RE: MUR 4428

Dear Mr. Grossman:

On December 28, 1998, the Federal Election Commission reviewed the allegations in the complaint dated August 2, 1996 filed by your predecessor, Mr. Donald L. Fowler, on behalf of the Democratic National Committee, and found that on the basis of the information provided in the complaint and other information, there is no reason to believe that any of the respondents violated any statute or regulation within the Commission's jurisdiction for the reasons described in the complaint. Accordingly, on December 28, 1998, the Commission closed the file in this matter.

The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(8).

Sincerely,

Lawrence M. Noble
General Counsel
