RE: MUR 4558

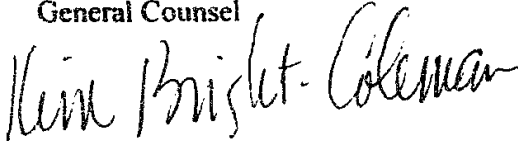

Dear Mr. Kleinman:

On March 2, 1999, the Federal Election Commission reviewed the allegation contained in your October 31, 1996 complaint that the Democratic National Committee ("the Committee") was required to file a pre-general election report pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(4)(A)(ii). Based on the information provided in your complaint, the Commission found that there is no reason to believe that the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(4)(A)(ii). Accordingly, the Commission closed the file in this matter with respect to this allegation. The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(8).

You are advised that the confidentiality provisions of 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(12)(A) still apply with respect to the remaining allegations contained in your complaint since these allegations are still pending. The Commission will notify you when the entire file concerning these allegations has been closed.

Sincerely,

Lawrence M. Noble
General Counsel
