RE: MUR 5548

Dear Mr. Goldfeder:

On January 17, 2006, the Federal Election Commission reviewed the allegations in your complaint dated September 28, 2004, and found, on the basis of the information provided in your complaint and information provided by the respondents, the Republican National Committee and the Committee on Arrangements for the 2004 Republican National Convention, that there is no reason to believe that respondents violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. Accordingly, on January 17, 2006, the Commission closed the file in this matter.

Documents related to the case will be placed on the public record within 30 days. See Statement of Policy Regarding Disclosure of Closed Enforcement and Related Files, 68 Fed. Reg. 70,426 (Dec. 18, 2003). A copy of the dispositive General Counsel's Report is enclosed for your information.

The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(8).

Sincerely,

Lawrence H. Norton
General Counsel
