitute and appoint Joseph A. Leafe, Carlyle E. Stull, Jr., Charles D. Robison III, Herbert R. Hamlet, and Anthony M. holder of this Note, in good faith, believes that his prospect for payment or performance hereunder is impaired. Upon default, in addition to the remedies herein provided, and where applicable, Bank shall have all rights and remedies available at law or in equity, and said rights and remedies shall be cumulative.

ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS. Bank shall not by any act, delay, omission or otherwise be deemed to have waived any right or remedy which Bank may have on any future occasion. Together with a right of way over the road binding the above described property on its western side extending from the property herein conveyed to North Shore Road, and together with a further right of way over said road binding the property above described on its eastern side and extending from the property above described to North Shore Road.

together with all buildings, improvements, fixtures or appurtenances now or hereafter erected thereon, including, but not limited to, all apparatus, equipment, fixtures, or articles, whether in single units or centrally controlled, used to supply heat, gas, air conditioning, water, light, power, refrigeration, ventilation or other services, and also including, without limitation, any screens, window shades, storm doors and windows, screen doors, awnings, stoves and water heaters, all of which are declared to be a part of said real estate whether physically attached thereto or not (hereinafter the "Property").

It being the same property conveyed to the said Edythe C. Harrison by Stanley L. Harrison and Edythe C. Harrison, husband and wife, by deed dated August 30, 1983 and duly recorded in the Clerk's Office aforesaid in Deed Book 1704, at page 694.

This deed of trust shall be deemed to be a security agreement with respect to all fixtures on the Property and that portion of the Property which shall not be construed to be real property under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, granting Dominion National Bank of Greater Hampton Roads (hereinafter the "Bank") a security interest therein in accordance with the Uniform Commercial Code as adopted in the Commonwealth of Virginia (the "Code"). As to all such personalty or fixtures, the Bank shall have, without limitation, all of the rights and remedies of a secured party under the Code. The recordation of this deed of trust shall also constitute a fixture filing under the provisions of the Code with respect to that portion of the Property which shall be deemed to be fixtures under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia. The party of the first part shall, at the request of the Bank, execute and deliver to the Bank any additional instruments, documents and agreements which the Bank may require in order to further perfect such security interest. All rights and remedies granted under this deed of trust shall be in addition to rights and remedies granted under the law and under any separate security agreement, financing statement or collateral documents.

This conveyance is made expressly subject to the lien and terms of that certain other deed of trust dated January 27, 1966, made by Stanley L. Harrison and Edythe C. Harrison to David L. Strain, et al, Trustees, duly of record in said Clerk's Office in Deed Book 1045 at page 305, and originally securing the principal sum of $35,000 and interest thereon.

The Grantors covenant that they will well and truly pay the remaining balance of the indebtedness thereby secured, as and when the same matures, and that any default thereunder shall ipso facto constitute a default hereunder.

IN TRUST, to secure to the holder or holders (the "Noteholder") of the hereinafter described note, without preference, payment of the indebtedness evidenced by a note (the "Note") of even date made by Edythe C. Harrison in the principal sum of $100,000.00 together with interest as provided for in the Note, payable to the order of the Bank in accordance with terms set forth in the Note, with the balance of the indebtedness, if not sooner paid, callable after December 30, 1994; and also to secure the payment of any sums advanced by the Bank or Noteholder as provided for herein and to secure any note or notes, bond or bonds, given and received in curtail or renewal, in whole or in part, of the indebtedness.

The deed of trust is given to secure a debt in accordance with the provisions of Sections 55-59 and 55-60 of the Code of Virginia (1950), as amended and effective on the date hereof, and as therein provided, shall be construed to impose and confer upon the parties hereto, and the beneficiaries hereunder, the duties, rights and obligations set forth herein. As authorized and permitted by said Sections the following additional provisions are herein incorporated in short form, to be construed as therein provided:

ADVERTISEMENT REQUIRED: Advertisement of the time, place and terms of sale shall be in a newspaper having general circulation in the City or County wherein the property or any portion thereof lies, on a daily basis once a day for three consecutive days or on a weekly basis once a week for two weeks.

BIDDER'S DEPOSIT of not more than ten percent (10%) of sales price may be required;
 IDENTIFIED BY TRUSTEE'S SIGNATURE OR ONE OF THE TRUSTEE'S
 SIGNATURES IF THERE ARE MORE THAN ONE TRUSTEE;
 EXEMPTIONS WAIVED;
 SUBJECT TO ALL UPON DEFAULT;
 RENEWAL, EXTENSION, OR REINSTATEMENT PERMITTED;
 RIGHT OF ANTICIPATION RESERVED;
 INSURANCE REQUIRED: $
 SUBSTITUTION OF TRUSTEES PERMITTED;
 ANY TRUSTEE MAY ACT

The Noteholder is authorized, but expressly and specifically not required, for the account of the party of the first part, to make any payments due by reason of any lien or obligation affecting the Property, or under this deed of trust, including, but not limited to, principal and interest payments, taxes and hazard insurance premiums. All sums so advanced shall bear interest at the same rate of interest applicable to sums remaining due on the Note from the date of the advance to the date of repayment, shall attach to and become part of the lien created hereunder, shall become payable at any time on demand therefor, and the failure to pay the same on demand shall, at the Noteholders option, constitute a default hereunder giving rise to all of the rights and remedies herein provided in the event of other defaults, and such other remedies permitted by law.

The Noteholder, at Noteholder's option, shall have the right to establish an escrow account for the payment of taxes and insurance premiums. Upon establishment of such account, the party of the first part agrees to pay to the Noteholder such sums as Noteholder may require to fund said account in order to insure the payment of said taxes and insurance premiums as they become due. Thereafter, the party of the first part agrees to pay to the Noteholder monthly, along with and in addition to the payments of principal and interest payable under the terms of the Note, the pro rata sum as determined by the Noteholder that will be necessary to pay taxes on the Property and insurance premiums as they become due. If the total payments made to the Noteholder pursuant to this provision are less than the amount required to pay such taxes and insurance premiums as they become due, then the party of the first part agrees to pay on demand to the Noteholder such sum as is necessary to make up such deficiency and, if not so paid, agrees that such amount may be added to the debt hereby secured at Noteholder's option. In the event there is an excess in any such payments, such excess will reduce the subsequent pro rata payments. Any such escrow account shall remain in existence until the Noteholder terminates it or until the entire balance due under the Note and under any of the provisions hereof is paid in full.

If the Property, or any part thereof or any interest therein, is sold, transferred, assigned or conveyed by the party of the first part without the Noteholder's prior written consent, Noteholder may, at Noteholder's option, declare all sums secured by this deed of trust to be immediately due and payable. Noteholder may make consent contingent upon such terms and conditions as Noteholder may require, which may include, without limitation, any one or more of the following:
 (1) Approval of the credit of the person(s) to whom such sale, transfer or conveyance is made; (2) Execution and recordation of a valid deed of assumption obligating such person(s) to assume the obligation of the party of the first part under the

Note and under the provisions of this deed of trust; (3) Compliance by such person(s) with all requirements of the Noteholder for assumption of the party of the first part's obligations, including the payment to Noteholder of an assumption fee fixed by Noteholder; (4) Agreement by such person(s) to an increase in the rate of interest. If the party of the first part is a corporation, there shall be no sale, transfer or assignment of stock resulting in a change in majority ownership thereof without the prior written consent of the Noteholder. If the party of the first part is a partnership, there shall be no sale, transfer or assignment of a general partner's interest without the prior written consent of the Noteholder.

If there is any breach or failure of any of the covenants, terms or conditions of this deed of trust, or any other deed of trust, encumbrance or lien to which the Property may be subject, or if the Note is in default, then this deed of trust shall be in default and all sums due under the Note and hereunder shall at once become due and payable, without notice, at the sole option of the Noteholder. Failure to exercise such option shall not constitute a waiver so to do at any future time or times.

No delay, act or failure to act, by the Trustees or Noteholder, or any or either of them, however long continued, shall be construed as a waiver of any of their rights hereunder or of any default by the party of the first part. Nothing in this deed of trust shall be construed to impose any obligation upon either the Noteholder or the Trustees to expend any money or to take any other discretionary act herein permitted, and neither the Noteholder nor Trustees shall have any liability or obligation for any delay or failure to take any discretionary act.

In the event of any default hereunder, and for the duration thereof, the Trustees, in addition to all other remedies, shall be entitled to take possession of the Property, to dispossess the owner or owners thereof or any tenant of said owner or owners, and to collect any and all rents, issues and profits of the Property for the use and occupancy thereof and may apply said rents, issues and profits for the following purposes: to the cost and expenses of the Trustees in and about the administration of the trust; to the cost and expense of any repair to the Property deemed necessary or desirable by said Trustees; to the payment of taxes and premiums of insurance on said Property; and on account of the indebtedness hereby secured. The Trustees are further empowered to lease the Property for such time and upon such terms and conditions as they may deem advisable and to distrain for rent or take any other legal action to enforce the collection thereof, or to repossess the Property.

This deed of trust shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties of the first part, the Bank, the Noteholder and their respective heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns, and any descriptive term used herein shall include such heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns. The nouns, pronouns, and verbs set forth herein shall be construed as being of such number and gender as the context may require.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties of the first part have set their signatures and seals.

Re: Harrison for Senate Committee
Pre-MUR 134

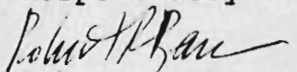

Dear Mr. Gross:

Pursuant to our meeting of September 9, 1984, this letter serves as formal notice of the intention of the Harrison for Senate Committee to seek pre-probable cause conciliation with respect to certain apparent violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971 (the Act). At our meeting, I advised you, as counsel to the Committee, that a loan obtained in connection with the Committee's ongoing election-related activities may have been inconsistent with the requirements of relevant provisions of the Act. 2 U.S.C. §§ 431(8) (A), 431(8) (B) (vii).

The Committee has made full disclosure of this matter to the Commission, on its own initiative, toward the goal of prompt and satisfactory resolution in accordance with the Act's conciliation procedures. This letter confirms the Committee's intention to pursue those conciliation procedures. In this regard, the Committee requests that pre-MUR Commission procedures be triggered to commence formal negotiation, and that, as a now-pending compliance matter before the agency, the confidentiality provision of the Act be considered immediately effective. 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a) (4) (B) (i).

At our September 9 meeting, you requested certain additional information about the nature of the loan transactions at issue, including the Committee's management of its related reporting obligations. The Committee is currently assembling this information for my review, and you may expect this information no later than the week of October 15, 1984.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert F. Bauer
