Re: ADR 365 & 371 (MUR 5801& 5807)

Dear Mr. Norman:

The Federal Election Commission ("FEC/Commission") received your responses to our letters regarding the complaints filed against Mejias for Congress and Michael G. Norman, Treasurer, ("Respondents"). The Commission reviewed your replies and voted to consolidate these matters and refer to the Alternative Dispute Resolution Office ("ADRO"). These cases have been designated as ADR 365 & 371. Please refer to these numbers in all future correspondence.

The FEC established the ADR Program to provide an informal means for resolving complaints. The ADR program provides Respondents with an opportunity to negotiate, and if necessary, mediate a settlement of a complaint that is mutually agreeable. The negotiations occur prior to any Commission consideration of whether there is reason to believe a violation has occurred. If the negotiations and/or mediation are successful, the resulting settlement concludes the matter.

The Commission, in referring the matter to the ADR Office, determined that your cases are eligible for processing in that program. To be considered for ADR processing; i.e., negotiation and/or mediation, you must: 1) indicate a willingness to have your case submitted to the ADR process; 2) agree to participate in the bilateral negotiations, and, if necessary, mediation; and 3) waive the statute of limitations while the matter is being processed under the Commission's ADR program. Additional information about the ADR program is provided in the enclosed material.

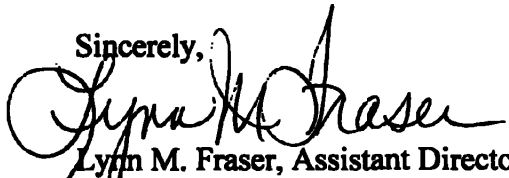

If, after reviewing the material, you would like your cases to be identified for ADR processing, you need to affirmatively indicate that desire on the enclosed form. Failure to respond affirmatively within fifteen (15) business days of receipt of this letter will be taken as a notice of disinterest in the program, and your cases will be dropped from further consideration for ADR. In that event, your cases will be returned to the Commission's Office of General Counsel for further processing.
