GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

BACKGROUND:

The Commission has previously found probable cause to believe that Ned Schneier and his principal campaign committee, Ned Schneier for Congress Committee, violated 2 U.S.C. §434(a)(1) for failing to file the 10 day pre-election report and the 30 day post-election report for the 1976 general election.

LEGAL ANALYSIS:

Subsequent to the Commission's finding of probable cause, Mr. Schneier's principal campaign committee<sup>1</sup> filed its 1976 10 day pre-election report, a 1976 year-end report covering the 30 day post-election reporting period, and a 1977 year-end report. The 10 day pre-election report listed $4.00 in receipts and $4.00 in expenditures. Mr. Schneier also responded in a letter<sup>2</sup> received by the Commission on April 11, 1977 that the total cost of his general election campaign was $4.32 for a "rubber stamp." Mr. Schneier reported that all he did for the general election was <sup>1/</sup> The candidate and committee have filed identical reports in 1976 for the July 10, 10 day pre-primary, October 10, and 30 day post-primary reporting periods. Therefore, all the activity appears to have been reported by the committee.

"to stamp the words 'Vote Liberal' or somesuch on the leftover brochures from the primary." The 1976 year-end report revealed $4,276.14 in receipts and $4,223.35 in expenditures equaling total financial activity of $8,499.49 for 1976. Most of these funds were spent with respect to the primary election. Mr. Schneier was a Liberal Party candidate for election to the United States House of Representatives from the 17th district of New York in the 1976 general election. He received 8,656 votes, 5% of the votes cast.

As the Ned Schneier for Congress Committee has filed the required reports, we re-evaluated this matter in accordance with the non-filing procedures adopted by the Commission on May 23, 1978. Under those guidelines, a candidate or committee which did not file its reports for the general election would be pursued by the Commission if the candidate received 10% of the vote and had financial activity in excess of $50,000. Mr. Schneier lost the general election receiving 5% of the votes and had minimal financial activity.

RECOMMENDATION

1. Take no further action with regard to either Mr. Schneier or the Ned Schneier for Congress Committee. Close the file.
2. Send the attached letters.

Dear Mr. Stein,

Here is the 10-day pre-election report we discussed on the phone last week. As I check my records what apparently happened is as follows: Since the September 1 report and the ten-day report were so closely spaced in New York, and since I made no expenditures and received no contributions during the four day hiatus, I simply filed a report with two front pages (identical in all but the date). Somehow the second front page must have gone astray. So here is the whole thing. I also enclose, for your files, a xerox of my post-election report.

While I have your attention, I would like to bother you with one question. I was the nominal candidate of the Liberal Party in the general election (in this district the adjective "nominal" is well-chosen). All I did for that campaign was to stamp the words "Vote Liberal" or somesuch on the leftover brochures from the primary. My total cost for the campaign was the price of rubber stamp-- $4.32 including tax. My assumption has been that I need not, under these conditions, file a separate set of reports for the general election. True?

Please accept my apologies for being such a donkey in these matters. I am doubly embarrassed because for a time I was seriously in the running for the job of FEC staff director. My friend Susie King would appreciate the irony. Please don't tell.

Sincerely,

Ned Schneier

Re: MUR 367(77)

Dear Mr. Schneier:

After review of your file in this matter, it appears that you and your committee still have failed to file certain disclosure reports required by the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended.

Our records show that you and your committee have filed pre- and post-election reports in regard to the New York Primary election. However, since you were also a candidate in the general election, you and your committee are also required to file pre- and post-election reports for the general election. The disclosure reports and coverage dates of the reports are listed below:

Pre-general election report -
October 5 - October 18, 1976

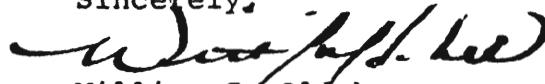

Post-general election report -
October 19 - November 22, 1976

If you and your committee did not have financial activity during this time, please file the required reports reporting "zero" in the appropriate space. Please note, both you and your committee are required to file separate reports. Enclosed are copies of the reporting forms for your convenience.

Please be advised that if these reports are not filed within ten days of your receipt of this letter, we intend to recommend that the Commission consider taking legal action against you and your committee. If you have any questions, please call Judy Thedford, the staff member assigned to this matter, at 202-523-4166.

I, Marjorie W. GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

I. Allegation

Mr. Schneier, as a candidate for the U.S. House of Representatives in the 17th district of New York, and his committee, Ned Schneier for Congress Committee, have failed to file the 30 day post election report required by 2 U.S.C. §434(a)(1).

II. Evidence

Mr. Schneier's name appeared on the New York general election ballot as the Liberal Party's candidate for the U.S. House of Representatives in the 17th district. The candidate's name and his committee's name appear in the index from the Clerk of the House of Representatives.

Mr. Schneier received a prior notice from the Commission October 13, 1976 informing him of his filing requirements as a federal candidate and the filing dates of various reports due concerning the general election.

Both Mr. Schneier and his committee failed to file the 30 day post election report due December 2, 1976. Reason to believe letters were received by the candidate and his committee December 15, 1976. A reasonable cause to believe letter was sent to the candidate December 20, 1976; this notice was returned unclaimed. The reasonable cause to believe letter to the committee was not sent due to clerical error by Western Union.

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION
OFFICIAL FILE COPY

The Commission received no response from Mr. Schneier. His name was published by the Commission October 30, 1976 for failure to file the pre-election report and on January 21, 1977 for failure to file the post election report. Mr. Schneier was defeated in the general election receiving 8,656 votes in comparison to the winner receiving 89,126. The most recent report submitted by the committee is the April 10 quarterly report filed on a 3a postcard indicating receipts and expenditures less than $1,000. The report filed prior to the April 10 was the October 10 showing year to date totals of $3,941 receipts and $3,922 expenditures.

A letter was sent to Mr. Schneier from the General Counsel informing him of his name publication and the General Counsel's intention to recommend to the Commission that civil penalties be sought.

III. Analysis

The candidate and his committee have failed to file the 30 day post election report. The candidate has not responded

OFFICIAL FILE COPY

78040062143

to efforts by the Commission to correct or prevent a violation.

The candidate was sent a letter advising him that the Commission was ready to conciliate the case; but the candidate has not utilized his statutory right to the informal methods of conference, conciliation and persuasion.

IV. Recommendation

It is recommended that the Commission find probable cause to believe a violation has been committed of 2 U.S.C §434(a)(1), however, civil penalties should not be sought due to previous communications with the candidate.

CERTIFICATION

I, Marjorie W. Emmons, Secretary to the Federal Election Commission, do hereby certify that on February 10, 1977, the Commission determined by a vote of 6-0 that there was probable cause to believe that a violation of 2 U.S.C. §434(a)(1) had been committed and to institute a civil action for relief in the above-captioned matter.

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

I. Allegation

Mr. Schneier and his principal campaign committee, Ned Schneier For Congress Committee, have failed to file the 10 day pre-election report required by 2 U.S.C. §434(a)(1).

II. Evidence

Mr. Schneier's name appeared on the New York general election ballot as the Liberal Party candidate for the U.S. House of Representatives in the 17th District. Mr. Schneier's name and his committee's name appear in the index from the Clerk of the House of Representatives.

The candidate received a prior notice from the Commission October 13, 1976 informing him of his filing requirements as a federal candidate and the filing dates of reports due in the near future. Despite prior notification, Mr. Schneier and his committee failed to file the 10 day pre-election report due October 23, 1976.

OFFICE OF GENERAL COUNSEL

Reason to believe letters for non-filers were received by the candidate and committee October 26, 1976. The reasonable cause to believe letters for non-filers, which were sent to Mr. Schneier and committee October 27, 1976, were returned to the Commission unclaimed.

No response was received from either the candidate or the committee in reference to the letters previously sent. Mr. Schneier's name was published by the Commission on the non-filers list October 30, 1976.

The candidate lost the general election receiving 8,656 votes in comparison to the winner receiving 89,126 votes. The latest report filed by the committee, the 30 day post primary election report, reveals $3921.89 in total expenditures year to date.

Follow up letters were sent to both the candidate and his committee informing them of the candidate's name publication and the General Counsel's intention to recommend to the Commission that civil penalties be sought.

III. Analysis

Mr. Schneier and his committee, Ned Schneier For Congress Committee, have failed to file the ten day pre-election report despite several notifications from the Commission. The Commission tried to prevent or correct a violation; but

OFFICIAL FILE COPY

789748886555

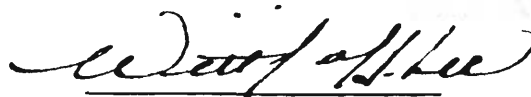

the candidate and committee did not respond to the Commission efforts.

Through various communications the Commission tried to conciliate the case; but neither the candidate nor the committee has utilized its statutory right to the informal methods of conference, conciliation, and persuasion.

IV. Recommendation

It is recommended that the Commission find probable cause to believe a violation has been committed of 2 U.S.C. §434(a)(1).

RELEASE: ON RECEIPT

(202)382-4112

FEC RELEASES LIST OF "NON-FILERS"

WASHINGTON-OCTOBER 30 - The FEC today published the names of House and Senate candidates and their "principal campaign committees" which failed to file the required 10-day "pre-election" report of their campaign finances, due October 23, 1976.

In addition to publishing the names of non-filers, the FEC has the authority to undertake further enforcement action under the statute, including civil court enforcement and imposition of civil fines ($5,000 for "any violation" and $10,000 for a "knowing and willful violation").

The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended in 1974 and 1976, states that "It shall be the duty of the Commission to...prepare and publish from time to time special reports listing those candidates...for whom...reports were not filed as so required."

Federal candidates and committees must file a "pre-election report 10 days before each election, covering their financial transactions up to 15 days before the election. Under FEC procedures, three notices are sent to the candidates and committees, reminding them of their reporting obligations, and urging compliance. If a report is not filed following these notices, the names of all "non-filers" are made public.

"Prior notice" is the first reminder, sent on a routine basis prior the filing date, to all candidates whose names are on the November 2 general election ballot in their respective states, as certified by their Secretary of State, and confirmed by lists with the Clerk of the House and the Secretary of the Senate. This notice simply reminds candidates and committees of their required 10-day pre-election, and 30-day post-election reports, and the appropriate filing dates.

"The second notice is sent, by mailgram, only to candidates and committees whose reports have not been received 8 days before the general election, and states that this "apparent failure...gives the Commission reason to believe" that the candidate or committees is in violation of the reporting requirements.

The third notice is sent, by mailgram, only to candidates and committees whose reports are not filed 6 days before the general election, and states that "continued failure to file has given the Commission 'reasonable cause to believe' that they are in violation, and that "failure to respond may subject [the candidate or committee] to...civil penalties and...to publication of [the candidate's or committee's] name on a list of non-filers."

When a candidate or committee continues to fail to file after receiving the "prior notice" reminder, and the "reason to believe" and "reasonable cause to believe" notices, the Commission publishes the names of the candidates and/or his committee on a list of non-filers.

The following candidates and/or their "principal campaign committees" failed to file October 23 "pre-election" reports for the November 2 general election:
