II. RELEVANT STATUTE: 2 U.S.C. §434(a)(6)
11 CFR §104.5(f)

III. BACKGROUND:

Failure to File Forty-Eight Hour Notifications

The Committee to Elect James McClure Clarke to Congress ("the Committee") has failed to file the required Forty-Eight (48) Hour Notifications ("48-Hour Notices") for two (2) contributions and one (1) loan totaling $27,000 received prior to the 1990 General Election.

The candidate was involved in the 1990 General Election held on November 6, 1990. Prior Notice was sent to the Committee on October 1, 1990 (Attachment 2). The Notice includes a section titled "Last-Minute Contributions". This section reads "Committees must also file special notices if contributions of $1,000 or more are received during the period of October 18 through November 3, 1990. The notices must reach the appropriate Federal and State offices within 48 hours of the committee's receipt of the contributions."

Schedules A and C of the 30 Day Post-General Report indicate that the Committee failed to file three (3) 48-Hour Notices for contributions/loans received during the aforementioned period (Attachment 3). The following is a list of the contributions/loans for which no 48-Hour Notices were filed:

On January 8, 1991, a Request for Additional Information ("RFAI") was sent to the Committee (Attachment 4). The RFAI notes on an informational basis that the Committee may have failed to file one or more of the required 48-Hour Notices for "last minute" contributions of $1,000 or more. The notice requests the Committee to review their procedures for checking contributions received during the aforementioned time period. In addition, the notice states that although the Commission may take legal steps, any response will be taken into consideration.

To date, the Committee has failed to respond to this matter.

JAN 8, 1991

James H. Lee, Treasurer
Committee to Elect James McClure Clarke to Congress
P.O. Box 7434
Asheville, NC 28802

Identification Number: C00141374

Reference: 30 Day Post-General Report (10/18/90-11/26/90)

Dear Mr. Lee:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's preliminary review of the report(s) referenced above. The review raised questions concerning certain information contained in the report(s). An itemization follows:

-Schedules A and C of your report (pertinent portion attached) discloses a contribution(s) which appears to exceed the limits set forth in the Act. An individual, including a candidate's spouse, may not make contributions to a candidate for federal office in excess of $1,000 per election. If the contributions or loans in question were secured by property based on joint assets, please clarify your report with the following information:

- the name and address of the lending institution
- the interest rate
- whether or not the loan was secured
- the due date or amortization schedule
- brief description of the collateral or property used as a basis for the loan
- the owners of the collateral or the property used as a basis for the loan
- the type of ownership of such property (e.g., tenants by the entireties, joint tenants, tenants in common, etc.)
- the percentage of such property owned by each owner
- value of such property
- the names of all signatories on both the security instrument and the commercial note
- the capacity in which each signatory signed (e.g., co-maker, endorser, guarantor)

If the contribution(s) in question was incompletely or incorrectly disclosed, you should amend your original report with the clarifying information. If the contribution(s) you received exceeds the limits, you should either refund to the donor the amount in excess of $1,000 or get the donor to redesignate and/or reattribute the contribution in writing. All refunds, redesignations, and reattributions must be made within sixty days of the treasurer's receipt of the contribution. Copies of refund checks and copies of letters reattributing or redesignating the contributions in question may be used to respond to this letter. Refunds and repayments are reported on Line 20 or Line 19, respectively, of the Detailed Summary Page and on Schedule B of the report covering the period in which they are made. Redesignations and reattributions are reported as memo entries on Schedule A of the report covering the period in which the authorization for the redesignation and/or reattribution is received. (11 CFR §§100.7, 100.8, 110.1, and 104.8(d)(2), (3) and (4))

Although the Commission may take further legal steps, prompt action by you to refund or seek redesignation and/or reattribution will be taken into consideration.

-Schedule A of your report indicates that your committee may have failed to file one or more of the required 48 hour notices regarding "last minute" contributions received by your committee after the close of books for the 12 Day Pre-General report. A principal campaign committee must notify the Commission, in writing, within 48 hours of any contribution of $1,000 or more received between two and twenty days before an election. These contributions are then reported on the next report required to be filed by the committee. To ensure that the Commission is notified of last minute contributions of $1,000 or more to your campaign, it is recommended that you review your procedures for checking contributions received during the aforementioned time period. Although the Commission may take legal action, any response you wish to make concerning this matter will be taken into consideration. (11 CFR §104.5(f))

JM

A written response or an amendment to your original report(s) correcting the above problem(s) should be filed with the Clerk of the House of Representatives, 1036 Longworth House Office Building, Washington, DC 20515 within fifteen (15) days of the date of this letter. If you need assistance, please feel free to contact me on our toll-free number, (800) 424-9530. My local number is (202) 376-2480.

Sincerely,

Jack MacDonald

SENSITIVE*FIRST GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

RAD Referral # 91L-36
Staff Member Mark Allen

SOURCE: I N T E R N A L L Y G E N E R A T E D

RESPONDENTS: The Committee to Elect James McClure Clarke to Congress and James H. Lee, as treasurer

RELEVANT STATUTE: 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(6)

INTERNAL REPORTS CHECKED: Committee Reports

FEDERAL AGENCIES CHECKED: None

I. GENERATION OF MATTER

This matter was referred to the Office of the General Counsel on April 1, 1991. The referral notes that the Committee to Elect James McClure Clarke to Congress and James H. Lee, as treasurer, ("the Committee") failed to file three 48 Hour notifications ("48-Hour Notices") for a loan and contributions totaling $27,000 received prior to the 1990 General Election.<sup>1</sup> The Committee was the principal campaign committee of James McClure Clarke, a candidate for election to the U.S. House of Representatives in the Eleventh Congressional District of North Carolina.

II. FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

See Attachment 2.

1. The loan to the Committee was guaranteed by the candidate and his wife, Elspeth McClure Clarke. This loan was repaid within 60 days of the date of receipt, and so does not meet the Reports Analysis Division referral threshold for an excessive contribution regarding Elspeth McClure Clarke's guarantee of the loan.

91040865252

III. DISCUSSION OF CONCILIATION AND CIVIL PENALTY

IV. RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Open a MUR.
2. Find reason to believe that the Committee to Elect James McClure Clarke to Congress and James H. Lee, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(6), and enter into conciliation prior to a finding of probable cause to believe.
3. Approve the attached Factual and Legal Analysis, proposed Conciliation Agreement, and the appropriate letter.

RE: MUR 3274
Committee to Elect James
McClure Clarke to Congress and
James H. Lee, as treasurer

Dear Mr. Lee:

On May 14, 1991, the Federal Election Commission found that there is reason to believe the Committee to Elect James McClure Clarke to Congress ("Committee") and you, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(6), a provision of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"). The Factual and Legal Analysis, which formed a basis for the Commission's finding, is attached for your information.

Under the Act, you have an opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken against the Committee and you, as treasurer. You may submit any factual or legal materials that you believe are relevant to the Commission's consideration of this matter. Please submit such materials to the General Counsel's Office within 15 days of your receipt of this letter. Where appropriate, statements should be submitted under oath.

In the absence of any additional information demonstrating that no further action should be taken against the Committee and you, as treasurer, the Commission may find probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred and proceed with conciliation.

In order to expedite the resolution of this matter, the Commission has also decided to offer to enter into negotiations directed towards reaching a conciliation agreement in settlement of this matter prior to a finding of probable cause to believe. Enclosed is a conciliation agreement that the Commission has approved.

91040865256

James H. Lee

If you are interested in expediting the resolution of this matter by pursuing preprobable cause conciliation and if you agree with the provisions of the enclosed agreement, please sign and return the agreement, along with the civil penalty, to the Commission. In light of the fact that conciliation negotiations, prior to a finding of probable cause to believe, are limited to a maximum of 30 days, you should respond to this notification as soon as possible.

Requests for extensions of time will not be routinely granted. Requests must be made in writing at least five days prior to the due date of the response and specific good cause must be demonstrated. In addition, the Office of the General Counsel ordinarily will not give extensions beyond 20 days.

If you intend to be represented by counsel in this matter, please advise the Commission by completing the enclosed form stating the name, address, and telephone number of such counsel, and authorizing such counsel to receive any notifications and other communications from the Commission.

This matter will remain confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. §§ 437g(a)(4)(B) and 437g(a)(12)(A), unless you notify the Commission in writing that you wish the investigation to be made public.

For your information, we have attached a brief description of the Commission's procedures for handling possible violations of the Act. If you have any questions, please contact Mark Allen, the staff member assigned to this matter, at (202) 376-5690.

Sincerely,

MUR 3274

The Committee to Elect James
McClure Clarke to Congress and
James H. Lee, as treasurer

This matter was generated based on information ascertained by the Federal Election Commission ("the Commission") in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(2).

The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"), provides that the principal campaign committee of a candidate shall file notifications of any contribution of $1,000 or more received by any authorized committee of such candidate after the 20th day but more than 48 hours before any election. 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(6)(A). The notification shall be made within 48 hours after the receipt of such contribution and shall include the name of the candidate and the office sought, the identification of the contributor, and the date of receipt and amount of the contribution. Id. This notification shall be in addition to all other reporting requirements under the Act. 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(6)(B).

The Act defines the term "contribution" to include any loan made by any person for the purpose of influencing any election for federal office. 2 U.S.C. § 431(8)(A)(i). A loan is a contribution at the time it is made and is a contribution to the extent that it remains unpaid. 11 C.F.R. § 100.7(a)(1)(i)(B).

The Act exempts from this definition any loan of money by a federally chartered depository institution, but such loan shall be considered to be a contribution by the guarantors of the loan.

2 U.S.C. § 431(8)(B)(vii); 11 C.F.R. § 100.7(b)(11). Each guarantor shall be deemed to have contributed that portion of the total amount of the loan for which he or she agreed to be liable in a written agreement. 11 C.F.R. § 100.7(a)(1)(i)(C).

The Committee's 30 Day Post-General report indicates that the Committee failed to file three 48-Hour Notices for contributions and a loan received after the 20th day but more than 48 hours before the election. The contributions and the loan are listed in the chart below.

contributor	date	amount
Champion International Corp. PAC	10-30-90	$ 1,000
U.A. Political Education Committee	10-26-90	$ 1,000
James McClure Clarke and Elspeth McClure Clarke	10-22-90	$25,000

James and Elspeth Clarke were the guarantors of a $25,000 loan to the Committee from the NCNB National Bank. Under the Act, such a loan is a contribution by the guarantors. See 2 U.S.C.

§§ 431(8)(A)(i), 431(8)(B)(vii); 11 C.F.R. § 100.7(b)(11). In light of the Committee's failure to file 48-Hour Notices in connection with this and the other two contributions noted above, there is reason to believe that the Committee to Elect James McClure Clarke to Congress and James H. Lee, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(6).

RE: MUR 3274
Committee to Elect James
McClure Clarke to Congress and
James H. Lee, as treasurer

Dear Mr. Allen:

I refer to your conversation this morning with Mr. John Fisher, who for nine years was the treasurer of this campaign. I regret the delay in replying to the letter of May 22 of Ms. Aikens, Vice-Chairman of the Federal Election Commission. I was in Europe when the letter was received and it came to my hands only on Saturday, June 1.

The gravamen of Ms. Aikens' letter and of the factual and legal analysis attached thereto is, as we understand it, our alleged failure to file the 48-hour notices for two contributions and for a loan, all of which were received after the twentieth day, but more than 48 hours before the General Election held on November 6, 1990. With respect to the two contributions of $1,000.00 each, our records indicate that they were reported to the Clerk of the House within the 48-hour period required. Prior to the beginning of the 20-day period we were informed by the FEC that this notification could be made by fax by our Campaign Office in Asheville to the office of Congressman Clarke in Washington, from where they could be delivered to the Office of the Clerk of the House. This suggestion of the FEC was accordingly followed and our records indicate that 22 contributions were faxed by the Campaign Office to the Congressional Office in Washington for delivery to the Clerk of the House. An official of the Congressional Office (now closed) has verbally informed us that all messages of this nature, when received, were passed on to the Clerk's office. There is no written evidence of this as these files are no longer in existence, the office having been closed. However, our records show that all contributions received during the period in question were advised to the Clerk of the House under the system outlined above. All were of course duly reported to the Office of the Clerk in our Thirtieth Day Report following the General Election held on November 6, 1991. It will be evident from that fact that it was far from our intention to dissemble or to withhold any information. We should also wish to point out, with all respect, that the possibility of the two letters in question having gone astray in the Office of the Clerk of the House should not be excluded.

We might mention that we had not failed to note from the letter of Mr. Jack MacDonald, Reports Analyst, Reports Analysis Division, of January 8, 1991, his remark that Schedule A of the 30 day Post-General Report "indicates that our committee may have failed to file one or more of the required 48-hour notices regarding "last minute" contributions". We did not respond to that observation on the part of the FEC as an examination of our records did not (and does not) reveal any lapse on our part.

As for the $25,000.00 loan you state that a loan from a federally chartered bank is not a contribution, but that it is considered as a contribution by the guarantors of the loan. This information is surprising to us as over the past seven years we have reported such loans as "Loans" and never as "Contributions" made to the Campaign by the guarantors. Over the years these loans have ranged from 7 to 40 thousand dollars and duly reported to the FEC as "Loans" and at no time has our classification been challenged.

Once again let us say that it has always been our intention to make full and complete reports in accordance with the regulations of the FEC as we understand them.

Sincerely,

James H. Lee
Treasurer

Dear Mr. Allen:

RE: MUR 3274

Reference is made to your letter of August 5, 1991 concerning the above matter.

We continue to believe that we have acted in this matter with the utmost good faith and have not on any occasion withheld any information desired by the Federal Election Commission. We have at all times reported all funds and monies received as well as disbursements made.

Although we are of opinion that the civil penalty of $750 is completely unwarranted, in order to put an end to this affair we enclose our check for $750, with the understanding that the payment is made under protest and is not to be interpreted as an admission of any wrongdoing on our part.

Sincerely,

SENSITIVE

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

I. BACKGROUND

On May 14, 1991, the Federal Election Commission found reason to believe the Committee to Elect James McClure Clarke to Congress and James H. Lee, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(6) for failure to file three 48 Hour Notices. Also on this date the Commission determined to enter into conciliation negotiations with respondents prior to a finding of probable cause to believe.

Respondents also submitted a check for $750. The cover letter, however, states that "the payment is made under protest and is not to be interpreted as an admission of any wrongdoing on our part" (Attachment page 1). Regardless of this language, respondents admit to the violation in the conciliation agreement, and do not state a desire to move on to probable cause. Therefore, this Office recommends that the Commission accept this agreement.
