re: Complaint against Brad Sherman (FEC # C00308742) (CA-24)

Dear Ms. Propper:

The Republican Party of Los Angeles County hereby requests that you investigate a potentially serious violation of the federal election laws governing campaign contributions.

Mr. Brad Sherman is a candidate (one of 7) in the March 26, 1996 Primary Election for the Democrat nomination in California's 24th Congressional District. The Republican Party of Los Angeles County is an interested party in this matter as most of the 24th C.D. is in Los Angeles County.

We believe Mr. Sherman has violated and may be engaged in an intentional evasion of 11 Code of Federal Regulations 110.3 (d) which prohibits transfer of state campaign funds to a federal campaign. Rule 110.3 (d) states in relevant part:

(d) Transfers from nonfederal to federal campaigns.

Transfers of funds or assets from a candidate's campaign committee or account for a nonfederal election to his or her principal campaign committee or other authorized committee for a federal election are prohibited.

Rule 110.3 (d) was revised in 1993 specifically to prevent the indirect use of impermissible state campaign funds in federal elections. The Commission's Notice of Rule explained the rationale for a blanket prohibition on transfers of funds and stated in relevant part:

The Federal Election Campaign Act, as amended, 2 U.S.C. 431 et seq., places certain limitations and prohibitions on the sources and amounts of contributions to federal election campaigns. Section 441a limits the dollar amount of contributions by individuals and multicandidate political committees. Section 441b, in general, prohibits contributions by corporations and labor organizations. ...

In contrast, many states impose fewer restrictions on contributions to campaigns for state elective office. Many states allow individuals to make contributions to state candidates that would exceed FECA limits if they were directed to a federal candidate. Many states also allow corporations and labor organizations to make contributions to state candidates, in some cases without any dollar limit. ...

Los Angeles County Republican Central Committee

[T]he Commission . . . is also concerned about the indirect use of impermissible funds in federal elections. This is an area in which the Commission has engaged in closer regulation in recent years . . . Consequently, the Commission has decided to promulgate new rules that would more effectively prevent the indirect use of impermissible funds in federal elections. . . .

[T]he Commission believes that . . . a prohibition on all transfers from state to federal campaigns, is the best way to address the concerns raised. . . .

We believe that Mr. Sherman may have violated the Commission's prohibition on direct or indirect transfers from state to federal campaigns by loaning his federal committee $275,000 recently repaid to him by his state committee from contributions that would be illegal if made under federal law. This "loan" is reported on Mr. Sherman's 1995 year-end FEC report filed January 31, 1996.

However, according to reports filed with the California Fair Political Practices Commission (FPPC), the "Friends of Brad Sherman" (one of Mr. Sherman's state committees) in 1994 and 1995 transferred at least $200,000 to Mr. Sherman personally. In effect, therefore, Mr. Sherman's new loan to his federal campaign committee is funded by recent state campaign contributions.

Mr. Sherman has virtually admitted that this is the case. According to an article in the Los Angeles Daily News February 1, 1996, a copy of which is enclosed, Mr. Sherman has conceded that "the $275,000 he loaned his congressional campaign came from repayment of the earlier loan."

In effect, Mr. Sherman, who is an experienced tax attorney, may have "laundered" state campaign contributions by using himself as an intermediary between his state and federal committees. By running the funds through himself, he evidently hopes to meet technical compliance with the rule that prohibits transfers of funds from state campaigns to federal campaigns. At a minimum, this violates the intent and meaning of Rule 110.3 (d). We believe it also violates the letter of the law as well as its spirit.

We believe that Mr. Sherman will argue that the transfers to him are legitimate repayments of personal funds he earlier loaned to his state campaign committee. This argument does not withstand scrutiny because it impermissibly allows corporate and other contributions illegal under FECA requirements to be used for a federal campaign. Mr. Sherman's personal funds were spent in prior races. His recent "repayments" to himself are funds raised from contributions that would be illegal under federal law. His "loans" to his congressional committee are effectively illegal transfers of state campaign funds.

We have performed a preliminary analysis of Mr. Sherman's reports to have the California Fair Political Practices Commission (FPPC). Although these reports are not yet complete, they show a complex series of transactions between multiple campaign committees and Mr. Sherman personally.

Specifically, Mr. Sherman successfully ran for California's State Board of Equalization (BOE) in 1990. To do so he lent his state campaign committee, Friends of Brad Sherman, a total of $540,708 in 1989 and 1990.

Mr. Sherman subsequently paid himself back $195,000 from third party contributions to his committee, then in late 1993 re-lent that and more for a total of $489,000, to another state campaign committee, Sherman for Controller. However, After raising a further $176,500 and spending some $260,500 on his campaign for State Controller, Mr. Sherman decided he would, instead, run for re-election to the BOE.

Mr. Sherman thereupon in 1994 transferred back $410,000 from the Sherman for Controller Committee to himself, and lent $150,000 to the Friends of Brad Sherman Committee. In the 1994 race, this committee then spent over $383,000 on Mr. Sherman's successful re-election. Later in 1994 and 1995 the Friends of Brad Sherman then transferred at least $200,000 back to Mr. Sherman personally.

The funds for these payments have come from third parties. According to partial FPPC reports, Mr. Sherman raised over $309,000 from third parties in 1993 for both his BOE and Controller campaigns, over $277,000 for both races in 1994, and over $91,000 for his Controller's race in the first half of 1995. The cable television industry alone, a key player in the just-enacted federal telecommunications reform bill, has paid Mr. Sherman tens of thousands of dollars.

These figures do not take into account the 1995 FPPC reports for Friends of Brad Sherman, or the second-half 1995 report for Sherman for Controller, which we are still in the process of obtaining. Undoubtedly those reports will make these dollar figures even higher.

The complexity of these transactions cannot disguise their legal significance and simple substance: Mr. Sherman's personal funds were expended in his first race for office some six years ago. The source of funds for all subsequent repayments to him was third party contributions, many of which were corporate contributions or exceeded federal limits, and would be illegal under federal law.

Moreover, even if these state contributions were to be legal if made under federal law, they still may not be transferred from a state campaign committee to a federal campaign committee. Transfers, direct or indirect, from state committees to federal committees are illegal regardless of the nature of the contributions.

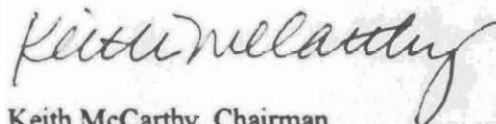

We submit this complaint with copies of the FPPC reports filed by both Sherman state committees.

The Republican Party of Los Angeles County is concerned about this situation because it is committed to campaigns where all candidates operate under the same laws and play by the same rules. Mr. Sherman's funding raises serious questions of the legality and propriety of his "self" financing.

We petition the Commission to require that, to prevent evasion of federal contribution laws, Mr. Sherman be prohibited from lending or contributing funds to his federal committee unless and until he has returned to his two state campaign committees all monies "repaid" to him during a reasonable period prior to the 1996 election. We suggest a four-year period would be appropriate.

Thank you for your consideration of this serious matter. Please advise us if and when the matter will proceed.

Yours truly,

Keith McCarthy, Chairman
Los Angeles County Republican Party

RE: MUR 4314

Dear Ms. Taskar:

I represent the respondents as the Treasurer for each committee in MUR 4314: (1) Sherman for Congress; (2) Sherman for Controller; and (3) Friends of Brad Sherman.

On March 8, 1996, the respondents received notice from the Commission dated March 4, 1996 regarding MUR 4314, including a copy of the complaint filed by the Los Angeles County Republican Party. Under 11 CFR sections 111.2 and 111.6, I believe that response is due March 22, 1996.

On behalf of all the respondents, I hereby request a 30-day extension through and including April 21, 1996, because a proper response to the complex issue in the complaint can be prepared only if the requested additional time is granted. Moreover, the current due date of the response (March 22) is the Friday before the March 26th California primary election. As I am the Treasurer for many California campaigns, my time will be devoted to complying with state and federal post-filing contribution disclosure requirements. Giving this complaint the time and resources necessary for a proper reply will be at best difficult during this period.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely yours,

re: MUR4314

Dear Ms. Propper:

The Republican Party of Los Angeles County is the complaining party in MUR4314, currently pending before the Commission. In that complaint, we addressed the efforts of Mr. Brad Sherman, Democratic Party nominee in California's 24th Congressional District, to violate and evade federal law and FEC regulations prohibiting the transfer of state campaign funds to a federal campaign, as well as prohibitions on corporate contributions and limitations on contribution amounts.

Mr. Sherman is now doing exactly what our Complaint said he would. Mr. Sherman has recently issued the enclosed invitation to a planned August 20, 1996 fundraiser in Sacramento, California for his state committee, Friends of Brad Sherman. It is notable that the invitation goes out of its way to stress that corporations may make contributions, and that "[t]here is no limit on the amount you may contribute." The invitation concludes, "please send the largest contribution possible." Nowhere on the invitation it is disclosed that Mr. Sherman is a current candidate for federal office. Nowhere is it disclosed that the "debts" that will be repaid from the proceeds of the fundraiser are to himself, and that Mr. Sherman will then turn around and direct the money to his federal campaign.

This is nothing short of money laundering. As pointed out in our original complaint, Mr. Sherman clearly intends the following:

(1) Raise money in contributions to his state campaign committee, "Friends of Brad Sherman," that would be illegal if made directly to a federal campaign, e.g., corporate contributions, contributions in excess of $1000.

Los Angeles County Republican Central Committee

(2) Have his state campaign committee then turn around and repay to Mr. Sherman personally some of the substantial sums Mr. Sherman lent to his state committee originally in 1990 when he first ran for the State Board of Equalizations.

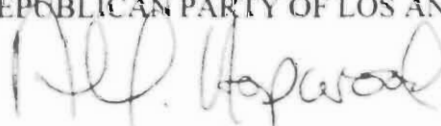

(3) Mr. Sherman will then turn around and personally lend the same funds to his federal committee, "Brad Sherman for Congress." Federal law allows unlimited contributions by a candidate to his own campaign.

Each of these steps is legal in and of itself in isolation. But together the clear practical effect, and more importantly the intended effect, is to "launder" campaign contributions to a federal campaign that would be illegal if made directly.

We respectfully request that the FEC take immediate action to prohibit any transfers of alleged "personal" funds by Mr. Sherman to his federal campaign committee, and to prohibit any expenditures by himself or by others of funds originating from his state campaign committee.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

LA County GOP Files FEC Complaint Against Brad Sherman

For Immediate Release
Monday, February 27, 1996

Contact: Charles House
Executive Director
818.457.9898

[Alhambra] -- The Republican Party of Los Angeles today asked the Federal Election Commission (FEC) to investigate possible evidence of wrongdoing and intentional violation of federal campaign laws by the Chairman of the State Board of Equalization, Brad Sherman. Sherman is a candidate for the Democrat nomination in California's 24th Congressional District, being vacated by longtime incumbent Anthony Beilenson (D-Woodland Hills). The 24th District stretches from Sherman Oaks to Newbury Park.

Sherman recently lent his congressional campaign committee $275,000 and has boasted that he has over $500,000 "tanned, rested, and ready" to fund his campaign. However, the Party's letter to the FEC provided information that the source of these funds is contributions to Sherman's two state campaign committees. Transfers of funds from a state campaign committee to a federal campaign committee is illegal under federal law.

"Brad Sherman has raised hundreds of thousands of dollars from individuals and corporations who have tax issues pending before him on the Board of Equalization," said Keith McCarthy, Los Angeles County Republican Party Chairman. "Now he's turning around and trying to use it in a federal election. That's illegal and it's wrong."

McCarthy claimed that Sherman effectively "laundered" transfers from the state committees to the federal committee by running them through himself as an intermediary.

RE: A FUNDRAISER FOR FRIENDS OF BRAD SHERMAN

Dear

As you may know, my successful 1990 and 1994 campaigns for the State Board of Equalization left my state campaign committee, Friends of Brad Sherman, with substantial debts. Accordingly, once again, I need your help.

All funds raised by Friends of Brad Sherman, net of fundraising expenses, will be used to pay debts from our prior successful campaigns for the Board. Accordingly, any type of contributor (individuals, partnerships, corporations, and PAC's) can contribute to Friends of Brad Sherman. There is no limit on the amount you may contribute.

Please help us by agreeing to Host Co-Chair, or Sponsor a fund-raiser to be held Tuesday, August 10th from 3:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. at Brennan's Restaurant in Sacramento at 1117 11th Street.

We are asking Hosts to contribute or raise $5000 (includes 10 tickets), Co-Chairs to contribute or raise $2500 (includes five tickets), and Sponsors to contribute or raise $1000 (includes two tickets). Individual tickets may be purchased for $500.

Whether or not you or a representative are able to attend, please send the largest contribution possible. Please make checks payable to Friends of Brad Sherman, and mail to the address below as soon as possible.

As always, I am anxious to hear your ideas. Please feel free to call me at the office at any time, or call me at home at (818) 385-0070.

Very Truly Yours,

Brad Sherman

RE: MUR 4314

Dear Federal Election Commission:

The respondents in MUR 4314 (collectively, "Sherman")¹ hereby respond to the February 27, 1996 complaint filed with the Commission by the Los Angeles County Republican Party ("Republican Complaint")² by urging that the Commission take no action against Sherman, on the ground that there is no reason to believe that Sherman violated the Federal Election Campaign Act. Indeed, the face of the Republican Complaint indicates that the conduct at issue is specifically protected by Commission regulations relating to use of personal funds by a candidate. 11 C.F.R. section 110.10, and hence is protected by the Commission regulation defining "personal funds of the candidate;" see also, Advisory Opinion 1977-38.

A. The Committees

Sherman for Congress ("Congress") is the federally registered principal campaign committee³ of Brad Sherman, the California Democratic Party nominee for the U.S. House of Representatives in California-24.⁴

Friends of Brad Sherman ("Friends") is a non-federal committee which is registered with the California Fair Political Practices Commission⁵, and which was used by Mr. Sherman for his successful 1990 and 1994 campaigns for

The signer of this response, David L. Gould, is the Treasurer of all three committees.

² The commission has advised Sherman Treasurer, David L. Gould via telephone and letter dated March 19, 1996 that Sherman is granted an extension through and including April 21, 1996 to respond to the Republican Complaint. Under 11 C.F.R. section 111.2, Sherman's response is due to be received by mail on or before April 25, 1996 because (1) April 21 is a Sunday; and (2) under subdivision (c), three days are added for mail service.

⁴ Mr. Sherman won the Democratic nomination in the March 26, 1996 primary election with 53% of the vote in a seven-candidate primary field.

election and reelection to the California State Board of Equalization, California's elected state tax commission. Friends is indebted to Mr. Sherman in the amount of $191,758.00 as of December 31, 1995.

Sherman for Controller ("Controller") is a non-federal committee⁶ which was used by Mr. Sherman for a terminated campaign for Controller in late 1993 and early 1994.⁷ Controller is indebted to Mr. Sherman in the amount of $79,000.00 as of December 31, 1995.

Under California law, Friends and Controller may accept contributions by check in any amount⁸ from any source other than a foreign national.⁹ In contrast, contributions to Congress are limited in source and amount by the Federal Election Campaign Act, 2 U.S.C. section 431 et seq.

B. Regulation 110.3(d) Is Irrelevant

The sole Commission regulation cited in the Republican Complaint (11 C.F.R. section 110.3(d)) is irrelevant, because no funds were ever transferred from a Sherman non-federal committee to Sherman for Congress. Rather, personal funds of the candidate were loaned to Congress.

As a matter of California law, two Sherman-controlled non-federal committees are indebted to Mr. Sherman in the amount of $191,758 (Friends of Brad Sherman)¹⁰ and $79,000 (Sherman For Controller),¹¹ as of December 31, 1995.¹² California Government Code Section 84216.5 provides in pertinent part as follows:

⁶ It is registered with the California Fair Political Practices Commission as committee number 931648.

⁸ California Government Code Section 84300 prohibits the making or receipt of cash contributions in excess of $100.

Loans Made by a Candidate or Committee.

- (a) A loan of campaign funds...made by a candidate...shall be reported as provided in this section:
- (b) For the reporting period in which the loan is made, the date, amount, interest rate, the due date, if any, of the loan shall be reported...
- (c) For any reporting period in which any part of the loan is repaid or forgiven, the following shall be reported...:
 - (1) The original date of the loan, and the person to whom the loan was made,
 - (2) The purpose of the payment, any change in the interest rate, and, if the payment is made by a third party, the name and address of the person making the payment.
 - (3) The balance owed on the principal at the end of the reporting period.
 - (4) The amount of any forgiveness of the loan during the reporting period.
- (d) For any calendar year in which any part of the loan is outstanding, the following shall be reported on no more than one campaign statement as provided by the commission:
 - (1) The original date and amount of the loan, and the name of the person to whom the loan was made.
 - (2) The balance owed on the principal and interest on the loan at the end of the reporting period.

Thus, California law clearly authorized Mr. Sherman to make loans of personal funds to Friends and Controller, and for both committees to repay Mr. Sherman from contributions received by the committees.¹³

Since the Board of Equalization and Controller elections occurred in 1994, and because Brad Sherman is not on the ballot for California state office in 1996, Friends and Controller are required to file reports every six months. See California Government Code Sections 84200 and 84200.5.

¹³ California law strictly limits the use of campaign funds to bona fide campaign expenses. First, candidate-controlled committees (such as Friends and Controller) are required to deposit all contributions, loans and candidate personal funds into a single "campaign contribution account" and to make campaign expenditures only from such account (see California Government Code Section 85201). Second, campaign funds may be used only for bona fide campaign activities, and may not be spent for the personal activities of the candidate (see California Government Code Sections 89513-89518). Third, California law specifically prohibits compensating the candidate from campaign funds (see California Government Code Section 89518). Finally, any funds received after January 1, 1989 and remaining in a candidate-controlled committee bank account after a candidate leaves California state office may only be used for specified political purposes (see California Government Code Section 89519) including "[t]he payment of outstanding campaign debts or elected officer's expenses." Id., subd. (a).

Debts repaid to Mr. Sherman from these committees constitute personal funds of the candidate which may be spent in unlimited amounts. 11 C.F.R. section 110.10.

C. The Facts Alleged In The Republican Complaint Fall Squarely Within The Scope of Candidate Contributions Governed By Section 110.10

The funds described in the Republican Complaint fall squarely within 11 C.F.R. section 110.10(b)(1):

For purposes of this section, "personal funds" means --

(1) any assets which, under applicable state law, at the time he or she becomes a candidate, the candidate had legal right of access to or control over, and with respect to which the candidate had either:

(i) legal and rightful title; or

(ii) an equitable interest.

There can be little doubt that Mr. Sherman had as an asset, at the time he became a candidate, the debts owed to him by his prior state campaigns. That debt was (and remains) properly evidenced by promissory notes and was (and remains) fully enforceable under applicable California law. Indeed, as the record demonstrates, this is not the first instance where Mr. Sherman has lent money to his state campaign and fully expected that the campaign would repay him. In fact, in the past, his campaigns have repaid their debts to him.¹⁴ Mr. Sherman should not be required to forfeit a considerable personal asset simply because he has decided to run for federal office. Similarly, the price of maintaining that asset should not be -- and indeed, under the First Amendment to the Constitution, cannot be -- the forfeiture of his right to make unlimited contributions to his own campaign.

Moreover, the promissory notes evidencing this indebtedness are "other investments" as such term is used in 11 C.F.R. section 110.10(b)(2).¹⁵ There is certainly no prohibition against receiving lawful and bona fide proceeds that are due from an entity that is barred by federal law from making a contribution. Thus, for example, the term "investment" as used in this regulation clearly includes investments in corporations or other non-personal entities. Under the terms of these investments, candidates may receive personal funds from these entities even though the Federal Election Campaign Act bars them from contributing to federal campaigns. For example, a candidate may loan money to a corporation (through the purchase of a corporate bond) and then obtain cash for the investment once the bond is repaid by the corporation. Such cash received by the candidate through repayment of a bona fide loan to the corporation is clearly the candidate's personal funds. Similarly, the candidate has both a statutory and constitutional right to spend these funds in furtherance of his or her candidacy. This right is not diminished by the fact that the cash is paid to the candidate as part of a legitimate debt repayment to the candidate by a corporation -- or by any other debtor to the candidate, such as a state political committee.

¹⁵ "Salary and other earned income from bona fide employment; dividends and proceeds from the sale of the candidate's stocks or other investments..."

In Advisory Opinion 1977-38,¹⁶ the Commission ruled that "[a] candidate for federal office may maintain a separate committee for the purpose of raising funds to retire a state campaign debt." Here, the Commission advised Charles Ravenel, a 1978 U.S. Senate candidate in South Carolina, that he could simultaneously fundraise to retire his debt from a 1974 state campaign, as follows:

...in order to retire this debt, [Ravenel] created an organization called "Pug and I for South Carolina" ("Pug and I") which is separate from his...committee...for Federal office....potential contributors to the Senate campaign may also be asked to make a contribution to Pug and I. Separate contribution receipts and separate solicitation material will be used by Pug and I and the [federal] committee. All funds received to retire the State campaign debt will be deposited in the Pug and I bank account at the Citizens and Southern National Bank and will be used solely to retire the state campaign debt. All contributions to and expenditures of the [federal] committee will be segregated from the Pug and I account and regarded as transactions of the Senate campaign.

This is precisely descriptive of the facts alleged in the Republican Complaint. Congress, Friends, and Controller each have separate bank accounts.¹⁷ The three committees fundraise separately.¹⁸ Finally, Friends and Controller have never transferred any funds to Congress.

D. The Remedy Sought By The Republican Complaint Violates Both The First Amendment And 11 C.F.R. Section 110.10

Although there has been little Advisory Opinion treatment of this issue¹⁹, it is beyond question that candidate Sherman has an absolute First

¹⁷ Congress and Friends operate separate Bank of America accounts. Controller operates a Wells Fargo account. Sherman will provide the Commission with information regarding these accounts if it receives assurances that the Commission will keep this information confidential.

¹⁸ On November 15, 1995, Friends held a fundraiser using the invitation attached hereto as Exhibit C; this event was planned in August 1995, three months before Mr. Sherman became a candidate for Congress. On March 19, 1996, Congress held a fundraiser using the invitation attached hereto as Exhibit D.

These invitations show that Congress and Friends are not jointly fundraising. However, Congress, Friends and Controller reserve the right to request permission to jointly fundraise, as is permitted by the Commission in Advisory Opinion 1994-37.

¹⁹ Sherman is aware of only two Advisory Opinions (other than AO 1977-38) that even address this issue, both of which arose from similar facts in Mississippi. In AO 1978-35, the Commission ruled that "[a] fund established to pay for expenses of the candidate as a state official and then as a candidate for any office may be used to pay campaign debts resulting from a federal campaign since the funds would be considered personal funds." Six years

Amendment right to expend personal funds in furtherance of his federal candidacy. As the U.S. Supreme Court explained in Buckley v. Valeo, supra:

...The candidate, no less than any other person, has a First Amendment right to engage in the discussion of public issues and vigorously and tirelessly to advocate his own election and the election of other candidates. Indeed, it is of particular importance that candidates have the unfettered opportunity to make their views known so that the electorate may intelligently evaluate the candidates' personal qualities and their positions on vital public issues before choosing among them on election day.

Buckley v. Valeo, supra, at 424 U.S. 52-53. In California Medical Association v. FEC, 641 F.2d 619, 627 (9th Cir. 1980), affirmed, 453 U.S. 182 (1981), the Ninth Circuit explained that "the ideal of the first amendment, certainly in respect to political expression, is to permit the maximum 'quantity of political speech' as determined by the speaker." (emphasis added) Thus:

The Court's decision in Buckley stands for the further proposition that spending is entitled to the maximum protection when the speaker and the spender are one and the same.

Ibid. Hence, the remedy sought by the Republican Complaint -- a prohibition against Mr. Sherman "lending or contributing funds to his federal committee" -- is flatly prohibited by the First Amendment, Buckley v. Valeo, supra, and 11 C.F.R. section 110.10(b).

E. The Republican Complaint Does Not Allege Conduct Intended To Be Prohibited By 11 C.F.R. Section 110.3(b)

Section 110.3(b) came about as a result of a petition filed by Republican Congressman William Thomas in 1991. At that time, Commission regulations permitted nonfederal committees to transfer funds to federal committees "so long as the funds are not composed of any contributions that would violate the [Federal Election Campaign] Act."²⁰ Congressman Thomas alleged that, notwithstanding the quoted restriction, nonfederal committees could spend so-called "soft money" to raise "hard dollars that are then transferred to federal committees."²¹ But the facts alleged in the Republican later, the Commission modified this conclusion in AG 1984-3, finding that "based on further review, the Commission believes that because these trust funds were raised for state campaign and other political purposes, they should more properly be treated as funds of a state campaign." In 1984, this meant that they could be transferred to the Cliff Finch for President committee only after a removal of "funds which are not permissible under the [Federal Election Campaign] Act." After the 1993 adoption of the current version of 11 C.F.R. section 110.10, it means that they cannot be transferred under any circumstances.

The facts alleged in the Republican Complaint are fundamentally different from the facts in the Mississippi Advisory Opinions, because in neither Mississippi situation did the Mississippi candidate have a state law right of personal access to the trust proceeds. Under the trust terms, use of the funds in the trusts was limited to political campaigning and officeholder expenses; ultimately, the funds reverted to the State of Mississippi. In contrast, under California law both Friends and Controller are indebted to candidate Sherman.

Complaint are not encompassed by the evil sought to be addressed by current Section 110.3(b), because neither Friends nor Controller have subsidized the costs of fundraising by Congress.²²

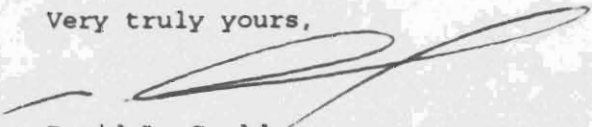

Most importantly, debts repaid by Friends and Controller became Mr. Sherman's personal funds.²³ It is on this fundamental point alone that the Republican Complaint must fail. Section 110.3 prohibits only transfers from non-federal to federal committees. It does not -- and constitutionally could not -- limit repayments made by a debtor state committee to a lawful creditor. That is what has happened in this matter. Mr. Sherman was repaid debts owed to him by his state committees. Such a transaction is beyond the scope of Section 110.3; hence, the Republican Complaint must fail as a matter of law.²⁴

F. The Commission Should Take No Action Because The Republican Complaint Is Without Merit

In conclusion, the Commission should take no action, because the facts alleged in the Republican Complaint do not violate the Federal Election Campaign Act or any Commission regulation. Rather, they fall squarely within the First Amendment protection implemented by 11 C.F.R sections 110.10(a) and 110.10(b), as well as Commission Advisory Opinion 1977-38.

Enclosures (4 exhibits)

²² In fact, a review of the legislative history of Regulation 110.3(b) shows absolutely no discussion of any facts which remotely resemble those alleged in the Republican Complaint. See 56 Fed.Reg. 66866 (Dec. 26, 1991); 57 Fed.Reg. 13054 (April 15, 1992); 57 Fed.Reg. 38344 (Aug. 12, 1992); 58 Fed.Reg. 3474 (Jan. 8, 1993).

²⁴ Brad Sherman did not register Congress with the Commission until November 16, 1995, when he executed FEC Forms 1 and 2 and sent them by United States Mail to the Commission; at that time, Sherman was exploring a possible candidacy. Sherman announced his candidacy on December 15, 1995.

I. GENERATION OF MATTER

This matter was initiated by a signed sworn complaint filed with the Federal Election Commission ("the Commission") on February 28, 1996, by the Republican Party of Los Angeles County and Keith McCarthy, as chairman ("the County Committee").¹ In this complaint the County Committee alleges that Brad Sherman, a candidate for the Democratic nomination in California's 24th Congressional District, during the 1996 Congressional race, has violated and may have engaged in an intentional evasion of 11 C.F.R. § 110.3(d).

On April 26, 1996, Sherman for Congress and David L. Gould, as treasurer ("Congress Committee"), Friends of Brad Sherman and David L. Gould, as treasurer ("Friends"), Brad Sherman for Controller and David L. Gould, as treasurer ("Controller Committee"), and Brad Sherman ("Candidate and/or Mr. Sherman") collectively, responded to the complaint. See Attachment 1.

II. FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

A. THE LAW

The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act") prohibits contributions or expenditures by national banks, corporations, or labor organizations with regard to federal election activity. 2 U.S.C. § 441b.

Transfers of funds or assets from a candidate's campaign committee or account for a nonfederal election to his or her principal campaign committee or other authorized committee for a federal election are prohibited. 11 C.F.R. § 110.3(d).

Except as provided in 11 C.F.R. §§ 9001, et seq. (Presidential Election Campaign Fund: General Election Financing) and 9031, et seq. (Presidential Election Campaign Fund: Presidential Primary Matching Fund), candidates for Federal office may make unlimited expenditures from personal funds. 11 C.F.R. § 110.10(a). For purposes of this section, personal funds means any assets which, under applicable state law, at the time he or she became a candidate, the candidate had legal right of access to or control over, and with respect to which the candidate had either legal and rightful title, or an equitable interest. 11 C.F.R. § 110.10(b).

B. THE COMPLAINT

The County Committee alleges that Brad Sherman may have violated the prohibition on direct or indirect transfers from state to federal campaigns, by loaning his federal committee $275,000.00 repaid to him for a debt owed to Mr. Sherman by his state committee, which contained funds from contributions that would be illegal if made to a federal campaign.² This loan is reported on the Sherman Committee's 1995 Year End Report filed January 31, 1996.

The County Committee argues that reports filed with the California Fair Political Practices Commission ("FPPC") show that the Friends of Brad Sherman (one of Mr. Sherman's state committees) in 1994 and 1995 transferred at least $200,000.00 to Mr. Sherman personally, and that these funds were included in his loan to his federal committee. The County Committee also asserts that according to an article in the Los Angeles Daily News February 1, 1996, Mr. Sherman conceded that the $275,000.00 he loaned his congressional campaign came from repayment of the earlier loan. See Attachment 2. The complaint alleges that Mr. Sherman through his actions may have "laundered" state campaign contributions by using himself as an intermediary between his state and federal committees. The County Committee asserts that by running the funds through himself, Mr. Sherman evidently hopes to meet technical compliance with the rule that prohibits transfers of funds from state campaigns to federal campaigns. The County Committee concludes that the actions by Mr. Sherman at a minimum violate the intent and meaning of 11 C.F.R. § 110.3(d).

The County Committee argues that any claim that these were legitimate repayments of personal funds Mr. Sherman loaned to his state campaign committee cannot withstand scrutiny under the federal election laws. This assertion by the County Committee indicates that the repayments were made specifically to allow Mr. Sherman to loan this money to his federal committee, thus masking a prohibited transfer of funds from his nonfederal campaign committee to his federal campaign committee.

On August 2, 1996, the County Committee, in support of the complaint filed in this matter, furnished this Office with a copy of a fundraising letter from one of Mr. Sherman's nonfederal committees, (Friends of Brad Sherman). See Attachment 3. The letter states that the purpose of the fundraiser is to raise money to pay the debts of this nonfederal committee. The County Committee argues that the letter should have stated that Mr. Sherman was a candidate for federal Office, and that the funds from the debts repaid would end up in Mr. Sherman's federal campaign.³

B. THE RESPONSE

David L. Gould, the treasurer of all the Sherman Committees identified these committees as follows: (1) Sherman for Congress is the federally registered principal campaign committee of Brad Sherman. Mr. Sherman won the Democratic nomination in the March 26, 1996 Primary Election with 53% of the vote in a seven candidate race; (2) Friends of Brad Sherman is a non-federal committee which is registered with the California Fair Political Practices Commission, which was used by Mr. Sherman for his successful 1990 and 1994 campaigns for election and reelection to the California State Board of Equalization. Friends was indebted to Mr. Sherman in the amount of $191,758.00 as of December 31, 1995; and (3) Sherman for Controller is a non-federal committee which was used by Mr. Sherman for a terminated campaign in late 1993 and early 1994. This committee was indebted to Mr. Sherman in the amount of $79,000.00 as of December 31, 1995.

In response to the allegations in the complaint, David Gould stated that no funds were ever transferred from a Sherman non-federal committee to Sherman for Congress, the federal committee. Mr. Gould asserts that the funds used were personal funds of the candidate which he loaned to his Congressional Committee.

Mr. Gould concludes that the most important point is that since the debts repaid by the state committees became Mr. Sherman's personal funds, the complaint must fail. Mr. Gould argues that 11 C.F.R. § 110.3 prohibits only transfers from non-federal to federal committees, but does not and constitutionally could not limit repayments made by a debtor state committee to a lawful creditor.

Mr. Gould states that California Government Code Section 84216.5 clearly authorized Mr. Sherman to make loans of personal funds to his state committees, and authorized both committees to repay Mr. Sherman from contributions received by the committees. According to Mr. Gould the debt is properly evidenced by promissory notes and is fully enforceable under applicable California law. Mr. Gould also argues that Mr. Sherman had as an asset, at the time he became a federal candidate, in the debts owed to him by his prior state campaigns. Therefore, Mr. Gould argues, debts repaid to Mr. Sherman from these committees constitute personal funds of the candidate which may be spent in unlimited amounts under 11 C.F.R. § 110.10. To support this argument Mr. Gould cites to Advisory Opinion 1977-38, in which the Commission allowed a candidate for federal office to maintain a separate committee for the purpose of raising funds to retire a state campaign debt.

In addition, citing Buckley v. Valeo, Mr. Gould argues that Mr. Sherman has an absolute First Amendment right to expend personal funds in furtherance of his federal candidacy, and that any prohibition against Mr. Sherman lending or contributing funds to his federal committee is flatly prohibited by the First Amendment.

The respondents have not filed a response to the August 12, 1996 supplement to the original complaint, in which complainants allege impropriety in the fundraising activity and the contents of the fundraising letter used by Mr. Sherman's nonfederal committee. Nevertheless, it appears that Mr. Gould's response, to similar assertions in the original complaint, addresses the allegations made in the supplement.

C. THE ANALYSIS

A review of the information in the complaint and the information in the response appears to evidence that the funds were legitimately loaned to the nonfederal committees before the candidate decided to run for any federal office. This fact is not disputed by the complainant nor the respondents, and is disclosed on reports from the nonfederal committees which were filed with the State. There is also evidence that the money was loaned to the nonfederal committees by the candidate with an anticipation of repayment from the nonfederal committees to the candidate. This fact is also disclosed on reports from the nonfederal committees which were filed with the State. The reports show that with the various campaigns of Mr. Sherman, on the State level, that Mr. Sherman systematically loaned money to his committees, was repaid, and loaned the money to his other committees. In view of that fact there was nothing unusual when

The repayment appears accelerated or made specifically for the candidate to use these funds for his federal campaign. Although this may give the appearance of wrongful conduct, this appears not to be a violation of the federal election laws. A candidate for Federal office may make unlimited expenditures from personal funds to his committee. 11 C.F.R. § 110.10(a). The repayments were for debts owed to Mr. Sherman. The debt was an asset of Mr. Sherman's, and the funds were thus Mr. Sherman's personal funds when the debts were repaid.

The Commission considered the foregoing issue in MUR 4000. In MUR 4000 during the 1994 senatorial campaign of Richard W. Fisher, the Fisher campaign solicited money from potential contributors, totaling up to $4,000. The solicited contributions were to be used as follows: $1,000 for Mr. Fisher's general election campaign ; and $1,000 for debt retirement for each of his past three federal elections in 1993 and 1994. In return for any money contributed to retire debt (the major portion of which was owed to the candidate), the candidate pledged that he would contribute an equal amount of money to his general election campaign. The Commission concluded that because a candidate is permitted to contribute an unlimited amount of money to his or her campaign, Mr. Fisher's offer to match all funds contributed for debt retirement with his own personal funds for his general election campaign is permitted under the Act. In the present matter, unlike MUR 4000, this Office does not even have any information that the Sherman campaign made any representations to contributors solicited to pay prior debts owed to the candidate, as to how the funds would be expended. Accordingly, this may be even a stronger case for concluding that the funds used to pay debts owed to the candidate in this present matter became Mr. Sherman's personal funds which, under the Act, he could contribute in unlimited amounts to his federal campaign.⁵

⁴ According to the complaint and the documents attached thereto: (1) Mr. Sherman successfully ran for California's State Board of Equalization in 1990. To do so he lent his state campaign committee, "Friends of Brad Sherman," a total of $540,708 in 1989 and 1990; (2) Mr. Sherman was subsequently repaid $195,000.00 by the committee from third party contributions to his committee (Friends of Brad Sherman); in late 1993 he then loaned that and more for a total of $489,000.00, to another of his state campaign committees, "Sherman for Controller." After raising $176,500.00 and spending $260,500.00 on his campaign for State Controller, Mr. Sherman decided instead to run for re-election to the State Board of Equalization; (3) In 1994 Mr. Sherman transferred back $410,000.00 from the Sherman for Controller committee to himself, and lent $150,000.00 to the Friends of Brad Sherman committee. In the 1994 race, this committee then spent over $383,000.00 on Mr. Sherman's successful re-election. Later in 1994 and 1995 the Friends of Brad Sherman then transferred at least $200,000.00 back to Mr. Sherman personally; and (4) According to partial FPPC reports, Mr. Sherman raised over $309,000.00 from third parties in 1993 for both his State Board of Equalization and State Controller campaigns; over $277,000.00 for both races in 1994; and over $91,000.00 for his State Controller's race in the first half of 1995.

This conclusion is not inconsistent with AO 1996-33 in which the Commission was asked to consider the issue of funds being received by a federal committee from state election sources. In AO 1996-33, the federal congressional campaign committee for Thomas P. Colantuono requested the Commission's opinion on the application of the Act and the Commission's regulations on the planned action, by Mr. Colantuono to contribute surplus funds totaling approximately $6,000, from his State campaign committee to the re-election campaigns of various state legislators from whom Mr. Colantuono would also solicit contributions for his Federal campaign. The Commission stated that it appeared that donations from Mr. Colantuono's State committee would replenish, in advance or afterward (and in whole or in part) contributions made by the state legislators to Mr. Colantuono's federal committee. According to the Commission such contributions would amount to a transfer of funds from ⁵ Cf. In MUR 2544 (A. Joseph Canada, Jr., and Canada for Congress Committee '86) the Commission was equally divided on whether the cumulative effect, of the candidate making contributions to his state-candidacy committee; the repaying to the candidate of funds he had loaned to the state-candidacy committee; and the loaning of funds by the candidate to his federal-candidacy committee, was a violation of the federal election laws.

Mr. Colantuono's State campaign committee through the state legislators' committees to Mr. Colantuono's federal campaign committee, and would be impermissible under 11 C.F.R. § 110.3(d). This appears distinguishable from this present matter because in this matter the funds raised by Mr. Sherman's nonfederal committee were going to Mr. Sherman directly for the repayment of personal loans by Mr. Sherman to the nonfederal committees. The funds being paid to Mr. Sherman represented funds to which he was legally entitled, unlike the contributions Mr. Colantuono proposed to give to the state committees at issue in AO 1996-33.

In AO 1980-130 the Commission decided that in repaying a loan to a federal committee, a state committee may not use funds from corporations or labor unions even though such a repayment is not considered a contribution. See 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(a) and Part 114. See 11 C.F.R. § 100.7(a)(1)(i)(D). This appears distinguishable from this present matter because the various loans at issue in this matter were not between the federal committee and nonfederal committees. The loans were from the candidate to his nonfederal committee before he decided to run for any Federal office. Therefore, the prohibition on the source of the funds used for repayment, when a nonfederal committee repays a debt to a federal committee, is not applicable when the nonfederal committee's repayment is to the candidate for federal office for a debt owed to the candidate prior to his run for federal office.

Based on the foregoing there appears to be no transfer of funds from a non-federal committee to a federal committee. Therefore, there appears to be no violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441b, and 11 C.F.R. § 110.3(d) by Sherman for Congress and David L. Gould, as treasurer, Friends of Brad Sherman and David L. Gould, as treasurer, Brad Sherman for Controller and

David L. Gould, as treasurer, and Brad Sherman ("Candidate and/or Mr. Sherman") as alleged in the complaint.

9 6 0 4 3 7 7 0 6 0 2

In the past the Commission has addressed the issue of fundraising by a federal candidate's nonfederal committee, which is also the focus of the complainants' allegations of impropriety in the fundraising activity and the contents of the fundraising letter used by Mr. Sherman's nonfederal committee to raise funds to pay debts from prior campaigns. In Advisory Opinion 1977-38, the Commission allowed a candidate for federal office to maintain a separate committee for the purpose of raising funds used solely to retire a state campaign debt. The fundraising activity by the state committee questioned by the complainant appears to be consistent AO 1977-38, and therefore allowable by the Commission. While the complainant alleged that the state committees were just being used as a subterfuge for channeling impermissible money from the state committees to the federal committee, information received from the respondents indicates that the state committee was actually engaged in reducing the debt to the candidate. Nor are there any provisions in the FECA that would have required the state committee to reference Mr. Sherman's federal candidate status, or the use to be made of the funds repaid to him. Indeed in general the requirements placed on a nonfederal committees as to the contents of the materials used in connection with nonfederal activity is not controlled by federal election law, and therefore, not within the Commission's jurisdiction. See 2 U.S.C. § 437c(b).

Accordingly, there appears to be no violations of federal election laws by the Sherman Committees with regard to this fundraising letter.

III. RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Find no reason to believe that Sherman for Congress and David L. Gould, as treasurer, Friends of Brad Sherman and David L. Gould, as treasurer, Brad Sherman for Controller and David L. Gould, as treasurer, and Brad Sherman violated 2 U.S.C. § 441b, and 11 C.F.R. § 110.3(d) as alleged in the complaint.
