v. Complainant,

James R. Houghton

Respondent,

COMPLAINT
MUR 3869

94 JAN 21 PM 4:31
RECEIVED
FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

24043594476

COMPLAINT OF CENTER FOR RESPONSIVE POLITICS

1. This complaint charges that the respondent has violated the Federal Election Campaign Act, 2 U.S.C. § 431 et seq., as amended ("FECA"), by making aggregate contributions in excess of the limits permitted by the FECA.

PARTIES

2. The complainant, the Center for Responsive Politics, is a nonprofit, nonpartisan research group incorporated in the State of Iowa and headquartered in Washington, D.C., that studies Congress and related issues. Founded in 1983, it was designed to research matters concerning the organization and operation of Congress as an institution and to examine potential reforms that could improve both its internal operation and its responsiveness to the American public. The patterns of contributions of money to federal candidates has been one of its chief areas of study.

3. The respondent is an individual contributor to various candidates and political committees.

APPLICABLE STATUTES AND REGULATIONS

4. The FECA limits contributions by any one individual to an aggregate total of $25,000 per calendar year. Contributions to a candidate or the candidate's authorized committee made in a year other than the calendar year of the election with respect to which the contribution is made are considered to be made during the calendar year in which such election is held. 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(3); 11 C.F.R. § 110.5.

GROUNDS FOR COMPLAINT

5. According to FEC records, respondent James R. Houghton made contributions subject to FECA in the amounts and to the persons identified in the list attached to this complaint as Exhibit 1. Attached as Exhibit 2 are copies of the FEC records for each contribution listed in Exhibit 1. All exhibits reflect the records on file at the FEC as of December 15, 1993.

6. On information and belief, respondent James R. Houghton made contributions attributed to the 1992 calendar year in the amount of $33,650. These contributions exceeded by $8,650 the $25,000 contribution limit imposed by the FECA and Commission regulations on all contributions by any individual in a calendar year.

RELIEF

7. The Center for Responsive Politics respectfully urges the Commission to conduct a prompt and thorough investigation into the allegations in this Complaint, and to declare that the Respondent has violated the FECA and Commission regulations.

Respectfully submitted,

Ellen S. Miller

Re: MUR 3869 (James R. Houghton)

Dear Ms. Taksar:

This office represents James R. Houghton in the above-captioned matter. This letter constitutes Mr. Houghton's response to the complaint filed by the Center for Responsive Politics.

The complaint alleges that Mr. Houghton exceeded the $25,000 annual limit imposed by 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(3) with respect to calendar year 1992 by contributing $33,650 to sixteen candidates and political committees. Mr. Houghton would like to advise the Federal Election Commission of the following.

First, Mr. Houghton was not aware of the annual limit, nor of the fact that contributions in non-election years may count toward limits in other years.

Second, he first learned of the limit and the prospect that he may have exceeded the annual limit in the Fall of 1993. After confirming the law and his contributions, Mr. Houghton promptly requested a refund from the Republican National Committee (RNC), which was the largest beneficiary of his contributions. On October 22, 1993, the RNC refunded $9,000 to Mr. Houghton and reported such refund on their next FEC report. The effect of the refund is to lower Mr. Houghton's total contributions for 1992 to $24,650.

Finally, Mr. Houghton has implemented personal bookkeeping and accounting procedures to ensure that such a mistake does not occur in the future.

The facts here are few and speak for themselves. Mr. Houghton intends to be totally cooperative with the FEC and hopes that a settlement of the matter can be achieved expeditiously. Mr. Houghton never intentionally violated any contribution limit including the limit alleged in the complaint. We appreciate the opportunity to respond and the extra days granted by the Office of General Counsel which enabled us to do so.

2043594520

Sincerely,

Jan Witold Baran

BEFORE THE FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

In the Matter of) Enforcement Priority)

SENSITIVE

GENERAL COUNSEL'S MONTHLY REPORT

I. INTRODUCTION

This report is the second Enforcement Priority System Monthly Report. The purpose of this September Monthly Report is to recommend that the Commission no longer pursue the identified lower priority and stale cases.

II. CASES RECOMMENDED FOR CLOSING

A. Cases Not Warranting Further Pursuit Relative to Other Cases Pending Before the Commission

A critical component of the Priority System is identifying those pending cases that do not warrant the further expenditure of resources. Each incoming matter is evaluated using Commission-approved criteria and cases that, based on their rating, do not warrant pursuit relative to other pending cases are placed in this category. By closing such cases, the Commission is able to use its limited resources to focus on more important cases.

Having evaluated incoming matters, this Office has identified 44 cases which do not warrant further pursuit relative to the other pending cases.[1] A short description of each case and the factors leading to assignment of a relatively low priority and consequent recommendation not to pursue each case is attached to this report. See Attachments 1-44. For the Commission's convenience, the narratives for the externally-generated matters are immediately followed by the complaint and response(s) and the narrative for the internally-generated matter is immediately followed by the referral.

2404359452 2

B. Stale Cases

Investigations are severely impeded and require relatively more resources when the activity and evidence are old. Consequently, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission focus its efforts on cases involving more recent activity. Such efforts will also generate more impact on the current electoral process and are a more efficient allocation of our limited resources. To this end, this Office has identified 2 cases that have remained inactive and assigned to the Central Enforcement Docket for one year and which it believes do not warrant further investment of significant Commission resources.[2] Since the recommendation not to pursue the identified cases is based on staleness, this Office has not prepared separate narratives for these cases. However, the referrals for these internally-generated matters are attached. See Attachments 45-46.

This Office recommends that the Commission exercise its prosecutorial discretion and no longer pursue the cases listed below effective November 14, 1994. By closing the cases effective November 14, 1994, CED and the Legal Review Team will respectively have the additional time necessary for preparing the closing letters and the case files for the public record for this fairly large number of cases.

B. Decline to open a MUR, close the file effective November 14, 1994, and approve the appropriate letter in PM 299.

MUR 3869
JAMES R. HOUGHTON
