SUBJECT: MURs 5672/5733 (Save Jobs, et al) – findings as to Jack Davis for Congress and Robert R. Davis, in his official capacity as treasurer

On December 12, 2006, the Commission found no reason to believe that a number of respondents in MURs 5672 and 5733 violated the Federal Election Campaign Act, as amended, (the "Act"), while dismissing the allegations as to the rest of the respondents. However, the Commission did not vote on our recommendation to find no reason to believe Jack Davis for Congress and Robert R. Davis, in his official capacity as treasurer, violated the Act, because the recommendations as to these respondents did not appear in the "Recommendations" section of the First General Counsel's Report, circulated November 21, 2006. See Section V. For the reasons set forth in the "Introduction" and "Analysis" sections of the Report, we recommend that the Commission reopen the files in both MUR 5672 and MUR 5733, find no reason to believe Jack Davis for Congress and Robert R. Davis, in his official capacity as treasurer, violated the Act and close the files in both MUR 5672 and MUR 5733. See id Section I at 3 and Section III at 6.

Recommendations:

1. Reopen the files in MURs 5672 and 5733;

2. Find no reason to believe Jack Davis for Congress and Robert R. Davis, in his official capacity as treasurer, violated the Act;
3. Close the files in MURs 5672 and 5733.
