RE: MUR 5936
TerriPAC---Michael Schiavo, chairman
Brian Schiavo, treasurer

Dear Mr. Jordan:

On Friday, Sept. 14, the Florida Department of State, Division of Corporations, administratively dissolved On-Time Fundraisers of Miami, FL for failure to file an annual report. This entity of which Derek Newton, treasurer and registered agent of Florida TerriPAC, is the vice president and director, has received $4,280 from TerriPAC for "fundraising".

On-Time Fundraiser was also administratively dissolved by the State of Florida last Sept. 15, 2006 and was reinstated on Nov. 21, 2006. HOWEVER, during the time that it was defunct and not legally registered with the state of Florida, it was the recipient of $2,184.72, paid by TerriPAC on Sept. 30, 2006, 15 days after it was shutdown by Florida's Department of State.

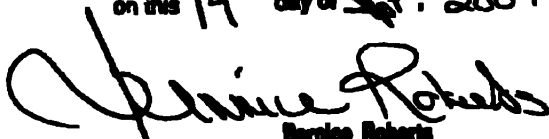

This would appear to be improper and may constitute fraud as TerriPAC was making payments to an entity which doesn't legally exist and it appears that a firm in which Newton was a principal was once again was the recipient.

Sincerely,

June Maxam
