II. RELEVANT STATUTE: 11 CFR 102.5(a)(1)(i)

III. BACKGROUND:

Receipt of Apparent Impermissible Contributions From Unregistered Organizations

The Keep Hope Alive Political Action Committee ("the Committee") received apparent impermissible contributions from four (4) unregistered organizations totalling $5,850 during the 1988 October Quarterly reporting period.

The 1988 October Quarterly Report disclosed the following contributions from unregistered organizations:
$5,000 from Friends of Jesse Jackson on July 13, 1988; $250 from the John Wiley Price Campaign on July 9, 1988; $500 from the Committee to Elect Rev. A.R. Polk on July 10, 1988; and $100 from the Mid-Brooklyn Political Association on September 15, 1988 (Attachment 2).

On December 7, 1988, a Request for Additional Information ("RFAI") was sent to the Committee concerning the permissibility of the funds received from the unregistered organizations. The RFAI stated that if the funds were impermissible, the Committee should refund the amounts to the donors or transfer the funds to a non-federal account with the donor's consent (Attachment 3).

^{1/} Prior to the 1988 Year End Report, the Committee listed its address as 1074 Thomas Jefferson Street, Washington DC 20007.

On December 15, 1988, Cirilo A. McSween, the Committee's treasurer, filed a response that stated:

We have transferred $6,975 from our Federal funds account to our Non-Federal funds account, while we work to verify the source of the money donated by the following groups--$5,000 from Friends of Jackson; $100 from the Mid-Brooklyn Political Association; $500 from the Committee to Elect Rev. A. R. Polk; $250 from the John Wiley Price Campaign; and $1,000 from Eddie Bernice Johnson; and another $125 to cover two checks which may be corporate.

(Attachment 4).

On December 30, 1988, a Second Notice was sent to the Committee requesting a photocopy of the transfer (Attachment 5).

On January 13, 1989, Steve Cobble, the Committee's Executive Director, met with the Reports Analysis Division ("RAD") analyst to discuss the Second Notice. The RAD analyst stated that a photocopy of the transfer-out was needed. Mr. Cobble explained that logistics problems had probably caused the omission but he was not certain the transfer had occurred. He stated he would investigate and that a written response to the Second Notice would be filed soon (Attachment 6).

On January 30, 1989, Mr. Cobble submitted a letter addressing issues discussed in the meeting with the RAD analyst. Mr. Cobble acknowledged the transfer-out; however, the photocopy of the transfer-out was again omitted (Attachment 7).

On January 31, 1989, the Committee filed a copy of a debt memo for $6,975 noting the transfer-out which occurred on January 24, 1989 (Attachment 8).

Keep Hope Alive Political
Action Committee
1074 Thomas Jefferson Street
Washington, DC 20007

Identification Number: C00229206

Reference: October Quarterly Report (7/1/88-9/30/88)

Dear Mr. McGowan:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's preliminary review of the report(s) referenced above. The review raised questions concerning certain information contained in the report(s). An itemization follows:

-The identification of each contributor, including the person's occupation and name of employer, must be provided if the person has contributed in excess of $200 in the aggregate during the calendar year. Please amend Schedule A supporting Line 11(a)(i) for each entry lacking a contributor's occupation and name of employer.

Note: If your committee has made at least one effort per solicitation, either by a written request or by an oral request documented in writing to obtain this information from the contributor, your committee may have exercised "best efforts." Under 11 CFR 104.7(b), such effort shall consist of a clear request for the information (i.e., name, mailing address, occupation, and name of employer) which request informs the contributor that the reporting of such information is required by law. If you believe that your committee satisfies the "best efforts" provision, you should provide a copy of your solicitation or an explanation of the method(s) used to obtain contribution information. Clarification regarding "best efforts" should be disclosed during each two year election cycle beginning with the first report filed in the non-election year. 11 CFR 104.3(a)(4)(i)

-Your report discloses limited payments for administrative expenses. Administrative expenses are payments made for the purpose of operating a political committee including, but not limited to, rent, utilities, salaries, telephone service, office equipment and supplies. Any such payments to a person aggregating in excess of $200 in a calendar year must be disclosed on Schedule B, supporting Line 19 of the Detailed Summary Page. (2 U.S.C. §434(b)(5)) In addition, if expenses have been incurred but not paid in a reporting period, the activity should be disclosed as a debt on Schedule D, if the obligation is $500 or more, or outstanding for sixty (60) days or more. 11 CFR 104.11.

If these expenses are being paid by a connected organization, your Statement of Organization must be amended to reflect this relationship. 2 U.S.C. §433(b)(2).

Any goods or services provided to your committee by a person, except volunteer activity (i.e., a person's time), would be considered an in-kind contribution from that person, and would be subject to the disclosure requirements of 2 U.S.C. §434(b)(3) and 11 CFR 104.13, and the limitations and prohibitions of 2 U.S.C. §§441a and 441b.

Please provide clarification regarding administrative expenses incurred by your committee and/or amend your report to disclose such expenses according to the referenced provisions of the Act and Commission regulations. Clarification regarding administrative expenses should be disclosed during each two year election cycle beginning with the first report filed in the non-election year.

-Schedule A of your report (pertinent portion(s) attached) discloses a contribution(s) from an organization(s) which is not a political committee registered with the Commission. Under 11 CFR 102.5(b), organizations which are not political committees under the Act must either: 1) establish a separate account which contains only those funds permitted under the Act, or 2) demonstrate through a reasonable accounting method that the organization has received sufficient funds subject to the limitations and prohibitions in order to make the contribution.

If your committee does not finance non-federal activity, the receipt of the referenced contribution(s) may violate the limitations and prohibitions of the Act. (2 U.S.C. §§441a(f) and 441b) If your committee engages in both federal and non-federal activity, either through a separate non-federal account, or one account that finances activity in connection with both federal and non-federal elections, your committee may be in violation of 11 CFR 102.5(a).

Please clarify whether the contribution(s) received from the referenced organization(s) is permissible. To the extent that your committee has received funds which are not permissible, the Commission recommends that you refund the impermissible amount(s) to the donor(s) in accordance with 11 CFR 103.3(b). Alternatively, if you choose to transfer the funds to an account not used to influence federal elections, the Commission advises that you inform the contributor in writing and provide the contributor with the option of receiving a refund. You may wish to seek a written authorization (either before or after the transfer-out) from the donor for any transfer-out to protect the donor's interests.

Please inform the Commission immediately in writing and provide a photocopy of your check for the refund or transfer-out. Refunds and transfers-out should be disclosed on a supporting Schedule B for Line 26 or 28 of the report covering the period during which they are made.

If the contribution(s) in question was incompletely or incorrectly disclosed, you should amend your original report with the clarifying information.

Although the Commission may take further legal steps concerning the acceptance of prohibited contributions, prompt action by your committee in refunding or transferring-out the amounts will be taken into consideration.

A written response or an amendment to your original report(s) correcting the above problem(s) should be filed with the Federal Election Commission within fifteen (15) days of the date of this letter. If you need assistance, please feel free to contact me on our toll-free number, (800) 424-9530. My local number is (202) 376-2480.

Dear Mr. Raymond,

This letter will amend the third quarter report of the Keep Hope Alive Political Action Committee. We have undertaken the following steps since the submission of that report, in order to rectify some inadequacies in the original submission:

*We have sent out a letter from the PAC to all those donors who gave over $200, asking them their employer's name and their occupation (a copy of this letter is attached).

*We have sent a letter to Ms. Beverlee Bruce, Ph.D., asking if the $50 she gave us was personal, and asking her to verify that she is a citizen.

*We have added in the activity from the Atlanta bank account established at the time of the Democratic National Convention, which was inadvertently left off of the first third quarter report. (These new figures are attached.)

*We have transferred $6,975 from our Federal funds account to our Non-Federal funds account, while we work to verify the source of the money donated by the following groups--$5,000 from Friends of Jackson; $100 from the Mid-Brooklyn Political Association; $500 from the Committee to Elect Rev. A. R. Polk; $250 from the John Wiley Price Campaign; and $1,000 from Eddie Bernice Johnson; and another $125 to cover two checks which may be corporate. TR

We trust this improves our submission. In the future, we will endeavor to file timely, complete, and accurate reports, particularly as we gain more experience in the FEC/PAC process. Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Dear Mr. McSween:

On December 7, 1988 you were notified that a review of the above-referenced report(s) raised questions as to specific contributions and/or expenditures, and the reporting of certain information required by the Federal Election Campaign Act.

Your December 15, 1988 response is incomplete because you have not provided all the requested information. For this response to be considered adequate, the following information is still required.

-Your report discloses limited payments for administrative expenses. Administrative expenses are payments made for the purpose of operating a political committee including, but not limited to, rent, utilities, salaries, telephone service, office equipment and supplies. Any such payments to a person aggregating in excess of $200 in a calendar year must be disclosed on Schedule B, supporting Line 19 of the Detailed Summary Page. requirements of 2 U.S.C. §434(b)(3) and 11 CFR 104.13, and the limitations and prohibitions of 2 U.S.C. §§441a and 441b.

Please provide clarification regarding administrative expenses incurred by your committee and/or amend your report to disclose such expenses according to the referenced provisions of the Act and Commission regulations. Clarification regarding administrative expenses should be disclosed during each two year election cycle beginning with the first report filed in the non-election year.

-Schedule A of your report (pertinent portion(s) attached) discloses a contribution(s) from an organization(s) which is not a political committee registered with the Commission. Under 11 CFR 102.5(b), organizations which are not political committees under the Act must either: 1) establish a separate account which contains only those funds permitted under the Act, or 2) demonstrate through a reasonable accounting method that the organization has received sufficient funds subject to the limitations and prohibitions in order to make the contribution.

If your committee does not finance non-federal activity, the receipt of the referenced contribution(s) may violate the limitations and prohibitions of the Act. (2 U.S.C. §441a(f) and 441b) If your committee engages in both federal and non-federal activity, either through a separate non-federal account, or one account that finances activity in connection with both federal and non-federal elections, your committee may be in violation of 11 CFR 102.5(a).

Please clarify whether the contribution(s) received from the referenced organization(s) is permissible. To the extent that your committee has received funds which are not permissible, the Commission recommends that you refund the impermissible amount(s) to the donor(s) in accordance with 11 CFR 103.3(b). Alternatively, if you choose to transfer the funds to an account not used to influence federal elections, the Commission advises that you inform the contributor in writing and provide the contributor with the option of receiving a refund. You may wish to seek a written authorization (either before or after the transfer-out) from the donor for any transfer-out to protect the donor's interests.

TR

TR

If the contribution(s) in question was incompletely or incorrectly disclosed, you should amend your original report with the clarifying information.

Although the Commission may take further legal steps concerning the acceptance of prohibited contributions, prompt action by your committee in refunding or transferring-out the amounts will be taken into consideration.

If this information is not received by the Commission within fifteen (15) days from the date of this notice, the Commission may choose to initiate audit or legal enforcement action.

If you should have any questions related to this matter, please contact Anthony Raymond on our toll-free number (800) 424-9530 or our local number (202) 376-2480.

COMMITTEE: Keep Hope Alive
DATE: January 13, 1989
SUBJECT(S): Second Notice

Mr. Cobble came in to discuss the December 30, 1988, Second Notice for the 1988 October Quarterly Report. We discussed "best efforts" and the receipt of possible impermissible funds. Mr. Cobble explained that letters to contributors requesting information had been sent. Mr. Cobble then stated that he was not sure that the transfer-out of possible impermissible funds had occurred. He stated that he was in the process of establishing an office in DC, and that he would check with Chicago to get a copy of the bank transfer. He said that logistics had been a problem. Mr. Cobble was informed that the contribution from the Friends of Jesse Jackson was not a contribution from a federally registered committee. He said that he believed the funds were made up of individual contributions, but that his committee would take a conservative approach and transfer-out the funds. He said that a written response to the Second Notice would be filed soon.

Dear Mr. Gibson:

In response to your letter of December 30, 1988, to the Keep Hope Alive Political Action Committee, I would like to report the following:

--You noted that during the period July 1, 1988, through September 30, 1988, the PAC had very low expenses for administrative functions. That is correct. As it happens, the Keep Hope Alive PAC raised its early money at gatherings during the Atlanta Convention, at no cost; and, from one direct mail effort after the convention, for which the consultant expenses were detailed in the disbursement section of the report.

The PAC had no staff until after October 15, 1988. It had no office space until December 1, 1988 (although friends of the PAC did agree to collect mail for the PAC at our old Thomas Jefferson St. address). The PAC had no phone until December 21, 1988. Thus, we had almost no administrative expenses during not only the third quarter reporting period, but also for the post-election reporting period.

We now have an executive director; a telephone (202) 737-4673; and a new office, at the address above. These costs will be reported in our next report, and in all subsequent reports.

--The other question you had involved a contribution the PAC received from a committee which was not registered with the FEC. Since that time, this $5,000 contribution, along with another $1,975 in contributions which we could not quickly verify as qualified for our federal account, have been transferred to our non-federal account. (The deposit/transfer slip is attached for verification.) -- Still being audited.

TR

I trust these responses will answer your questions. If you have any further questions, please contact me through the PAC office in Washington--Steve Cobble, at 737-4673. Thank you.

Sincerely,

John D. Gibson

FIRST GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

RAD Referral #89L-11

RESPONDENTS: Keep Hope Alive Political Action Committee and Cirilo A. McSween, as treasurer

RELEVANT STATUTES: 11 C.F.R. § 102.5(a)(1)

INTERNAL REPORTS CHECKED: Referral Materials

FEDERAL AGENCIES CHECKED: None

I. GENERATION OF MATTER

This matter was generated as a result of the review by the Reports Analysis Division ("RAD") of reports filed by the Keep Hope Alive Political Action Committee ("Committee"). RAD has indicated that the Committee's 1988 October Quarterly Report disclosed contributions from four unregistered organizations totaling $5,850. Of this amount, $5,000 was reported as having been received from the Friends of Jesse Jackson on July 13, 1988; $250 from the John Wiley Price Campaign on July 9, 1988; $500 from the Committee to Elect Rev. A.R. Polk on July 10, 1988; and $100 from the Mid-Brooklyn Political Association on September 15, 1988.

The Committee responded to a request for additional information ("RFAI") by representing that it had transferred moneys from its federal funds account to its non-federal funds account while it sought to verify the source of the above-described and other contributions. In fact, funds were not transferred until after the issuance of a second RFAI and a meeting between the Committee's executive director and a RAD analyst. The funds covering the $5,850 questioned by RAD were finally transferred out of the Committee's federal account on January 24, 1989; the total amount of the transfer was $6,975.

The Committee established a non-federal account after receiving the RFAIs, having been unable to establish that the contributions from the Friends of Jesse Jackson and others were permissible. According to the Committee's executive director, the $5,000 contribution from the Friends of Jesse Jackson was from individuals unknown. Whether or not a formal entity by this name actually exists cannot be determined from the referral.

The Committee registered in June of 1988. According to its executive director, the Committee was founded by Jesse Jackson; its purpose is described in its literature as helping "to deliver Reverend Jackson's message throughout the nation... ."

II. FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

Commission regulations at 11 C.F.R. § 102.5(a)(1) require organizations that finance political activity in connection with both federal and non-federal elections to either establish separate federal and non-federal accounts or establish a political committee that only receives contributions subject to the limitations and prohibitions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. The Committee, by failing to establish a non-federal account until after receiving apparently impermissible contributions, violated this provision.

RE: MUR 2939
Keep Hope Alive Political
Action Committee

Dear Mr. McSween:

On August 22, 1989, the Federal Election Commission found that there is reason to believe that the Keep Hope Alive Political Action Committee ("Committee") and you, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441b, a provision of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, and 11 C.F.R. § 102.5(a)(1) of the Commission's regulations. The Factual and Legal Analysis, which formed a basis for the Commission's finding, is attached for your information.

Under the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended you have an opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken against the Committee and you, as treasurer. You may submit any factual or legal materials that you believe are relevant to the Commission's consideration of this matter. Please submit such materials to the General Counsel's Office along with responses to the enclosed questions and request for documents within 15 days of your receipt of this letter. Where appropriate, statements should be submitted under oath.

In the absence of any additional information demonstrating that no further action should be taken against the Committee and you, as treasurer, the Commission may find probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred and proceed with conciliation.

If you are interested in pursuing pre-probable cause conciliation, you should so request in writing. See 11 C.F.R. § 111.18(d). Upon receipt of the request, the Office of the General Counsel will make recommendations to the Commission either proposing an agreement in settlement of the matter or recommending declining that pre-probable cause conciliation be pursued.

Cirilo A. McSween

The Office of the General Counsel may recommend that pre-probable cause conciliation not be entered into at this time so that it may complete its investigation of the matter. Further, the Commission will not entertain requests for pre-probable cause conciliation after briefs on probable cause have been mailed to the respondent.

Requests for extensions of time will not be routinely granted. Requests must be made in writing and specific good cause must be demonstrated. In addition, the Office of the General Counsel ordinarily will not give extensions beyond 20 days.

If you intend to be represented by counsel in this matter, please advise the Commission by completing the enclosed form stating the name, address, and telephone number of such counsel, and authorizing such counsel to receive any notifications and other communications from the Commission.

This matter will remain confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. §§ 437g(a)(4)(B) and 437g(a)(12)(A), unless you notify the Commission in writing that you wish the investigation to be made public.

For your information, we have attached a brief description of the Commission's procedures for handling possible violations. If you have any questions, please contact Daniel J. Blessington of this Office at (202) 376-5690.

Danny L. McDonald

2.1 0 4 0 3 3 0 5 5 3
This matter was generated as a result of the review by the Reports Analysis Division ("RAD") of reports filed by the Keep Hope Alive Political Action Committee ("Committee"). RAD has indicated that the Committee's 1988 October Quarterly Report disclosed contributions from four unregistered organizations totaling $5,850. Of this amount, $5,000 was reported as having been received from the Friends of Jesse Jackson on July 13, 1988; $500 from the Committee to Elect Rev. A.R. Polk on July 10, 1988; and $100 from the Mid-Brooklyn Political Association on September 15, 1988.

The Committee responded to a request for additional information ("RFAI") by representing that it had transferred moneys from its federal funds account to its non-federal funds account while it sought to verify the source of the above-described and other contributions. In fact, funds were not transferred until after the issuance of a second RFAI and a meeting between the Committee's executive director and a RAD analyst. The funds covering the $5,850 questioned by RAD were finally transferred out of the Committee's federal account on January 24, 1989; the total amount of the transfer was $6,975.

The Committee established a non-federal account after receiving the RFAIs, having been unable to establish that the contributions from the Friends of Jesse Jackson and others were permissible. According to the Committee's executive director, the $5000 contribution from the Friends of Jesse Jackson was from individuals unknown. Whether or not a formal entity by this name actually exists cannot be determined from the referral.

The Committee registered in June of 1988. According to its executive director, the Committee was founded by Jesse Jackson; its purpose is described in its literature as helping "to deliver Reverend Jackson's message throughout the nation... ."

The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"), prohibits "any corporation whatever" from "directly or indirectly" making any contribution or expenditure in connection with any federal election and prohibits any federal political committee from knowingly accepting any such contribution or expenditure. 2 U.S.C. § 441b. Commission regulations at 11 C.F.R. § 102.5 require organizations that finance political activity in connection with both federal and non-federal elections to either establish separate federal and non-federal accounts or establish a political committee that only receives contributions subject to the limitations and prohibitions of the Act. The Committee, in that it has accepted contributions from unregistered organizations in states and other jurisdictions that permit corporate or union contributions, received apparently impermissible contributions into its federal account. Therefore, there is reason to believe that the Committee and its treasurer, Cirilo A. Mcsween, violated 2 U.S.C § 441b and 11 C.F.R. § 102.5(a)(1).

Re: MUR 2939, Keep Hope Alive PAC

Dear Mr. Long:

As we discussed this morning by telephone, Patton, Boggs & Blow has been designated as counsel to Keep Hope Alive Political Action Committee ("Keep Hope Alive PAC") in the above-referenced MUR. Attached is the designation of counsel form.

This letter confirms our request for a 14-day extension to respond to the Commission's inquiry by October 17, 1989. This extension is necessary to enable us to obtain relevant documents from the PAC's bank in Chicago and to contact by letter people who may be familiar with the making of the contributions at issue in this MUR. The PAC's Executive Director, Steven Cobble, already has been successful in contacting some of these people by telephone, but others are reachable only by letter. If we do not receive responses to our written inquiries by October 17, we will file as complete a preliminary response as possible and supplement that response as we receive more information.

Thank you for your cooperation. I look forward to receiving formal approval of our extension shortly.

Re: MUR 2939, Keep Hope Alive PAC

Dear Chairman McDonald:

By this letter and enclosed documents, the Keep Hope Alive Political Action Committee ("Keep Hope Alive PAC"), by and through its attorneys, Patton, Boggs & Blow, responds to the Federal Election Commission's Interrogatories and Request for Production of Documents dated September 12, 1989. Thank you again for your extension of time for the filing of this Answer.

Having sought and obtained, by all reasonable means, the information relating to the contributions to the Keep Hope Alive PAC in question, your questions can now be answered as follows:

Answer to Question 1. On June 20, 1988, a twenty-five dollar ($25) per plate dinner was held at the Shiloh Baptist Church located at 9th and P Streets, N.W., Washington D.C.. The dinner was advertised throughout the community, via flyers and invitations, as a dinner featuring the Reverend Jesse Jackson. Reverend Jackson had planned to attend, but could not due to a scheduling conflict. The guest speakers who did attend included Mayor Marion Barry and Congressman Walter Fauntroy. Approximately three hundred (300) people were at the dinner.

The organizers of the dinner opened an account at the Industrial Bank of Washington specifically for this event. The account was opened in the name "Friends of Jesse Jackson". The profits from the dinner-- five thousand dollars ($5000) -- were placed into this account. Shortly after the dinner, according to one of the organizers of the event, Mr. Joseph Beavers, the organizers consulted with Jesse Jackson who suggested that the proceeds of the dinner be contributed to the Keep Hope Alive PAC.

On July 13, 1988, a five thousand dollar check representing all of the profits from the dinner was written to the Keep Hope Alive PAC. The "Friends of Jesse Jackson" bank account was thereupon closed out.

Answer to Question 2. As discussed above, "Friends of Jesse Jackson" is not a formal organization. This was merely the name given to the bank account opened for the purpose of receiving and transferring the proceeds of a dinner held in Washington D.C. at the Shiloh Baptist Church. The head organizer for this event was Mr. Joseph Beavers. Mr. Beavers is a clerk and a trustee of the Shiloh Baptist Church. Mr. Beavers can be reached at (202) 654-6391, and correspondence may be sent care of the Shiloh Baptist Church.

Although your Questions do not seek a description of the circumstances surrounding the three other contributions to the Keep Hope Alive PAC mentioned in your Factual and Legal Analysis enclosed with the Commission's September 12, 1989 letter, we have now obtained information pertaining to those contributions, and we wish to share that information with you.

Mr. John Wiley Price is a county commissioner from Dallas, Texas. On July 9, 1988, he wrote a check to the Keep Hope Alive PAC from his campaign fund in the amount of $250. We have spoken with Mr. Price, and he has stated that there was at that time no corporate or labor money in his campaign account, nor did his campaign receive any personal contributions greater than $5000.

Mr. James Conolly is the District Leader of the 42nd State Assembly District in New York, and on September 15, 1988 he signed a check for $100 made out to the Keep Hope Alive PAC from the Mid-Brooklyn Political Association. The Mid-Brooklyn Political Association was an account opened for the purpose of impacting local races in Brooklyn. Mr. Conolly has informed us that the account contained no corporate or union money and no individual contributions of more than $5000.

We are still seeking information pertaining to the $500 check to the Keep Hope Alive PAC from the Committee to Elect Rev. A. R. Polk dated July 19, 1988. We have written to the last known address of this organization and we are awaiting a reply. We can supply any such information that we obtain.

PATTON, BOGGS & BLOW

Chairman Danny L. McDonald

As this information indicates, all of the contributions in question received by the Keep Hope Alive PAC were properly deposited into the PAC's federal account. Furthermore, we believe that the $5000 representing the profits of the dinner at the Shiloh Baptist Church was properly transferred to the Keep Hope Alive PAC under 11 C.F.R. § 102.6. We do acknowledge, however, that this receipt originally was not properly reported. By virtue of 11 C.F.R. §§ 102.6(c)(5),(7) and § 104.3(a), the Keep Hope Alive PAC was not obligated to report the names of the individual attendees at the dinner, but it should have reported the aggregate $5000 amount as a memo entry of unitemized contributions. Instead, the amount was reported as a receipt from a committee. This $5000 and the other three contributions have since been transferred out of the Keep Hope Alive PAC's federal account and into its non-federal account, and the PAC's reports have been amended to reflect this transfer. Therefore, we do not presently see a need to amend further the initial reports listing these contributions.

Document Request. Enclosed please find all of the documents, excluding only attorney-client communications, that pertain to the transactions discussed above.

We trust that this information satisfies the Commission's requests and demonstrates that no prohibited funds were deposited into the federal account of the Keep Hope Alive PAC. We will be happy to provide any further assistance needed by the Commission in order to close this matter without further action.

Very truly yours,

Kate Boyce

Mr. Cirilo A. McSween

Dear Mr. McSween,

How are you? Well, I hope.

I met with our analyst at the FEC for the Keep Hope Alive PAC, regarding our third quarter submission. He made several suggestions for improving our report, which I talk about below. He also said that if we acted quickly to fix some of the inadequacies of the report, and sent him a letter to that effect right away, it would improve the report before he "officially" had a chance to review it.

Therefore:

*I have sent a letter out to all our donors over $200, asking for their employer's name and occupation, which the FEC requires us to ask.

*I have sent a letter to a woman who donated to us from Liberia, verifying that she is not a foreign national, since they are barred from donating to PACs.

*I have identified the following steps that the PAC needs to take right away, which fall under your jurisdiction as PAC Treasurer (these are all related to problems which our FEC analyst noticed):

--We should transfer $6,975.00 from our Federal PAC account to our Non-Federal PAC account. This will cover donations which may have included, unintentionally, corporate or union funds, such as the $5,000 from the Friends of Jackson (address unknown); $1,000 from Eddie Bernice Johnson; $500 from the Committee to Elect Rev. A. R. Polk; $250 from the John Wiley Price Campaign; $100 from the Mid-Brooklyn Political Association; and $125 from two small checks we received, possibly corporate.

--We need the campaign to bill the PAC for the use of the list to mail our first batch of letters last July.

--We need to add in the new information from the bank account in Atlanta, which I will be glad to do as soon as you can send it to me.

--We need to send the FEC the attached letter to our analyst, Mr. Anthony Raymond, pointing out that we have taken all these steps. If you would sign this letter, and send it to me as soon as possible, I will complete the Atlanta information, and turn it in to the FEC immediately.

Thanks. This should greatly improve our submission.

Sincerely,

Steve Cobble

Dear Mr. McKeen,

I hope the Holiday Season is finding you well.

Just about a month ago, I sent the originals of the attached two pages of information and action. I have since received no word on the status of these items, and I am getting concerned that we may soon face immediate action from the F.E.C. Could you take a look at these two letters, which are fairly self-explanatory, and then take the actions you deem appropriate? My recommendations are based on mitigating likely F.E.C. problems.

I would add one suggestion to my previous letter - I think it makes sense for you to close the Atlanta bank account (I discussed this with Tom Murray in Chicago recently), and transfer the money to our non-federal account here since we have no reporting data. I am sure the $599 there, with no donors over $200, so we could put it in the federal account too - but without the paper trail, I suggest we just close it and put it in the non-federal account.

You will note that my office address has been changed - the old address was 1000 15th St. NW, and I have moved into my old quarters, 733 15th St. NW, Suite # 700. I have also signed the attached to me at the old address. I hope there is some number today. I hope.

Thank you. See you soon.

Dear Mr. Raymond,

This letter will amend the third quarter report of the Keep Hope Alive Political Action Committee. We have undertaken the following steps since the submission of that report, in order to rectify some inadequacies in the original submission:

*We have sent out a letter from the PAC to all those donors who gave over $200, asking them their employer's name and their occupation (a copy of this letter is attached).

*We have sent a letter to Ms. Beverlee Bruce, Ph.D., asking if the $50 she gave us was personal, and asking her to verify that she is a citizen.

*We have added in the activity from the Atlanta bank account established at the time of the Democratic National Convention, which was inadvertently left off of the first third quarter report. (These new figures are attached.)

*We have transferred $6,975 from our Federal funds account to our Non-Federal funds account, while we work to verify the source of the money donated by the following groups--$5,000 from Friends of Jackson; $100 from the Mid-Brooklyn Political Association; $500 from the Committee to Elect Rev. A. R. Polk; $250 from the John Wiley Price Campaign; and $1,000 from Eddie Bernice Johnson; and another $125 to cover two checks which may be corporate.

We trust this improves our submission. In the future, we will endeavor to file timely, complete, and accurate reports, particularly as we gain more experience in the FEC/PAC process. Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION
COMMUNICATIONS

Cirilo McSwain, Treasurer
Keep Americans Politically
Active Committee
1076 Thomas Jefferson Street
Washington, DC 20001

Identification Numbers: 00000000

Reference: October Quarterly Report (7/1/90-9/30/90)

Dear Mr. McSwain:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's preliminary review of the report(s) referenced above. The review raised questions concerning certain information contained in the report(s). An itemization follows:

-The identification of each contributor, including the person's occupation and name of employer, must be provided if the person has contributed in excess of $200 in the aggregate during the calendar year. Please amend Schedule A supporting Line 11(a)(1) for each entry lacking a contributor's occupation and name of employer.

Note: If your committee has made at least one effort per solicitation, either by a written request or by an oral request documented in writing to obtain this information from the contributor, your committee may have exercised "best efforts." Under 11 CFR 104.7(b), such effort shall consist of a clear request for the information (i.e., name, mailing address, occupation, and name of employer) which request informs the contributor that the reporting of such information is required by law. If you believe that your committee satisfies the "best efforts" provision, you should provide a copy of your solicitation or an explanation of the method(s) used to obtain contribution information. Clarification regarding "best efforts" should be disclosed during each two year election cycle beginning with the first report filed in the non-election year. 11 CFR 104.3(a)(4)(i)

-Your report discloses limited payments for administrative expenses. Administrative expenses are payments made for the purpose of operating a political committee including, but not limited to, the committee's income, expenses, assets, liabilities, utilities, and other items. The committee must also disclose any equipment and other items that are being aggregated in the committee's report. In addition, if the committee is a debt or outstanding for sixty (60) days or more, it must be disclosed on Schedule A. Detailed Summary. In addition, if the committee is a debt or outstanding for sixty (60) days or more, it must be disclosed on Schedule A. In a reporting period, the committee must be disclosed as a debt or outstanding for sixty (60) days or more, or outstanding for sixty (60) days or more. 11 CFR 104.11.

If these expenses are being paid by a committee organization, that organization of organization must be amended to reflect this relationship. 2 U.S.C. §433(b) (2).

Any goods or services provided to your committee by a person, except voluntary activity (i.e., a person's time), would be considered an in-kind contribution from that person, and would be subject to the disclosure requirements of 2 U.S.C. §434(b) (3) and 11 CFR 104.11, and the limitations and prohibitions of 2 U.S.C. §§441a and 441b.

Please provide clarification regarding administrative expenses incurred by your committee and/or when your report to disclose such expenses according to the referenced provisions of the Act and Commission regulations. Clarification regarding administrative expenses should be disclosed during each two year election cycle beginning with the first report filed in the non-election year.

-Schedule A of your report (pertinent portion(s) attached) discloses a contribution(s) from an organization(s) which is not a political committee registered with the Commission. Under 11 CFR 102.3(b), organizations which are not political committees under the Act must either: 1) establish a separate account which contains only those funds permitted under the Act, or 2) demonstrate through a reasonable accounting method that the organization has received sufficient funds subject to the limitations and prohibitions in order to make the contribution.

If your committee does not finance non-federal activity, the receipt of the referenced contribution(s) may violate the limitations and prohibitions of the Act. (2 U.S.C. §§441a(f) and 441b) If your committee engages in both federal and non-federal activity, either through a separate non-federal account, or one account that finances activity in connection with both incorrectly disclosed, you should amend your original report with the clarifying information.

Although the Commission may take further legal steps concerning the acceptance of prohibited contributions, prompt action by your committee in refunding or

Reference: October Quarterly Report (7/1/88-9/30/88)

Dear Mr. McSween:

On December 7, 1988 you were notified that a review of the above-referenced report(s) raised questions as to specific contributions and/or expenditures, and the reporting of certain information required by the Federal Election Campaign Act.

Your December 15, 1988 response is incomplete because you have not provided all the requested information. For this response to be considered adequate, the following information is still required.

-Your report discloses limited payments for administrative expenses. Administrative expenses are payments made for the purpose of operating a political committee including, but not limited to, rent, utilities, salaries, telephone service, office equipment and supplies. Any such payments to a person aggregating in excess of $200 in a calendar year must be disclosed on Schedule B, supporting Line 19 of the Detailed Summary Page. (2 U.S.C. §434(b)(3)) In addition, if expenses have been incurred but not paid in a reporting period, the activity should be disclosed as a debt on Schedule D, if the obligation is $500 or more, or outstanding for sixty (60) days or more. 11 CFR 104.11.

If these expenses are being paid by a connected organization, your Statement of Organization must be amended to reflect this relationship. 2 U.S.C. §433(b)(2).

Any goods or services provided to your committee by a person, except volunteer activity (i.e., a person's time), would be considered an in-kind contribution from that person, and would be subject to the disclosure requirements of 2 U.S.C. §434(b)(3) and 11 CFR 104.13, and the limitations and prohibitions of 2 U.S.C. §§441a and 441b.

Please provide clarification regarding administrative expenses incurred by your committee and/or amend your report to disclose such expenses according to the referenced provisions of the Act and Commission regulations. Clarification regarding administrative expenses should be disclosed during each two year election cycle beginning with the first report filed in the non-election year.

-Schedule A of your report (pertinent portion(s) attached) discloses a contribution(s) from an organization(s) which is not a political committee registered with the Commission. Under 11 CFR 102.5(b), organizations which are not political committees under the Act must either: 1) establish a separate account which contains only those funds permitted under the Act, or 2) demonstrate through a reasonable accounting method that the organization has received sufficient funds subject to the limitations and prohibitions in order to make the contribution.

If your committee does not finance non-federal activity, the receipt of the referenced contribution(s) may violate the limitations and prohibitions of the Act. (2 U.S.C. §§441a(f) and 441b) If your committee engages in both federal and non-federal activity, either through a separate non-federal account, or one account that finances activity in connection with both federal and non-federal elections, your committee may be in violation of 11 CFR 102.5(a).

Please clarify whether the contribution(s) received from the referenced organization(s) is permissible. To the extent that your committee has received funds which are not permissible, the Commission recommends that you refund the impermissible amount(s) to the donor(s) in accordance with 11 CFR 103.3(b). Alternatively, if you choose to transfer the funds to an account not used to influence federal elections, the Commission advises that you inform the contributor in writing and provide the contributor with the option of receiving a refund. You may wish to seek a written authorization (either before or after the transfer-out) from the donor for any transfer-out to protect the donor's interests.

Dear Mr. Gibson:

In response to your letter of December 30, 1988, to the Keep Hope Alive Political Action Committee, I would like to report the following:

--You noted that during the period July 1, 1988, through September 30, 1988, the PAC had very low expenses for administrative functions. That is correct. As it happens, the Keep Hope Alive PAC raised its early money at gatherings during the Atlanta Convention, at no cost; and, from one direct mail effort after the convention, for which the consultant expenses were detailed in the disbursement section of the report.

The PAC had no staff until after October 15, 1988. It had no office space until December 1, 1988 (although friends of the PAC did agree to collect mail for the PAC at our old Thomas Jefferson St. address). The PAC had no phone until December 21, 1988. Thus, we had almost no administrative expenses during not only the third quarter reporting period, but also for the post-election reporting period.

We now have an executive director; a telephone (202) 737-4673; and a new office, at the address above. These costs will be reported in our next report, and in all subsequent reports.

--The other question you had involved a contribution the PAC received from a committee which was not registered with the FEC. Since that time, this $5,000 contribution, along with another $1,975 in contributions which we could not quickly verify as qualified for our federal account, have been transferred to our non-federal account. (The deposit/transfer slip is attached for verification.) → Still being sent.

I trust these responses will answer your questions. If you have any further questions, please contact me through the PAC office in Washington--Steve Cobble, at 737-4673. Thank you.

Mr. Anthony D. Rayburn
Senior Analyst
Federal Elections Commission
999 E St., N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20543

Dear Mr. Raymond,

As clarification, the amount of $10,000 from the Hope Alive and Federal Accounts also was transferred because of the transfers of funds from the accounts to the Non-Federal accounts.

The first transfer, of $10,000, was made on 12/15/88 (the cancelled check is attached). This transfer included $2,000 which we had previously reported, but for which we had no addressee at all. These checks from James W. Compton for $500, Chester A. Williams for for $500, and Darlene L. Paris for $1,000, were also included in our Non-Federal accounts. This transfer our calendar year contributions to $17,700.00.

The second transfer is not noted on this report, since it was accomplished last week. However, you have received a xerox copy of the transfer, since you had previously requested that a $5,000 check from "Friends of Jackson" be accounted for--since we could not identify the donors, we have transferred the money.
This $6,975 transfer lowered our calendar year Political Party Committees contributions by $6,850 to $100. In conjunction with a $50 addition error, it also took $125 away from the individual unitemized contributions, lowering the total by $75 to $135,031.54.

Thus, our calendar year Total Contributions has dropped down to $214,557.61. If you have any questions or comments, please give me a call at 737-4673. Thanks.

Sincerely,

Steven B. Cobble

Reference: Year End Report (11/29/88-12/31/88)

Dear Mr. McSween:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's preliminary review of the report(s) referenced above. The review raised questions concerning certain information contained in the report(s). An itemization follows:

-Although you have reduced receipts from Line 11(a)(i) and 11(b) of the Detailed Summary Page through a transfer-out to your non-federal account, you should not adjust the Column B calendar year-to-date figures. Please amend your report to disclose total receipts into your account for the calendar year. In addition, your beginning cash-on-hand figure on Line 6(b) of the Summary Page should equal the cash-on-hand at the close of your 1988 30 Day Post-General Report.

-The Commission notes your transfers to your non-federal account of possible impermissible funds. Although the Commission may take further legal steps concerning the acceptance of impermissible funds, your prompt action will be taken into consideration.

A written response or an amendment to your original report(s) correcting the above problem(s) should be filed with the Federal Election Commission within fifteen (15) days of the date of this letter. If you need assistance, please feel free to contact me on our toll-free number, (800) 424-9530. My local number is (202) 376-2480.

Federal Election Commission
Washington, D.C. 20463

Dear Mr. Raymond:

On March 8, 1989, you wrote to the Keep Hope Alive PAC requesting a written response regarding certain information from our Year End Report. I should note here that we have responded in as timely a fashion as we could, including walking our response over to the FEC personally. Unfortunately, your letter was mailed to our old address (1074 Thomas Jefferson St.) instead of our new one (733 15th St., N.W.; Room #700; Washington, D.C.; 20005), thus delaying our receipt of the letter.

(We have previously filed an amendment of our address with the FEC. If we need to do so again, please let me know.)

As you noted in your March 8th letter, we had incorrectly adjusted our calendar-year-to-date figures when we transferred certain monies from our Federal account to our Non-Federal account. Upon review, this was due to several factors, but mainly due to our assumption that monies that should have originally been placed in our Non-Federal account should not be counted as having been received and then disbursed from our Federal account. Now that you have corrected this mistaken assumption on our part, we will not make this mistake again. (Also, of course, our intent from now on is to make sure that money which belongs in our Non-Federal account is correctly placed there in the first place!)

KEEP HOPE ALIVE

The attached copies of our Year End Report now show the following changes:

*The correction of a $50 addition error in our 11/28/88 report.

*The transfer of $6,975 from our Federal account to our Non-Federal account, which includes the $5,000 donation which the FEC first questioned.

*The transfer of another $2,000 from our Federal account to our Non-Federal account, which we had incorrectly deducted from our Year End Report figures. This amount covered three checks for which we had been able to find no additional information on these three early donors (Paris-$1,000; Compton-$500; Higgins-$500).

Our figures have been adjusted as shown on the attached copies of our Year End Report. These new figures will be reflected in all subsequent reports.

Please contact me if there are any further questions on this matter.

SENSITIVE

I. BACKGROUND

This matter was initiated by a referral from the Reports Analysis Division ("RAD"). On August 8, 1989, the Commission found reason to believe Keep Hope Alive Political Action Committee ("the Committee") and its treasurer¹ had violated 2 U.S.C. § 441b and 11 C.F.R. § 102.5(a). These findings related to the Committee's receipt of $5,850 in funds from four unregistered organizations as follows:

Organization	Date	Amount
Friends of Jesse Jackson Washington, D.C.	7-13-88	$5,000.00
John Wiley Price Campaign Dallas, Texas	7-9-88	250.00
Committee to Elect Rev. A.R. Polk River Rouge, Michigan	7-10-88	500.00
Mid-Brooklyn Political Association	9-15-88	100.00

The Commission also approved interrogatories and a request for

1. The referral and First General Counsel's Report identified Cirilio A. McSween, as treasurer. This Office has learned that on June 27, 1989, the Committee filed a new Statement of Organization identifying Dr. Mary Berry as the treasurer. The letter accompanying the statement stated that her term began with the filing of the statement, although the statement itself is dated February 27, 1989.

documents with respect to these receipts. Counsel for the Committee filed the response on October 17, 1989. Attachment 1.

Keep Hope Alive Political Action Committee was organized in June 1988 and filed its original Statement of Organization with the Commission on June 30, 1989, listing Alvin J. Boutte of Chicago, Illinois, as treasurer and custodian of records and the Independence Bank of Chicago as the campaign depository and with the Committee located in Chicago. The Committee described itself as a committee that supports or opposes more than one federal candidate and is not a separate segregated fund or a party committee.

On October 27, 1988, the Committee filed a new Statement of Organization identifying Cirilio A. McSween of Chicago as treasurer and Steven B. Cobble of Washington, D.C., as custodian of records and added the National Bank of Washington as a depository and indicated a change of location to Washington, D.C. For 1988, the Committee reported total receipts of $223,481 and total disbursements of $77,486.

On January 30, 1989, the Committee again amended its Statement of Organization to show a new address in the District. The Committee further amended its statement on June 27, 1989, to show Dr. Mary Berry of Washington as the new treasurer and added the Adams National Bank of Washington as a depository. Through the 1989 Mid-Year Report, the Committee disclosed total receipts of $138,394 and total disbursements of $190,777 with cash on hand of $93,663.42 and debts owed by the Committee of $7,633.93. From its inception, the Committee's counsel has been the same as counsel designated to represent the Committee in this matter.

II. FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

The Commission's regulations provide that organizations, which qualify as a political committee under the Act must register with the Commission. 11 C.F.R. § 100.5. Organizations qualifying as political committees must establish a separate account for federal activity which includes only funds subject to the limitations and prohibitions of the Act. 11 C.F.R.

§ 102.5(a). Organizations that are not political committees must either establish a separate account for federal activity or demonstrate that contributions made to federal committees did not include any funds prohibited under the Act. 11 C.F.R.

§ 102.5(b). The Act prohibits corporate and labor union contributions. 2 U.S.C. § 441b.

With respect to the $250 contribution from the John Wiley Price Campaign, counsel states that Mr. Price, a county commissioner in Dallas, wrote the check from his campaign fund. Counsel further states that "[w]e have spoken with Mr. Price, and he has stated that there was at that time no corporate or labor money in his campaign account, nor did his campaign receive any personal contributions greater than $5000." We note that Texas law prohibits corporate and labor union contributions.

Regarding the $100 contribution from Mid-Brooklyn Political Association, counsel states that James Connolly, district leader of the 42nd State Assembly District in New York, signed a check for $100 from the Mid-Brooklyn Political Association, which is described as "an account opened for the purpose of impacting local races in Brooklyn." Counsel further states that "Mr. Connolly has informed us that the account contained no corporate or union money and no individual contributions of more than $5000." We note that New York law permits limited corporate contributions and unlimited union contributions.

21040830751

Counsel states that the Committee to Elect Rev. A.R. Polk has been written at its last known address but that a reply is still awaited. Accordingly, this Office contacted the office of the Secretary of State, where campaign reports are filed, to ascertain if this committee had been registered during 1988 and, if so, if copies of its reports could be obtained. No such committee had been registered with the state for 1988. This Office then contacted the Wayne County Clerk's office to ascertain if such a committee was a local committee registered with that office and again learned that no such committee had been registered with Wayne County. Finally, staff of this office called Rev. A.R. Polk on November 1. Rev. Polk stated that the committee was formed for an election within the church, not a political office. Although he said he did not recall making a contribution to Keep Hope Alive PAC, he did acknowledge that such a contribution may have been made during a meeting in Texas. He further stated that the funds in the committee's accounts did not come from corporations or unions but from members of the church.

Finally, counsel has clarified the circumstances regarding the $5000 reported as received from Friends of Jesse Jackson. Counsel states:

On June 20, 1988, a twenty-five dollar ($25) per plate dinner was held at the Shiloh Baptist Church located at 9th and P Streets, N.W., Washington, D.C. The dinner was advertised throughout the community, via flyers and invitations, as a dinner featuring the Reverend Jesse Jackson. Reverend Jackson had planned to attend, but could not due to a scheduling conflict. The guest speakers who did attend included Mayor Marion Berry and Congressman Walter Fauntroy. Approximately three hundred (300) people were at the dinner.

The organizers of the dinner opened an account at the Industrial Bank of Washington specifically for this event. The account was opened in the name "Friends of Jesse Jackson." The profits from the dinner-- five thousand dollars ($5000) -- were placed into this account. Shortly after the dinner, according to one of the organizers of the event, Mr. Joseph Beavers, the organizers consulted with Jesse Jackson who suggested that the proceeds of the dinner be contributed to the Keep Hope Alive PAC.

On July 13, 1988, a five thousand dollar check representing all of the profits from the dinner was written to the Keep Hope Alive PAC. The "Friends of Jesse Jackson" bank account was thereupon closed out.

As discussed above, "Friends of Jesse Jackson" is not a formal organization. This was merely the name given to the bank account opened for the purpose of receiving and transferring the proceeds of a dinner held in Washington, D.C. at the Shiloh Baptist Church. The head organizer for this event was Mr. Joseph Beavers. Mr. Beavers is a clerk and a trustee of the Shiloh Baptist Church. Mr. Beavers can be reached at (202) 654-6391, and correspondence may be sent care of the Shiloh Baptist Church.

Later in the response, counsel contends that the receipt of the $5000 in funds from the Shiloh Baptist Church event was proper. Counsel states:

...Furthermore, we believe that the $5000 representing the profits of the dinner at the Shiloh Baptist Church was properly transferred to the Keep Hope Alive PAC under 11 C.F.R. § 102.6. We do acknowledge, however, that this receipt originally was not properly reported. By virtue of 11 C.F.R. §§ 102.6(c)(5),(7), and § 104.3(a), the Keep Hope Alive PAC was not obligated to report the names of the individual attendees at the dinner, but it should have reported the aggregate $5000 amount as a memo entry of unitemized contributions. Instead, the amount was reported as a receipt from a committee. This $5000 and the other three contributions have since been transferred out of the Keep Hope Alive PAC's federal account and into its non-federal account, and the PAC's reports have been amended to reflect this transfer. Therefore, we do not presently see a need to amend further the initial reports listing these contributions.

Counsel has not requested preprobable cause conciliation, but instead concluded her letter by stating that the Committee would "be happy to provide any further assistance needed by the Commission in order to close this matter without further action."

In the view of this Office, counsel's reliance on 11 C.F.R. § 102.6, particularly subsections (c)(5) and (7), is misplaced. Those provision deal with collecting agents for separate segregated funds. When Keep Hope Alive PAC registered with the Commission, it indicated on its Statement of Organization that it was not a separate segregated fund. Moreover, there are no apparent facts which would suggest that it is a separate segregated fund.

Nevertheless, counsel by citing to these regulations does represent and assert that Friends of Jesse Jackson was a fundraising agent for Keep Hope Alive PAC. She states that Friends of Jesse Jackson was not a formal organization but merely the name used to open a bank account into which the proceeds of the Shiloh Baptist Church dinner were deposited. All of the funds deposited into this account were apparently transferred to Keep Hope Alive PAC and the account closed.

Accepting these representations as valid, the forwarding provisions of the Act and regulations at 2 U.S.C. § 432(b)(2) and 11 C.F.R. § 102.8(b) are the initial reference point. Because the amount of the individual contributions was only $25 per person, these provisions required that the person receiving these contributions forward them to the committee within 30 days. See 11 C.F.R. § 102.8(b)(1). The event was held on June 20, 1988, and the funds disbursed to Keep Hope Alive PAC on July 13, 1988, or 23 days later. Thus, to the extent they may be applicable, the forwarding provisions of the Act and regulations were complied with.

Counsel has stated that the Committee should have reported these funds as unitemized contributions from individuals rather than a contribution from a political committee. We note that if counsel's contention that Friends of Jesse Jackson were merely a fundraising agent for the Committee and not itself a political committee were accepted, then the Committee should have reported gross (not net) proceeds and the expenses of the dinner as disbursements.²

The facts as presently known, however, suggest that Friends of Jesse Jackson may have functioned as a political committee. A "committee" is defined to include "any...group of persons" who receive more than $1,000 in contributions or make more than

2. The regulations do not speak specifically to situations where a fundraising agent pays expenses of the fundraising activity from the fundraising proceeds themselves. Where that occurs, however, the recipient committee should report the gross proceeds and the expenses paid. If a separate bank account is used to make the initial deposit of the proceeds and from which expenses are paid, the account should be listed as a campaign depository. If that is done, the forwarding provisions are met with the deposit into this account. See, Advisory Opinion 1980-42 and MUR 2808. If, instead, the fundraising agent pays expenses from its own resources, not from the proceeds, such payments are advances and should be reported by the recipient committee as in-kind contributions unless they are reimbursed on a timely basis.

$1,000 in expenditures during any calendar year. 2 U.S.C. § 431(4)(A). Friends of Jesse Jackson is a name used by a group of persons who held a fundraising event. The group charged persons attending the event $25 per person. It paid the expenses of the event and deposited the proceeds into a separate bank account. From this account, it made a $5,000 contribution to Keep Hope Alive. Thus, it appears that Friends of Jesse Jackson qualified as a political committee under the Act and should have registered and reported, even though it may have also been able to terminate. Accordingly, we recommend that the Commission find reason to believe Friends of Jesse Jackson and Joseph Beavers, acting as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 433 and 434. Furthermore, we do not know what the fliers and invitations to dinner said or the circumstances relating to the request or suggestion by Reverend Jackson or his representative that the funds be contributed to Keep Hope Alive PAC.³

As noted earlier, the information received from counsel indicates that it does not appear the contributions received from the John Wiley Price Campaign and the Mid-Brooklyn Political Association, were made from accounts containing funds prohibited under the Act or in excess of the Act's limitations. Rev. A.R. Polk told staff of this office that funds in the account of the

3. If an investigation shows that these funds were solicited on behalf of Reverend Jackson's candidacy or earmarked by the contributors to his candidacy, a further question would arise whether Reverend Jackson has effectively directed or controlled the making of this contribution so that it should also have been attributed to him or his principal campaign committee as well as Friends of Jesse Jackson and so reported by his committee and Keep Hope Alive PAC. See 11 C.F.R. § 110.6.

Committee to Elect Rev. A.R. Polk came from members of his church. Furthermore, counsel has clarified that the funds initially reported as received from Friends of Jesse Jackson consisted of individual contributions of $25 and did not come from an account that included any corporate or union funds. Thus, it does not appear that these funds included prohibited funds under 2 U.S.C. § 441b or that their deposit violated 11 C.F.R. § 102.5(a). Because of the need to further investigate whether Friends of Jesse Jackson was a political committee and the possible impact of the resolution of this issue on Keep Hope Alive, we do not at this time make any recommendations with respect to Keep Hope Alive.⁴ Once the investigation is complete, the Section 441b and 102.5(a) issues can be addressed in a brief.

III. RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Find reason to believe Friends of Jesse Jackson and Joseph Beavers, acting as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 433 and 434.

4. If it is determined that Friends of Jesse Jackson was a political committee, then its $5,000 contribution to Keep Hope Alive would be within the contribution limitation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(C) for contributions to unauthorized committees. As noted in the report, if it is determined that Friends of Jesse Jackson were merely a fundraising agent and not a political committee, then Keep Hope Alive PAC should have reported the gross receipts as well as the expenses and would have violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b) by failing to do so. Whether further findings with respect to Keep Hope Alive PAC are necessary will depend on the resolution of the issue regarding the status of Friends of Jesse Jackson. See also, Footnotes 2 and 3.

Dear Mr. Beavers:

On November 28, 1989, the Federal Election Commission found that there is reason to believe Friends of Jesse Jackson ("the Committee") and you, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 433 and 434, provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"). The Factual and Legal Analysis, which formed a basis for the Commission's finding, is attached for your information.

Under the Act, you have an opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken against the Committee and you, as treasurer. You may submit any factual or legal materials that you believe are relevant to the Commission's consideration of this matter. Please submit such materials to the General Counsel's Office along with answers to the enclosed questions within 15 days of your receipt of this letter. Where appropriate, statements should be submitted under oath.

In the absence of any additional information demonstrating that no further action should be taken against the Committee and you, as treasurer, the Commission may find probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred and proceed with conciliation.

If you are interested in pursuing pre-probable cause conciliation, you should so request in writing. See 11 C.F.R. § 111.18(d). Upon receipt of the request, the Office of the General Counsel will make recommendations to the Commission either proposing an agreement in settlement of the matter or recommending declining that pre-probable cause conciliation be pursued. The Office of the General Counsel may recommend that pre-probable cause conciliation not be entered into at this time so that it may complete its investigation of the matter. Further, the Commission will not entertain requests for pre-probable cause conciliation after briefs on probable cause have been mailed to the respondent.

Requests for extensions of time will not be routinely granted. Requests must be made in writing at least five days prior to the due date of the response and specific good cause must be demonstrated. In addition, the Office of the General Counsel ordinarily will not give extensions beyond 20 days.

If you intend to be represented by counsel in this matter, please advise the Commission by completing the enclosed form stating the name, address, and telephone number of such counsel, and authorizing such counsel to receive any notifications and other communications from the Commission.

This matter will remain confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. §§ 437g(a)(4)(B) and 437g(a)(12)(A), unless you notify the Commission in writing that you wish the investigation to be made public.

For your information, we have attached a brief description of the Commission's procedures for handling possible violations of the Act. If you have any questions, please contact Jeffrey D. Long, the staff member assigned to this matter, at (202) 376-5690.

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

RESPONDENTS: Friends of Jesse Jackson HUR: 2939 and Joseph Beavers, acting as treasurer

I. GENERATION OF MATTER

This matter was generated based on information ascertained by the Federal Election Commission ("the Commission") in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities.

2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(2).

II. FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

Under the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"), a "committee" is defined to include "any...group of persons" who receive more than $1,000 in contributions or make more than $1,000 in expenditures during any calendar year.

2 U.S.C. § 431(4)(A). Such political committees are required to file a Statement of Organization with the Commission within 10 days of becoming a political committee and to file periodic reports of its receipts and disbursements. 2 U.S.C. §§ 433 and 434.

Keep Hope Alive Political Action Committee reported the receipt of a $5,000 from Friends of Jesse Jackson on July 13, 1988 as the receipt of a contribution from a political committee. Friends of Jesse Jackson apparently is a name used by a group of persons who held a fundraising event at the Shiloh Baptist Church on June 20, 1988. The event was advertised by fliers and invitations distributed in the community. The group charged persons attending the event $25 per person. It apparently paid the expenses of the event and deposited the proceeds into a separate bank account at the Industrial Bank of Washington. From this account, it made a $5,000 contribution to Keep Hope Alive after consulting with the Reverend Jesse Jackson or his representatives. Thus, it appears that Friends of Jesse Jackson qualified as a political committee under the Act and should have filed a Statement of Organization and a July and October Quarterly Report for 1988.¹

Accordingly, there is reason to believe Friends of Jesse Jackson and Joseph Beavers, acting as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 433 and 434.

1. If this activity were the only federal election activity by Friends of Jesse Jackson, it could also have terminated after filing the July and October Quarterly reports.

Re: MUR 2939

Dear Sir:

This correspondence is in reply to your letter dated December 7, 1989, and received by me January 7, 1990.

I contacted Mr. Jeffrey D. Long, the staff member assigned to this case by telephone, who advised that I within 20 days answer the questions on MUR 2939 page 4, which are as follows:

Question Number 1. Answer -- In the early spring of 1988 Pastor Henry C. Gregory, III of Shiloh Baptist Church and I was discussing the candidacy of Jesse Jackson for President of the U.S.A. who had a strong message but a shoe string budget and he asked me about putting on a fundraiser for Rev. Jackson because he would need a lot of money if he was going to do well in the primaries and win the Democratic Party candidacy for President or Vice President at the Democratic National Convention in Atlanta, Georgia. I agreed and contacted Mrs. Mattie Robinson a very active member of Shiloh and head of the Missionary Department and Mr. Horace Roberts, one of the Senior Deacons and a very active community worker.

We three agreed to Chair and Co-Chair a Fundraiser for Rev. Jackson, the proceeds after expenses to help him win at the Democratic National Convention in Atlanta, GA.

Our first job was to organize a committee, which we agreed to name "Friends of Jesse Jackson". We also agreed on Honorary Chairpersons, see Letterhead attached.

We agreed on D.C. City Council Supporters, see Letterhead attached.

We got friends to join our committee, see Letterhead attached.

We were able to get as our guest speaker, Marion S. Barry, the Mayor of the District of Columbia.

Question Number 2. Answer -- The cost for attending this event was solicited on behalf of Rev. Jesse Jackson, see Invitation and return card. Committee Letterhead and Flier attached. All persons attending the affair was told that after expenses, all proceeds would be given to Rev. Jackson to help him win in Atlanta, GA.

Question Number 3. Answer -- The total receipts were $10,466.44 with Disbursements of $5,314.00 expenses and $5,152.44 to be given to Rev. Jesse Jackson. See attached itemized list. All disbursements for expenses was paid from the Industrial Bank of Washington by check.

Question Number 4. Answer -- The account was set up at the Industrial Bank of Washington. Checking Account Number 035-091-5 in the name of Friends of Jesse Jackson Banquet Fund Raiser with three people authorized to sign checks, Joseph A. Beavers, Mattie Robinson and Horace Roberts. Payments to attend the banquet was made both in cash and checks and were deposited in the Industrial Bank of Washington. I can't remember the percentage of each deposit but they were mostly checks. All checks and cash was deposited in this account. There was no other account.

Question Number 5. Answer -- Rev. Jesse Jackson was speaking at the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People's Convention held at the Sheraton Park Hotel, Washington, DC. The committee arranged to make the contribution to him personally on the night he spoke. The check was made out to Rev. Jesse Jackson in the amount of $5,152.44. After the check was presented to him in the Grand Ballroom where he spoke, later that night at the reception, Rev. Jackson came to me and asked me to change the check, and make the check out to Keep Hope Alive for $5,000.00 and give the $152.44 to yourself for part of your expenses to come down to Atlanta, GA to work for my candidacy at the Democratic National Convention. Present was Horace Roberts, Co-Chair and other members of the "Friends of Jesse Jackson Committee".

Sincerely

Joseph A. Beavers

SENSITIVE

MUR 2939

COMPREHENSIVE INVESTIGATIVE REPORT

I. BACKGROUND

This matter was initiated by a referral from the Reports Analysis Division ("RAD"). On August 22, 1989, the Commission found reason to believe Keep Hope Alive Political Action Committee ("the Committee") and its treasurer had violated 2 U.S.C. § 441b and 11 C.F.R. § 102.5(a). These findings related to the Committee's receipt of $5,850 in funds from four unregistered organizations. The Commission also approved interrogatories and a request for documents with respect to these receipts. Counsel for the Committee filed the response on October 17, 1989. The response was previously discussed in the General Counsel's Report, signed November 13, 1989. On November 28, 1989, the Commission further found reason to believe Friends of Jesse Jackson and Joseph Beavers, acting as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 433 and 434 and approved interrogatories and a request for documents to Mr. Beavers. Mr. Beavers filed his response on January 30, 1990. This reports reviews the earlier response from Keep Hope Alive with respect to Friends of Jesse Jackson and the latest response from Joseph Beavers on behalf of

Friends of Jesse Jackson.

Keep Hope Alive Political Action Committee was organized in June 1988 and filed its original Statement of Organization with the Commission on June 30, 1989, listing Alvin J. Boutte of Chicago, Illinois, as treasurer and custodian of records, the Independence Bank of Chicago as the campaign depository, and the Committee's address as Chicago. The Committee described itself as a committee that supports or opposes more than one federal candidate and not a separate segregated fund or a party committee. For 1988, the Committee reported total receipts of $223,481 and total disbursements of $77,486. Through the 1989 Mid-Year Report, the Committee disclosed total receipts of $138,394 and total disbursements of $190,777 with cash on hand of $93,663.42 and debts owed by the Committee of $7,633.93.

II. FACTUAL ANALYSIS

The Commission's regulations provide that organizations, which qualify as a political committee under the Act must register with the Commission. 11 C.F.R. § 100.5. Organizations qualifying as political committees must establish a separate account for federal activity which includes only funds subject to the limitations and prohibitions of the Act. 11 C.F.R. § 102.5(a). Organizations that are not political committees must either establish a separate account for federal activity or demonstrate that contributions made to federal committees did not include any funds prohibited under the Act. 11 C.F.R. § 102.5(b). The Act prohibits corporate and labor union contributions. 2 U.S.C. § 441b.

A. Review of Earlier Response from Keep Hope Alive

In the earlier response, counsel stated with respect to Friends of Jesse Jackson:

On June 20, 1988, a twenty-five dollar ($25) per plate dinner was held at the Shiloh Baptist Church located at 9th and P Streets, N.W., Washington, D.C. The dinner was advertised throughout the community, via flyers and invitations, as a dinner featuring the Reverend Jesse Jackson. Reverend Jackson had planned to attend, but could not due to a scheduling conflict. The guest speakers who did attend included Mayor Marion Barry and Congressman Walter Fauntroy. Approximately three hundred (300) people were at the dinner.

The organizers of the dinner opened an account at the Industrial Bank of Washington specifically for this event. The account was opened in the name "Friends of Jesse Jackson." The profits from the dinner-- five thousand dollars ($5000) -- were placed into this account. Shortly after the dinner, according to one of the organizers of the event, Mr. Joseph Beavers, the organizers consulted with Jesse Jackson who suggested that the proceeds of the dinner be contributed to the Keep Hope Alive PAC.

On July 13, 1988, a five thousand dollar check representing all of the profits from the dinner was written to the Keep Hope Alive PAC. The "Friends of Jesse Jackson" bank account was thereupon closed out.

As discussed above, "Friends of Jesse Jackson" is not a formal organization. This was merely the name given to the bank account opened for the purpose of receiving and transferring the proceeds of a dinner held in Washington, D.C. at the Shiloh Baptist Church. The head organizer for this event was Mr. Joseph Beavers. Mr. Beavers is a clerk and a trustee of the Shiloh Baptist Church. Mr. Beavers can be reached at (202) 654-6391, and correspondence may be sent care of the Shiloh Baptist Church.

Later in the response, counsel contends that the receipt of the $5000 in funds from the Shiloh Baptist Church event was proper.

Counsel states:

...Furthermore, we believe that the $5000 representing the profits of the dinner at the Shiloh Baptist Church was properly transferred to the Keep Hope Alive PAC under 11 C.F.R. § 102.6. We do acknowledge, however, that this receipt originally was not properly reported. By virtue of 11 C.F.R. § 102.6(c)(5),(7), and

21040330781

§ 104.3(a), the Keep Hope Alive PAC was not obligated to report the names of the individual attendees at the dinner, but it should have reported the aggregate $5000 amount as a memo entry of unitemized contributions. Instead, the amount was reported as a receipt from a committee. This $5000 and the other three contributions have since been transferred out of the Keep Hope Alive PAC's federal account and into its non-federal account, and the PAC's reports have been amended to reflect this transfer. Therefore, we do not presently see a need to amend further the initial reports listing these contributions.

B. Review of Response from Friends of Jesse Jackson

Joseph Beavers states in his response that, at the suggestion of Pastor Henry C. Gregory of the Shiloh Baptist Church, he organized a fundraiser on behalf of the Rev. Jesse Jackson's candidacy for the Democratic Party's presidential nomination at the convention in Atlanta. He agreed to chair the fundraiser and enlisted the assistance of Mattie Robinson and Horace Roberts, active members of the church. The proceeds after expenses from the fundraiser were to help Rev. Jackson win the nomination.

The group first organized a committee known as the "Friends of Jesse Jackson." Its honorary chairpersons were Mayor Marion S. Barry, the Honorable Walter E. Fauntroy, and Rev. Henry C. Gregory. Its also enlisted several District of Columbia city council members as supporters and a number of others as friends. The group advertised the fundraiser with flyers and invitations. This material described the event as a "Fundraiser for Jesse Jackson" or as "Jesse Jackson--88--For President." It was described to participants as a fundraiser to help Rev. Jackson win the nomination. Mayor Barry was the guest speaker. The fundraiser took place on June 20, 1988, at the Shiloh Family Life Center at 9th and P Streets, N.W., in the District. The cost of the event was $50 per person.

An account was opened at the Industrial Bank of Washington on June 15, 1988, in the name of Friends of Jesse Jackson Banquet Fund Raiser with Joseph Beavers, Mattie Robinson, and Horace Roberts on the signature card. Beavers states that tickets were paid for in cash and in checks, although mostly in checks. He adds that all receipts were deposited into the bank account and that this account was the only one used for the event. He provided a financial report that showed total receipts of $10,466.44, expenses of $5,314.00 with the balance of $5,152.44 to be given to Rev. Jackson. The bank statements he provided cover the period from June 15 to July 31. It shows total deposits of $10,450 and total debits of $9,411.81 with an ending balance of $1,038.19.

Beavers states that when Rev. Jackson was speaking to the NAACP convention at the Sheraton Park Hotel, Friends of Jesse Jackson arranged to make the contribution to him personally on the night he spoke. A check was made out to Rev. Jackson in the amount of $5,152.44. Beavers states that after the check was presented, Rev. Jackson came to Beavers and asked that the check be changed to be made out to Keep Hope Alive for $5,000. He said that Rev. Jackson further suggested that Beavers keep the $152.44 balance and come to Atlanta to help him win the nomination. The reports filed by Keep Hope Alive show the receipt of the $5,000 contribution on July 13, 1988. The bank statements show it cleared the account of Friends of Jesse Jackson on July 28, 1988.

C. Conclusion

Neither Keep Hope Alive nor Friends of Jesse Jackson has requested preprobable cause conciliation. The responses from both Keep Hope Alive and Friends of Jesse Jackson provide sufficient information regarding the subject transaction to prepare briefs on the issues raised. Therefore, this Office will proceed to the next stage of the enforcement process.

Dear Mr. Beavers:

The Commission received your response dated January 26, 1990, on January 30, 1990. After reviewing your response, one point has arisen which needs further clarification. You state in the response that payments to attend the banquet were made in both cash and checks and that all were deposited into the account at the Industrial Bank of Washington. This Office needs to know whether any of the payments to Friends of Jesse Jackson were made with corporate or union checks.

Please call Jeffrey Long at (202) 376-5690 with your response, or you may respond by letter.

RE: MUR 2939

Dear Mr. Beavers:

Based on information ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities, on November 28, 1989, the Federal Election Commission found reason to believe that Friends of Jesse Jackson ("Committee") and you, acting as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 433 and 434, and instituted an investigation in this matter.

After considering all the evidence available to the Commission, the Office of the General Counsel is prepared to recommend that the Commission find probable cause to believe that these violations have occurred.

The Commission may or may not approve the General Counsel's recommendation. Submitted for your review is a brief stating the position of the General Counsel on the legal and factual issues of the case. Within 15 days of your receipt of this notice, you may file with the Secretary of the Commission a brief (ten copies if possible) stating your position on the issues and replying to the brief of the General Counsel. (Three copies of such brief should also be forwarded to the Office of the General Counsel, if possible.) The General Counsel's brief and any brief which you may submit will be considered by the Commission before proceeding to a vote of whether there is probable cause to believe a violation has occurred.

If you are unable to file a responsive brief within 15 days, you may submit a written request for an extension of time. All requests for extensions of time must be submitted in writing five days prior to the due date, and good cause must be demonstrated. In addition, the Office of the General Counsel ordinarily will not give extensions beyond 20 days.

A finding of probable cause to believe requires that the Office of the General Counsel attempt for a period of not less than 30, but not more than 90 days, to settle this matter through a conciliation agreement.

GENERAL COUNSEL'S BRIEF

I. STATEMENT OF THE CASE

On November 28, 1989, the Commission found reason to believe Friends of Jesse Jackson and Joseph Beavers, acting as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 433 and 434. These findings related to the $5,000 contribution Keep Hope Alive Political Action Committee reported receiving from Friends of Jesse Jackson on July 13, 1988.

Keep Hope Alive Political Action Committee was organized in June 1988 and filed its original Statement of Organization with the Commission on June 30, 1988. The Committee described itself as a committee that supports or opposes more than one federal candidate and not a separate segregated fund or a party committee. According to press reports, Keep Hope Alive was formed by the Rev. Jesse Jackson as a political action committee to form "the basis for his activities beyond the 1988 elections and to assist local, state, and national candidates." Keep Hope Alive has not been designated by Rev. Jackson as an authorized committee.

II. LEGAL AND FACTUAL ANALYSIS

Under the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"), a "committee" is defined to include "any...group of persons" who receive more than $1,000 in contributions or make more than $1,000 in expenditures during any calendar year.

2 U.S.C. § 431(4)(A). Such political committees are required to file a Statement of Organization with the Commission within 10 days of becoming a political committee and to file periodic reports of their receipts and disbursements. 2 U.S.C. §§ 433 and 434. The Act also prohibits corporations and labor unions from making contributions and expenditures in connection with federal elections and prohibits political committees from knowingly accepting such contributions or expenditures. 2 U.S.C. § 441b. The Commission's regulations provide that organizations, which qualify as a political committee under the Act, must register with the Commission. 11 C.F.R. Part 102. Organizations qualifying as political committees must establish a campaign depository into which, with limited exceptions, all receipts are deposited and from which all disbursements are made. 2 U.S.C. § 432(h). This depository may be a separate account for federal activity into which are deposited only funds subject to the limitations and prohibitions of the Act. 11 C.F.R. § 102.5(a).

In the early spring of 1988 Pastor Henry C. Gregory of the Shiloh Baptist Church and Joseph Beavers, a member of the church, discussed the desirability of holding a fundraiser on behalf of the candidacy of Rev. Jackson for the Democratic Party's presidential nomination. At the suggestion of Rev. Gregory, Joseph Beavers along with two other members of the church, Mattie Robinson and Horace Roberts, began organizing a fundraiser on behalf of the Rev. Jesse Jackson's candidacy. Beavers became the chairman of the fundraiser, and Mattie Robinson and Horace Roberts became co-chairs. The proceeds after expenses from the fundraiser were intended to help Rev. Jackson win the nomination.

The group first organized a committee with the name of "Friends of Jesse Jackson." Its honorary chairpersons were Mayor Marion S. Barry, Jr., the Honorable Walter E. Fauntroy, and Rev. Henry C. Gregory. Several District of Columbia city council members were enlisted as supporters and a number of other persons as friends. The group advertised the fundraiser with flyers and invitations. According to Beavers, a mailing was made to members of the Shiloh Baptist Church.

One flyer listed the honorary chairpersons, the council supporters, and the dinner committee and described the event as a "Fundraiser for Jesse Jackson" to be held at the Shiloh Family Life Center on Monday, June 20, 1988. The contributor information card described the event as "Jesse Jackson--88--For President." It noted a ticket cost of $50 per person or $500 for a table of ten. Checks were to be made payable to "Friends of Jesse Jackson Banquet Fundraiser." The group also prepared letterhead stationery that listed the honorary chairpersons, council supporters, and dinner committee. Another flyer advertised the event as a "Fundraiser to Help Jesse Win at the Democratic National Convention in Atlanta, GA." It stated that the "Friends of Jesse Jackson Invite You to Attend a Reception and Dinner." Mayor Marion S. Barry, Jr., was listed as the guest speaker. The flyer also stated "The Atlanta Democratic Convention A Critical Crossroads in Our Nation's History."

9104030799

An account was opened at the Industrial Bank of Washington on June 15, 1988, in the name of Friends of Jesse Jackson Banquet Fund Raiser with Joseph Beavers, Mattie Robinson, and Horace Roberts on the signature card. Tickets were paid for in cash and in checks, although mostly in checks. A financial report prepared by the chairman and co-chairs indicates that a total of $10,466.44 was received as receipts by the Friends of Jesse Jackson for this fundraiser event. The report indicated these disbursements:¹

Printing	$857.65
Postage, Posters, etc.	589.19
Champagne, etc.	410.88
Flowers	52.50
Dinner, etc.	2,833.78
Soloists and Organist	250.00
Secretary	150.00
Returned checks	170.00
Total	$5,314.00

This left a balance of $5,152.44 to be given to Rev. Jackson or his presidential campaign. The bank statements covering the period from June 15 to November 30 show total deposits of $10,675 and total debits of $10,532.71 with an ending balance of

1. The payment for postage apparently relates to the mailing to the members of the church. The Act provides that any communication, which solicits funds or expressly advocates the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate for federal office and which is distributed by direct mail or any other type of general public political advertising, shall carry a disclaimer stating who paid for the communication and whether it was authorized by any candidate. 2 U.S.C. § 441d. The financial report, however, does not indicate any payments to commercial vendors regarding the distribution of flyers or payments for a commercial mailing list. According to Beavers, a mailing was made to members of the church. Thus, such a mailing to church members would not appear to be direct mail for purposes of the disclaimer provision. Therefore, no recommendation is made with regard to 2 U.S.C. § 441d.

$142.29.² Thus, all of the receipts were apparently deposited into the bank account at the Industrial Bank of Washington. Friends of Jesse Jackson established no other bank account. Beavers states that it has since been closed out.

Arrangements were made to present the contribution check to Rev. Jackson personally on the night he spoke to the NAACP convention at the Sheraton Park Hotel in July 1988. A check was made out to Rev. Jackson or his campaign in the amount of $5,152.44.³ After the check was presented, Rev. Jackson reportedly came to Beavers and asked that the check be changed to be made out to Keep Hope Alive for $5,000.⁴ The reports filed by

2. The differences between the financial report and the bank statements are relatively minor and appear to be related to the late payments for a few tickets or returns of deposits.

3. At the time this check was drafted, Friends of Jesse Jackson had not qualified as a multicandidate political committee as defined at 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(4). Therefore, it could have legally contributed only $1,000 to the Jackson campaign unless it was another authorized committee raising funds for the Jackson campaign. As previously noted, Rev. Jackson never designated Friends of Jesse Jackson as an authorized committee, nor is there any evidence his campaign was involved in the Friends of Jesse Jackson fundraising event. Friends of Jesse Jackson could, however, contribute up to $5,000 per calendar year to Keep Hope Alive pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(C), because Keep Hope Alive was not an authorized committee.

4. Rev. Jackson also apparently suggested to Joseph Beavers that he keep the $152.44 balance and use it to come to Atlanta and help Rev. Jackson win the nomination. Although that is how the $152.44 balance was apparently used, it would not have necessarily resulted in any violation of the Act. There is no provision that precludes this balance from being paid to Beavers personally. Section 439a limits the conversion to personal use of the funds of only a principal campaign committee. Friends of Jesse Jackson is not a principal campaign committee of any candidate and was not an authorized committee of Rev. Jackson. Furthermore, Rev. Jackson's prompt return of the contribution from Friends of Jesse Jackson demonstrates that it was never accepted by Rev. Jackson's principal campaign committee.

Keep Hope Alive reported the receipt of the $5,000 contribution on July 13, 1988, as from a political committee. The bank statements show it cleared the account of Friends of Jesse Jackson on July 28, 1988.

These facts demonstrate that Friends of Jesse Jackson was a group of persons who received an aggregate of more than $1,000 in contributions in calendar year 1988 and made an aggregate of more than $1,000 in expenditures in calendar year 1988 for the purpose of influencing a federal election. In fact, Friends of Jesse Jackson received more than $10,000 in contributions for the purpose of influencing the nomination of Rev. Jesse Jackson as the Democratic Party's candidate for President of the United States and expended $5,314 in raising these funds. When its contribution check to Rev. Jackson was returned, Friends of Jesse Jackson then contributed $5,000 to Keep Hope Alive Political Action Committee, a federal political committee registered with the Commission. Thus, Friends of Jesse Jackson became a political committee under the Act.⁵ See 2 U.S.C. § 431(4)(A). As such, it was required to register with the Commission and file

Moreover, pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 431(8)(B)(iv), Beavers' use of the $152.44 balance as his personal funds would not have been a contribution to Rev. Jackson's campaign.

5. The Act also provides that an unauthorized committee may not include the name of any candidate in the name of the committee. 2 U.S.C. § 432(e)(4). Friends of Jesse Jackson was not designated by Rev. Jackson as an authorized committee. Thus, it would have been precluded from using Rev. Jackson's name in its name. Nevertheless, because it had not registered and reported as a political committee at that time, it does not appear that this section has been implicated. Therefore, no recommendation is made with respect to 2 U.S.C. § 432(e)(4).

reports of its receipts and disbursements in accordance with the Act and regulations pursuant to 2 U.S.C. §§ 433 and 434. Moreover, the facts demonstrate that Friends of Jesse Jackson, as an unauthorized political committee, was not a designated fundraising agent for either Keep Hope Alive or the Jackson campaign.

The District of Columbia prohibits corporate, but not union, contributions. Beavers has stated in a conversation with the General Counsel's staff that solicitations were sent to two unions that he previously belonged to: the Hotel and Restaurant Employees Local 25 and the Greater Washington Central Labor Council. He indicated these two unions usually purchase two tickets each. The costs of two tickets each for both unions would have totaled $200. Thus, it remains possible that the $10,466.44 in funds received by Friends of Jesse Jackson included up to $200 in union treasury funds. Beavers did not retain copies of the checks received to verify whether or not union funds had been received. In light of the amount possibly involved and the absence of readily available records to check whether union funds were received, no recommendation is made with respect to 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a).

Accordingly, the General Counsel recommends that the Commission find probable cause to believe Friends of Jesse Jackson and Joseph Beavers, acting as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 433 and 434 for failure to register and report as a political committee.

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

I. BACKGROUND

On August 22, 1989, the Commission found reason to believe Keep Hope Alive Political Action Committee ("the Committee") and its treasurer¹ ("the Respondents") had violated 2 U.S.C. § 441b and 11 C.F.R. § 102.5(a). These findings related to the Committee's receipt of $5,850 in funds from four unregistered organizations.

Keep Hope Alive Political Action Committee was organized in June 1988 and filed its original Statement of Organization with the Commission on June 30, 1988. The Committee described itself as a committee that supports or opposes more than one federal candidate and not a separate segregated fund or a party committee. According to press reports, Keep Hope Alive was formed by the Rev. Jesse Jackson as a political action committee to form "the basis for his activities beyond the 1988 elections and to assist local, state, and national candidates." Keep Hope

1. The initial findings in this matter identified Cirilio A. McSween, as treasurer. The General Counsel later discovered that on June 27, 1989, the Committee had filed a new Statement of Organization identifying Dr. Mary Berry as the treasurer. In accordance with Commission policy, Dr. Mary Berry has been substituted as treasurer in this matter. Alvin J. Boutte of Chicago was the original treasurer and the treasurer of record at the time of the events in question in this matter.

Alive has not been designated by Rev. Jackson as an authorized committee. At the time of the events that are the subject of this matter, Keep Hope Alive had not yet qualified as a multicandidate political committee as defined at 2 U.S.C.

§ 441a(a)(4). For 1988, the Committee reported total receipts of $223,481 and total disbursements of $77,486. Through 1989, the Committee disclosed total receipts of $337,775 and total disbursements of $436,587 with cash on hand of $47,234 and debts owed by the Committee of $9,031. It was originally located in Chicago, but later moved to Washington, D.C.

II. LEGAL AND FACTUAL ANALYSIS

The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"), prohibits corporations and labor unions from making contributions and expenditures in connection with federal elections and prohibits political committees from knowingly accepting such contributions or expenditures. 2 U.S.C. § 441b. Organizations qualifying as political committees may establish a separate account for federal activity into which are deposited only funds subject to the limitations and prohibitions of the Act. 11 C.F.R. § 102.5(a). Commission regulations further provide that the treasurer of a political committee shall be responsible for ascertaining the legality of all contributions. 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b).

As noted, the findings in this matter relate to the Committee's receipt of $5,850 in funds from four unregistered organizations as follows:²

Organization	Date	Amount
Friends of Jesse Jackson Washington, D.C.	7-13-88	$5,000.00
John Wiley Price Campaign Dallas, Texas	7-9-88	250.00

Mid-Brooklyn Political Association	9-15-88	100.00

With respect to the $250 contribution from the John Wiley Price Campaign, counsel for the Respondent states that Mr. Price, a county commissioner in Dallas, wrote the check from his campaign fund. Counsel further states that "[w]e have spoken with Mr. Price, and he has stated that there was at that time no corporate or labor money in his campaign account, nor did his campaign receive any personal contributions greater than $5000." Texas law prohibits corporate and labor union contributions.

Regarding the $100 contribution from Mid-Brooklyn Political Association, counsel states that James Connolly, district leader of the 42nd State Assembly District in New York, signed a check for $100 from the Mid-Brooklyn Political Association, which is described as "an account opened for the purpose of impacting local races in Brooklyn." Counsel further states that "Mr. Connolly has informed us that the account contained no corporate or union money and no individual contributions of more than

2. The amounts of these contributions are within the contribution limitations of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a).

$5000." New York law permits limited corporate contributions and unlimited union contributions.

Counsel was not able to provide information relating to the Committee to Elect Rev. A.R. Polk. Instead, the General Counsel contacted Rev. A.R. Polk, who stated that the committee was formed for an election within the church, not a political office. Although he said he did not recall making a contribution to Keep Hope Alive PAC, he did acknowledge that such a contribution may have been made during a meeting in Texas. He further stated that the funds in the committee's accounts did not come from corporations or unions but from members of the church.

With regard to the $5,000 contribution from Friends of Jesse Jackson, the General Counsel has learned that in the early spring of 1988 Pastor Henry C. Gregory of the Shiloh Baptist Church and Joseph Beavers, a member of the church, discussed the desirability of holding a fundraiser on behalf of the candidacy of Rev. Jackson for the Democratic Party's presidential nomination. At the suggestion of Rev. Gregory, Joseph Beavers along with two other members of the church, Mattie Robinson and Horace Roberts, began organizing a fundraiser on behalf of Rev. Jesse Jackson's candidacy. Beavers became the chairman of the fundraiser, and Mattie Robinson and Horace Roberts became co-chairs. The proceeds after expenses from the fundraiser were intended to help Rev. Jackson win the nomination.

The group first organized a committee with the name of "Friends of Jesse Jackson." Its honorary chairpersons were Mayor Marion S. Barry, Jr., the Honorable Walter E. Fauntroy, and Rev.

Henry C. Gregory. Several District of Columbia city council members were enlisted as supporters and a number of other persons as friends. The group advertised the fundraiser with flyers and invitations. According to Beavers, a mailing was made to members of the Shiloh Baptist Church.

One flyer listed the honorary chairpersons, the council supporters, and the dinner committee and described the event as a "Fundraiser for Jesse Jackson" to be held at the Shiloh Family Life Center on Monday, June 20, 1988. The contributor information card described the event as "Jesse Jackson--88--For President." It noted a ticket cost of $50 per person or $500 for a table of ten. Checks were to be made payable to "Friends of Jesse Jackson Banquet Fundraiser." The group also prepared letterhead stationery that listed the honorary chairpersons, council supporters, and dinner committee. Another flyer advertised the event as a "Fundraiser to Help Jesse Win at the Democratic National Convention in Atlanta, GA." It stated that the "Friends of Jesse Jackson Invite You to Attend a Reception and Dinner." Mayor Marion S. Barry, Jr., was listed as the guest speaker. The flyer also stated "The Atlanta Democratic Convention A Critical Crossroads in Our Nation's History."

An account was opened at the Industrial Bank of Washington on June 15, 1988, in the name of Friends of Jesse Jackson Banquet Fund Raiser with Joseph Beavers, Mattie Robinson, and Horace Roberts on the signature card. Tickets were paid for in cash and in checks, although mostly in checks. A financial report prepared by the chairman and co-chairs indicates that a total of $10,466.44 was received as receipts by the Friends of Jesse Jackson for this fundraiser event. The report indicated these disbursements:

Printing	$857.65
Postage, Posters, etc.	589.19
Champagne, etc.	410.88
Flowers	52.50
Dinner, etc.	2,833.78
Soloists and Organist	250.00
Secretary	150.00
Returned checks	170.00
Total	$5,314.00

This left a balance of $5,152.44 to be given to Rev. Jackson or his presidential campaign. The bank statements covering the period from June 15 to November 30 show total deposits of $10,675 and total debits of $10,532.71 with an ending balance of $142.29.³ Thus, all of the receipts were apparently deposited into the bank account at the Industrial Bank of Washington. Friends of Jesse Jackson established no other bank account. Beavers states that it has since been closed out.

Arrangements were made to present the contribution check to Rev. Jackson personally on the night he spoke to the NAACP convention at the Sheraton Park Hotel in July 1988. A check was made out to Rev. Jackson in the amount of $5,152.44.⁴ After the

3. The differences between the financial report and the bank statements are relatively minor and appear to be related to the late payments for a few tickets or returns of deposits.

4. At the time this check was drafted, Friends of Jesse Jackson had not qualified as a multicandidate political committee as defined at 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(4). Therefore, it could have legally contributed only $1,000 to the Jackson campaign unless it was another authorized committee raising funds for the Jackson campaign. As previously noted, Rev. Jackson never designated Friends of Jesse Jackson as an authorized committee, nor is there any evidence his campaign was involved in the Friends of Jesse check was presented, Rev. Jackson reportedly came to Beavers and asked that the check be changed to be made out to Keep Hope Alive for $5,000.⁵ The reports filed by Keep Hope Alive reported the receipt of the $5,000 contribution on July 13, 1988, as from a political committee. The bank statements show it cleared the account of Friends of Jesse Jackson on July 28, 1988. These facts demonstrate that Friends of Jesse Jackson was organized and operating as an unauthorized political committee and not as a designated fundraising agent for Keep Hope Alive or the Jackson campaign. Thus, Keep Hope Alive's reporting of this contribution as from a political committee was correct.

The District of Columbia prohibits corporate, but not union, contributions. Beavers has stated in a conversation with the

Jackson fundraising event. Friends of Jesse Jackson could, however, contribute up to $5,000 per calendar year to Keep Hope Alive pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(C).

5. These facts demonstrate that the contribution from Friends of Jesse Jackson, a political committee, to Keep Hope Alive should not also be attributed to Rev. Jackson's presidential campaign committee. Under the Act, Rev. Jackson is deemed an agent of his committee for the purpose, among others, of receiving contributions. 2 U.S.C. § 432(e)(2). Commission regulations also provide that a contribution that is "returned" to the contributor within 10 days of its receipt is not deemed to have been accepted by the committee for the purposes of the Act. 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(1). Rev. Jackson returned the check for the Friends of Jesse Jackson contribution on the same day he received it. Thus, although the funds making up the contribution were raised for the purpose of furthering Rev. Jackson's presidential campaign, his actions in returning the contributions demonstrate, pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(1), that this contribution was not accepted by Rev. Jackson's committee. Instead, apparently at Rev. Jackson's suggestion, a new check was written and made payable to Keep Hope Alive. At that point, with the check being returned, Friends of Jesse Jackson was free to follow Rev. Jackson's suggestion and make a contribution to Keep Hope Alive without any consequences to Rev. Jackson's campaign.

General Counsel's staff that solicitations were sent to two unions that he previously belonged to: the Hotel and Restaurant Employees Local 25 and the Greater Washington Central Labor Council. He indicated these two unions usually purchase two tickets each. The costs of two tickets each for both unions would have totaled $200. Thus, it remains possible that the $10,466.44 in funds received by Friends of Jesse Jackson included up to $200 in union treasury funds. Beavers did not retain copies of the checks received to verify whether or not union funds had been received. In light of the amount possibly involved and the absence of readily available records to check whether union funds were received, this Office recommends that no further action be taken regarding the receipt and deposit of this contribution as well as the others.⁶

Accordingly, the General Counsel recommends that the Commission take no further action with respect to Keep Hope Alive Political Action Committee and Dr. Mary Berry, as treasurer, regarding the alleged violations of 2 U.S.C. § 441b and 11 C.F.R. § 102.5(a).

III. RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Take no further action against Keep Hope Alive Political Action Committee and Dr. Mary Berry, as treasurer, with respect to 2 U.S.C. § 441b and 11 C.F.R. § 102.5(a).
2. Close the file as it pertains to these respondents.

6. A brief recommending a finding of probable cause to believe Friends of Jesse Jackson and Joseph Beavers, acting as treasurer, failed to register and report as a political committee is being sent to these respondents.

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

I. BACKGROUND

This matter was initiated by a referral on April 26, 1989, from the Reports Analysis Division involving a multicandidate political committee, Keep Hope Alive. On August 22, 1989, the Commission found reason to believe Keep Hope Alive and its treasurer had violated 2 U.S.C. § 441b and 11 C.F.R. § 102.5(a)(1) and initiated an investigation. On the basis of information obtained in response to the investigation, the Commission on November 28, 1989, found reason to believe Friends of Jesse Jackson and Joseph Beavers, acting as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 433 and 434. On May 2, 1990, the Commission decided to take no further action with respect to Keep Hope Alive and its treasurer and close the file as it pertains to that respondent.

On April 24, 1990, this Office sent the General Counsel's Brief to Joseph Beavers, recommending that the Commission find probable cause to believe Friends of Jesse Jackson and Joseph Beavers, acting as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 433 and 434. No response has been received to date.

II. ANALYSIS

This Office incorporates the General Counsel's Brief, signed April 23, 1990, into this report as the factual and legal analysis of the issues in this matter.

As noted, the brief was sent to Mr. Beavers on April 24, 1990. When no response had been received, this Office sent a reminder letter to him on June 11, 1990. According to the return receipt, he received this letter on June 20, 1990. Mr. Beavers then contacted this Office and informed us that he had not received the brief. The earlier package was a sizable one in that we had included a copy of the campaign guide for nonconnected committees and blank forms so that the committee could file a Statement of Organization and the necessary reporting forms. We then prepared a package with a copy of the brief and notification letter along with the campaign guide and reporting forms. Mr. Beavers came to this Office and picked up this package on June 22, 1990. When no further response was forthcoming, this Office contacted Mr. Beavers by telephone on or about July 10, 1990. Mr. Beavers represented to staff from this Office that he had no dispute with the facts in the General Counsel's Brief, and asked if his previous submissions sufficed as a response brief. After the staff member explained the Commission's procedures, Mr. Beavers agreed to prepare and send his response.

Therefore, this Office recommends that the Commission find probable cause to believe Friends of Jesse Jackson and Joseph Beavers, acting as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 433 and 434.

Dear Mr. Beavers:

On September 20, 1990, the Federal Election Commission found that there is probable cause to believe Friends of Jesse Jackson and you, acting as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 433 and 434, provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended.

The Commission has a duty to attempt to correct such violations for a period of 30 to 90 days by informal methods of conference, conciliation, and persuasion, and by entering into a conciliation agreement with a respondent. If we are unable to reach an agreement during that period, the Commission may institute a civil suit in United States District Court and seek payment of a civil penalty.

Enclosed is a conciliation agreement that the Commission has approved in settlement of this matter. If you agree with the provisions of the enclosed agreement, please sign and return it, along with the civil penalty, to the Commission within ten days. I will then recommend that the Commission accept the agreement. Please make your check for the civil penalty payable to the Federal Election Commission.

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

I. BACKGROUND

This matter was initiated by a referral on April 26, 1989, from the Reports Analysis Division involving a multicandidate political committee, Keep Hope Alive. On August 22, 1989, the Commission found reason to believe Keep Hope Alive and its treasurer had violated 2 U.S.C. § 441b and 11 C.F.R. § 102.5(a)(1) and initiated an investigation. The findings were based on the reported receipt of a $5,000 contribution from an unregistered organization called Friends of Jesse Jackson. On the basis of information obtained in response to the investigation, the Commission on November 28, 1989, found reason to believe Friends of Jesse Jackson and Joseph Beavers, acting as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 433 and 434. The response from Keep Hope Alive had identified Joseph Beavers as the person who had knowledge of the Friends of Jesse Jackson activity. On May 2, 1990, the Commission decided to take no further action with respect to Keep Hope Alive and its treasurer and to close the file as it pertains to that respondent.

On April 24, 1990, this Office sent the General Counsel's Brief to Joseph Beavers, recommending that the Commission find probable cause to believe Friends of Jesse Jackson and Joseph Beavers, acting as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 433 and 434.

No response was received. On September 20, 1990, the Commission found probable cause to believe the Friends of Jesse Jackson and Joseph Beavers, acting as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 433 and 434.

II. DISCUSSION

After repeated attempts by telephone and letter to elicit a response from Mr. Beavers, he sent a letter that was received on January 16, 1991. (Attachment 1). In telephone conversations he had indicated that he would contact Keep Hope Alive and ask it to handle this matter. Keep Hope Alive has not contacted this Office with regard to Mr. Beavers' request.

In his letter Mr. Beavers notes that he was startled that Keep Hope Alive personnel had not contacted us and resolved this matter. He says that he feels that Reverend Jackson was wrong in asking them to make the check payable to Keep Hope Alive and that Keep Hope Alive should take responsibility for any violations. He denies that he ever acted as treasurer of Friends of Jesse Jackson or that it had a treasurer. He says he was one of three co-chairmen of the event along with the late Rev. Henry C. Gregory, III. All four of them authorized the bills to be paid and made joint decisions on all matters pertaining to the fundraiser.

He notes that he has cooperated with the Commission in its investigation in this matter and has supplied us with copies of all bank statements and other pertinent information which enabled us to "make the case." He says he is "very sorry" and apologizes to the Commission on behalf of the late Rev. Gregory and the three co-chairs. He further notes that the group was not an active political campaign committee but sponsored a one time event for which they believed a formal political committee structure would not be necessary.

Taking into account the facts and circumstances of this matter and the points raised in Mr. Beavers' letter, this Office does not believe that filing a civil suit would be advisable in this matter. Mr. Beavers' points about the treasurer question and his voluntarily providing full information to the Commission as part of its investigation are well taken. Furthermore, considering his current situation, we do not feel holding him financially responsible is warranted.

Therefore, we recommend that the Commission take no further action with respect to Friends of Jesse Jackson and Joseph Beavers, acting as treasurer, and to close the file in this matter. The attached letter contains admonitory language. Although the file has previously been closed with respect to Keep Hope Alive, we recommend that the Commission send the attached letter to it. The letter notes that the file has been closed but also includes admonitory language. This language points out that when the committee accepts contributions from unregistered groups or from fundraising events such as the one involved here, such contributions may result in imposing the requirements of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"), on such groups, requiring them to register and report and abide by the other requirements of the Act. The letter then points out that in such circumstances, Keep Hope Alive should deposit such contributions in a nonfederal account or designate the group as a fundraising agent of Keep Hope Alive, in which case it must report and itemize the group's receipts and disbursements as its own and amend its Statement of Organization to add any bank accounts used by the fundraising group as an additional campaign depository.

III. RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Take no further action with respect to Friends of Jesse Jackson and Joseph Beavers, acting as treasurer.
2. Close the file.

RE: MUR 2939
Keep Hope Alive and Dr. Mary
Berry, as treasurer

Dear Ms. Boyce:

This is to advise you that the entire file in this matter has now been closed and will become part of the public record within 30 days. Should you wish to submit any legal or factual materials to be placed on the public record in connection with this matter, please do so within ten days. Such materials should be sent to the Office of the General Counsel.

You are reminded that when Keep Hope Alive accepts contributions from unregistered organizations or fundraising groups, obligations may be imposed on the groups contributing such funds to register and report as political committees under the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, ("the Act") if the contributions exceed an aggregate of more than $1,000 in any calendar year. To avoid imposing such obligations on groups that are not on-going political organizations or do not intend to become federal political committees, Keep Hope Alive should either (1) deposit such contributions in a nonfederal account, to be used solely for nonfederal activity, or (2) designate the group as a fundraising agent of Keep Hope Alive. If the group is designated as a fundraising agent, Keep Hope Alive is responsible for reporting all receipts and disbursements by the fundraising group as its own financial activity and for amending its Statement of Organization to list all bank accounts used by the fundraising group as additional campaign depositories of Keep Hope Alive. Such designation and reporting should occur in the same reporting period as the fundraising event or activity. Keep Hope Alive should take steps to insure that the problems that arose with regard to the contribution from Friends of Jesse Jackson do not occur in the future.

RE: MUR 2939
Friends of Jesse Jackson and Joseph Beavers, acting as treasurer

Dear Mr. Beavers:

On September 20, 1990, you were notified that the Federal Election Commission found probable cause to believe that Friends of Jesse Jackson and you, acting as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 433 and 434. On January 16, 1991, you submitted a response to the Commission's probable cause to believe findings.

After considering the circumstances of the matter, the Commission determined on February 5, 1991, to take no further action against Friends of Jesse Jackson and you, acting as treasurer, and closed the file in this matter. The file will be made part of the public record within 30 days. Should you wish to submit any factual or legal materials to appear on the public record, please do so within ten days of your receipt of this letter. Such materials should be sent to the Office of the General Counsel.

The Commission reminds you that raising more than $1,000 for purposes of influencing a federal election in any calendar year or making expenditures, including contributions to federal political committees, of more than $1,000 in any calendar year for the purpose of influencing any federal election qualifies any group of persons as a political committee under the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"). For such a group to fail to register and report with the Commission as a political committee is a violation of 2 U.S.C. §§ 433 and 434. You should take immediate steps to insure that this activity does not occur in the future.
