On July 26, 1979, the Commission determined that there was reasonable cause to believe that both you and the Prince Retail and Leasing Systems, Inc. violated 18 U.S.C. § 610 [currently 2 U.S.C. § 441b]. GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

I. Previous Commission Action

On July 26, 1979, the Commission determined that there was reasonable cause to believe that Daniel Minchew had violated 2 U.S.C. § 432(b) by failing to render to the treasurer of the Talmadge Campaign Committee, within the required five day period, detailed accounts of contributions received during 1973 and 1974. A proposed conciliation agreement was sent to Mr. Minchew on August 6, 1979. After negotiation, Mr. Minchew signed a conciliation agreement which the Commission approved and which was signed by the General Counsel on October 10, 1979. That agreement required the payment of a $4,000 civil penalty. On December 29, 1979, a letter was sent to Mr. Minchew's counsel reminding him that the civil penalty had not been paid. By letter of January 21, 1980, Mr. Minchew's attorney requested an extension of time in which to pay the penalty until April 1, 1980, explaining that Mr. Minchew had just been released from jail and needed time to put his financial affairs in order. The Commission agreed and so notified Mr. Minchew's attorney on February 1, 1980. Again, on May 7, 1980, not having received payment, the office wrote Mr. Minchew demanding payment. No response has been received.

II. Discussion

2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(5)(D) provides that the Commission may institute a civil action if it believes that a person who has entered into a conciliation agreement has violated any provision of that agreement. Mr. Minchew specifically agreed that

"Respondent will pay a civil penalty in the amount of $4,000...."

The General Counsel's Office has attempted to obtain compliance with this provision of the agreement through repeated telephone calls and letters. None of these efforts have, to date, produced compliance.

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

I. Previous Commission Action

On July 26, 1979, the Commission determined that there was reasonable cause to believe that Daniel Minchew had violated 2 U.S.C. § 432(b) by failing to render to the treasurer of the Talmadge Campaign Committee, within the required five day period, detailed accounts of contributions received during 1973 and 1974. A proposed conciliation agreement was sent to Mr. Minchew on August 6, 1979. After negotiation, Mr. Minchew signed a conciliation agreement which the Commission approved and which was signed by the General Counsel on October 10, 1979. That agreement required the payment of a $4,000 civil penalty. On December 29, 1979, a letter was sent to Mr. Minchew's counsel reminding him that the civil penalty had not been paid. By letter of January 21, 1980, Mr. Minchew's attorney requested an extension of time in which to pay the penalty until April 1, 1980, explaining that Mr. Minchew had just been released from jail and needed time to put his financial affairs in order. The Commission agreed and so notified Mr. Minchew's attorney on February 1, 1980. Again, on May 7, 1980, not having received payment, the office wrote Mr. Minchew demanding payment. No response has been received.

II. Discussion

2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(5)(D) provides that the Commission may institute a civil action if it believes that a person who has entered into a conciliation agreement has violated any provision of that agreement. Mr. Minchew specifically agreed that

"Respondent will pay a civil penalty in the amount of $4,000...."

The General Counsel's Office has attempted to obtain compliance with this provision of the agreement through repeated telephone calls and letters. None of these efforts have, to date, produced compliance.

III. Recommendation

The General Counsel's Office recommends that the Commission authorize suit against Mr. Minchew to enforce the civil penalty provision of the conciliation agreement.

THEREFORE, the Commission and Respondent, Daniel Minchew agree as follows:

I. By failing to render to the Treasurer of the Talmadge Campaign Committee a detailed account of all contributions he received for that Committee within five days of this receipt, Respondent violated section 302(b) of the 1971 Federal Election Campaign Act [currently 2 U.S.C. § 432(b)].

II. Respondent will pay a civil penalty in the amount of $4,000 pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(6)(B)(i).

III. Respondent will not undertake any activity which is in violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, 2 U.S.C. § 431 et seq.

MUR 638(78)

CONCILIATION AGREEMENT

This matter having been initiated by the Federal Election Commission on the basis of information ascertained in the ordinary course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities, and after investigation, the Commission having found reasonable cause to believe that Senator Herman E. Talmadge (hereinafter "Respondent") violated section 304(b)(9) and (11) of the 1971 Federal Election Campaign Act, 2 U.S.C. § 441i, 2 U.S.C. § 439a, 11 C.F.R. § 113.3, and 11 C.F.R. § 113.5(b),

NOW THEREFORE, the Commission and Respondent, having duly entered into conciliation as provided for in 2 U.S.C. § 437g (a)(5) do hereby agree as follows:

I. The Federal Election Commission has jurisdiction over the Respondent and the subject matter of this proceeding;

II. Respondent has had a reasonable opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken in this matter;

III. The pertinent facts in this matter and the positions of the parties are as follows:

A. During 1973 and 1974 Respondent was a candidate for federal office pursuant to section 301(b) of the 1971 Federal

8304041203

Election Campaign Act. Respondent, however, was not deemed to be a candidate under Georgia law until qualifying fees were paid in 1974.

B. During 1973 and 1974 Respondent made expenditures, later determined by the Talmadge Campaign Committee to be allowable campaign expenditures under section 301(f) of the Federal Election Campaign Act, in amounts of approximately $26,900.00. These expenditures were made from Respondent's bank account known as the Special Account, which was maintained for payment of various office-related expenses.

C. Section 304(b)(9) and (11) of the 1971 Federal Election Campaign Act required that such expenditures be reported during the reporting period in which made.

D. During 1973 and 1974 Respondent did not report having made these expenditures. On June 19, 1978, prior to the commencement of this matter by the Commission, Respondent filed amended reports setting forth these expenditures.

E. On March 7, 1975, the Talmadge Campaign Committee, in its first quarter report for 1975, reported the transfer of $26,912.44 to Respondent. This transfer, which reimbursed Respondent for the campaign expenses he had made in 1973 and 1974, was thus disclosed to the Commission in 1975.

F. Respondent's position is that the inadequate reporting in 1973 and 1974 was based upon interpretations of Georgia law regarding candidate status and information concerning allowable campaign expenses received from an official Senate source by Respondent's staff. Respondent also contends that there was general confusion in 1973 and 1974 on his staff regarding the new Federal Election Campaign Act and what expenses could be paid from campaign funds, and that he was reimbursed in 1975 only after the Campaign Committee determined which expenses could be considered campaign-related. Nonetheless, for purposes of this Conciliation Agreement, Respondent will not dispute the Commission's conclusion that proper reporting procedures were not followed.

G. Pursuant to Senate Rule 42, Respondent reported that he received $24,000 in honoraria during 1977.

H. The Federal Land Bank of St. Louis and Ceramic Tile Manufacturers' Association were not among those organizations reported by Respondent as having given him honoraria during 1977.

I. On March 7, 1977, Respondent spoke to a meeting of the stockholders of the Federal Land Bank of St. Louis. Subsequently, the Bank sent a $1,000 check to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, an account established pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 439a to defray certain office-related expenses.

J. On January 17, 1977, Respondent spoke to the Ceramic Tile Manufacturers' Association. A representative of this Association subsequently forwarded a $1,000 check to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund.

K. Respondent and the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund considered these checks to be donations to the Fund and the officers deposited them in the Fund's bank account. The amounts involved were duly reported to the Federal Election Commission as contributions to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund.

L. 2 U.S.C. § 441i(a)(2) provides that no person, while an elected officer of the federal government, may receive honoraria aggregating more than $25,000 in any calendar year.

M. The Commission's position is that the monies received from the Federal Land Bank of St. Louis and the Ceramic Tile Manufacturers' Association were honoraria, and the Respondent thus received honoraria totalling $26,000 in 1977.

N. Respondent's position is that the monies received from the Federal Land Bank of St. Louis and the Ceramic Tile Manufacturers' Association were not honoraria, but were contributions to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Respondent asserts that he was told by members of his staff that they advised the representatives of the Federal Land Bank of St. Louis and the Ceramic Tile Manufacturers' Association that Respondent would receive no honorarium, but would accept a voluntary contribution to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. The monies were treated in all respects by the Respondent and the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund as contributions to the Fund. Nonetheless, for purposes of this Conciliation Agreement, Respondent will not dispute the conclusions of the Commission set forth in paragraph M above.

O. During 1977 and 1978 Respondent on occasion accepted small cash gifts from constituents as he had done for many years. (Respondent asserts that he no longer accepts such gifts.)

P. 11 C.F.R. § 113.1(a) defines "funds donated" as "... all funds, including, but not limited to, gifts, loans, advances, credits or deposits of money which are donated for the purpose of supporting the activities of a federal or state officeholder..." 11 C.F.R. § 113.3 requires that all such "funds donated" be deposited into an office account or an authorized campaign committee account.

Q. During 1977 and 1978 Respondent was a candidate pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 431(b) and federal office holder.

R. The cash gifts Respondent received in 1977 and 1978 were not deposited into either an office account or an authorized campaign committee account.

S. The Commission's position is that some portion of these cash gifts may have been given for the purpose of supporting Respondent's activities as a Senator, may therefore have been "funds donated," and thus should have been deposited as required by 11 C.F.R. § 113.3.

T. Respondent's position is that the small cash gifts he received in 1977 and 1978 were not expressly given him for any specific purpose, and that consequently they should not be considered "funds donated" as that term is defined in 11 C.F.R. § 113.1(a). Nonetheless, for purposes of this Conciliation Agreement, Respondent will not dispute the Commission's conclusion that at least some of the gifts involved may have been "funds donated" and should have been treated as such.

U. During the Period 1975-1977, $4,801.00 was deposited into the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Of this amount, approximately $750.00 was corporate treasury funds. At the time, office accounts such as the Talmadge Newsletter Fund could lawfully receive contributions from corporate treasuries.

V. Pursuant to the new prohibition on office accounts after January 1, 1978 in Senate Rule 46, adopted on April 10, 1977, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was terminated on October 10, 1977.

83040412037

The funds from the Talmadge Newsletter Fund in the amount of $2,839.49 had been transferred to the Talmadge Campaign Committee account on June 17, 1977.

W. Respondent's position is that since a) 11 C.F.R. § 113.3 required that "funds donated" be deposited in either an office account or a campaign account, and since b) new Senate Rule 46 prohibited the continuation of office accounts such as the Talmadge Newsletter Fund after January 1, 1978, the funds remaining in that account should be transferred to the campaign committee account. Respondent's position is also that since June 17, 1977, monies from the Talmadge Campaign Committee account in excess of the amount transferred, $2,839.49, were used not for campaign purposes, but to defray ordinary and necessary expenses incurred in connection with Respondent's duties as a holder of federal office, as is authorized by the excess campaign funds provision of 11 C.F.R. § 113.2. Nonetheless, for purposes of this Conciliation Agreement, Respondent will not dispute the Commission's conclusions set forth in paragraph X below.

X. The Commission's position is that, under 11 C.F.R. § 113.5(b) which prohibits the use of any funds in an office account which contains corporate treasury funds in connection with a federal election, the transfer of commingled monies from the Newsletter Fund to the Campaign Committee account was not in accordance with law.

THEREFORE, the Commission finds, and the Respondent (for purposes of this Conciliation Agreement) does not dispute that:

I. By failing timely to report expenditures in 1973 and 1974, Respondent violated section 304(b)(9) and (11) of the 1971 Federal Election Campaign Act;

II. By receiving honoraria from the Federal Land Bank of St. Louis and the Ceramic Tile Manufacturers' Association during 1977, Respondent violated 2 U.S.C. § 441i by accepting honoraria over the aggregate calendar year limitation.

III. By accepting certain small cash gifts, as discussed in paragraph S above, in 1977 and 1978 and not depositing them into an office account or authorized campaign committee account, Respondent violated 11 C.F.R. § 113.3.

IV. By transferring funds from the Talmadge Newsletter Fund (Respondent's office account which contained commingled corporate treasury funds) to the Talmadge Campaign Committee, Respondent violated 11 C.F.R. § 113.5(b).

V. Respondent will pay a civil penalty in the amount of $4,500.00 pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437(g)(a)(5)(A). Nothing in the conciliation agreement constitutes an admission by Respondent that he has engaged in any knowing or willful violation of law.

VI. Respondent will not undertake any activity which is in violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, 2 U.S.C. § 431 et seq.

GENERAL CONDITIONS

I. The Commission, on request of anyone filing a complaint under 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(1) concerning the matters at issue herein or on its own motion, may review compliance with this agreement. If the Commission believes that this agreement or any requirement thereof has been violated, it may institute a civil action for relief in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia.

II. It is mutually agreed that this agreement shall become effective on the date that all parties hereto have executed same and the Commission has approved the entire agreement.

III. It is agreed that Respondent shall have no more than thirty (30) days from the date of this agreement to implement and comply with the requirements contained herein, or to so notify the Commission of his inability to so comply.

IV. This conciliation agreement constitutes a full and complete resolution of all matters concerning Respondent investigated by the Commission in MUR 638 (78), and is a complete bar to any further action by the Commission in regard to such matters, unless the agreement is violated.

Re: MUR 638

Dear Mr. Minchew:

As you are aware, you entered into a conciliation agreement with the Federal Election Commission on October 10, 1979, in which you agreed to pay a civil penalty of $4,000.00 within 30 days. As you are also aware, that agreed upon civil penalty has not been paid.

After repeated telephone calls concerning your non-payment, the Commission was assured by your attorney that you would pay the civil penalty by April 1, 1980. Because of your extenuating circumstances, the Commission agreed to such an extension and so notified your counsel by letter of February 1, 1980.

We would appreciate receiving your agreed to civil penalty immediately. Should such payment not immediately be forthcoming, you will have placed the Commission in the position of instituting civil action against you as is provided for in the conciliation agreement, and seeking attachment of your property. As you may know, 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(5)(D) provides that in such an action the Commission only need establish that you have violated, in whole or in part, any requirement of the conciliation agreement.

We look forward to your cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,

Charles N. Steele
General Counsel

Dear Mr. Steele:

I have been unable to respond to your letter of December 21, as my client has recently gotten out of jail and has been trying to put his financial house in order. I am prepared to now represent that the $4,000.00 penalty will be paid by Mr. Minchew on or before April 1, 1980. I trust that that payment date meets with your satisfaction. If I don't hear from you from the contrary, I will assume so and you will have a check for the amount of $4,000.00 on that date.

Very truly yours,

Re: MUR 638

Dear Senator Talmadge:

As you know, H.R. 5010 was signed into law on January 8, 1980. Section 309 of the Act establishes new enforcement procedures which became effective upon enactment. Specifically, section 309(a)(4)(B)(i) of H.R. 5010 provides that no information derived in connection with any conciliation attempt may be made public by the Commission without the respondent's written consent.

Inasmuch as we are currently engaged in conciliation efforts to reach an agreement in MUR 638, we thought it appropriate to confirm that you will be submitting information on January 17, 1980, to be submitted to the Commission, and to advise you that should you wish any such information made public upon the conclusion of this matter, H.R. 5010 would require that you request so in writing.

As you know, the Commission and Mr. Daniel Minchew entered into a conciliation agreement on October 10, 1979. By that agreement Mr. Minchew agreed to pay a $4,000 civil penalty within 30 days from the date of agreement.

As you also know, the Commission has not yet received Mr. Minchew's agreed upon payment. We would appreciate either receiving Mr. Minchew's check or an explanation along with a date upon which such payment will be made.

Sincerely,

Re: MUR 638 (78)

Dear Senator Talmadge:

On July 26, 1979 and November 1, 1979, the Commission determined that there was reasonable cause to believe that you violated §304(b)(9) and (11) of the 1971 Federal Election Campaign Act by failing to report over $26,900.00 in expenditures in 1973 and 1974, that you violated 2 U.S.C. §441i by accepting honoraria over the aggregate calendar year limit during 1977, that you violated 11 CFR §113.3 by accepting funds donated in the form of small cash gifts and not depositing them into an office account or campaign account, and that you violated 2 U.S.C. §439a and 11 CFR §113.5(b) by allowing the transfer of the Talmadge Newsletter account, containing commingled corporate funds, to the Talmadge Campaign Committee.

The Commission has a duty to attempt to correct such violations for a period of 30 days by informal methods of conference, conciliation, and by entering into a conciliation agreement. 2 U.S.C. §437g(a)(5)(A). If we are unable to reach an agreement during that period, the Commission may, upon a finding of probable cause to believe a violation has occurred, institute a civil suit and seek appropriate relief.

Enclosed is a conciliation agreement that this office is prepared to recommend to the Commission in settlement of this matter. If you agree with the provisions of the enclosed agreement, you should sign and return it within 10 days. We will then recommend that the Commission approve the agreement.

MUR 638 (78)

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

I. PREVIOUS COMMISSION ACTION

On July 26, 1979, the Commission determined, inter alia:

- 1) that there was reasonable cause to believe that Senator Herman Talmadge
  - a) violated §304(b)(9) and (11) of the 1971 Act by failing to report over $26,900.00 in expenditures during 1973 and 1974 but to defer conciliation efforts on this matter pending investigation of other matters;
  - b) violated 2 U.S.C. §441i by accepting honoraria over the aggregate calendar-year limitation during 1977 but to defer conciliation efforts on this matter pending investigations of other matters;
  - c) violated 11 C.F.R. §113.3 by accepting "funds donated" in the form of small cash, gifts and not depositing them into an office account or campaign committee account, but to defer conciliation efforts pending further investigation of other matters.
- 2) there was reason to believe that Senator Herman Talmadge:
  - a) may have violated 2 U.S.C. §439a and 11 C.F.R. §113.5(b) by allowing the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, his office account containing commingled corporate treasury funds, to be transferred to the Talmadge Campaign Committee; and
  - b) may have violated 18 U.S.C. §616 [currently 2 U.S.C. §441i] by accepting an honorarium over the $1,000 statutory limit and exceeding the $15,000 aggregate calendar year limit during 1975;

- 3) That there was reasonable cause to believe that Daniel Minchew violated section 302(b) of the 1971 Act [currently 2 U.S.C. §432(b)] by failing to render to the treasurer of Talmadge Campaign Committee a detailed account of contributions received in 1973 and 1974 and deposited into Riggs National Bank Account #01-06-104-923 and enter into conciliation.

On August 3, 1978 the Commission determined to send letters to Senator Talmadge, John Mitchell (concerning automobile usage), Greater Atlanta Credit Union Chapter 1/, and a letter and proposed conciliation agreement to Daniel Minchew. These letters were sent on August 6, 1979. On October 10, 1979, the Commission entered into a conciliation agreement with Daniel Minchew.

II. SENATOR HERMAN TALMADGE

- A. Transfer of office account, Talmadge Newsletter Fund, containing commingled corporate treasury funds into Talmadge Campaign Committee Account.

DISCUSSION: In January 1979 the Commission found reason to believe that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund may have violated 2 U.S.C. §439a and 11 C.F.R. §113.5(b) by transferring in June 1977 monies containing corporate treasury funds to the Talmadge Campaign Committee. However, on July 26, 1979, the Commission determined to accept the current description of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund as Senator Talmadge's office account.<sup>2/</sup> Therefore, the Commission determined to take no

1/ The Commission had, on January 25, 1979, found reason to believe Greater Atlanta Credit Union Chapter may have violated 18 U.S.C. §610 [currently 2 U.S.C. §441b] by giving to Senator Herman Talmadge a political contribution of approximately $250.00 on or about May 24, 1973.

2/ See discussion pp. 21-25 of General Counsel's Report dated July 18, 1979.

further action at this time with respect to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund because of this transfer, (Recommendation 17), but rather to find reason to believe that the Senator may have violated 2 U.S.C. §439a and 11 C.F.R. §113.5(b) by allowing his office account containing such funds to be so transferred. (Recommendation 4).

In response to the General Counsel's letter of August 6, Senator Talmadge generally accepted and restated the information already provided to the Commission. He also stated:

Pursuant to Senate Rule 46 - adopted by the Senate on April 1, 1977, in Senate Resolution 110 - the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was terminated on July 10, 1977. Monies remaining in the Talmadge Newsletter Fund account totaling $2,839.49 were transferred by the Funds officers to the Talmadge Campaign Committee account on June 17, 1977. The officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund believed this transfer was required to comply with both the new Senate rule and 11 C.F.R. §113.3 which governs deposits of "funds donated."

The transfer of these funds was duly reported by both the Talmadge Newsletter Fund and the Talmadge Campaign Committee. This reporting demonstrates that there was no intention to violate the provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act or FEC regulations. Moreover, the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund and I had no intention to use any of the transferred funds in connection with a federal election. Indeed, a review of the expenditures of the Talmadge Campaign Committee since June 17, 1977, indicates that funds well in excess of $2,839.49 have been expended for newsletter printing and other office related expenses not connected with a federal election. Such expenditures of "funds donated" is clearly allowed by 11 C.F.R. §113.2(a).

I thus do not believe the Commission could determine that a violation of 2 U.S.C. §439(a) and 11 C.F.R. §113.5 (b) has occurred. If transfer of these funds were a violation of these provisions, I believe this would have been called to my attention when the transfer was duly reported to the Commission in 1977.

ANALYSIS: As discussed in the General Counsel's Report dated July 26, 1979 (p. 24-25), Senator Talmadge appears to assume that funds prohibited by § 441b may be deposited into a campaign fund if the campaign committee uses an equal amount of funds for "newsletter printing and other office related expenses not connected with a federal election." As discussed in the General Counsel's Report dated July 26, 1979, the Commission has never allowed such deposits and accounting methods to be utilized. See e.g., AO 1976-83, AO 1976-110.

Moreover, the Senator suggests that because the Commission did not call this matter to his attention in 1977, it may not now find such a violation. Apparently the Senator's position is that if a violation is obvious on the face of a report and not immediately acted upon by the Commission, the Commission is prohibited from acting on such a violation in the future. However, there is nothing in the case law nor in FECA which requires the Commission to act upon violations apparent in reports within specific time periods nor which prohibits the Commission from acting on violations identified at some later point.

Therefore, the General Counsel's office recommends that the Commission find reasonable cause to believe that the Senator violated 2 U.S.C. § 439(a) and 11 C.F.R. § 113.5(b) by allowing this transfer of his office account funds.

- B. Acceptance of an honorarium in 1975 over the $1,000 statutory limit and exceeding the $15,000 aggregate calendar year limit

DISCUSSION: Senator Talmadge reported receiving a total of $14,980.00 in honoraria in 1975. $1,000 of that sum was reported as having been received from Southern Wholesaler Association. An additional $500 was reported as a contribution received by the Talmadge Newsletter Fund from that Association. In response to the Commission's initial inquiry, Rogers Wade, the Senator's Administrative Assistant, submitted an affidavit stating:

In 1975, a representative of the Southern Wholesalers Association contacted me [Rogers Wade] to invite Senator Talmadge to speak to the Association in Atlanta, Ga. I was informed that the Association would like to give Senator Talmadge a $1,500 honorarium for his appearance. Senator Talmadge accepted the invitation and I notified the Association that Senator Talmadge had agreed to address the group but would accept an honorarium of only $1,000 pursuant to the Senate Rules. I informed the Association representative, however, that an office account, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, was being established for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses. I noted that a voluntary donation to the fund would be welcome but that Senator Talmadge's speech was not contingent on such a donation. I explained that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was not a campaign account...3/

Southern Wholesalers Association had, through counsel, advised the Commission that after forwarding the $1,500 plus expenses to the Senator they had been requested, in a phone conversation to pay the fee in two checks - one for $500 payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. (See attachment to July 26, 1979 General Counsel's Report). The Senator's office returned the original check with a note from Rogers Wade saying:

3/ Mrs. Allyne Tisdale, by letter of September 7, 1979 (attached), has amended the response of the "officers" of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund which had paraphrased Rogers Wade's affidavit to reflect "new information which has just recently been brought to [her] attention."

Gary, if you will, put the honorarium fee and travel reimbursement in one check. If you so desire, you may cut a second check to the Herman E. Talmadge Newsletter Fund. 4/

In response to the General Counsel's August 6, 1979 letter, the Senator now points out that the original agreement on the $1,500 honorarium occurred prior to October 8, 1974 (when a confirmation letter was sent by the Association), and that 18 U.S.C. §616 did not become effective until January 1, 1975. 5/ The Senator further states:

By letter of April 11, 1975 (attached), Mr. Buffington sent me a check for $1,691.10 for my travel expenses and the previously offered honorarium of $1,500. Thereafter, Mr. Wade telephoned, and then wrote, Mr. Buffington informing him that, in compliance with the new honoraria limitation, 18 U.S.C. §616, which had gone into effect since the speaking engagement was arranged, I would accept only a $1,000 honorarium. (April 16, 1975, letter from Mr. Wade attached.) Mr. Wade also told Mr. Buffington about the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, an office account established to defray newsletter and other office related expenses not in connection with a federal election. Mr. Wade informed Mr. Buffington that, if the Association desired to do so, it could make a donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund (See April 16 letter.) Mr. Wade returned the check for $1,691.10 and asked the Association to send me a new check for $1,191.10 -- the total of travel expenses and a $1,000 honorarium. Subsequently, I received a check for $1,191.10, which represented the total compensation to me for speaking to the Southern Wholesalers Association convention. The Association also voluntarily forwarded a $500 donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, which was received by the officers of the Fund and duly reported in compliance with the Act. (See attached checks dated April 18, 1975.)

4/ This note and other correspondence referred to in the Senator's response were provided by Southern Wholesalers Association earlier and attached to the General Counsel's Report dated July 26, 1979.

5/ The 1974 Amendments, Pub. L. No. 93-443, were enacted on October 15, 1974. Section 410(a) provided that 18 U.S.C. §616 was to become effective on January 1, 1975.

I do not believe I have violated any law regarding the Southern Wholesalers Association donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Rather, the facts show a careful effort to comply with the law. The facts indicate that a $1,500 honorarium was offered by the Southern Wholesalers Association at a time when such an honorarium was wholly proper. Further, the facts show that, after I delivered the speech on March 17, 1975, my administrative assistant refused to accept an honorarium in excess of the $1,000 limit established by 18 U.S.C. §616. I accepted the Southern Wholesalers Association honorarium check only after it had been reduced to comply with the new limitation. The $500 donation to the Newsletter Fund was not an "honorarium"; it was not required as compensation for my speech, but was made on a voluntary basis.

ANALYSIS: There appears to be a difference of opinion as to the voluntariness of the $500 contribution to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. However, while Southern Wholesalers suggests that the telephone conversation merely directed that $500 be made available to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, they also state that they felt obliged to give $1,500 because of the earlier commitment to do so. Moreover, it is accurate that the limitations become effective between the time that the honorarium was agreed upon and the date that the speech was given. Lastly, if the $500 is determined to be "funds donated" rather than an honorarium, as the Senator argues, the later transfer of such funds to the Talmadge Campaign Committee would violate 2 U.S.C. §439a and 11 C.F.R. §113.5(b). See discussion supra.

Thus, the General Counsel's Office recommends that the Commission take no further action at this time with regard to Senator Talmadge's possible violation of 18 U.S.C. §616 by accepting an honorarium over the $1,000 statutory limit and exceeding the aggregate calendar year limit during 1975.

III. JOHN MITCHELL AND MITCHELL MOTORS

DISCUSSION: In January the Commission found reason to believe that the Senator may have violated 18 U.S.C. §610 and 2 U.S.C. §441b by accepting prohibited contributions in the form of automobile usage from Mitchell Motors. The Senator, in response to questions concerning such usage, had responded that John Mitchell, a long-time personal friend, had offered courtesy autos for the Senator's personal use and convenience; that the automobiles were not used in connection with campaign activities; and that although no records were maintained, he did not believe he had used such vehicles since 1973.

In response to the Commission's August 6, 1969 inquiry to Mitchell Motors, Mr. John Mitchell reported 6/ that during 1972-4 no cars were used by the Senator, to the best of his recollection, but only by Mrs. Talmadge while her car was being serviced. He also reported that since 1977 the Senator has not had the use of any courtesy Mitchell Motors automobiles.

ANALYSIS: Based on the above and the Senator's earlier response, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find no reasonable cause to believe that the Senator violated 18 U.S.C. §610 or 2 U.S.C. §441b with regard to the usage of such automobiles.

IV. GREATER ATLANTA CREDIT UNION

DISCUSSION: In January the Commission found reason to believe that the Senator may have violated 18 U.S.C. §610

6/ Telephone call to Office of General Counsel on September 10, 1979.

by accepting a contribution from Greater Atlanta Credit Union Chapter and that Greater Atlanta Credit Union may have violated 18 U.S.C. §610 by giving a $250 contribution to the Senator on about May 4, 1973. This money had been deposited into the Senator's personal "special" account, and reported as contributions for newsletter expenses in the 1973 reports filed in 1978. The Senator, in response to earlier Commission inquiries, stated that this $250 and other monies were expressly made to defray newsletter expenses. See July General Counsel's Report, page 6-9.

In response to the Commission's letter of August 6, 1969, the General Counsel's office was advised that: 1) the $250 was to reimburse the Senator for his expenses in addressing the annual meeting of the Georgia Credit Union League; and 2) the Greater Atlanta Credit Union Chapter, a non-incorporated organization, had hosted the meeting.

ANALYSIS: Based on the above, it does not appear that the $250 in question was given as a contribution. Therefore, the General Counsel's office recommends that the Commission find no reasonable cause to believe that Senator Talmadge or the Greater Atlanta Credit Union Chapter violated 2 U.S.C. §610.

V. FEDERAL LAND BANK OF ST. LOUIS

In January the Commission found reason to believe the Federal Land Bank of St. Louis may have violated 2 U.S.C. §441b when it gave $1,000.00 to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. The General Counsel's Report of July 26, 1979 discussed this money in terms of whether or not it was an honoraria 7/ and the Commission found reasonable cause to believe the Senator had accepted honoraria over the calendar-year limit by accepting this and $1,000 from Ceramic Tile Mfg. Association.

Because of an oversight, however, no recommendation was included in the July Report with regard to the reason to believe finding concerning the Federal Land Bank. The Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find no reasonable cause to believe that the Federal Land Bank of St. Louis violated 2 U.S.C. §441b.

VI. RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Find reasonable cause to believe that Senator Herman Talmadge violated 2 U.S.C. §439(a) and 11 CFR §113.5(b) by allowing the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, his office account containing corporate treasury funds, to be transferred to the Talmadge Campaign Committee.
2. Take no further action at this time with regard to a possible violation by Senator Herman Talmadge of 18 U.S.C. §616 by accepting an honorarium from Southern Wholesalers Association over the $1,000 statutory limit and by exceeding the aggregate calendar year limit in 1975.
3. Find no reasonable cause to believe that Senator Herman Talmadge violated 18 U.S.C. §610 or 2 U.S.C. §441b by accepting prohibited contributions in the form of courtesy automobile usage from Mitchell Motors.

7/ The Commission accepted the description of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund as an office account, not a political committee. See discussion at p. 21, and recommendation 4(a).

4. Find no reasonable cause to believe that Senator Herman Talmadge violated 18 U.S.C. §610 [currently 2 U.S.C. §441b] by accepting $250 from Greater Atlanta Credit Union Chapter in 1973.

6. Enter into conciliation with Senator Herman Talmadge with regard to the above and the July 26, 1979 findings.
7. Send the attached letter and conciliation agreement to Senator Herman Talmadge.
8. Find no reasonable cause to believe that the Federal Land Bank of St. Louis violated 2 U.S.C. §441b.

Re: MJR 638 (78)

Dear Mr. Oldaker:

This responds to your letter of August 6, 1979.

1. In your letter you question the transfer of funds from the Talmadge Newsletter Fund to the Talmadge Campaign Committee. Accurate information regarding the establishment and operation of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund has already been provided in correspondence to you from Mrs. Allyne Tisdale dated March 14, 1979. I wish, however, to reiterate several facts which demonstrate that the transfer of these funds was made in a good faith effort to comply with Senate rules and federal election laws.

The Talmadge Newsletter Fund was established in 1975 and terminated in July 1977. Mr. T. Rogers Wade served as Chairman of the Fund.

The Fund was established and administered as an office account for the purpose of receiving and disbursing funds donated to help defray newsletter and other office related expenses. The Fund neither accepted nor expended any funds in connection with a federal election.

A total of $4,801.00 was received by the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Office related expenditures made from the fund totaled $1,961.51. All donations and expenditures were fully reported.

Pursuant to Senate Rule 46 -- adopted by the Senate on April 1, 1977, in Senate Resolution 110 -- the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was terminated on July 10, 1977. Monies remaining in the Talmadge Newsletter Fund account totaling $2,839.49 were transferred by the Fund's officers to the Talmadge Campaign Committee account on June 17, 1977. The officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund believed this transfer was required to comply with both the new Senate rule and 11 CFR 113.3 which governs deposits of "funds donated."

The transfer of these funds was duly reported by both the Talmadge Newsletter Fund and the Talmadge Campaign Committee. This reporting demonstrates that there was no intention to violate the provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act or FEC regulations. Moreover, the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund and I had no intention to use any of the transferred funds in connection with a federal election. Indeed, a review of the expenditures of the Talmadge Campaign Committee since June 17, 1977, indicates that funds well in excess of $2,839.49 have been expended for newsletter printing and other office related expenses not connected with a federal election. Such expenditures of "funds donated" is clearly allowed by 11 CFR 113.2(a).

I thus do not believe the Commission could determine that a violation of 2 USC 439(a) and 11 CFR 113.5(b) has occurred. If transfer of these funds were a violation of these provisions, I believe this would have been called to my attention when the transfer was duly reported to the Commission in 1977.

2. You also suggest that I may have violated 18 USC 616 by accepting an honorarium from the Southern Wholesalers Association in excess of the $1,000 statutory limit and by exceeding the $15,000 aggregate limit for the year 1975. I did not receive an honorarium in excess of $1,000 from the Southern Wholesalers Association; nor did I exceed the $15,000 honoraria limit for that year. The available records indicate the following:

The Southern Wholesalers Association contacted a member of my staff in the fall of 1974 and invited me to speak to its convention on March 17, 1975. The invitation was accepted prior to October 8, 1974; I do not, however, know which member of my staff made the arrangements for the speech. At that time my administrative assistant was Daniel Minchew and my personal secretary was Dathine Brunson.

On October 8, 1974, Gary Buffington, representing the Southern Wholesalers Association, sent me a letter (attached) confirming the speaking engagement and offering an honorarium of $1,500. At the time the honorarium was offered and the speaking engagement accepted, there were no laws restricting acceptance of honoraria by Members of Congress.

Subsequently, Public Law 93-443 (which established certain honoraria requirements effective January 1, 1975) was adopted. However, my office had no further correspondence with the Southern Wholesalers Association about an honorarium between October 8, 1974, and March 17, 1975, when I spoke to the Convention. During 1975 my administrative assistant was T. Rogers Wade and my personal secretary was Rita Hubler.

By letter of April 11, 1975 (attached), Mr. Buffington sent me a check for $1,691.10 for my travel expenses and the previously offered honorarium of $1,500. Thereafter, Mr. Wade telephoned, and then wrote, Mr. Buffington informing him that, in compliance with the new honoraria limitation, 18 USC 616, which had gone into effect since the speaking engagement was arranged, I would accept only a $1,000 honorarium. (April 16, 1975, letter from Mr. Wade attached.) Mr. Wade also told Mr. Buffington about the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, an office account established to defray newsletter and other office related expenses not in connection with a federal election. Mr. Wade informed Mr. Buffington that, if the Association desired to do so, it could make a donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. (See April 16 letter.) Mr. Wade returned the check for $1,691.10 and asked the Association to send me a new check for $1,191.10 -- the total of travel expenses and a $1,000 honorarium. Subsequently, I received a check for $1,191.10, which represented the total compensation to me for speaking to the Southern Wholesalers Association convention. The Association also voluntarily forwarded a $500 donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, which was received by the officers of the Fund and duly reported in compliance with the Act. (See attached checks dated April 18, 1975.)

I do not believe I have violated any law regarding the Southern Wholesalers Association donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Rather, the facts show a careful effort to comply with the law. The facts indicate that a $1,500 honorarium was offered by the Southern Wholesalers Association at a time when such an honorarium was wholly proper. Further, the facts show that, after I delivered the speech on March 17, 1975, my administrative assistant refused to accept an honorarium in excess of the $1,000 limit established by 18 USC 616. I accepted the Southern Wholesalers Association honorarium check only after it had been reduced to comply with the new limitation. The $500 donation to the Newsletter Fund was not an "honorarium"; it was not required as compensation for my speech, but was made on a voluntary basis.

3. Earlier this year in connection with the Senate Ethics Committee's proceeding I entered into a stipulation of fact regarding certain courtesy air transportation I have received. Certain information included in the stipulation was provided to me subsequent to my response to your earlier inquiry about courtesy transportation.

No campaign activities occurred during any of the trips specified in your letter. To the best of my knowledge the purposes of these trips were as follows:

- a. 6/18/71 Washington, D.C. to Valdosta, Georgia - Private fishing
6/20/71 and return trip
- b. 4/14/72 Washington, D.C. to Valdosta, Georgia - Private fishing trip

- c. 3/26/73 Washington, D.C. to Athens, Georgia

I do not recall the purpose of this trip and have been unable to locate any information to refresh my memory. However, I have made frequent visits to Athens, Georgia, to speak at the University of Georgia; this trip could well have been for such a purpose.

- d. 6/9/74 Atlanta to Augusta, Georgia

I traveled to Augusta to deliver the commencement address to Augusta College. (See attached cover sheet and first page from prepared text.)

- e. 11/12/75 Washington, D.C. to Columbus, Georgia

I traveled to Columbus to address the 154th Georgia Baptist Convention. (See attached cover sheet and first page from prepared text. Note that the stipulated date was November 12, 1975, rather than November 22, 1975.)

Since no campaign activities occurred during any of these trips, I do not believe my acceptance of courtesy airline transportation was prohibited by the Federal Election Campaign Act or FEC regulations.

I hope the above information proves useful to you.

Sincerely yours,

Herman E. Talbot

Dear Senator Talmadge:

We were pleased to learn from Mr. Carter Horne, President of the Southern Wholesalers Association, that you will be available to keynote the Opening Session of our 47th Annual Convention on Monday, March 17, 1975 at the Fontainebleau Hotel in Miami Beach, Florida. I am sure that you will make this session an extremely valuable one for our delegates and we look forward to your remarks.

The session will get underway at 9:30 A.M. and you will be speaking at approximately 10:45 A.M. A talk of 20-25 minutes duration would be preferred followed by questions from the audience if you are agreeable. The general subject of the state of the economy and your analysis of the effect of new federal programs in the area of moderating the effects of inflation, would be a timely keynote speech topic.

It would be extremely helpful if within the next 4-6 weeks you can provide me a picture and biographical material for use in our promotional materials. I would also appreciate receiving the title of your speech about 6 weeks before the convention so that it might be printed in our program.

Based on discussions with your staff, we assume that a $1500 honorarium plus expenses to include your wife or an aide will be acceptable. We are hopeful that you will be able to arrive the evening prior to this session and that you will be able to join our officers and other special guests for a dinner on Sunday evening, March 16.

I will look forward to hearing from you concerning these matters.

Sincerely,

As we discussed today, I am returning the check by Southern Wholesalers Association to Senator Talmadge.

Gary, if you will, put the honorarium fee and travel reimbursement in one check. If you so desire, you may cut a second check to the Herman E. Talmadge Newsletter Fund.

It was good to talk with you again. If we can be helpful to you in any way, please call on us.

Re: MUR 638 (78)

Dear Mr. Oldaker:

As a result of new information which has just recently been brought to my attention, I would like to correct certain errors which are contained in my response to you dated March 14, 1979, in regard to MUR 638 (78).

My response to Question 2 regarding the Southern Wholesalers Association (p. 6) should be corrected as follows.

In the fall of 1974, Senator Talmadge was invited to speak to the Southern Wholesalers Association Convention on March 17, 1975, in Miami, Florida. The invitation was extended and accepted prior to October 8, 1974. An honorarium of $1,500 was offered, which at that time was wholly proper since no honoraria limitations were then in effect.

Senator Talmadge spoke to the Southern Wholesalers Association on March 17, 1975, as had been arranged. A check for $1,691.10 comprising travel expenses and the previously offered honorarium was forwarded to Senator Talmadge in April 1975. Mr. T. Rogers Wade, who had become Senator Talmadge's administrative assistant in December, 1974, informed Mr. Gary Buffington, a representative of the Association, that pursuant to the new honoraria requirements (18 USC 616) effective January 1, 1975, Senator Talmadge would accept an honorarium of only $1,000. Mr. Wade did inform Mr. Buffington that if the Association desired to do so, it could make a donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, an office account established for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related expenses. Thereafter Senator Talmadge received a check for

William C. Oldaker, Esquire
September 7, 1979
Page Two

$1,191.10, being travel expenses and a $1,000 honorarium, from the Association as full compensation for his speech. In addition, the Association forwarded a voluntary donation of $500 in the form of a check made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Since it was the understanding of the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund that the Association offered and intended the $500 as a donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related expenses, it was treated as such.

The foregoing correction accurately reflects the circumstances surrounding the receipt by the Talmadge Newsletter Fund of a $500 donation from the Southern Wholesalers Association.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Oldaker,

I have your letter of August 6, 1979 concerning a check of $250.00 sent to Senator Herman Talmadge by the Greater Atlanta Credit Union Chapter on April 17, 1973.

The check was sent to Senator Talmadge to reimburse him for his expenses in addressing the Annual Meeting of the Georgia Credit Union League on April 7, 1973 at the Marriott Hotel in Atlanta, Georgia.

The Annual Meeting of the League was hosted by the Greater Atlanta Credit Union Chapter which is an organization, not incorporated, composed of credit unions in the Atlanta area.

I am enclosing copies of correspondence from Senator Talmadge which will verify the purpose of the $250.00 check.

Re: MUR 638 (78)

Dear Senator Talmadge:

On July 26, 1979 and October , 1979, the Commission determined that there was reasonable cause to believe that you violated §304(b)(9) and (11) of the 1971 Federal Election Campaign Act by failing to report over $26,900.00 in expenditures in 1973 and 1974, that you violated 2 U.S.C. §441i by accepting honoraria over the aggregate calendar year limit during 1977, that you violated 11 CFR §113.3 by accepting funds donated in the form of small cash gifts and not depositing them into an office account or campaign account, and that you violated 2 U.S.C. §439a and 11 CFR §113.5(b) by allowing the transfer of the Talmadge News-letter account, containing commingled corporate funds, to the Talmadge Campaign Committee.

The Commission has a duty to attempt to correct such violations for a period of 30 days by informal methods of conference, conciliation, and by entering into a conciliation agreement. 2 U.S.C. §437g(a)(5)(A). If we are unable to reach an agreement during that period, the Commission may, upon a finding of probable cause to believe a violation has occurred, institute a civil suit and seek appropriate relief.

Enclosed is a conciliation agreement that this office is prepared to recommend to the Commission in settlement of this matter. If you agree with the provisions of the enclosed agreement, you should sign and return it within 10 days. We will then recommend that the Commission approve the agreement.

Re: MUR 638 (78)

Dear Mr. Oldaker:

As a result of new information which has just recently been brought to my attention, I would like to correct certain errors which are contained in my response to you dated March 14, 1979, in regard to MUR 638 (78).

My response to Question 2 regarding the Southern Wholesalers Association (p. 6) should be corrected as follows.

In the fall of 1974, Senator Talmadge was invited to speak to the Southern Wholesalers Association Convention on March 17, 1975, in Miami, Florida. The invitation was extended and accepted prior to October 8, 1974. An honorarium of $1,500 was offered, which at that time was wholly proper since no honoraria limitations were then in effect.

Senator Talmadge spoke to the Southern Wholesalers Association on March 17, 1975, as had been arranged. A check for $1,691.10 comprising travel expenses and the previously offered honorarium was forwarded to Senator Talmadge in April 1975. Mr. T. Rogers Wade, who had become Senator Talmadge's administrative assistant in December, 1974, informed Mr. Gary Buffington, a representative of the Association, that pursuant to the new honoraria requirements (18 USC 616) effective January 1, 1975, Senator Talmadge would accept an honorarium of only $1,000. Mr. Wade did inform Mr. Buffington that if the Association desired to do so, it could make a donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, an office account established for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related expenses. Thereafter Senator Talmadge received a check for

William C. Oldaker, Esquire
September 7, 1979

$1,191.10, being travel expenses and a $1,000 honorarium, from the Association as full compensation for his speech. In addition, the Association forwarded a voluntary donation of $500 in the form of a check made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Since it was the understanding of the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund that the Association offered and intended the $500 as a donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related expenses, it was treated as such.

The foregoing correction accurately reflects the circumstances surrounding the receipt by the Talmadge Newsletter Fund of a $500 donation from the Southern Wholesalers Association.

Sincerely,

Re: MJR 638 (78)

Dear Mr. Oldaker:

This responds to your letter of August 6, 1979.

1. In your letter you question the transfer of funds from the Talmadge Newsletter Fund to the Talmadge Campaign Committee. Accurate information regarding the establishment and operation of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund has already been provided in correspondence to you from Mrs. Allyne Tisdale dated March 14, 1979. I wish, however, to reiterate several facts which demonstrate that the transfer of these funds was made in a good faith effort to comply with Senate rules and federal election laws.

The Talmadge Newsletter Fund was established in 1975 and terminated in July 1977. Mr. T. Rogers Wade served as Chairman of the Fund.

The Fund was established and administered as an office account for the purpose of receiving and disbursing funds donated to help defray newsletter and other office related expenses. The Fund neither accepted nor expended any funds in connection with a federal election.

A total of $4,801.00 was received by the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Office related expenditures made from the fund totaled $1,961.51. All donations and expenditures were fully reported.

Pursuant to Senate Rule 46 -- adopted by the Senate on April 1, 1977, in Senate Resolution 110 -- the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was terminated on July 10, 1977. Monies remaining in the Talmadge Newsletter Fund account totaling $2,839.49 were transferred by the Fund's officers to the Talmadge Campaign Committee account on June 17, 1977. The officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund believed this transfer was required to comply with both the new Senate rule and 11 CFR 113.3 which governs deposits of "funds donated."

The transfer of these funds was duly reported by both the Talmadge Newsletter Fund and the Talmadge Campaign Committee. This reporting demonstrates that there was no intention to violate the provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act or FEC regulations. Moreover, the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund and I had no intention to use any of the transferred funds in connection with a federal election. Indeed, a review of the expenditures of the Talmadge Campaign Committee since June 17, 1977, indicates that funds well in excess of $2,839.49 have been expended for newsletter printing and other office related expenses not connected with a federal election. Such expenditures of "funds donated" is clearly allowed by 11 CFR 113.2(a).

I thus do not believe the Commission could determine that a violation of 2 USC 439(a) and 11 CFR 113.5(b) has occurred. If transfer of these funds were a violation of these provisions, I believe this would have been called to my attention when the transfer was duly reported to the Commission in 1977.

2. You also suggest that I may have violated 18 USC 616 by accepting an honorarium from the Southern Wholesalers Association in excess of the $1,000 statutory limit and by exceeding the $15,000 aggregate limit for the year 1975. I did not receive an honorarium in excess of $1,000 from the Southern Wholesalers Association; nor did I exceed the $15,000 honoraria limit for that year. The available records indicate the following:

The Southern Wholesalers Association contacted a member of my staff in the fall of 1974 and invited me to speak to its convention on March 17, 1975. The invitation was accepted prior to October 8, 1974; I do not, however, know which member of my staff made the arrangements for the speech. At that time my administrative assistant was Daniel Minchew and my personal secretary was Dathine Brunson.

On October 8, 1974, Gary Buffington, representing the Southern Wholesalers Association, sent me a letter (attached) confirming the speaking engagement and offering an honorarium of $1,500. At the time the honorarium was offered and the speaking engagement accepted, there were no laws restricting acceptance of honoraria by Members of Congress.

Subsequently, Public Law 93-443 (which established certain honoraria requirements effective January 1, 1975) was adopted. However, my office had no further correspondence with the Southern Wholesalers Association about an honorarium between October 8, 1974, and March 17, 1975, when I spoke to the Convention. During 1975 my administrative assistant was T. Rogers Wade and my personal secretary was Rita Hubler.

By letter of April 11, 1975 (attached), Mr. Buffington sent me a check for $1,691.10 for my travel expenses and the previously offered honorarium of $1,500. Thereafter, Mr. Wade telephoned, and then wrote, Mr. Buffington informing him that, in compliance with the new honoraria limitation, 18 USC 616, which had gone into effect since the speaking engagement was arranged, I would accept only a $1,000 honorarium. (April 16, 1975, letter from Mr. Wade attached.) Mr. Wade also told Mr. Buffington about the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, an office account established to defray newsletter and other office related expenses not in connection with a federal election. Mr. Wade informed Mr. Buffington that, if the Association desired to do so, it could make a donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. (See April 16 letter.) Mr. Wade returned the check for $1,691.10 and asked the Association to send me a new check for $1,191.10 -- the total of travel expenses and a $1,000 honorarium. Subsequently, I received a check for $1,191.10, which represented the total compensation to me for speaking to the Southern Wholesalers Association convention. The Association also voluntarily forwarded a $500 donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, which was received by the officers of the Fund and duly reported in compliance with the Act. (See attached checks dated April 18, 1975.)

I do not believe I have violated any law regarding the Southern Wholesalers Association donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Rather, the facts show a careful effort to comply with the law. The facts indicate that a $1,500 honorarium was offered by the Southern Wholesalers Association at a time when such an honorarium was wholly proper. Further, the facts show that, after I delivered the speech on March 17, 1975, my administrative assistant refused to accept an honorarium in excess of the $1,000 limit established by 18 USC 616. I accepted the Southern Wholesalers Association honorarium check only after it had been reduced to comply with the new limitation. The $500 donation to the Newsletter Fund was not an "honorarium"; it was not required as compensation for my speech, but was made on a voluntary basis.

3. Earlier this year in connection with the Senate Ethics Committee's proceeding I entered into a stipulation of fact regarding certain courtesy air transportation I have received. Certain information included in the stipulation was provided to me subsequent to my response to your earlier inquiry about courtesy transportation.

No campaign activities occurred during any of the trips specified in your letter. To the best of my knowledge the purposes of these trips were as follows:

- a. 6/18/71 Washington, D.C. to Valdosta, Georgia - Private fishing
6/20/71 and return trip
- b. 4/14/72 Washington, D.C. to Valdosta, Georgia - Private fishing trip

- c. 3/26/73 Washington, D.C. to Athens, Georgia

I do not recall the purpose of this trip and have been unable to locate any information to refresh my memory. However, I have made frequent visits to Athens, Georgia, to speak at the University of Georgia; this trip could well have been for such a purpose.

- d. 6/9/74 Atlanta to Augusta, Georgia

I traveled to Augusta to deliver the commencement address to Augusta College. (See attached cover sheet and first page from prepared text.)

- e. 11/12/75 Washington, D.C. to Columbus, Georgia

I traveled to Columbus to address the 154th Georgia Baptist Convention. (See attached cover sheet and first page from prepared text. Note that the stipulated date was November 12, 1975, rather than November 22, 1975.)

Since no campaign activities occurred during any of these trips, I do not believe my acceptance of courtesy airline transportation was prohibited by the Federal Election Campaign Act or FEC regulations.

I hope the above information proves useful to you.

Sincerely yours,

Herman E. Talmadge

Dear Senator Talmadge:

We were pleased to learn from Mr. Carter Horne, President of the Southern Wholesalers Association, that you will be available to keynote the Opening Session of our 47th Annual Convention on Monday, March 17, 1975 at the Fontainebleau Hotel in Miami Beach, Florida. I am sure that you will make this session an extremely valuable one for our delegates and we look forward to your remarks.

The session will get underway at 9:30 A.M. and you will be speaking at approximately 10:45 A.M. A talk of 20-25 minutes duration would be preferred followed by questions from the audience if you are agreeable. The general subject of the state of the economy and your analysis of the effect of new federal programs in the area of moderating the effects of inflation, would be a timely keynote speech topic.

It would be extremely helpful if within the next 4-6 weeks you can provide me a picture and biographical material for use in our promotional materials. I would also appreciate receiving the title of your speech about 6 weeks before the convention so that it might be printed in our program.

Based on discussions with your staff, we assume that a $1500 honorarium plus expenses to include your wife or an aide will be acceptable. We are hopeful that you will be able to arrive the evening prior to this session and that you will be able to join our officers and other special guests for a dinner on Sunday evening, March 16.

I will look forward to hearing from you concerning these matters.

Re: MUR 638(78)

Gentlepersons:

Based on information ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities, the Federal Election Commission has found reason to believe that the Greater Atlanta Credit Unions, Associated Credit Union, may have violated certain provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the "Act").

Specifically, it appears that the organization may have violated 18 U.S.C. § 610 [currently 2 U.S.C. § 441b] by giving to Senator Herman Talmadge a contribution on or about May 24, 1973 in the amount of approximately $250.00.

Under the Act, you have an opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken against you. Please submit any factual or legal materials which you believe are relevant to the Commission's analysis of this matter, within 20 days of receipt of this letter. Should you have any questions, please call Deborah McFarland (202) 523-4000, the attorney assigned to this matter.

Re: MUR 638(78)

Dear Mr. Minchew:

On July 26, 1979 the Commission determined that there was reasonable cause to believe that you violated section 302(b) of the 1971 Federal Election Campaign Act [currently 2 U.S.C. § 432(b)] after reviewing all information available to it. Specifically, the Commission found reasonable cause to believe that you received contributions during 1973 and 1974 for the Talmadge Campaign Committee but failed to render to the treasurer of that political committee a detailed account of those contributions within the required five day period.

The Commission has a duty to attempt to correct such violations for a period of 30 days by informal methods of conference, conciliation, and by entering into a conciliation agreement. 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(5)(A). If we are unable to reach an agreement during that period, the Commission may, upon a finding of probable cause to believe a violation has occurred, institute a civil suit and seek appropriate relief.

Enclosed is a conciliation agreement that this office is prepared to recommend to the Commission in settlement of this matter. If you agree with the provisions of the enclosed agreement, you should sign and return it within ten days. We will then recommend that the Commission approve the agreement.

If you have any questions or suggestions for changes in the enclosed conciliation agreement, please contact Deborah McFarland, the attorney assigned to this matter at (202) 523-4000. Re: MUR 638(78)

Dear Senator Talmadge:

On July 26, 1979, the Commission, after reviewing the information available to it, found reason to believe that you:

(a) may have violated 2 U.S.C. § 439(a) and 11 C.F.R. § 113.5(b) by allowing the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, your office account containing commingled corporate treasury funds, to be transferred to the Talmadge Campaign Committee.

(b) may have violated 18 U.S.C. § 616 [currently 2 U.S.C. § 441i] by accepting an honorarium from Southern Wholesalers Association which was over the $1,000 statutory limit and by exceeding the $15,000 aggregate annual limit during 1975.

As you know, under the Act you have an opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken against you. You may submit any factual or legal materials which you feel would be helpful to the Commission's analysis.

Additionally, since your responses to the Commission's last questions were submitted (see question 15), it has come to our attention that you have entered into a stipulation with regard to air transportation furnished to you by several organizations. Therefore, we would appreciate your providing the purpose of each of the following trips and whether or not any campaign related activities occurred during those trips:

Re: MUR 638(78)

Gentlepersons:

Based on information ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities, the Federal Election Commission has found reason to believe that the Greater Atlanta Credit Unions, Associated Credit Union, may have violated certain provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the "Act").

Specifically, it appears that the organization may have violated 18 U.S.C. § 610 [currently 2 U.S.C. § 441b] by giving to Senator Herman Talmadge a contribution on or about May 24, 1973 in the amount of approximately $250.00.

Under the Act, you have an opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken against you. Please submit any factual or legal materials which you believe are relevant to the Commission's analysis of this matter, within 20 days of receipt of this letter. Should you have any questions, please call Deborah McFarland (202) 523-4000, the attorney assigned to this matter.

expenses was sent to the Senator and returned by Wade a month after the speaking engagement with a note that "if you so desire, you may cut a second check to Herman E. Talmadge Newsletter Fund." Southern Wholesalers Association states that in the telephone conversation referred to in Wade's note, they were asked to write two checks. Thus, it would appear that an honorarium of $1,500 was accepted by Senator Talmadge and his 1975 aggregate total was $15,480.

The General Counsel's Office recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that 18 U.S.C. § 616 may have been violated by acceptance of a $1,500 honorarium and by acceptance of honoraria in a calendar year above the $15,000 aggregate limit.

$250.00 reported by Talmadge Newsletter Fund on 9/9/75

Discussion: The Senator spoke on Wednesday, August 13, 1975 at the Society's 1975 annual convention. Senator Talmadge was the luncheon speaker. The current Secretary-Treasurer, John B. Sperry, of the Society is unable to locate any records of correspondence concerning this matter -- the annual conventions are organized by the local society office at the location it is to be held. Mr. Sperry does state that "I wish to assure you, without reservation, that the disbursement was intended as an honorarium and was not intended for any political purpose or to influence any election in any way whatsoever."

In response to the Commission's inquiry into this matter, Ms. Rita Hubler states:

"Mr. Lawrence Earls [the Senator's accountant] invited Senator Talmadge to speak to the National Society of Accounts for Cooperatives ("the Society"). Senator Talmadge agreed to speak to this group as a personal favor to Mr. Earls. No honorarium was offered. At a later date, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund received a donation from the National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives in the amount of $250. Correspondence accompanying the donation clearly indicated that the $250 was donated by the Society to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses and was treated as such by the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund."

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

I. Previous Commission Action

On August 23, 1978 and January 25, 1979, the Commission determined that there was reason to believe that Senator Talmadge, Talmadge Campaign Committee ("TCC"), Georgians for Talmadge ("GFT"), Talmadge Newsletter Fund ("TNF") and a number of individuals and entities may have violated various provisions of FECA. (See p. 24-27 of 12/29/78 Report).

The General Counsel's Office has received responses from most of the respondents. Responses have not been received from T. Rogers Wade or Daniel Minchew.

II. Candidate Reports

Senator Talmadge had not, prior to the last few months, filed a Form 2 waiver of his reporting obligation.

A. Failure to File Candidate Reports in 1972 and 1973

Discussion: The General Counsel's Report of 12/29/78 pointed out that in the years 1972 and 1973, Senator Talmadge did not file candidate reports. (See p. 4-5). In response to the Commission's RTB finding of possible violations of § 304(a) of the 1971 Act, Senator Talmadge responded in his March 23, 1979 letter:

"The failure to file candidate reports in 1972 and 1973 resulted from the good faith belief that I was not a 'candidate' for reelection in the years in question and therefore no report was required. As explained in previous communications, there was general confusion among officers of the Talmadge Campaign Committee during 1972 and 1973 as to when 'candidate' status actually began. Under Georgia law, an individual cannot qualify as a candidate until the year of the election. Since my reelection occurred in 1974, the officers of the Talmadge Campaign Committee and members of my staff reached the determination that I could not be considered a 'candidate' until 1974 and, therefore, candidate reports in 1972 and 1973 would be inappropriate."

Analysis: As outlined in the December 29th report, under section 301(b) of the 1971 Act, Senator Talmadge was clearly a 'candidate' in 1972. The Senator began filing candidate reports in 1974 */ and has, since that time, continued to file such reports. Thus, this violation does not appear to be of a continuing nature. For policy reasons more fully set forth in MUR 524 (78), the General Counsel's Office recommends that the Commission find reasonable cause to believe a violation of section 304(a) occurred but take no further action.

B. Inaccurate Candidate Reports for 1973 and 1974

Discussion: In 1974 Senator Talmadge, at the behest of the Office of the Secretary of the Senate, began filing candidate reports. As above stated, the Senator had not reported in 1973. In 1974, Senator Talmadge reported zero receipts and zero expenditures. In early 1975 the Senator reported zero receipts and zero expenditures.

In 1978, following inquiry into the matter by the press but prior to any inquiry by the FEC, the Senator amended his 1974 and 1975 filings and filed 1973 reports. These 1973 and 1974 amendments disclose and itemize expenditures made **/ and some contributions received. The figures total to $14,669.11 for 1973 (expenditures made minus contributions received) and $12,243.33 for 1974 (expenditures made minus contributions received). The 1975 amendments report the reimbursement of these exact figures by the Talmadge Campaign Committee ("TCC") to Senator Talmadge. The Talmadge Campaign Committee had reported each of these two lump sum payments as transfers to Senator Talmadge's Special Account in its 1975 reports.

Because, in the 1978 amendments, these funds were initially designated loans by the Senator to the Committee, the Commission in August found reason to believe that both Senator Talmadge and */ See letter to Senator Talmadge dated April 4, 1974 from the Assistant Secretary of the Senate notifying him that statements were required. Letter attached, as Attachment B, to August 18, 1978 General Counsel's Report.

**/ Two sets of amendments were filed in 1978. The first characterized the money spent from the Senator's "Special" account as loans. The second set, submitted following FEC's first inquiries into the matter, recharacterized the expenses as candidate "expenditures."

the Talmadge Campaign Committee may have violated the Act by failing to properly report. The Commission also found reason to believe that the Senator may have violated the Act by initially failing to report expenditures.

As pointed out in the December 29th General Counsel's Report, if these funds were loans, both the Senator and the Committee had reporting obligations. If they were candidate expenditures, only the Senator had a reporting obligation.

Analysis: The Senator and the TCC, in response to the Commission's first questions, responded that there had been general confusion in 1973 and 1974 as to whether the expenses were "allowed campaign expenditures." Inasmuch as they were unsure as to whether or not such items could be paid by the TCC, they decided to pay the expenses from the Senator's Special account and at a later time -- post election -- decide what was and what was not a campaign expense. To the Senator, this meant that it would later be decided what expenses were reimbursable.

"The intention was that I would be reimbursed by the Talmadge Campaign Committee at a later date once review of expenses was made and it was better understood when my status as a candidate began and which expenses could correctly be designated 'campaign expenditures.' Question 1(C)(1).

For filing purposes, this postponement of decisionmaking meant that none of the $26,912.44 was reported in any way -- by TCC or the Senator -- until after the 1974 election

In response to the Commission's second inquiry to the Senator, Senator Talmadge additionally stated:

"It was not until 1975 that the Talmadge Campaign Committee understood that it was acceptable to pay from the campaign account many office-related expenses previously paid from my special account."

In the first response the Senator stated that "the fact is that the expenditures were campaign expenditures which we believe were properly reimbursable."

The General Counsel's Office recommends that the Commission accept the Senator's and the TCC's characterization of these expenses as candidate expenditures. As opposed to the non-filing during 1972 and 1973, failure to report over $26,912.44 in expenditures until after the 1974 election (until 1978) is a serious violation of FECA's public disclosure provisions.

Thus, the General Counsel's Office recommends that the Commission find reasonable cause to believe that the Senator violated sections 304(b)(9) and (11) by failing to report these expenditures during the relevant reporting periods, but that conciliation efforts on this matter be deferred pending further investigation of other matters herein.

C. Failure to Report Receipt of $26,912.44 in 1975

Discussion: As above stated, the Talmadge Campaign Committee, in its March 10, 1975 Report, reported two transfers to Senator Talmadge totalling $26,912.44. The amount of 14,669.11 was transferred to Senator Talmadge on Jan. 4, 1975 and $12,243.33 was transferred on January 30, 1975, the day the Senator signed his 1974 year end report showing zero receipts and zero expenditures. Senator Talmadge also reported zero receipts and zero expenditures in his first quarter 1975 report.

Analysis: The General Counsel's Office has above recommended that the Commission accept the most recent designation of the over $26,912.44 spent in 1973 and 1974 as candidate expenditures and not loans. As such, the Talmadge Campaign Committee's reimbursement of $26,912.44 would not trigger Senator Talmadge's reporting responsibilities. While such reimbursement may have tax consequences, FECA would only require reporting by the Committee in this situation. Therefore, the General Counsel's Office recommends that the Commission take no further action with regard to a possible violation of section 434 by Senator Talmadge for not reporting this transfer in his first quarter 1975 Report.

D. Miscellaneous Reporting 1974-1978.

(i) Expenditures

(a) Discussion: In the December 29, 1978 General Counsel's Report (p. 5-7) five reimbursements to the Senator were listed as having been reported by the Talmadge Campaign Committee. The Senator had, during the relevant periods, reported zero receipts and zero expenditures. The Commission sought an explanation from the Senator as to why these items were not reported as expenditures on his candidate reports for the relevant periods. In response, the Senator has stated:

You have listed five instances where expenditures were made from the Special Account which were not subsequently reflected as in my candidate reports as campaign expenditures. Since a reimbursement was made in each case to the Special Account by the Talmadge Campaign Committee and fully disclosed, the Talmadge Campaign Committee officers believed that it was not necessary to report these transactions as personal campaign expenditures. These costs were not borne by me, but rather by the Talmadge Campaign Committee, as reported. There was no net effect in any instance on the Special Account. The Talmadge Campaign Committee officers at that time did not believe it necessary or proper to report intermediate transactions involving the Special Account as candidate expenditures because the Talmadge Campaign Committee, not the candidate, fully assumed responsibility for these costs. In signing candidate reports prepared for me, I did not consider expenditures from the Special Account which were reimbursed by the Talmadge Campaign Committee to be personal campaign expenditures which were reportable. There was certainly no intent to conceal such expenditures, nor were they at any time concealed. The Talmadge Campaign Committee fully disclosed the reimbursements to the Special Account and the nature of the expenses for which the reimbursements were made. This disclosure by the Talmadge Campaign Committee complies with the current policy of the Commission that reimbursed candidate expenses need be disclosed only by the Campaign Committee. (See, question 1(a).)

Analysis: Commission regulation 11 C.F.R. § 101.3, allows a candidate who has filed a reporting waiver pursuant to that provision to make expenditures so long as they are reimbursed. That is, § 101.3 prohibits any candidate who has filed a Form 2 waiver of his or her reporting obligation from making any "unreimbursed expenditures from his or her campaign..." According to the policy adopted by the Commission, the reporting as itemized by the Talmadge Campaign Committee would be sufficient if the Senator had waived his reporting obligation.

If, however, a candidate has not waived reporting, as Senator Talmadge had not, the requirement is that each expenditure be itemized (identifying payee) by the candidate and any reimbursement must be reported by the committee and, if a loan, by the candidate.

These payments were not reported by Senator Talmadge on his candidate reports as is required. However, because the items were fully disclosed and itemized by TCC, the General Counsel's Office recommends that the Commission find reasonable cause to believe section 434 of the the Act has been violated by Senator Talmadge but take no further action.

(b) Discussion: The 12/29/78 General Counsel's Report (p.12-13), also raised the possibility of unreported expenditures where the Talmadge Campaign Committee had paid certain types of expenses during certain periods of time and had so reported, but at other times the Senator had paid the exact same expenses and not reported them as expenditures.

In response to the Commission's inquiry as to why these payments had not been reported when paid by the Senator, Senator Talmadge stated:

Carterfone (see question 9)

"The expenditures from the Special Account in 1975 to Carterfone Communication Corporation for equipment rental expenses were not campaign related expenses and were therefore not required to be reported by the Act. Equipment rental expenses are ordinary and necessary expenses incurred in the normal operation of my office ...." (emphasis added)

Sun Crown (see question 10)

"The expenditures from the Special Account in 1976 and 1977 to Sun Crown for newsletter expenses were not campaign related expenses and were therefore not required to be reported by the Act. Newsletter expenses are ordinary and necessary expenses incurred in the normal operation of my office...." (emphasis added).

Analysis: While using campaign funds for "expenses incurred in the normal operation of" a Senate office may have tax consequences, it is sanctioned under FECA and 11 C.F.R. § 113.2(a). Therefore, the General Counsel's Office recommends that the Commission find no reasonable cause to believe that the Act has been violated with regard to these two matters.

(ii) Receipts

Discussion: In the General Counsel's Report of December 29, several items received by the Senator and deposited into the Special (personal) account were not reported as contributions during the relevant reporting periods.

In 1978, the following were reported as contributors:

G. Michael Sloan
Majors Walden

(1972)
(1973 or 1974)

3304041225

G.B. Hightower	(1973)	*/
Mrs. F.M. Akers	(1974)
Greater Atlanta Credit Union Chapter	(1973)
Georgia Bankers Association	(1973)

In response to the Commission's inquiries (see question 2), Senator Talmadge responded that:

"Prior to the establishment of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, donations which were not for campaign purposes, but which were expressly made to defray newsletter expenses, were deposited in the Special Account. Certain expenditures for newsletter expenses were made from this account. The following donations were given to defray newsletter expenses and were deposited in the Special Account for such use:

5/4/73	Greater Atlanta Credit Union Chapter Atlanta, Ga.	$ 250.00
5/24/73	Georgia Bankers Association	150.00
3/12/74	Vivian P. Gravette	5.00
3/25/74	Mrs. F.M. Akers	3.00
11/20/74	Vivian P. Gravette	5.00
		$ 413.00

*/ This contribution was, in the 1978 amendments to the 3/1/74-5/31/74 reports, also characterized as a contribution "for newsletter expense," and deducted from the total expenditures made by the Senator during that period. It was also reported on the Senator's amended October 10, 1978 report as a contribution received on 4/12/73 and inadvertently deposited into the Special Account. According to the 10/10/78 Amended report, this and two other contributions (Sloane & Walden) were discovered in a recent, personally conducted audit of the Special Account. This contribution, and others for that reporting period totalled $413 and were deducted from the reported expenditures thus arriving in 1978 at the precise figure reimbursed to the Senator in 1975. It was, however, difficult to understand how the figure could have been arrived at in 1975 when this receipt was not "discovered" until 1978. According to the Senator's most recent responses, the Gravette donation was used in 1975, not the Hightower donation as earlier reported.

"In late 1974, when the officers of the Talmadge Campaign Committee determined which expenses incurred by the Special Account were properly reimbursable to me from the Talmadge Campaign Committee account, the $413 for newsletter expenses were deducted from my total expenditures for office-related and campaign expenses before the reimbursement was made. Although these donations for newsletter expenses were not intended or accepted as campaign contributions, to insure full disclosure, these donations were reported and itemized in my amended [in 1978] candidate reports for newsletter expenses.

Analysis: Because of the reporting in the 1978 amendments of the Greater Atlanta Credit Union Chapter and the Georgia Bankers Association as contributors, the Commission found possible section 441b violations.

A letter was sent to the Georgia Bankers Association. In response, that organization responded by letter stating:

"In May 1973 Georgia Bankers Association issued an invitation to Senator Herman Talmadge to take part in the program of its convention in May. Senator Talmadge accepted the invitation and addressed those in attendance on Monday, May 14, 1973....

We agreed to pay Senator Talmadge an honorarium plus expenses. On May 18, 1973 two checks (Nos. 1226 and 1227) were issued to Herman E. Talmadge. Check No. 1226 in the amount of $150 was for travel and Check No. 1227 for payment of his honorarium." */

With regard to the "Greater Atlanta Credit Union Chapter" the Commission asked the Senator for a more thorough organization name and mailing address. The organization name now given is the Greater Atlanta Credit Union, Associated Credit Union." According to the National Credit Union Administration, "Associated Credit Union" is a state chartered credit union. The General Counsel's office recommends that the attached letter be sent to the Credit Union to inquire as to his matter.

With regard to the Georgia Bankers Association, it would appear from that organization's response that no section 441b violation occurred. Thus, although the Senator's statement that these donations were expressly given to defray newsletter expenses is certainly questionable, the General Counsel's Office recommends that the Commission find no reasonable cause to believe the Act has been violated in this instance.

*/ A $400 honorarium was reported by the Senator from Georgia Bankers Association in his required Senate filing for that year.

With regard to the individual's donations (Gravette and Akers), because of the insignificant amount ($13,00), the General Counsel's office recommends that no further action be taken at this time.

III. Talmadge Campaign Committee ("TCC")

A. Failure to Report Loans - 1973, 1974

Discussion: On August 23, 1978, the Commission determined that there was reason to believe that the TCC may have violated 2 U.S.C. § 434 by initially failing to report campaign loans from the candidate during 1973 and 1974 and by reporting incompletely during 1975. As discussed above, Part II, the General Counsel's Office has recommended that the Commission accept the recharac-terization of these funds as candidate expenditures.

As candidate expenditures, for which the Committee reimbursed the Senator, the Committee's reporting obligation would entail reporting a transfer. This the TCC properly did in its first quarter 1975 Report.

Therefore, the Office of General Counsel recommends that no further action be taken at this time with regard to a possible violation of section 434 by the Talmadge Campaign Committee.

B. "Secret Account"

(i) Failure to report

Discussion: On January 25, 1979 the Commission found reason to believe that the TCC may have violated § 304 of the 1971 FECA [2 U.S.C. § 434(a)] by failing to report contributions deposited into the Riggs "secret account."

This secret account was opened on July 3, 1973 by Daniel Minchew in the name of the "Talmadge Campaign Committee." At that time Mr. Minchew was Chairman of TCC and the Senator's administrative assistant. Deposits into the account occurred while Mr. Minchew held those positions and while Ms. Allyne D. Tisdale was the Treasurer.

83040412228

According to testimony before the Senate Ethics Committee, the following deposits into the "secret account" were given as campaign contributions:

1. J.C. (Bud) Shaw
$5,000 check dated 4/17/73
deposited 7/3/73
2. Howard B. Keck
$2,000 in traveler's checks
deposited 8/22/74
3. ADEPT PAC */
$5,000 check dated 9/26/73
deposited 10/17/73
4. Hugh Patrick Williams
$500 check dated 7/31/74
deposited 8/21/74
5. Parke Brinkley
$500 check dated 8/22/74
deposited 8/26/74

Other deposits included $1,000 from 10 International Paper Company executives, $500 from Claude Cook, $250 from William Fickling, $100 from John E Ray, III, $100 from Thomas Arnold and $1,000 from William Manning. It is unclear whether or not these funds were campaign contributions.

In the Commission's letter sent to Ms. Tisdale, attaching questions, Ms. Tisdale was requested to provide supplemental reports for 1973 and 1974 indicating which of the deposits were campaign contributions. In response, Ms. Tisdale has not supplemented those reports but rather referred the Commission to Senate Ethics and the Department of Justice.

*/ $5,000 was later deposited into the TCC account and by letter of 2/4/74, signed by Minchew and typed by Tisdale, the TCC informed the Secretary of the Senate that the TCC's 9/1/73-12/31/73 report [signed by Tisdale on 1/30/74] had "inadvertently omitted" this contribution. The $5,000 was not deposited into the TCC account until 2/5/79.

Analysis: From the above, it is clear that some $8,000 in campaign contributions have never been reported by the TCC. Ms. Tisdale has stated, in her March 14, 1979 letter, that: "[n]either [she] nor the current Talmadge Campaign Committee was ever aware of the Riggs account or of any possible campaign funds which may have been deposited into such account until the existence of the account was discovered by the Justice Department and the Senate Ethics Committee."

The Senate Ethics Committee spent some time attempting to establish whether or not Ms. Tisdale was aware of that account. For purposes of FECA, however, the awareness of the account itself is not significant.

The contributions were received by Minchew in his capacity as Chairman of the TCC. It is, therefore, the recommendation of the Office of General Counsel that the Commission find reasonable cause to believe that § 304 of the 1971 FECA [2 U.S.C. § 434(a)] has been violated by the Talmadge Campaign Committee.

The question arises, however, whether the Commission should now take further action against the TCC and its treasurer, Ms. Tisdale, where apparently the non-reporting was due to the action of the past Chairman of the TCC. Ms. Tisdale has stated that "[u]nder the circumstances it would be grossly unfair for the Commission to take adverse action against [her] or the current Talmadge Campaign Committee for any matters relating to the Riggs account of which we had no knowledge and over which we had no control."

In this regard, several points are helpful:

(1) Ms. Tisdale typed the letter to the Secretary of the Senate advising that the ADEPT contribution had been inadvertently omitted from the TCC's report (see footnote above)

(2) Ms. Tisdale typed a note to J.C. "Bud" Shaw from the Senator, dictated by Minchew, thanking him for the "generous contribution which will help considerably in my re-election efforts." On the carbon of this letter is the following notation:

CONTRIBUTION

$5,000.00 - Paid
Via Democratic Committee
Later to G/T

33040412230

Ms. Tisdale has testified to the Senate Committee that she typed the letter to Shaw. There is dispute as to where she obtained the information in the above note -- she claiming Minchew gave it to her, Minchew denying that.

The General Counsel's Office therefore suggests that the Commission take one of the following courses of action:

- (1) find reasonable cause to believe that the Talmadge Campaign Committee violated § 304 of the 1971 FECA [2 U.S.C. § 434(a)] but take no further action;

or

- (2) find reasonable cause to believe that the Talmadge Campaign Committee violated § 304 of the 1971 FECA [2 U.S.C. § 434(a)] and enter into conciliation.

- (ii) Failure to render account to the treasurer.

Discussion: Section 302(b) of the 1971 Act [2 U.S.C. § 432(b)] required every person receiving a contribution over $10 for a political committee to render to the treasurer a detailed account of that receipt within 5 days. Apparently no such accounting was ever given the TCC treasurer by Daniel Minchew of the funds that went in the Riggs account.

Analysis: Daniel Minchew was chairman of the TCC during the period in which the contributions which went into the "secret account" were received. Thus, the contributions which he received, made payable to the TCC, may be assumed to have been received for a political committee. Mr. Minchew has not responded to the Commission's inquiry. However, from his statements before the Senate Ethics Committee and previous press reports it is obvious that no detailed accounting was turned over to the treasurer nor has it been to date.

Therefore, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find reasonable cause to believe that Daniel Minchew violated section 302(b) of the 1971 Act [currently 2 U.S.C. § 432(b)] and enter into conciliation.

IV. Honoraria

The 12/29/78 General Counsel's Report (at 10-12 and 15-16) raised questions with regard to whether the honoraria limits of section 441i of FECA had been exceeded. The following outlines those issues by year.

83040412231

A. 1975*/ (Senator Talmadge reported a total of $14,980.00 in honoraria receipts during 1975)

- (i) Southern Wholesalers Association
$1,000 honorarium reported on Rule 42 filing
$500 reported as a contribution to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund ("TNF")

Discussion: In response to the Commission's Inquiry, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund reports:

"In 1975, a representative of the Southern Wholesalers Association contacted me [Rogers Wade] to invite Senator Talmadge to speak to the Association in Atlanta, Ga. I was informed that the Association would like to give Senator Talmadge a $1,500 honorarium for his appearance. Senator Talmadge accepted the invitation and I notified the Association that Senator Talmadge had agreed to address the group but would accept an honorarium of only $1,000 pursuant to the Senate Rules. I informed the Association representative, however, that an office account, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, was being established for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses. I noted that a voluntary donation to the fund would be welcome but that Senator Talmadge's speech was not contingent on such a donation. I explained that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was not a campaign account..."

See, Wade affidavit attached to response from Talmadge Newsletter Fund and TCC.

In response to the Commission's inquiry, the Southern Wholesalers Association indicated that a $1,500 honorarium plus expenses was agreed upon. After the speech, the Southern Wholesalers Association representative was asked to make out two check, one to Senator Talmadge for $1,000 plus expenses and one to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund.

Analysis: The documents submitted to the Commission by Southern Wholesalers Association support the Southern Wholesalers statement. The $1,500 was agreed upon prior to the speech. A check for the agreed upon $1,500 honorarium plus */ Under the 1974 Amendments, 18 U.S.C. § 616 made illegal the acceptance of more than $1,000 for any appearance, etc., and an aggregate of more than $15,000 in any calendar year.

expenses was sent to the Senator and returned by Wade a month after the speaking engagement with a note that "if you so desire, you may cut a second check to Herman E. Talmadge Newsletter Fund." Southern Wholesalers Association states that in the telephone conversation referred to in Wade's note, they were asked to write two checks. Thus, it would appear that an honorarium of $1,500 was accepted by Senator Talmadge and his 1975 aggregate total was $15,480.

The Commission was not, in 1975, responsible for this statutory provision. However, because of the below outlined continuing nature of similar apparent violations, the General Counsel's Office recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that 18 U.S.C. § 616 may have been violated by acceptance of a $1,500 honorarium and by acceptance of honoraria in a calendar year above the $15,000 aggregate limit.

- (ii) National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives
$250.00 reported by Talmadge Newsletter Fund on 9/9/75

Discussion: The Senator spoke on Wednesday, August 13, 1975 at the Society's 1975 annual convention. Senator Talmadge was the luncheon speaker. The current Secretary-Treasurer, John B. Sperry, of the Society is unable to locate any records of correspondence concerning this matter -- the annual conventions are organized by the local society office at the location it is to be held. Mr. Sperry does state that "I wish to assure you, without reservation, that the disbursement was intended as an honorarium and was not intended for any political purpose or to influence any election in any way whatsoever."

In response to the Commission's inquiry into this matter, Ms. Rita Hubler states:

"Mr. Lawrence Earls [the Senator's accountant] invited Senator Talmadge to speak to the National Society of Accounts for Cooperatives ("the Society"). Senator Talmadge agreed to speak to this group as a personal favor to Mr. Earls. No honorarium was offered. At a later date, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund received a donation from the National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives in the amount of $250. Correspondence accompanying the donation clearly indicated that the $250 was donated by the Society to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses and was treated as such by the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund."

Attached to the TNF's response to the Commission was a copy of a letter from C.E. Smith, Vice-President-Finance, to Senator Talmadge stating:

"It is Lawrence Earl's feeling that the information of an agriculture nature contained in your newsletter would be an appropriate place for us to thank you for appearing ....

"Enclosed is the Society's check for $250.00, which will in a small way assist in providing this useful information to your constituents."

Analysis: It would appear from the above quoted letter that the money was sent directly to the Senator to use in connection with the newsletter for his having appeared at the convention. It also appears, from the response of the TNF, that no honorarium had been discussed prior to the speech. At this period, our regulations were not in effect. However, they may offer some guidance. 11 C.F.R. § 110.12(b) defines "honorarium" to mean:

"a payment of money or anything of value received by an officer or employee of the federal government, if it is accepted as consideration for an appearance, speech or article.

11 C.F.R. § 100.12(2) defining what is not an "honorarium" states:

"a gift is a voluntary conveyance of real or personal property which is made gratuitously, and is not supported by consideration, and is not made to serve in place of an honorarium or a contribution."

The financial statement for the convention, compiled around November 30, 1975 includes "speakers fees and expenses, 527.54." We do not know if the $250.00 was included in this $527.54.

From the information we have, it would appear that the $250 was not "accepted as consideration" but was given "gratuitously." The General Counsel's Office, therefore recommends that no further action be taken at this time with regard to this $250 as an honorarium. Discussion below will address the transfer of TNF monies containing corporate donations into a campaign account.

B. 1976 (Rule 42 filing with the Senate reported receipt of $25,000 in honoraria)

- (i) Alabama REA
Travel Reimbursement of $56.73 deposited into Special Account
No reported honorarium receipt

83040412234

Discussion: In response to the Commission's inquiry, Senator Talmadge responded that on January 9, 1976, he traveled to Montgomery, Alabama to receive the Alabama REA's "Eminent Service Award" and received no honorarium (See question 4)

Analysis: Based on the above response, the General Counsel's Office recommends that no further action be taken with regard to this matter.

- (ii) Parkinson Strong Priscock, Inc.
Special account indicated $1,000 honorarium and $192.37 travel reimbursement
No honorarium reported to Senate under this name although a $1,000 honorarium was reported from "Wheat Center USA."

Discussion: In response to the Commission's inquiry, Senator Talmadge reported that the honorarium was reported as "Wheat Center USA."

Analysis: Based on the above response, the General Counsel's Office recommends that no further action be taken with regard to this matter.

- C. 1977 (Rule 42 filing with the Senate reported receipt of $24,000 in honoraria)

- (i) Health Industries Mfg. Association
Special Account indicated two $1,000 deposits from this organization, one on March 8, 1977 and one on March 14, 1977.

Rule 42 filing did not report a March 8, 1977 receipt from this organization but did report such a receipt from College of American Pathologists

Discussion: In response to the Commission's inquiry, the Senator attached a copy of a deposit slip (appendix IV to his March 23, 1979 response) which shows that on the original deposit slip the deposit was indicated as coming from Health Industries Mfg. Handwritten at the bottom of that deposit slip is the notation "National College of Pathologists." The Senator has noted on the page on which this deposit slip is xeroxed that:

"Notation on bottom of deposit slip was made shortly after 3-8-77 and is the correct designation: COLLEGE of AMERICAN PATHOLOGISTS, 3-6-77, Innesbrook, FL.

83040412235

Analysis: The Senator, according to the Rule 42 filing, made two speeches in Innesbrook, Fl.: one on 3/6/77 for which he received a $1,000 honorarium from the College of American Pathologists; another on 3/7/77 for which he received a $1,000 honorarium from Health Industries Mfg. Association. In 1977, section 441i limited honoraria to $2,000 per speech and $25,000 aggregate per year. Apparently, the original deposit notation was merely in error. The General Counsel's office recommends that no further action be taken with regard to this matter.

- (ii) American Health Care
$76.50 deposited into Special Account
No honorarium reported on Rule 42 filing by this organization.

Discussion: In the Dec. 29, 1978 General Counsel's Report, it was suggested that American Health Care may have paid part of the Senator's travel expenses to a speech for which he reported receipt of an honorarium.

Analysis: The Senator's response to the Commission's inquiry appears to verify the above suggestion. The General Counsel's Office recommends that no further action be taken with regard to this matter as it appears that no additional honorarium was received.

- (iii) Federal Land Bank of St. Louis
$138.00 deposited into Special Account
$1,000.00 reported as a contribution by the Talmadge Newsletter Fund
No honorarium reported as received.

Discussion: In response to the Commission's inquiry, Senator Talmadge stated that "I traveled to St. Louis, Mo. and spoke to a meeting of the ... Bank on March 7, 1977. I received no honorarium. The Federal Land Bank made a voluntary donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund..." In an affidavit attached to the response of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, Rita Hubler states that after the Senator was invited to speak:

"Senator Talmadge accepted the invitation, and I made the arrangements for the speech with Mr. Glenn Heitz, President of the Bank. I informed Mr. Heitz that Senator Talmadge would not accept an honorarium for the speech, but I stated that the Bank might wish to make a voluntary donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, an office account, for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses, but that Senator Talmadge's speech was not contingent on such a donation. I also explained that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was not a campaign account..."

In response to the Commission's inquiry to the Bank, Glenn E. Heitz submitted an affidavit stating, in part:

"that on March 7, 1977, this corporation issued its check in the amount of $1,000 to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund (copy attached); that said check was given as payment for the appearance of Senator Talmadge as a banquet speaker in connection with the annual stockholder meeting of the... Bank... on the same date...; that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was made payee of the check at the direction of Senator Talmadge's secretary, a Ms. Hubler; that neither [Glenn E. Heitz] nor any member of his staff were aware that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was a registered political committee; that on March 7, he delivered the check personally to Senator Talmadge; that other speakers were likewise compensated for their appearance on the program of the annual meeting;"

Analysis: With regard to this matter the Commission is presented with inconsistent statements. The statements presented by Rita Hubler follow exactly what she states about the other deposits into the TNF (except for the funds received from the National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives). As with this statement none of Ms. Hubler's statements have been corroborated. Therefore, the General Counsel's Office recommends that the Commission find reasonable cause to believe that Senator Talmadge has violated 2 U.S.C. § 441i by accepting honoraria during 1979 above the statutory aggregate calendar year limitation.

- (iv) American Bakers Association (incorrectly referred to as "Banker" in the 12/29/78 General Counsel's Report)
$210.00 deposited into Special Account
No honorarium reported

Discussion: In response to the Commission's inquiry, the Senator responded that on March 28, 1977 he traveled to Miami, Florida, to address the ABA. The Senator states that his travel was reimbursed but he received no honorarium.

Analysis: The General Counsel's Office has, at this time, no additional information. Thus, the General Counsel's Office recommends that no further action be taken at this time with regard to this matter.

- (v) David C. Murchison
$1,000 reported as a contribution to Talmadge Newsletter Fund
No honorarium reported

Discussion: In response to the Commission's inquiry to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, Rita Hubler reported that the Senator accepted an invitation to speak to the Ceramic Tile Mfg. Association, and:

"I made the arrangements for this speaking engagement. I informed a representative of the Association that Senator Talmadge would speak to the group but would not accept an honorarium. I explained that the Association might wish to make a voluntary donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, which was an office account, not a campaign account, for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses, but that Senator Talmadge's speech was not contingent on such a donation...."

On April 13, 1979 the General Counsel's Office deposed Mr. David C. Murchison and on April 23, 1979 the General Counsel's Office deposed Thomas J. Kelly, U.S.N. (Ret). Mr. Murchison advised that he made out a personal check because Admiral Kelly, who had made the arrangements, advised that the Senator wanted it fairly soon. Because it would take some time to clear an association check, Mr. Murchison made the check and was reimbursed by the Association. Admiral Kelly advised that he asked the Senator personally to speak to the group; that they are old fishing friends; that the Senator agreed and advised that the honorarium was $1,000; that the Senator asked that the check be made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Both Mr. Murchison and Admiral Kelly stated that the $1,000 was an honorarium and Admiral Kelly stated that those portions of Ms. Hubler's statement about which he had knowledge were untrue.

Analysis: Again, the Commission is presented with conflicting statements. However, the General Counsel's Office, based on the above, recommends that the Commission find reasonable cause to believe that Senator Talmadge violated 2 U.S.C. § 441i by accepting honoraria over the $25,000 annual limit during 1977. (Total, including this and Federal Land Bank, for 1977 is $26,700).

- (vi) William J. Colley
$1,000 contribution reported by the Talmadge
Newsletter Fund
No honorarium reported.

Discussion: In response to the Commission's inquiry about the Colley contribution to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, by affidavit, Rogers Wade states that he made the scheduling arrangements for the Senator's Speech before the "Cardio-Pulmonary Doctors Association" (sic) with Mr. Colley. In his affidavit Mr. Wade states:

"I explained to Mr. Colley that Senator Talmadge would not accept an honorarium to speak to the doctors group, but I informed him of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund and told him the officers of the fund would welcome any voluntary donation to the fund for the purpose of helping defray newsletter and other office-related expenses, but that Senator Talmadge's speech would not be conditioned on such a donation. I explained to Mr. Colley that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was not a campaign account and would not accept campaign contributions...."

On April 13, 1979 the General Counsel's Office deposed William J. Colley. Mr. Colley recollected having been advised in January of 1977 that the Senator was "booked up" for the year for honoraria-- was already committed to speak and receive $25,000 in honoraria. Therefore, according to Mr. Colley, when he approached the Senator's staff in February about the Senator speaking to the Cardio-Pulmonary Contractors Association he made no mention of an honorarium. He also recalled having volunteered the contribution in order to help pay for the cokes and hamburgers the Senator's office was offering to the many Georgians in Washington in January of 1977, prior to any discussion of the speech. The actual contribution was not given until February 1977, after the speech. The contribution was from Mr. Colley's personal account and was his personal contribution.

Analysis: It is apparent that the versions of what transpired with regard to a speech, an honorarium, and a contribution to the TNF differ. However, Mr. Colley and the Senator's staff both agree that the $1,000 was not an honorarium but a donation or gift. Therefore, the General Counsel's Office recommends that no further action be taken at this time with regard to this matter.

V. Talmadge Newsletter Fund ("TNF")

A. Is the TNF a political committee or an office account?

Discussion: As discussed in the Dec. 29, 1978 General Counsel's Report, there appears to be some question as to whether the TNF was an office account or a political committee.

2 U.S.C. § 439a was enacted as part of the 1974 amendments. In part, this section provides:

"[T]o the extent any such contributions, amount contributed, or expenditure thereof is not otherwise required to be disclosed under provisions of this title, such contributions, amount contributed, or expenditure shall be fully disclosed in accordance with rules promulgated by the Commission."

Analysis: The Talmadge Newsletter Fund registered as a political committee in August 1975, naming a chairman, a treasurer, and stating that it would support the candidacy of Senator Talmadge. The TNF reported, until termination in October 1977, on FEC Form 3s. In June 1977, the TNF transferred all remaining funds ($2,839.49) to the Talmadge Campaign Committee, reporting the transfer as a transfer out to an affiliated committee. On October 10, 1977 the TNF filed a termination.

During the period of time after the effective date of the 1974 Amendments and before prescription of FEC office account regulations (11 C.F.R. § 113.1 et seq., April 1977) and issuance of office account reporting forms, several Congressional offices inquired about reporting. */ Several FEC staff members have advised that the suggestion was offered that political committee forms could be used for disclosure purposes. Moreover, in AO 1975-77, the Commission stated:

"It is the opinion of the Commission that an office account established to provide services for the constituents of a Congressman shall report as if such account is a political committee and contributions to, expenditures by, and the general operation of an office account should be reported and otherwise treated as provided in Notice 1975-18 of the Federal Election Commission "Office Accounts and Franking Accounts; Excess Campaign Contribution" (40 FR 32951, Aug. 5, 1975) See also AO 1975-14.... (emphasis added)

*/ Apparently the first FEC notification to members of Congress about office account forms was issued in September 1978.

Because of this early confusion with regard to reporting of office accounts, the Commission's failure ever to question whether this was an office account or a political committee (we apparently assumed TNF was an office account), and because our office account regulations were only prescribed some two months prior to the transfer of all funds from the TNF, the General Counsel's Office recommends that the Commission accept the current description of the TNF as an office account and, therefore, take no further action with regard to possible section 441b violations due to corporate contributions to the TNF.

B. Was the Transfer of TNF funds to the Talmadge Campaign Committee a Violation?

Discussion: In the December 29, 1978 General Counsel's Report, the issue of a possible violation of 11 C.F.R. § 113.5(b) was raised because of the transfer, after April 13, 1977, of commingled corporate funds to a political committee.

Commission regulation 11 C.F.R. § 113.5(b) provides that:

"If any treasury funds of a corporation or labor organization are donated to an office account, no funds from that office account may be used in connection with a federal election."

In response to the Commission's inquiries the TNF, the "officers" responded that five of the contributions, while associated with speeches, were "funds donated:"

Southern Wholesalers Association
National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives
David Murchison
Federal Land Bank of St. Louis
William Collen

The General Counsel's Office has recommended above that the funds from Southern Wholesalers Association, David Murchison and the Federal Land Bank be considered honoraria and that the Commission find reason to believe that 18 U.S.C. § 616 may have been violated and reasonable cause to believe that section 441i was violated by the acceptance of these honoraria. Also discussed above are the surrounding circumstances of the Colley funds -- apparently personal monies of Mr. Colley.

The 11 C.F.R. § 113.5(b) issue, therefore concerns the funds of the National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives */ (see further discussion supra re: circumstances of deposit)

*/ The National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives was incorporated in Minnesota around 1930.

Analysis: The funds, $250, from the National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives were reported by TNF as having been received on September 9, 1975, and deposited into that account. On June 17, 1977 the TNF transferred all funds remaining in its account to the Talmadge Campaign Committee.

In response to the Commission's inquiry concerning possible violation of 11 C.F.R. § 113.5(b), T. Rogers Wade stated in an affidavit:

"When the rules of the Senate were changed in April 1977, abolishing office accounts, I instructed Ms. Allyne Tisdale, the new Treasurer of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, to close the account and deposit the remaining funds in the Talmadge Campaign account .... My thinking was that the remaining funds in the account would continue to be spent for newsletter or other office-related expenses as was allowed by the Senate Rules and the "funds donated" provision of the Commission regulations.

"My interpretation of section 113 of the Commission regulations was that funds in the Talmadge Newsletter Fund account were 'funds donated' as outlined in Sec. 113.1(a). Since office accounts were being abolished under the Senate Rules, it was my understanding that the proper procedure for compliance with Sec. 113.3 was to deposit any remaining funds in the Talmadge Newsletter Fund account into the Talmadge Campaign Committee account. Since there was no intention to use any of the transferred funds in connection with a federal election, it was my interpretation that the transfer would not be a violation of Sec. 113.5(b)."

In response to the Commission's inquiries Ms. Tisdale states, in part, that "There was no intention to use any funds transferred from the Talmadge Newsletter Fund to the Talmadge Campaign Committee in connection with a federal election .... A review of the expenditures of the Talmadge Campaign Committee since June 17, 1977 [date of the transfer] shows that funds well in excess of $2,839.49 [amount transferred] have been expended for newsletter printing and other office-related expenses not in connection with a federal election."

83040412242

From the above, it would appear that the Senator's staff assumes that funds prohibited as contributions by section 441b may be deposited into a campaign account if the campaign committee uses an equal amount of funds on non-campaign related matters. This, however, has never been the position of the Commission.

Commission regulation 11 C.F.R. § 113.5(b), quoted above, specifically states that if any union or corporate treasury funds are donated to an office account, "no funds from that office account may be used in connection with a federal election." Commission regulation 11 C.F.R. § 102.6(2) states that:

Any political committee which has solicited or received contributions for or on behalf of ... any candidate for Federal office, shall either --

(ii) Establish a single committee with a single account to make contributions to Federal and non-Federal candidates, but only if all contributions received are permissible under the Act .... (emphasis added)

In AO 1976-83, the Commission was asked whether corporate funds contributed to the San Diego County Republican Central Committee need to be placed in a separate bank account or whether it is sufficient to merely account for them separately. Citing proposed regulation § 102.6, the Commission stated that "[u]nder [that regulation] no corporate funds could be accepted by a committee formed pursuant to either (a)(2)(i) or (ii). Any corporate funds accepted legally under State law would have to be placed in a separate bank account maintained by a non-Federal committee ...."

In AO 1976-110, the Commission was asked whether a federal candidate's committee could retain a contribution from a local candidate's campaign fund in which corporate and noncorporate funds were commingled. The Commission answered in the negative. The Commission concluded that the described contribution, even if the contributor could segregate the corporate and noncorporate funds, represented "an indirect corporate contribution since the campaign committee of the candidate for local office from which the contribution was received commingled its funds without regard to their source."

The Commission has found reason to believe that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund may have violated 2 U.S.C. § 439a and 11 C.F.R.

§ 113.5(b) by transferring commingled funds to the TCC. The Office of General Counsel has above recommended that the current descriptions of the TNF as an office account be accepted. Therefore, as an office account of Senator Talmadge, the General Counsel's Office recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that the Senator violated 2 U.S.C. § 439(a) and 11 C.F.R. § 113.5(b) by allowing his office account containing commingled funds to be transferred to his political committee. The General Counsel's office recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that the TCC also violated 2 U.S.C. § 439(a), 11 C.F.R. § 113.5(b), and 2 U.S.C. § 441b by accepting commingled funds into the TCC account but take no further action because of the identity of the transfer and the individuals involved.

VI. Georgians for Talmadge ("GFT")

GFT was an authorized campaign committee which registered on July 27, 1973 and terminated in October 1975, having transferred all remaining funds to the Talmadge Campaign Committee on 7/17/75. The General Counsel's Report of Dec. 29, 1978, noted two in-kind contributions which raised the possibility of section 441b violations:

- (1) John Prince, II
P.O. Box 128
Tifton, Ga. 31794
President
Prince Retail & Leasing Systems
Aggregate amount: $1,189.40
Purpose: Automobile
- (2) Ed Elson
57 Forsyth Street
Atlanta, Georgia 30303
President
Healey Building Co.
Atlanta, Ga.
Aggregate amount: $1,870.00
Purpose: Office Space

Discussion: John Prince responded to the Commission's inquiry enclosing copies of several documents. The car invoice shows that the automobile in question was owned by Prince Rental & Leasing Systems, Inc., and the GFT pledge form was signed "Prince Rental & Leasing Systems, Inc., John B. Prince, III, Pres." T. Rogers Wade (the last treasurer of GFT and, at the time of the pledge, Executive Director of GFT) did not respond to the Commission's letter to him.

8304041224

Ed Elson, in response to the Commission's letter, informed the Office of General Counsel that, during the period of the office space in-kind contribution, the Healey Building was owned 50% by Mr. Elson as a tenant-in-common. The Building company was not incorporated and the contribution was his personally.

Analysis: Inasmuch as the response from Ed Elson clarifies that the Healey Building is not incorporated but was, during the period in question, held in tenancy-in-common, the General Counsel's Office recommends that no further action be taken with regard to that matter.

With regard to the automobile, it is clear that the car was owned by a corporation and that the corporation was not reimbursed by John Prince, III, the president. The GFT committee was on clear notice of the corporate ownership of the car when the committee's pledge form was signed in the corporate name.

The entire of this in-kind corporate contribution occurred in 1974. The review of the GFT filings revealed no other such contributions on their face. GFT terminated in 1975 and, therefore, there is no indication of any continuing violations of this nature. The Office of General Counsel, therefore, recommends that the Commission find reasonable cause to believe that John Prince, III, Prince Retail and Leasing Systems, Inc., and Georgians for Talmadge violated 2 U.S.C. § 441b (18 U.S.C. § 610) but for policy reasons take no further action.

VII. Miscellaneous

(1) Pocket Money

Discussion: In response to questions to the Senator concerning the "small cash gifts," he has stated:

I did not keep records of these small gifts and thus have no reasonable basis for reporting how much money I may have received since April, 1977.

I do not recall any specific questions I may have asked when I was offered these small personal gifts. There was never any doubt, however, but that they were intended for my personal use. I did not consider these gifts to be either campaign contributions or "funds donated."

3304041215

The Commission questioned whether the Senator's statement to the press that "they come and say they know I have a lot of expenses back in Washington and they want to help me" accurately reflected the donor's purpose. The Senator responded that "Statements of this nature were made to me on occasion by persons offering me small gifts. The Commission asked the Senator to list the types of expenses for which, to his knowledge, the money was given. The Senator responded "For whatever incidental personal expenses I might incur."

Analysis: Because no records were kept, it is difficult if not impossible, to establish whether any of these funds were intended as campaign contributions and, therefore, reporting violations.

With regard to whether or not some of these funds might be "funds donated" pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 113.1, the above quote, which was confirmed by the Senator, is relevant. The definition of "funds donated" is located at 11 C.F.R. § 113.1(a):

... all funds... which are donated for the purpose of supporting activities of a Federal or State office holder.

The Senator repeatedly refers to the funds as personal gifts, given for incidental personal expenses. He states he does not recall any specific questions he may have asked the donor as to the purpose, but states that he did not consider the gifts funds donated. Apparently, there was no rational basis upon which he could have determined whether or not the funds were given to support his activities as an office holder or as personal gifts.

Because at least some of these funds were given to cover "Washington expenses" the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find reasonable cause to believe that Senator Talmadge violated 11 C.F.R. § 113.3 by accepting funds donated and not depositing them into an office account or a campaign committee account but that conciliation efforts on this matter be deferred pending further investigation of matters herein.

(2) Motel/Hotel Accommodations

Discussion: The Commission made inquiries of the Senator about courtesy lodging, including dates, purposes of trips, etc. In response, the Senator stated that no records were kept of such accommodations. He stated that he has "no recollection regarding any courtesy lodging accepted in connection with campaign activities." And that "it is my understanding that courtesy lodging provided for personal convenience that is not in connection with campaign activities is not within the scope of the Act."

As Appendix VI to the Senator's response, a list of the times he received courtesy accommodations at the Atlanta American Motor Hotel during 1977 and 1978 was attached. The following dates include those in which the Senator's travel was reimbursed by the U.S. Senate and, therefore, it may be assumed that he was on "official business."

1977: April 23-24
April 29-30
May 13-14
May 20-21
June 10-11-12
July 1-2
July 22-23
July 29-30
September 23-24
November 5-6

1978: February 14-15
March 3-4
April 14-15
April 21-22
May 5-6
May 19-20

Senator Talmadge has stated that these accommodations were offered for his personal convenience by a long-time friend who owns and runs the hotel. Dr. Goldstein, the owner of the hotel, stated in an interview with Senate Ethics staff, that he tendered courtesy lodging because Senator Talmadge was a "draw" -- his presence drew other business. The Senator originally had not reported the courtesy lodging as a gift on his Rule 42 filing but he amended his 1977 Senate Disclosure Forms for 1977 to reflect $450.00 as a gift.

Analysis: It would appear that the lodging during the above listed trips for which travel was reimbursed by the Senate, supported Senator Talmadge's activities as a federal officeholder. However, from the statement of Dr. Goldstein, it would appear that the lodging was not "donated for the purpose of supporting the activities of a Federal ... officeholder" pursuant to the definition of funds donated contained in 11 C.F.R. § 113.1(a).

Therefore, the General Counsel's Office recommends that, with regard to courtesy lodging, the Commission find no reasonable cause to believe that 11 C.F.R. § 113.1 has been violated by the acceptance of this lodging without reporting it.

(3) Automobiles

Discussion: In response to the Commission's inquiries about courtesy use of automobiles, the Senator has stated that a long-time personal friend, John Mitchell, has offered courtesy automobiles for the Senator's personal use and convenience in the Atlanta area. The Senator has stated that the automobiles were not used in connection with campaign activities. Although no records of specific instances have been maintained, the Senator does not believe that he has used such vehicles since 1973.

Analysis: The General Counsel's Office recommends that the attached letter be sent to John Mitchell, Mitchell Motors, to determine, if possible, what use was made of such automobiles in 1971 through 1974, when the Senator was a candidate for the 1974 election and since 1977 when the office account regulations were prescribed.

(4) Airplane rides and airline tickets

Discussion: In response to the Commission's inquiries concerning courtesy in transportation, Senator Talmadge has responded:

I have not maintained listings since January 1, 1968, concerning instances in which I may have used private air transportation to, from, and within Georgia or accepted commercial airline tickets. However, I have no specific recollection of having used such transportation in connection with campaign activities. I have not considered the acceptance of courtesy airline transportation not in connection with campaign activities to be within the scope of the Act.

In May 1978, Senator Talmadge and the Senate Ethics Committee entered into a stipulation that the following air transportation had been furnished the Senator:

DATE	DESTINATION	TRANSPORTATION
07-10-70	Washington, DC to Valdosta Georgia	Southern Railway System
07-12-70	Valdosta, GA to Washington DC	Southern Railway System
06-18-71	Washington, DC to Valdosta Georgia	Southern Railway System
06-20-71	Valdosta, GA to Washington DC	Southern Railway System

DATE	DESTINATION	TRANSPORTATION
04-14-72	Washington, DC to Valdosta Georgia	Southern Railway System
02-28-73	Washington, DC to Bimini, Bahamas	Rockwell Int'l
03-26-73	Washington, DC to Athens Georgia	Southern Railway System
06-09-74	Atlanta, GA to Augusta, Georgia	Southern Company Services

06-13-76	Palatka, Florida to Washington, DC	Southern Railway System

Analysis: The General Counsel's office recommends that with regard to the above, the attached letter and questions be sent to the Senator.

COMMITTEE ON

 WASHINGTON, D.C. 20510

RECEIVED FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

MAR 26 PM 1:21

March 23, 1979

William C. Oldaker, Esq.
 General Counsel
 Federal Election Commission
 1325 K Street, N.W.
 Washington, D.C. 20463

901756

Dear Mr. Oldaker:

This letter is in response to your letter of February 2, 1979, in which you state that the Federal Election Commission ("the Commission") has found reason to believe that I may have violated certain provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, ("the Act") and the Commission's regulations.

I appreciate the Commission's understanding of the circumstances which required my request for an extension of time to respond to your questions.

Your letter indicated that several errors may have occurred in my past campaign activities and in the preparation of certain of my candidate reports. I do not personally prepare my candidate reports. I have delegated the duty of determining both the form and content of such reports and of advising me how to comply with the Act and regulations to the officers of the Talmadge Campaign Committee. Any errors or oversights which may have occurred were unintentional and arose through inadvertence or misunderstanding of the requirements of the Act and regulations by the officers of the Talmadge Campaign Committee who prepared such reports for my signature. Although I relied on their interpretation, I, of course, accept full responsibility for any errors. Further amendments to reports which may be required will be filed with the Commission as soon as possible, and the assistance of the Commission in helping correct any of these unintentional errors or oversights will be appreciated.

The failure to file candidate reports in 1972 and 1973 resulted from the good faith belief that I was not a "candidate" for reelection in the years in question and therefore no report was required. As explained in previous communications, there was general confusion among officers of the Talmadge Campaign Committee during 1972 and 1973 as to when "candidate" status actually began. Under Georgia law, an individual cannot qualify as a candidate until the year of the election. Since my reelection occurred in 1974, the officers of the Talmadge Campaign Committee and members of my staff reached the determination that I could not be considered a "candidate" until 1974 and, therefore, candidate reports in 1972 and 1973 would be inappropriate. In addition, as explained in my letter to you dated September 18, 1978 the officers of the TCC were uncertain whether many expenses incurred in connection with my Senate office should be considered "for the purpose of influencing" my reelection or whether they should be considered personal office expenses.

It was not until 1975 that the Talmadge Campaign Committee understood that it was acceptable to pay from the campaign account many office-related expenses previously paid from my Special Account. The Talmadge Campaign Committee then reimbursed me for the expenses, originally paid from the Special Account, which were determined to be properly payable from campaign funds. The 1975 reimbursements were disclosed in the Talmadge Campaign Committee reports.

In considering the other possible violations outlined in your letter, I believe that it is important to remember the general confusion which has existed regarding the scope and applications of the Act from its effective date in 1972 until, in many cases, the present time. Prior to the adoption of the Commission's regulations, there were no definitive guidelines on many questions, and confusion understandably resulted. This problem has been compounded in my office due to various changes in personnel and in the officers of the Talmadge Campaign Committee. (Daniel Minchew, Chairman, 1972 to October, 1974; T. Rogers Wade, Chairman, October, 1974, to present; Dathine Brunson, Treasurer, 1972 to December, 1973; Allyne Tisdale, Treasurer, December, 1973, to July, 1975; Rita Hubler, Treasurer, July, 1975, to March, 1976; Allyne Tisdale, Treasurer, March, 1976, to present.) The Commission's regulations, effective April, 1977, which often differ from its earlier proposed regulations, have made compliance with the Act much easier to understand. However, even the applicability of many of these regulations is still less than clear.

QUESTIONS TO SENATOR HERMAN TALMADGE

1. The Talmadge Campaign Committee has reported several itemized expenditures to you:

- May 31, 1974, reimbursement for "air travel - political trips" in the amount of $406.44;
- August 14, 1974, reimbursement for "Postage" in the amount of $109.40;
- March 5, 1975, reimbursement for "Hotel expense, J-J Day Dinner" in the amount of $56.16;
- November 17, 1976, payment to you for "entertaining the President-Elect, Vice President-Elect, Members of Congress, Lovejoy, Ga." in the amount of $200.00;
- March 20, 1978, reimbursement of "travel expenditures" in the amount of $134.36

Your candidate reports do not reflect expenditures made by you for which these reimbursements were made.

(a) Why did you not report your original payments as expenditures in your candidate reports for the relevant reporting periods?

(1) (a) You have listed five instances where expenditures were made from the Special Account which were not subsequently reflected as in my candidate reports as campaign expenditures. Since a reimbursement was made in each case to the Special Account by the Talmadge Campaign Committee and fully disclosed, the Talmadge Campaign Committee officers believed that it was not necessary to report these transactions as personal campaign expenditures. These costs were not borne by me, but rather by the Talmadge Campaign Committee, as reported. There was no net effect in any instance on the Special Account. The Talmadge Campaign Committee officers at that time did not believe it necessary or proper to report intermediate transactions involving the Special Account as candidate expenditure because the Talmadge Campaign Committee, not the candidate, fully assumed responsibility for these costs. In signing candidate reports prepared for me, I did not consider expenditures from the Special Account which were reimbursed by the Talmadge Campaign Committee to be personal campaign expenditures which were reportable. There was certainly no intent to conceal such expenditures, nor were they at any time concealed. The Talmadge Campaign Committee fully disclosed the reimbursements to the Special Account and the nature of the expenses for which the reimbursements were made. This disclosure by the Talmadge Campaign Committee complies with the current policy of the Commission that reimbursed candidate expenses need be disclosed only by the Campaign Committee.

(b) Did you declare any of the above reimbursements on your federal income tax reports for the relevant years?

(b) No. Nor were the expenditures claimed as deductions either.

2. Your Special Account indicates deposits on March 12, 1974 and November 20, 1974 in the amount of $5.00 each from Vivian P. Gravette, 2231 Brandler Road, Augusta, Georgia, 30906, for "newsletter expenses." These sums have never been reported by you as contributions received. A deposit into the Special Account was also made on March 25, 1974, in the amount of $3.00 from Mrs. F.M. Akers, 425 Carriage Drive, N.E., Atlanta, Ga., 30328. In your 1978 amendments to your 1974 reports, for the period March 1, 1974 to May 31, 1974, you reported the Akers deposit as a contribution for "newsletter expenses."

(a) What criteria were employed to distinguish the Gravette deposit from the Akers deposit when you determined that the Akers deposit was a campaign contribution but that the Gravette deposit was not?

(b) Furnish any documentation which you have that would support your not having reported the Gravette deposit as a contribution.

(2) During 1975, an office account, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, was established for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office-related communication expenses. Prior to the establishment of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, donations which were not for campaign purposes, but which were expressly made to defray newsletter expenses, were deposited in the Special Account. Certain expenditures for newsletter expenses were made from this account. The following donations were given to defray newsletter expenses and were deposited in the Special Account for such use:

5-4-73	- Greater Atlanta Credit Union Chapter, Atlanta, Georgia	$250.00
5-24-73	- Georgia Bankers Association	150.00
3-12-74	- Vivian P. Gravette	5.00
3-25-74	- Mrs. F. M. Acres	3.00
11-20-74	- Vivian P. Gravette	5.00
	Total	$413.00

In late 1974, when the officers of the Talmadge Campaign Committee determined which expenses incurred by the Special Account were properly reimbursable to me from the Talmadge Campaign Committee account, the $413 for newsletter expenses were deducted from my total expenditures for office-related and campaign expenses before the reimbursement was made. Although these donations for newsletter expenses were not intended or accepted as campaign contributions, to insure full disclosure, these donations were reported and itemized in my amended candidate reports as receipts for newsletter expenses.

A clerical error in the preparation of the September, 1978 amended reports filed by me and the Talmadge Campaign Committee was made regarding the Vivian P. Gravette donations. (See Appendix I) Attached are amended reports to correct this clerical error.

3. In your 1978 candidate reports for the period April 1, 1973 through June 30, 1974, you indicate the receipt of a contribution from "Greater Atlanta Credit Union Chapter, Atlanta, Georgia, 30303." Please furnish a more thorough mailing address and organizational name.

(3) Greater Atlanta Credit Unions Associated Credit Union ✓
1795 Peachtree Road, NE

4. Your Special Account indicates a travel reimbursement from Alabama REA, deposited on January 28, 1976, in the amount of $56.73. The account indicates no honorarium receipt from Alabama REA during that year.

(a) Was an honorarium received by you from Alabama REA during 1976?

(b) if yes, please provide:

- (1) the date of receipt; and
- (2) the place of the event for which the honorarium was given.

(c) if not, was an honorarium received from that organization in 1975?

(d) if no honorarium was received by you from that organization in 1975 or 1976, for what purpose was the trip made for which you were reimbursed by this organization?

(4) On January 9, 1976, I traveled to Montgomery, Alabama at the invitation of the Alabama Rural Electric Association to receive their "Eminent Service Award" for 1976. I received no honorarium from the Alabama REA.

5. According to your Special Account, an honorarium in the amount of $1,000 was deposited on March 2, 1976, along with a deposit of $192.37 for what appears to be a travel reimbursement from Parkison Strong Priscock, Inc. A receipt from this corporation does not appear on you Senate Rule 42 filing.

Did you receive an honorarium from this organization in addition to the honoraria reported to the Senate?

(5) No. As shown by Appendix II, the Parkinson Strong Priscock check was a reimbursement of travel expenses and an honorarium for my appearance at the Wheat Center U.S.A. banquet. This honorarium was reported in my Rule 42 filing as "Wheat Center U.S.A."

6. Your Rule 42 filings indicate an aggregate honoraria receipt of $24,900 by you during 1976. Attachment IV to your September responses to the Commission's questions indicates an aggregate receipt of $25,000.

(a) From whom did you receive the additional $100.00?

(b) On what date did you receive the $100.00?

(c) Describe your activity for which you received the $100.00.

(6) I have been unable to discover any discrepancy between my Rule 42 report for 1976 and my answer to your previous question. Please refer again to my Rule 42 form for 1976, of which, copies of pertinent pages are attached. (Appendix III). If you still believe a discrepancy exists I would appreciate your providing me with the information on which you base your question.

7. Your special account indicates a deposit of a $1,000 honorarium on March 8, 1977, from Health Industries Mfg. Association. This organization was not reported as having given to you an honorarium on your Rule 42 filing.

Did you receive an honorarium from this organization in addition to the honoraria reported to the Senate?

(7) No. Please refer to my Rule 42 report for 1977, a copy of the pertinent page which is attached (Appendix IV) indicating a $1,000.00 honorarium from Health Industry Mfg. Association. I do not understand the basis for your question and I would appreciate any information you could provide which would help me understand your belief that no such honorarium was indicated.

8. Your special account indicates what appear to travel reimbursement deposits from several organizations which were not reported by you as having given to you honoraria during those years:

-- American Health Care
Deposited: 3/15/77
Amount: $76.50

-- Federal Land Bank of St. Louis
Deposited: 3/28/77
Amount: $138.00

-- American Bankers Association
Deposited: 4/20/77
Amount: $210.00

(a) With regard to each of the above, were these reimbursements for travel expenses?

(8) Each of the following amounts was a travel reimbursement received by me.

- 8 3 0 4 0 4 1 2 2 9
- (b) If yes:
- (i) did you, your campaign committee or the Talmadge Newsletter Fund receive any of the following from each of these organizations, in connection with the trips for which you were reimbursed:
    - (a) honoraria?
    - (b) campaign contributions?
    - (c) anything of value?
  - (ii) to what location did you travel?
  - (iii) on what date did you travel?
  - (iv) what was the purpose of your travel?

American Health Care

Deposited: 3/15/77 - $76.50

On February 11, 1977, I traveled to New Orleans, Louisiana, and gave speeches to the American College of Nuclear Physicians and the National Health Lawyers Association. I received a $1000.00 honorarium for each speech. See deposit slip from Special Account and summary of honoraria received contained in my 1977 Rule 42 report. (Appendix V).

Federal Land Bank of St. Louis

Deposited: 3/28/77 - $138.00

I traveled to St. Louis, Mo. and spoke to a meeting of the Federal Land Bank of St. Louis on March 7, 1977. I received no honorarium. The Federal Land Bank of St. Louis made a voluntary donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, an office account established in 1975, for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office-related communication expenses.

American Bakers Association

Deposited: 4/20/77 - $210.00

On March 28, 1977 I traveled to Miami, Florida, to address the American Bakers Association. I received no honorarium for this speech. I did, however, receive an honorarium for a luncheon appearance in 1978 from the American Bakers Association which will be reported in my 1978 Senate disclosure reports.

(c) If not travel reimbursements, for what purpose were each of the above amounts give to you?

9. The Talmadge Campaign Committee's March 10, July 10 and Year End Reports for 1975 indicate expenditures to Carterfone Communications Corporation for "equipment rental." The September 10, 1975, Talmadge Campaign Committee report shows no such expenditure to Carterfone during that quarterly period. Your Special Account, however, indicates payments to Carterfone in the amount of $573.40 between July 1 and December 31, 1975 for equipment rental.

2 Why were your payments to Carterfone in the amount of $573.40 not reported as expenditures on your candidate reports for the relevant periods?

(9) The expenditures from the Special Account in 1975 to Carterfone Communication Corporation for equipment rental expenses were not campaign related expenses and were therefore not required to be reported by the Act. Equipment rental expenses are ordinary and necessary expenses incurred in the normal operation of my office and when paid from Talmadge Campaign Committee funds, such expenditures have been fully disclosed by the Talmadge Campaign Committee in compliance with the Act. For your information, my records show that payments to the Carterfone Communications Corporation for equipment rental from July 1 until December 31, 1975 totaled $121.80 not $573.40. My records indicate, however, $573.40 was expended for recording studio fees during this period.

10. The Talmadge Campaign Committee's April, July and October 1976 Reports show expenditures to Sun Crown for newsletter expenses. The Committee's 1976 year-end and April 1977 Reports show no expenditures to Sun Crown for newsletter expenses. Your Special Account, however, indicates payments to Sun Crown for newsletter expenses during those periods when the Committee did not report such expenditures.

Why were your payments to Sun Crown for newsletter expenses not reported as expenditures on your candidate reports for these reporting periods?

(10) The expenditures from the Special Account in 1976 and 1977 to Sun Crown for newsletter expenses were not campaign related expenses and were therefore not required to be reported by the Act. Newsletter expenses are ordinary and necessary expenses incurred in the normal operation of my office, and when paid from Talmadge Campaign Committee funds, such expenditures have been fully disclosed by the Talmadge Campaign Committee in compliance with the Act.

11. In your response to the Commission's initial questions you referred to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund as an office account. The Talmadge Newsletter Fund registered as a political committee, stating that it would support you as a candidate for the U.S. Senate in an aggregate amount in excess of $1,000.00 during the calendar year. The Fund also reported as a political committee until termination in 1977.

(a) Upon what basis do you support your current characterization of the Fund as an office account rather than a political committee?

(b) Furnish any documentation which would support your current characterization of the Fund as an office account.

(11) I refer you to the March 14, 1979 response of Ms. Allyne Tisdale to your letter concerning the now terminated Talmadge Newsletter Fund. I concur with the statements made by Ms. Tisdale, Mr. Rogers Wade, and Ms. Rita Hubler regarding the establishment and operation of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. I always understood and considered the Talmadge Newsletter Fund to be an office account, not a campaign account, established for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office-related communication expenses.

12. Newspaper articles report that you have acknowledged receiving small cash gifts over several years.

(12) In the past, I have been offered small, personal gifts of cash from friends and constituents in Georgia. Though I no longer accept these gifts when they are offered to me, it has long been customary in Georgia for people to offer such small, personal gifts to some public figures.

(a) Since April 1977, approximately how much such money have you accepted?

(a) I did not keep records of these small gifts and thus have no reasonable basis for reporting how much money I may have received since April, 1977.

(b) The Washington Post of 5/22/78 quoted you as stating that "They come and say they know I have a lot of expenses back in Washington and they want to help me."

(i) Does this statement accurately reflect the purpose for which these cash amounts were given?

(ii) List the types of expenses for which, to your knowledge, the money was given to you.

(b)(i) Statements of this nature were made to me on occasion by persons offering me small gifts.

(ii) For whatever incidental personal expenses I might incur.

(c) List the specific efforts, including questions you asked, which you made when accepting these cash gifts to accurately ascertain the purpose for which the money was being given.

(c) I do not recall any specific questions I may have asked when I was offered these small personal gifts. There was never any doubt, however, but that they were intended for my own personal use. I did not consider these gifts to be either campaign contributions or "funds donated."

13. It has been reported that since January 1, 1962 you have accepted courtesy lodging on trips to Georgia.

(a) Furnish:

- (i) dates of such accommodations
- (ii) place at which such lodging was afforded
- (iii) purpose of each trip during which such courtesy lodging was afforded
- (iv) value of such lodging

(b) Did any campaign activity occur during such trips when courtesy lodging was afforded?

(c) Were any campaign expenditures made by you, the Talmadge Campaign Committee, Georgians for Talmadge or the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, during or in connection with any trips on which you received courtesy lodging?

(d) Were any United States Senate reimbursements claimed for expenses in connection with such trips during which you received courtesy lodging?

(13) Neither I nor my office maintain or have listings of courtesy lodging which I have received. The attached information was recently furnished by the American Motor Hotel in Atlanta for 1977 and 1978. This courtesy lodging was not in connection with my reelection campaign. When in Georgia, it was my practice to remain overnight in my home at Lovejoy whenever possible. On occasion I have stayed in the homes of members of my family and personal friends. Courtesy lodging at the American Motor Hotel was offered for my personal convenience by a long-time friend who owns and runs the hotel. Since I could not stay at my home in Lovejoy during my divorce proceeding in 1977 and 1978 I accepted my friends hospitality.

I have no recollection regarding any courtesy lodging accepted in connection with campaign activities. It has always been my policy not to accept any courtesy lodging which would be in violation of the Act. Further, it is my understanding that courtesy lodging provided for personal convenience that is not in connection with campaign activities is not within the scope of the Act.

14. It has been reported that automobiles have been furnished to you by Mitchell Brothers since January 1, 1968:

(a) For what purpose were such automobiles/vehicles used?

(14) My long-time personal friend, Mr. John Mitchell, has in the past offered courtesy automobiles for my personal use and convenience in the Atlanta area. These automobiles were not used by me in connection with campaign activities.

(b) What are the dates of such vehicle usages:

(b) I have no records of the specific instances nor do I recall the dates of such vehicle use. I do not believe, however, that I have used such vehicles since 1973.

usages?
(c) What is the approximate value of the vehicle

(c) I have no means of determining the value of such courtesy automobile usage.

(d) Provide a current mailing address for Mitchell Brothers and the name(s) of any officers who have assisted you in obtaining the use of automobiles.

(d) Mr. John Mitchell offered these personal services to me. His address is: Mitchell Motors, Inc., 341 Spring Street, N.W., Atlanta, Georgia 30308.

15. It has been reported that numerous organizations and individuals have provided to you air transportation to and from Georgia and around Georgia either on private planes or in the form of commercial airline tickets. For the period since January 1, 1968, furnish:

(a) the names of each person or entity and a current mailing address for each;

(b) the registered owner of any non-commercial planes used;

(c) the approximate value of each trip;

(d) the date of each trip;

(e) the purpose of each such trip.

(15) I have not maintained listings since January 1, 1968, concerning instances in which I may have used private air transportation to, from, and within Georgia or accepted commercial airline tickets. However, I have no specific recollection of having used such transportation in connection with campaign activities. I have not considered the acceptance of courtesy airline transportation not in connection with campaign activities to be within the scope of the Act.

The above answers present the relevant information I possess regarding your questions. I must reiterate that whatever errors may have occurred on my part or in the preparation of candidate reports on my behalf were the result of inadvertence or confusion concerning the requirements of the Act. No such errors were willful or intentional. Where errors have been discovered, attempts have been made to correct them.

Sincerely,

Herman E. Talmadge

RE: Your File (MUR 638-(78))

Dear Mr. Oldaker:

This will have reference to your letter of February 2, 1979 concerning the above captioned file. The assumption that Georgia Bankers Association might have violated certain provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act") is, we believe, incorrect. In May 1973 Georgia Bankers Association issued an invitation to Senator Herman Talmadge to take part on the program of its convention in May. Senator Talmadge accepted the invitation and addressed those in attendance on Monday, May 14, 1973. Enclosed herewith is a copy of the program for that convention.

We agreed to pay Senator Talmadge an honorarium plus expenses. On May 18, 1973 two checks (Nos. 1226 and 1227) were issued to Herman E. Talmadge. Check No. 1226 in the amount of $150 was for travel and Check No. 1227 was for payment of his honorarium. Neither of these checks was in anyway to be construed as a campaign contribution.

We trust that the above information is sufficient to indicate that we have demonstrated that no action should be taken against Georgia Bankers Association. The enclosed program should be sufficient information to substantiate our belief; but if there is additional information which you feel should be submitted, let me know.

Very truly yours,

re: MUR 638 (78)

Dear Mr. Oldaker:

This letter and enclosed attachments are in response to your letter to me dated February 2, 1979, in which you indicated the Federal Election Commission ("the Commission") has found reason to believe that the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, ("the Act") may have been violated by:

(1) The Talmadge Campaign Committee by failing to report contributions which were deposited in the Riggs National Bank, Account #01-08-184-923, during 1973 and 1974; and

(2) the Talmadge Newsletter Fund by accepting three possibly prohibited contributions.

I appreciate your understanding of the circumstances which necessitated my delay in responding. I hope this response will answer the questions contained in your letter and will demonstrate that the Commission should take no action against me, the current Talmadge Campaign Committee, or the terminated Talmadge Newsletter Fund beyond providing assistance in correcting any unintentional errors that may have arisen through inadvertence or misunderstanding.

Riggs Account - Talmadge Campaign Committee

As you probably know, the Riggs account is currently under investigation by both the Justice Department and the Ethics Committee. These bodies have obtained various records as a result of their investigation and also have taken testimony or statements from certain parties whose funds were deposited in the Riggs account. Since their investigation of the Riggs account is ongoing, and since I have no records of the Riggs account, I must refer you to Ms. Kathy Voelker, Department of Justice, and Mr. Carl Eardley, Special Counsel to the Senate Ethics Committee regarding this matter. Please note that a public hearing on the Riggs account is scheduled for April by the Senate Ethics Committee.

Daniel Minchew served as Chairman of the Talmadge Campaign Committee from 1972 through October 24, 1974. All possible campaign contributions deposited in the Riggs account (#01-08-184-923, opened by Daniel Minchew) occurred during Mr. Minchew's tenure as Campaign Committee Chairman.

I served as Treasurer of the Talmadge Campaign Committee from December, 1973 to July, 1975 and from March, 1976 to present. In my capacity as Treasurer, I have always in effect served only as a bookkeeper. Mr. Minchew, as Chairman, was responsible for the management and fundraising efforts of the Talmadge Campaign Committee. I had no control whatsoever over Mr. Minchew's activities. Neither I nor the current Talmadge Campaign Committee was ever aware of the Riggs account or of any possible campaign funds which may have been deposited into such account until the existence of the account was discovered by the Justice Department and the Senate Ethics Committee. Under the circumstances, it would be grossly unfair for the Commission to take adverse action against me or the current Talmadge Campaign Committee for any matters relating to the Riggs account of which we had no knowledge and over which we had no control.

Talmadge Newsletter Fund

At the outset of this response regarding the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, I want to emphasize that neither I, the current Talmadge Campaign Committee, nor the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, which was terminated in 1977, has ever consciously or intentionally violated the Act or the Commission's regulations. We have always attempted in good faith to operate and publicly disclose in compliance with the spirit and substance of what have proven to be often confusing, technical, and changing requirements of the federal election campaign laws and Senate Rules. The Talmadge Newsletter Fund registered as if it was a "political committee" and filed reports in a timely manner. The reports fully disclose all donors to and expenditures by the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. In all candor, we cannot help but wonder why we did not receive guidance in years past if our disclosed practices on their face were clearly deficient.

83040412300

William C. Oldaker, Esquire
March 14, 1979

The Talmadge Newsletter Fund was established in August, 1975 and terminated in July, 1977 at the initiation of T. Rogers Wade, Administrative Assistant to Senator Herman E. Talmadge. Mr. Wade served as Chairman of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Ms. Rita Hubler served as Treasurer of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund from August, 1975 until March 9, 1976. I served as Treasurer from March 9, 1976 until the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was terminated in July, 1977.

As explained by Mr. Wade in his affidavit, (Appendix A), the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was established and administered as an office account for the purpose of receiving and disbursing funds donated to help defray newsletter and other office-related communication expenses incurred by the office of Senator Herman E. Talmadge. All receipts and disbursements of the account were for office-related communication expenses. The Talmadge Newsletter Fund neither accepted nor expended funds for the purpose of influencing the reelection of Senator Talmadge.

Although the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was not established or administered for campaign purposes, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund nonetheless was registered and reported as if it was a "political committee" because that was how its officers in good faith thought such an office-related account was required to be reported. In his affidavit (Appendix A), Mr. Wade explains how and why the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was created and reported.

The Act on its face clearly appears to allow a federal elected official to accept funds not in connection with a federal election from individuals and corporations for office support purposes. It is my understanding that a number of Senate offices had such accounts. However, there was widespread confusion concerning the treatment of office accounts under the Act during the 1975-1977 period when the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was created and operated. The Commission's frequently changing treatment of office accounts during 1975-1976 -- for example, that office account expenditures were automatically campaign expenditures; office account expenditures were campaign expenditures during the year of election; and then office account expenditures were campaign expenditures only if made "for the purpose of influencing" a federal election -- demonstrates the unsettled and confusing state of the law at that time. The Commission also stated in September, 1975, that a Congressional office account should be reported "as if" it was a "political committee." We were unaware of any other forms and procedures for reporting such accounts as required by law. I believe all of this confirms Mr. Wade's recollections as to the registration and reporting status of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund.

A total of $4801 was received in donations to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Newsletter and other office-related communication expenses were expended in the amount of $1961.51. As noted above, all donations and expenditures were fully and publicly disclosed in the reports filed by the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Pursuant to Rule 46 of Senate Resolution 110 adopted by the Senate on April 1, 1977, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was terminated on July 10, 1977. Funds in the amount of $2,839.49 were transferred to the Talmadge Campaign Committee on June 17, 1977. The intention of the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was that the remaining $2,839.49 would be disbursed from the Talmadge Campaign Committee account for newsletter or other office-related expenses which would be incurred after June 17, 1977. It was the good faith understanding of the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund that the transfer and expenditure of the remaining funds for office-related expenses was in compliance with the "funds donated" provisions of 11 C.F.R. Sec. 113 and the Senate Rules.

As Rogers Wade explained in his affidavit (Appendix A), the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund interpreted the "funds donated" provision of the Commission regulations, 11 C.F.R. Sec. 113.1(a), to include the funds donated to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Further, as "funds donated" we understood that Sec. 113 required that any such funds were to be deposited into: "(a) An account of the officeholder's principal campaign committee or other authorized committee pursuant to Part 103, or (b) an office account," pursuant to 11 C.F.R. Sec. 113.3.

To comply with the newly approved Senate rule abolishing office accounts, and to continue to comply with 11 C.F.R. Sec. 113.3, it was the belief of the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund that the proper action was to deposit any remaining "funds donated" in the Talmadge Newsletter Fund account into the Talmadge Campaign Committee account. There was no intention to use any funds transferred from the Talmadge Newsletter Fund to the Talmadge Campaign Committee in connection with a federal election. Therefore, it was our understanding that we were in conformity with the requirements of 11 C.F.R. Sec. 113.5(b). A review of the expenditures of the Talmadge Campaign Committee since June 17, 1977, shows that funds well in excess of $2,839.49 have been expended for newsletter printing and other office-related expenses not in connection with a federal election. We sincerely believe, therefore, that the transfer of funds from the Talmadge Newsletter Fund to the Talmadge Campaign Committee, which was fully disclosed in the reports of both the Talmadge Newsletter Fund and the Talmadge Campaign Committee, and the use of such transferred funds to defray ordinary and necessary expenses in the office of Senator Herman E. Talmadge, not in connection with a federal election, comply with the spirit and specifics of 11 C.F.R. Sec. 113.

The officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund used several criteria to determine whether a particular receipt should be deposited and reported as a donation to the fund. These criteria included:

- (1) Information received from individuals indicating that a particular receipt was for the purpose of defraying newsletter or other office-related communication expenses.
- (2) Oral or written communications accompanying donations which would indicate that such donations were intended for the purpose of defraying newsletter or other office-related communication expenses.
- (3) The payee listed on a check was "the Talmadge Newsletter Fund."

Five contributions to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund were associated with speeches given by Senator Talmadge. The following summary outlines the circumstances surrounding these donations to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund:

CONTRIBUTOR	AMOUNT
Southern Wholesalers Association	$500

Senator Talmadge was invited to speak to the Southern Wholesalers Association ("the Association") in Atlanta, Georgia. The Association contacted Mr. Rogers Wade, Administrative Assistant to Senator Talmadge, to discuss arrangements for the speech and offered an honorarium of $1,500. Mr. Wade informed the Association that Senator Talmadge would accept the invitation to speak to the Association, but that he would only accept an honorarium of $1,000, pursuant to the Senate Rules. Mr. Wade also informed the Association that if it wished, it could make a contribution to an office account, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office-related communication expenses. Mr. Wade informed the Association that Senator Talmadge's speech was not contingent on a contribution to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund and that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was not a campaign account. Senator Talmadge addressed the Association in March, 1975, and received a $1,000 honorarium. The Association also made a donation in the amount of $500 to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund by check made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Since it was the understanding of the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund that the Association offered and intended the $500 as a donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office-related communication expenses, it was treated as such.

National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives $250

Mr. Lawrence Earls, personal accountant for Senator Herman E. Talmadge, invited Senator Talmadge to speak to the National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives ("the Society"). No honorarium was offered as consideration for the speech. Senator Talmadge agreed to speak to the Society as a personal favor to Mr. Earls. At a later date, the society forwarded a donation of $250 to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund by check made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. (See attached letter accompanying contribution from Mr. C. E. Smith, dated September 3, 1975, Appendix E). From conversations with Mr. Earls and the correspondence received from Mr. Smith, it was the understanding of the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund that the Society intended the $250 as a donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office-related communication expenses, and it was treated as such.

David Murchison $1,000

Senator Herman E. Talmadge was invited to speak to the Ceramic Tile Manufacturers Association ("the Association"). Ms. Rita Hubler, who made the scheduling arrangements for this speech, advised the Association representative that Senator Talmadge would not accept an honorarium. She also noted that while the Senator's appearance was not contingent on a donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, the Association might wish to make a voluntary donation to this fund, which was an office account, not a campaign account, for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office-related communications expenses. Subsequently, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund received a personal check from David Murchison, an Association representative, in the amount of $1,000 made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. It was the understanding of the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund that this money was offered and intended to be a donation to the fund for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office-related communications expenses, and it was treated as such.

Federal Land Bank of St. Louis $1,000

Senator Herman E. Talmadge was invited to be a speaker at the annual stockholders' meeting of the Federal Land Bank of St. Louis

83040412305

("the Bank"). Arrangements for this speech were made by Ms. Rita Hubler. Ms. Hubler informed an official of the Bank that Senator Talmadge would not accept an honorarium. She stated that the Bank might wish to consider making a voluntary donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, which was an office account, not a campaign account, for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office-related communications expenses, although the Senator's appearance was not contingent on such a donation. It was Ms. Hubler's understanding that the Bank would like to make such a donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. A check was subsequently received from the Bank in the amount of $1,000 made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Based upon Ms. Hubler's earlier discussion with the Bank representative, the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund understood that the $1,000 check was intended as a donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office-related communications expenses, and it was treated as such.

William J. Colley

$1,000

Senator Herman E. Talmadge was invited to speak to the Cardio-Pulmonary Doctors' Association and Mr. Rogers Wade, administrative assistant to Senator Talmadge, made the scheduling arrangements for this speech with Mr. William Colley. Mr. Wade explained to Mr. Colley that the Senator would not accept an honorarium. He also advised Mr. Colley that if the organization wanted to make a voluntary donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, which was an office account, not a campaign account, for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office-related communications expenses, they could do so, but the Senator's appearance would not be contingent on such a donation. It was Mr. Wade's understanding from Mr. Colley that he would like to make a $1,000 donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office-related communications expenses. Based upon Mr. Wade's discussion with Mr. Colley, the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund understood that Mr. Colley's personal check for $1,000 made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was intended as a donation to the fund for such purposes, and it was treated as such.

In concluding this summary of the circumstances surrounding the receipt of the donations to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund in question, I must reemphasize that Ms. Hubler and Mr. Wade always expressly stated that the Senator would not accept an honorarium (other than the $1,000 honorarium from the Southern Wholesalers Association), that the person or organization involved might choose to make a voluntary donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, which was an office account, not a campaign account, for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office-related communications expenses, and that the Senator's appearance was not contingent on such a donation. The intention of Ms. Hubler and Mr. Wade in making these specific explanations was to prevent any misunderstanding from arising regarding the nature or treatment of any funds received by the Talmadge Newsletter Fund.

- (b) See affidavit of Ms. Rita Hubler.
- (3) (a) These funds were in the form of personal checks made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund and were received, deposited, and treated by the Talmadge Newsletter Fund as office account donations made for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office-related communication expenses. (See outline of circumstances regarding Colley and Murchison donations in (2)(1).)
- (b) The checks were made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund and were drawn on the personal accounts of Mr. Murchison and Mr. Colley.
- (4) See previous Riggs account discussion above.

In summary, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund attempted to comply with the primary purpose of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, of full disclosure of the financial activities of elected federal officials. I would like to reemphasize the fact that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was established and administered for the sole purpose of defraying newsletter and other office-related expenses incurred by the office of Senator Herman E. Talmadge, as a service to the people of Georgia. All receipts and expenditures were fully disclosed by the Talmadge Newsletter Fund in a manner the officers of the fund believed in good faith to be in compliance with the requirements of the Act and Commission guidelines.

I hope the Commission will deem it inappropriate to take any further action against the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, the current Talmadge Campaign

STATEMENT OF T. ROGERS WADE
REGARDING THE ESTABLISHMENT AND ADMINISTRATION
OF THE TALMADGE NEWSLETTER FUND
(APPENDIX A)

In the spring of 1975, after conversations with staff members and other Senate offices, I decided to establish a "newsletter fund" to assist in defraying constituent communication related expenses in the office of Senator Herman E. Talmadge. After consultation with staff members of the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee, it was determined that we could establish such a fund as an "office account" which could be used to pay newsletter and other constituent services expenses incurred by our office.

By phone, I requested the counsel for the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee to supply me and Ms. Rita Hubler with the necessary information as to how to set up such an account. It is my recollection that we received some information which outlined the procedures we should follow. I do not recall precisely what the instructions for registering and reporting this account were, although I do remember we finally decided, since no other reporting forms were available, such an "office account" should use the registration and reporting forms used by campaign committees. The Talmadge Newsletter Fund was registered in August 1975, with myself as Chairman and Ms. Rita Hubler as Treasurer.

From time to time, various individuals made donations to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund which was maintained at the Citizens State Bank of Butler, in Butler, Georgia. Sometimes I would be asked by constituents and friends how they could best help the Senator do his job of communicating with the people of Georgia. On several occasions, when I was asked, I explained the heavy expenditure which was required to maintain our newsletter and other communication efforts and, as a result, some people sometimes made donations to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. At no time was it ever considered by me, Ms. Hubler, or Senator Talmadge to be a campaign account. It was to merely offset the expenditures which are inherent in the operation of a large constituent service oriented office. The expenditure records of the account will show that all expenditures went toward this end and that no campaign use was ever made of these funds.

On occasion, Senator Talmadge would receive invitations for speaking engagements which he would accept but where he would not accept an honorarium in conjunction with his speech. In such instances, I instructed Ms. Rita Hubler, Senator Talmadge's appointments secretary, to inform the sponsoring organization that the Senator would not accept an honorarium but that if the organization wished to do so, it might make a voluntary donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, an office account for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other expenses incurred in the operation of the office of Senator Talmadge. Ms. Hubler was also instructed to make clear to the organization that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was not a campaign account and that in no instance would Senator Talmadge's speech be conditioned on a donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. The purpose of my directions to Ms. Hubler was to insure that any possible donor to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund understood that the fund was an office rather than campaign account and that any donation to the fund should be for the purpose of defraying newsletter or other ordinary expenses incurred by Senator Talmadge's office.

In 1975, a representative of the Southern Wholesalers Association ("the Association") contacted me to invite Senator Talmadge to speak to the Association in Atlanta, Georgia. I was informed that the Association would like to give Senator Talmadge a $1500 honorarium for his appearance. Senator Talmadge accepted the invitation and I notified the Association that Senator Talmadge had agreed to address the group but would accept an honorarium of only $1000 pursuant to the Senate Rules. I informed the Association representative, however, that an office account, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, was being established for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses. I noted that a voluntary donation to the fund would be welcomed but that Senator Talmadge's speech was not contingent on such a donation. I explained that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was not a campaign account. I understood from this discussion that the Association wished to make a donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, and the Association forwarded a $500 donation in the form of a check made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Based on my discussion with the Association representative the $500 was received and treated by the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund as a donation for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses.

I also made the scheduling arrangements for Senator Talmadge's speech before the Cardio-Pulmonary Doctors Association with Mr. William Colley. I explained to Mr. Colley that Senator Talmadge would not accept an honorarium to speak to the doctors group, but I informed him of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund and told him the officers of the fund would welcome any voluntary donation to the fund for the purpose of helping defray newsletter and other office-related expenses, but that Senator Talmadge's speech would not be conditioned on such a donation. I explained to Mr. Colley that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was not a campaign account and would not accept campaign contributions for the purpose of influencing the election of Senator Talmadge. From our discussion, it was my understanding that Mr. Colley wished to make a $1000 donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund for defraying office-related expenses. The officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund received Mr. Colley's personal check made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund and treated it as an office account donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund.

When the rules of the Senate were changed in April 1977, abolishing office accounts, I instructed Ms. Allyne Tisdale, the new Treasurer of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, to close the account and deposit the remaining funds in the Talmadge Campaign Committee account which was kept at the National Savings and Trust Bank, Washington, D.C. My thinking was that the remaining funds in the account would continue to be spent for newsletter or other office-related expenses as was allowed by the Senate Rules and the "funds donated" provision of the Commission regulations.

My interpretation of Sec. 113 of the Commission regulations was that funds in the Talmadge Newsletter Fund account were "funds donated" as outlined in Sec. 113.1(a). Since office accounts were being abolished under the Senate Rules, it was my understanding that the proper procedure for compliance with Sec. 113.3 was to deposit any remaining funds in the Talmadge Newsletter Fund account into the Talmadge Campaign Committee account. Since there was no intention to use any of the transferred funds in connection with a federal election, it was my interpretation that the transfer would not be a violation of Sec. 113.5(b). There was certainly no intention to circumvent the rules of the Federal Elections Commission. This is evidenced, in my opinion, by the full disclosure reporting of this account as well as the reporting by the Talmadge Campaign Committee of the receipt of the transferred funds in a forthright and timely manner.

In summation, the account was set up and managed under my direction to defray normal operating expenses of Senator Talmadge's office, primarily newsletter related expenses. At no time was there ever any intention of using this fund to conceal campaign contributions or honoraria. This, of course, is evidenced by the full reporting of all receipts and by the records of the expenditures which were made from that account. Any possible mistake in filing, or ultimate disposition of funds was my responsibility and at no time was Senator Talmadge consulted as to how to set up the account, where the account was set up, what particular funds should be placed in the account, or the ultimate disposition of the funds once the account was closed.

STATEMENT OF RITA HUBLER

During the time I served as Treasurer of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund from August 1975 until March 9, 1976, I was responsible for keeping records, making deposits, and filing reports for the Talmadge Newsletter Fund under the supervision and direction of T. Rogers Wade, Talmadge Newsletter Fund Chairman. It was always my understanding that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was an "office account" established for the purpose of receiving funds to cover newsletter and other office related expenses. As Treasurer, I never treated the Talmadge Newsletter Fund as a campaign account and I was under instructions from Mr. Wade to administer the fund only for newsletter and other constituent communication purposes. As appointments secretary, I often scheduled speaking engagements for Senator Talmadge. The following outlines my understanding of the circumstances surrounding the particular donations to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund in question:

Southern Wholesalers Association - March, 1975 - $500

A representative of the Southern Wholesalers Association ("the Association") contacted Mr. Rogers Wade to invite Senator Talmadge to speak to the Association in Atlanta, Georgia. I was informed by Mr. Wade that Senator Talmadge would accept the invitation and an honorarium of $1000. Mr. Wade also informed me that the Association would like to make a voluntary donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund in the amount of $500 for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses. Based on Mr. Wade's discussion with a representative of the Association, the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund received and treated the $500 as a donation to the fund for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses.

National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives -

---

Mr. Lawrence Earls invited Senator Talmadge to speak to the National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives ("the Society"). Senator Talmadge agreed to speak to this group as a personal favor to Mr. Earls. No honorarium was offered. At a later date, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund received a donation from the National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives in the amount of $250. Correspondence accompanying the donation clearly indicated that the $250 was donated by the Society to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses and was treated as such by the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund.

David Murchison - (Ceramic Tile Manufacturers Association) -
January 17, 1977 - $1000

---

Senator Talmadge received an invitation to speak to the Ceramic Tile Manufacturers Association ("the Association"). I made the arrangements for this speaking engagement. I informed a representative of the Association that Senator Talmadge would speak to the group but would not accept an honorarium. I explained that the Association might wish to make a voluntary donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, which was an office account, not a campaign account, for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses, but that Senator Talmadge's speech was not contingent on such a donation. Subsequently, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund received a personal check from David Murchison, a representative of the Association, in the amount of $1000. It was my understanding and the understanding of the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund that the check was intended as a donation to the fund for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses, and was received and treated as such.

Federal Land Bank of St. Louis, Mo. - March, 1977 - $1000

Senator Talmadge was invited to speak to the annual stockholders meeting of the Federal Land Bank of St. Louis ("the Bank"). Senator Talmadge accepted the invitation, and I made the arrangements for the speech with Mr. Glenn Heitz, President of the Bank. I informed Mr. Heitz that Senator Talmadge would not accept an honorarium for the speech, but I stated that the Bank might wish to make a voluntary donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, an office account, for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses, but that Senator Talmadge's speech was not contingent on such a donation. I also explained that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was not a campaign account. It was my understanding from my discussion with Mr. Heitz that the Bank wished to make a $1000 donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses. This donation, in the form of a check made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, was received and treated by the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund as a donation to the fund based on the officers' understanding that the Bank intended the $1000 as an office account donation for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses.

William J. Colley - (Cardio-Pulmonary Doctors Association) -
February 17, 1977 - $1000

Senator Talmadge was offered and accepted an invitation to speak to a meeting of the Cardio-Pulmonary Doctors Association ("the Association"). Scheduling for this speech was made by Mr. Rogers Wade. I was informed by Mr. Wade that Mr. Colley wished to make an office account donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund to defray newsletter and other office related communication expenses. The Talmadge Newsletter Fund received the personal check of Mr. Colley in the amount of $1000 made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, and based on Mr. Wade's conversation with Mr. Colley, the check was received and treated as a donation to the fund for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses.

In all the above instances where donations were made to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, it was my understanding that the sponsoring group intended the donation as an office account donation for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses incurred by the office of Senator Herman E. Talmadge. Based on Mr. Wade's instructions, I attempted to make clear in each instance that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was not a campaign account and that no speech given by Senator Talmadge was contingent on a donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, so that no misunderstanding would result as to the nature or treatment of any monies received by the Talmadge Newsletter Fund.

Dear Herman:

I deeply appreciate the refund on my contribution to your campaign last year. Frankly, instead of just telling you to keep it, I wanted to get the refund because I think it will be very helpful sometimes under certain conditions.

I know that you have extra expenses in sending our your bulletin, and things of that kind, so I am enclosing herewith another check for $250 which I hope will be helpful in that respect. I am not making it the exact amount of the refund because I did not want to tie them together.

You have furnished great leadership for agriculture, and all of us are deeply grateful.

Except as otherwise herein provided, items are received for deposit and collection subject to the provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code in effect in this State. This Bank may transmit any items for collection to any Federal Reserve Bank or any branch thereof, and such items shall be subject to the rules and regulations of the Federal Reserve Bank or of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System now or hereafter in force. Items drawn on, or payable to, or collectible through any local bank may be presented direct or through any local Clearing House bank, and will be subject to the rules and regulations of such Clearing House now or hereafter in force. This Bank will not be liable for default or negligence of its duly selected correspondents, for loss in transit, for losses resulting from employing circuitous routes for collection or for any other thing which it shall do in good faith in respect to handling any items and such correspondents as selected shall not be liable except for its own negligence. This Bank, or its correspondents, may send items, directly or indirectly, to any bank, including the payor, and accept in cash, check, or credit as conditional payment in lieu of cash. This Bank shall not be construed to have received items sent by mail for deposit and collection until the Bank has received actual delivery of the same from the United States Post Office.

The Depositor's statement, with canceled checks, will be ready for delivery on a date selected by the Bank or mutually agreed upon by the Bank and the Depositor, provided the account has been active in the month preceding that date. It shall be the duty of the Depositor to call and accept for such statement within a reasonable time thereafter. The Bank, in its discretion, may at any time mail such statement to the Depositor at the Depositor's address as it appears herein and the Depositor agrees to assume all responsibility for the safekeeping of statements and canceled checks so mailed and, if lost, to accept as correct the Bank's record of the account. It shall be the duty of the Depositor to carefully examine the statement and canceled checks and report to the Bank, within thirty days after the receipt of mailing of same, any errors, omissions, alterations, missing items, or discrepancies therein, and if no report is made within such time, the Depositor agrees to accept the stated balance as correct and to assume responsibility for, and hold the Bank harmless by reason of, the payment of any item reported in said account, and to release the Bank from all liability thereafter. The Depositor also agrees to return immediately to the Bank any checks which do not belong to him.

Bank in no case shall be responsible for or be subject to any liabilities to depositor other than those imposed upon it by law for its own lack of good faith or its own failure to exercise ordinary care. The obligation to exercise ordinary care in the handling of items, including stop payment requests, shall be measured by the standard of the reasonableness of the banking procedure established by the transaction involved, and more clerical error, inadvertence, or oversight without notice, or an honest mistake of judgment, shall not be or constitute as to any transaction a failure to perform such obligation or a failure to exercise ordinary care and in no case shall be deemed wrongful.

The depositor hereby authorizes the Bank, at anytime it deems itself insecure, or in case of the death or insolvency of the depositor, to charge or set off against any deposit of the depositor with the Bank any debts or obligations owing by the depositor to the Bank whether direct or indirect, secured or unsecured, absolute or contingent, joint or several, due or become due, whether as maker, endorser, guarantor, or otherwise, now existing or hereafter contracted or acquired by the Bank and wherever payable, and the interest thereon and expense, if any, which may be incurred by the Bank in connection therewith, and this agreement shall be construed to be the consent of the depositor to make such charge or set off against his/her/their account (s) if consent be required by any present or future statute or law.

Depositor may not stop payment of any cashier's or certified check. If depositor requests Bank to stop payment on any item, depositor agrees to furnish Bank with the exact amount, date, number, name of payee and such other information pertaining to said item as Bank may request, and failure to furnish such information shall relieve Bank of any liability for any payment made contrary to said request. Depositor agrees to reimburse Bank for all expenses and loss resulting from refusing payment pursuant to his order, or if by reason of such payment other checks drawn by the Depositor are returned unpaid because of insufficient funds. Bank shall be under no duty to comply with any stop payment request, or any renewal or revocation thereof, unless the same be given to Bank during regular banking hours and in such manner as to afford Bank a reasonable opportunity to act before the item is paid. Requests for stopped payment, and renewals or revocations of such requests (whether oral or written) shall also be subject to the same and conditions set forth in the request form then issued by the Bank. When the time limitation of the stop payment request has expired the Bank may pay the check without inquiry or notice to the Depositor. However, any check which is presented later than six months from the issue date thereof may be refused by the Bank as stale dated.

The Bank may, in its discretion, refuse to certify any check.

The Bank may charge a reasonable fee for collecting deposited items, for account maintenance (whether the account is active or dormant), for account activity, for overdrafts, for returning checks drawn against insufficient funds, for stop payment requests or renewals interest and for any unusual services rendered by the Bank in request to the Depositor's account. All fees may be deducted from the Depositor's account, and the Bank shall not be liable for dishonoring checks because of insufficient funds resulting from the deduction of such fees.

The account may be closed by the Bank at any time by mailing a notice to the Depositor with a check for the balance, and the Bank shall not be liable for refusing to pay any check presented after said account is so closed.

The Bank may refuse payment of any check drawn on the account other than a check which has been purchased from the Bank or has been approved by the Bank.

The Bank may refuse to honor any check signed in form which does not agree with name of account and the signature (s) on this card.

Changes in the terms of this Agreement may be made by the Bank from time to time and shall become effective upon the mailing of (a) the expiration of a thirty-day period of posting of such changes in the Bank, or (b) the mailing or delivery of notice thereof to the Depositor by enclosing the notice in the Depositor's monthly statement for one month.

This Agreement governs the transaction of business for this account, any contrary provision in the passbook or deposit slip notwithstanding.

Re: Federal Election Commission Letter to Southern Wholesalers Association, in re
MUR 638(78)

Dear Mr. Oldaker:

As a result of my conversation on April 5, 1979 with Ms. Deborah McFarland of your office, who is the attorney responsible for handling the above referenced matter, I am enclosing copies of correspondence from our client, Southern Wholesalers Association (the "Association") to the offices of United States Senator Herman E. Talmadge (Ga.) concerning the payment of certain monies for a speech given by him.

As explained to Ms. McFarland, the Association merely asked that Senator Talmadge speak at its annual convention to be held in Miami, Florida in March, 1975 and it was so agreed upon by his office, including the payment of an honorarium in the amount of $1,500 plus the Senator's expenses incurred for his appearance.

The Senator's speech was essentially made on the national general economy and was to a convention group which was comprised of the Association's membership from eight southern states and, additionally, many manufacturers representatives from throughout the country. Association members from Senator Talmadge's home state of Georgia represented less than five (5%) percent of the total in attendance.

After the speech and a request by the Senator's office for expenses incurred, Mr. Gary Buffington, then

83040412333

Mr. Oldaker

Administrative Assistant of Southern Wholesalers Association, forwarded the agreed upon honorarium of $1,500 to the Senator. Subsequently, the Senator's office, by telephone, requested that the fee be paid with two separate checks - one for $1,000 (plus airfare expenses) and another for $500 payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Realizing that $1,500 (plus expenses) was owed to Senator Talmadge as previously agreed upon, Mr. Buffington did as requested - merely assuming the Senator could direct how he wished to receive his money. Certainly Mr. Buffington neither then, nor now, had any reason to believe anything was being improperly done in the payment for Senator Talmadge's speech.

It was discussed with Ms. McFarland that, if necessary, Southern Wholesalers Association could take several legal positions on this matter. Such would include, among others, there being no active campaigning involved, no intent to influence any election or primary for a Senator which had just been elected several months before in 1974 (and who would not be eligible for reelection again until 1980) and who spoke only to a very small percentage of attendees from his home state, and the issue as to whether or not the Talmadge Newsletter Fund is a political committee within the terms of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971 (the "Act") or merely an administrative office account as has been contended. However, rather than raising these issues now, we thought it much more reasonable and practicable for all concerned that the very simple circumstances and actions surrounding this matter and total lack of any willful or knowing intent to possibly run afoul of the Act be presented to your office at this time.

If, after review of this matter and the circumstances surrounding the payment of the honorarium, we may be of further assistance to you or, if you reasonably believe that Southern Wholesalers Association may have violated the Act, please do not hesitate to contact me further.

Sincerely,

HEYMAN AND SIZEMORE

Dear Mr. Kelley:

SUBJECT: 413-6:MDK

Senator Herman Talmadge served as keynote speaker at the March 1975 Convention of the Southern Wholesalers Association held at the Fontainebleau Hotel in Miami Beach. We agreed in advance to provide him a honorarium of $1,500 plus expenses. Following the convention, Senator Talmadge's office requested we remit one check for $1,191.10 payable to him ($1,000 plus expenses of $191.10) and a check for $500 payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Enclosed are copies of the front and back of both checks.

The payment was obviously made in return for services rendered, ie speaking at the annual convention. I made the payment in my capacity as Treasurer of the Southern Wholesalers Association, a trade association. No other services were rendered by Senator Talmadge or his staff prior to ~~CA~~ following this payment. We have made no other payments of any kind to either the Talmadge Campaign Fund or the Talmadge Newsletter Fund.

Enclosed are copies of correspondence between our staff and Senator Talmadge's staff concerning his speaking at our convention and the honorarium payment.

The membership of the Southern Wholesalers Association very much appreciates your having taken the time from your busy schedule to address the Opening Session of their 47th Annual Convention. Your remarks were very timely and were in line with the theme of this convention. Your message was one which has significance to the small businessman, and we heard a number of comments on the effectiveness of your talk.

Mr. Bob Holman and I very much enjoyed meeting you, and our conversations with you were extremely interesting.

If you will provide us an indication of your expenses, we will be happy to mail your expense reimbursement along with the agreed upon honorarium.

Dear Senator Talmadge:

We were pleased to learn from Mr. Carter Horne, President of the Southern Wholesalers Association, that you will be available to keynote the Opening Session of our 47th Annual Convention on Monday, March 17, 1975 at the Fontainebleau Hotel in Miami Beach, Florida. I am sure that you will make this session an extremely valuable one for our delegates and we look forward to your remarks.

The session will get underway at 9:30 A.M. and you will be speaking at approximately 10:45 A.M. A talk of 20-25 minutes duration would be preferred followed by questions from the audience if you are agreeable. The general subject of the state of the economy and your analysis of the effect of new federal programs in the area of moderating the effects of inflation, would be a timely keynote speech topic.

It would be extremely helpful if within the next 4-6 weeks you can provide me a picture and biographical material for use in our promotional materials. I would also appreciate receiving the title of your speech about 6 weeks before the convention so that it might be printed in our program.

Based on discussions with your staff, we assume that a $1500 honorarium plus expenses to include your wife or an aide will be acceptable. We are hopeful that you will be able to arrive the evening prior to this session and that you will be able to join our officers and other special guests for a dinner on Sunday evening, March 16.

I will look forward to hearing from you concerning these matters.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. McFarland:

Reference the $250 check paid to Senator Talmadge for his luncheon address at the 1975 annual convention.

Enclosed is a copy of our Bylaws. Article I indicates that this organization is incorporated in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

I wish to assure you, without reservation, that the disbursement was intended as an honorarium and was not intended for any political purpose or to influence any election in any way whatsoever.

In working with program chairmen over the past two years, I can assure you that their concern and fee payments have always been intended as honorariums. There has not been one single instance when payments to political figures or office holders has arisen. Most certainly, the subject of elections or political influence has never even been raised, much less been the subject of discussion.

The correspondence relating to the 1975 convention is not available. However, I will make every attempt to obtain a copy of the letter of invitation and check.

Respectfully,

John B. Sperry, Ph.D., CPA

Section 3. The number of district directors shall be determined by the Board of Directors of NSAC at the time of the annual meeting of the membership, to be effective for election at the next succeeding annual meeting. In establishing the number of directors, one director is authorized for each district. Additional directors will be determined for districts as set forth below:

1. Calculate the percentage of total members by district, using a three-year moving average of the most recent three-year membership numbers.
2. One additional director is authorized for each district in which the number of members represents at least 10.00 percent of the total membership, as calculated under item 1 above.
3. Another additional district director is authorized for each additional 5.00 percent of total membership, calculated as indicated by items 1 and 2 above. For example, 10.00 percent would authorize one additional director, 15.00 percent would authorize two additional directors, and 20.00 percent would authorize three additional directors.
4. If there is a loss of an additional district director in any district because of a reduced percentage of membership, the reduction will be effective as of the next occurring end of term for an existing additional director for such district.

Section 4. At least 180 days prior to the annual meeting of NSAC, the secretary shall notify the applicable chapter presidents of forthcoming vacancies for the office of director within their respective district or districts and request that the chapter make one recommended nomination for each vacancy. If a district includes two or more chapters, the secretary of NSAC will accept the first director vacancy recommended nomination from the chapter having the greatest number of members and the next vacancy recommended nomination from the chapter(s) having the next greatest number(s) of members until each chapter has a recommended nominee for at least one director vacancy, thereby assuring that each chapter will have representation on the Board of Directors when the district qualifies for an additional director(s), before additional recommended nominations will be accepted from the same chapter(s) for other vacancies.

Section 5. At least 60 days prior to the annual meeting of NSAC, the president of each chapter desiring to make a nomination for director vacancy within the appropriate district shall notify the secretary of NSAC in writing of such chapter nomination.

Section 6. At least 45 days prior to the annual meeting of NSAC, the secretary shall prepare nominating ballots for each district in which there will be a vacancy and mail such ballot to qualified NSAC members in the district. The nominating ballot will include the nomination, if any, from each chapter and will include space for write-in of other nominees which members may desire to name. The member will be requested to indicate his nomination or approval of the chapter nomination prior to returning the ballot. All nominations must reach the secretary of NSAC at least 15 days prior to the specified annual meeting date. The nominee receiving the greatest number of nominations shall have his name placed in nomination by the secretary at the annual meeting of the members of NSAC. If nominees receive an equal number of nominations, both nominees will have their names placed in nomination.

Section 7. The nominee of each qualified district shall be elected at the annual meeting of NSAC for a three-year term. No director may be elected who has served six consecutive years on the Board of Directors until after the lapse of one or more years.

Section 8. In addition to district directors nominated and elected in accordance with the preceding sections, one director-at-large shall be nominated and elected from the qualified members at the annual meeting of the membership of NSAC. Directors-at-large shall be elected for three year terms. No director-at-large may be reelected who has served six consecutive years on the Board of Directors until after the lapse of one or more years.

Section 9. No two or more directors of NSAC shall be employed in the same office location of a common employer.

Section 10. When a vacancy in the Board of Directors occurs for reasons other than the expiration of a director's term of office, it may be filled by the Board of Directors from the membership in the district in which the vacancy occurs, for the remainder of the term of office of the director whose death, resignation, incapacity, or removal caused the vacancy.

RE: MUR 638 (78)

Dear Mr. Oldaker:

I am replying to your February 2, 1979 letter concerning our 1975 annual convention held in Atlanta during August 1975.

For your information, the office of the National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives was closed in Raleigh, NC, and opened in Richmond, VA on November 1, 1976, when I assumed the duties and responsibilities of secretary-treasurer.

I am writing to request that "no action" be taken against this organization for any violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, which may have occurred. My reasons for requesting "no action" are as follows:

1. Any violation which may have occurred was inadvertent on our part and in no way did we intend to commit any violation or illegality.

2. We solicit your concurrence that the amount was "immaterial" and urge you to find that the sum involved is sufficiently small so that it is readily apparent that this organization did not intend any statutory violation.

3. Our annual meetings are conducted by individual chapter members who hold full-time employment positions. They donate their time to conduct the convention which is sponsored by their chapter. Our annual meetings are rotated among chapters annually. Individuals who conduct the convention do it on a "one-shot" basis. They are neither familiar with the provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, nor do they possess detailed, in-depth knowledge of convention programs, speakers' arrangements, etc. Thus, our actions were all taken in "good-faith."

4. Detailed financial records are not available.

I have searched our files and am attaching the following:

1. A "true copy" of the financial statement submitted for the 1975 convention and extracted from our Minutes Record. This financial statement was presented to the Board of Directors at its mid-winter Board meeting in January 1976.

2. A copy of the program booklet for the 1975 convention. Please note that page two shows Senator Talmadge as our luncheon speaker.

I trust that you will find the above information satisfactory. I can assure you that this organization consists of individuals who are committed to and have a deep respect for upholding the law. In no way, do we or have we ever, intended to violate prevailing statutes. And, we regret that you have found it necessary to have contacted us regarding this matter.

Respectfully,

John B. Sperry, Ph.D., CPA

Re: MUR 638(78)

Dear Mr. Oldaker:

In compliance with your request in letter dated February 2, I am submitting a sworn statement from Glenn E. Heitz, president of The Federal Land Bank of St. Louis, setting out factual circumstances surrounding the $1,000 check this corporation made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund.

As is readily apparent from the statement, this payment was never intended to be a campaign contribution but rather to compensate the Senator for his appearance as the main speaker at our Annual Stockholders Meeting banquet. At the time of the delivery of the check, members of the bank's staff were unaware that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was a registered political committee. The fact that a member of the Senator's staff directed payment to the fund, gave such method of payment an air of legitimacy that tended to suppress inquiry. In reviewing the factual circumstances, however, we do not believe that the $1,000 payment represents a violation of 2 USC § 441b.

This situation along with the attendant publicity has proven embarrassing to this bank and therefore we hope for an expeditious disposition. I suggest that any future communications concerning this matter be directed to myself.

Yours Truly,

Walter C. Piefka
General Counsel

Glenn E. Heitz, first being duly sworn, on his oath states: That he is president of The Federal Land Bank of St. Louis, a federally chartered corporation, and as such is duly authorized to make this statement on behalf of said corporation; that on March 7, 1977, this corporation issued its check in the amount of $1,000 to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund (copy attached); that said check was given as payment for the appearance of Senator Talmadge as a banquet speaker in connection with the annual stockholder meeting of The Federal Land Bank of St. Louis on the same date (copy of program attached); that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was made payee of the check at the direction of Senator Talmadge's secretary, a Ms. Hubler; that neither he nor any member of his staff were aware that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was a registered political committee; that on March 7, he delivered the check personally to Senator Talmadge; that other speakers were likewise compensated for their appearance on the program of the annual meeting; and that the amount of compensation paid any individual speaker depended on the prominence of the speaker and his contribution to the program.

Re: MUR 638 (78)
Letter February 2, 1978

Dear Mr. Oldaker,

With reference to your letter mentioned above, I am certainly unaware that I have violated any provisions of any act or law. I don't know what 2 U.S.C. 4416 (18 U.S.C. 610) is or refers to, but I assume by your letter an in kind contribution of the loan of an automobile is what is in violation.

You will find enclosed copies of correspondence concerning the loan of an auto from the Georgians For Talmadge Committee. Please note that this correspondence directed me to fill out a pledge sheet for which I did and returned to the committee. If inadvertently, the pledge sheet was improperly filled out, I was never notified to correct this by the committee. I would have been more than glad to have signed this pledge personally if I had been advised to do so. Regardless of the signed pledge there was never any money paid towards this pledge except the use of the auto which was purchased for $4330.00 (copies enclosed) and when returned was sold for $4395.00 (copies enclosed) giving a profit and taxable gain of $65.00 to the corporation. Consequently, there was no monetary pledge given at all and in essence there was actually a gain or profit of $65.00

If the Federal Election Commission feels I am in violation of some act or law, I respectfully request that no penalty or action be taken against me or my corporation. If I can be of any futher assistance or if additional information is needed, please advise me.

Sincerely,

John B. Prince III

Dear John:

The car is excellent. Senator Talmadge and I put nearly 500 miles on it over the weekend - but fortunately he went back to Washington yesterday morning!

It is a tremendous help to a heavily-burdened campaign to have friends such as yourself, whose support is most tangible. The Senator is most appreciative, as I am sure he will express to you personally in the near future.

Enclosed is the insurance information you requested. If you could send me the monthly rental charge on the enclosed pledge sheet, along with the indicated information, it will keep us clear with the "powers that be". Thank you again for your kindness. Look forward to seeing you soon.

Re: MUR 638(78)

Dear Mr. Oldaker:

I have received your two letters of February 2, 1979 inquiring about an in-kind contribution of office space to Georgians for Talmadge in 1974.

From approximately January 2, 1974 to approximately November 31, 1974, I made in-kind contributions of office space in the Healey Building in Atlanta, Georgia. These were personal, not corporate, contributions by me.

From January 2, 1974 until August 14, 1974, the Healey Building was owned by myself (50 percent) and Morris B. Abram (50 percent) as tenants-in-common. My contributions were made by an individual as a tenant-in-common. From August 14, 1974, the Healey Building was owned by myself (50 percent) and Atlanta News Agency (50 percent) as tenants-in-common. Again, my contributions were made by an individual as a tenant-in-common.

I am enclosing copies of documents which establish the ownership of the Healey Building during the 4 Mr. Brademas. I am a little fuzzy on this part of the 5 amendment in which in the last sentence of your amendment,

6 you indicate in any case in which a corporation or labor organi-
7 zation establishes or finances or maintains or controls more than 8 one separate segregated fund, all such funds shall be treated
9 as a single segregated fund --

10 Chairman Hays. The aggregate amount the Steel Workers can 12 Mr. Brademas. Except that, to finish my question,

13 suppose you have a case in which a corporation or labor
14 organization doesn't establish or finance or maintain or control 15 the fund of a subsidiary, either of the corporation or of the 16 union. Is it not then the case --

18 Mr. Brademas. Can I finish my question? I have not been 19 able to finish my question.

20 I think what this amendment does, I just want to be 21 sure we all understand what we are doing, is it can permit two 22 contributions up to $5,000? That may or may not be a good

Re: MUR 638 (78)

Dear Ms. McFarland:

After returning to my office with Mr. Nields following the deposition in your office on April 13, I felt the need to double check the accuracy of the information I gave you during my deposition of last Friday. On Saturday morning, my secretary and I checked through some old trade association files and found that a little over four years ago I advanced an honorarium payment to Senator Talmadge in connection with an address he made to the annual convention of the Wallcovering Wholesalers Association (111 East Wacker Drive, Chicago, Illinois 60601) held in Miami, Florida.

I recall now that the Wallcovering Wholesalers Association had originally invited Congressman Wright Patman to give the keynote speech at the convention. Shortly before the convention, he became unable to keep the engagement due to conflicting commitments in the House of Representatives, and Senator Talmadge was asked to substitute for Congressman Patman and delivered the keynote speech.

HOWREY & SIMON

Deborah McFarland, Esquire

We were able to find a copy of the printed convention program, a copy of which is enclosed, which explains this substitution of speakers. Also enclosed are photocopies of the honorarium check and checkbook stub sheet. The amount of the honorarium was $1,000 reimbursed to me by the association, per Mr. J. D. Carey, Assistant Executive Director, following the convention.

I have no precise recollection of how Senator Talmadge was contacted or how my check was delivered to him. I have spoken today, however, to Mr. Carey and to Mr. Thomas J. Kelly about whom I testified on Friday. As nearly as I can recall, Mr. Carey asked me to obtain a substitute speaker and to pay him an honorarium. I contacted Mr. Kelly. As an accommodation to me, Mr. Kelly asked Senator Talmadge to substitute, and travelled with Senator Talmadge to the convention. I believe I then gave the check to Kelly who in turn must have given it to Senator Talmadge. I do now recall being part of a delegation which greeted Senator Talmadge briefly shortly before he gave his address. Otherwise, I recall no personal contact with him.

While your subpoena did not call for the above information, I recollect that, on April 13, you or Mr. Oldaker, either on or off the record, inquired whether I had made any other payments to Senator Talmadge. I did not remember this earlier occasion at the time, and it was not covered by the time period or specifications in the subpoena or by our file search.

Please let me or Mr. Nields know if you desire any further information or clarification. In the interest of accuracy, I assume this letter will serve to correct any misimpression I may have given you, and I would have no objection to adding it as an exhibit, if you wish, or to resuming the deposition.

Please be assured of our desire to cooperate with you and your office.

Very truly yours,

Re: Federal Election Commission Letter to Southern Wholesalers Association, in re
MUR 638(78)

Dear Mr. Oldaker:

As a result of my conversation on April 5, 1979 with Ms. Deborah McFarland of your office, who is the attorney responsible for handling the above referenced matter, I am enclosing copies of correspondence from our client, Southern Wholesalers Association (the "Association") to the offices of United States Senator Herman E. Talmadge (Ga.) concerning the payment of certain monies for a speech given by him.

As explained to Ms. McFarland, the Association merely asked that Senator Talmadge speak at its annual convention to be held in Miami, Florida in March, 1975 and it was so agreed upon by his office, including the payment of an honorarium in the amount of $1,500 plus the Senator's expenses incurred for his appearance.

The Senator's speech was essentially made on the national general economy and was to a convention group which was comprised of the Association's membership from eight southern states and, additionally, many manufacturers representatives from throughout the country. Association members from Senator Talmadge's home state of Georgia represented less than five (5%) percent of the total in attendance.

After the speech and a request by the Senator's office for expenses incurred, Mr. Gary Buffington, then

9304041239

Mr. Oldaker

Administrative Assistant of Southern Wholesalers Association, forwarded the agreed upon honorarium of $1,500 to the Senator. Subsequently, the Senator's office, by telephone, requested that the fee be paid with two separate checks - one for $1,000 (plus airfare expenses) and another for $500 payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Realizing that $1,500 (plus expenses) was owed to Senator Talmadge as previously agreed upon, Mr. Buffington did as requested - merely assuming the Senator could direct how he wished to receive his money. Certainly Mr. Buffington neither then, nor now, had any reason to believe anything was being improperly done in the payment for Senator Talmadge's speech.

It was discussed with Ms. McFarland that, if necessary, Southern Wholesalers Association could take several legal positions on this matter. Such would include, among others, there being no active campaigning involved, no intent to influence any election or primary for a Senator which had just been elected several months before in 1974 (and who would not be eligible for reelection again until 1980) and who spoke only to a very small percentage of attendees from his home state, and the issue as to whether or not the Talmadge Newsletter Fund is a political committee within the terms of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971 (the "Act") or merely an administrative office account as has been contended. However, rather than raising these issues now, we thought it much more reasonable and practicable for all concerned that the very simple circumstances and actions surrounding this matter and total lack of any willful or knowing intent to possibly run afoul of the Act be presented to your office at this time.

If, after review of this matter and the circumstances surrounding the payment of the honorarium, we may be of further assistance to you or, if you reasonably believe that Southern Wholesalers Association may have violated the Act, please do not hesitate to contact me further.

Sincerely,

HEYMAN AND SIZEMORE

Dear Senator Talmadge:

83040412339
The membership of the Southern Wholesalers Association very much appreciates your having taken the time from your busy schedule to address the Opening Session of their 47th Annual Convention. Your remarks were very timely and were in line with the theme of this convention. Your message was one which has significance to the small businessman, and we heard a number of comments on the effectiveness of your talk.

Mr. Bob Holman and I very much enjoyed meeting you, and our conversations with you were extremely interesting.

If you will provide us an indication of your expenses, we will be happy to mail your expense reimbursement along with the agreed upon honorarium.

Dear Senator Talmadge:

We were pleased to learn from Mr. Carter Horne, President of the Southern Wholesalers Association, that you will be available to keynote the Opening Session of our 47th Annual Convention on Monday, March 17, 1975 at the Fontainebleau Hotel in Miami Beach, Florida. I am sure that you will make this session an extremely valuable one for our delegates and we look forward to your remarks.

The session will get underway at 9:30 A.M. and you will be speaking at approximately 10:45 A.M. A talk of 20-25 minutes duration would be preferred followed by questions from the audience if you are agreeable. The general subject of the state of the economy and your analysis of the effect of new federal programs in the area of moderating the effects of inflation, would be a timely keynote speech topic.

It would be extremely helpful if within the next 4-6 weeks you can provide me a picture and biographical material for use in our promotional materials. I would also appreciate receiving the title of your speech about 6 weeks before the convention so that it might be printed in our program.

Based on discussions with your staff, we assume that a $1500 honorarium plus expenses to include your wife or an aide will be acceptable. We are hopeful that you will be able to arrive the evening prior to this session and that you will be able to join our officers and other special guests for a dinner on Sunday evening, March 16.

I will look forward to hearing from you concerning these matters.

Sincerely,

Re: MUR 638(78)

Dear Mr. Oldaker:

I have received your two letters of February 2, 1979 inquiring about an in-kind contribution of office space to Georgians for Talmadge in 1974.

From approximately January 2, 1974 to approximately November 31, 1974, I made in-kind contributions of office space in the Healey Building in Atlanta, Georgia. These were personal, not corporate, contributions by me.

From January 2, 1974 until August 14, 1974, the Healey Building was owned by myself (50 percent) and Morris B. Abram (50 percent) as tenants-in-common. My contributions were made by an individual as a tenant-in-common. From August 14, 1974, the Healey Building was owned by myself (50 percent) and Atlanta News Agency (50 percent) as tenants-in-common. Again, my contributions were made by an individual as a tenant-in-common.

I am enclosing copies of documents which establish the ownership of the Healey Building during the

Re: MUR 638(78)

Dear Mr. Oldaker:

I have received your two letters of February 2, 1979 inquiring about an in-kind contribution of office space to Georgians for Talmadge in 1974.

From approximately January 2, 1974 to approximately November 31, 1974, I made in-kind contributions of office space in the Healey Building in Atlanta, Georgia. These were personal, not corporate, contributions by me.

From January 2, 1974 until August 14, 1974, the Healey Building was owned by myself (50 percent) and Morris B. Abram (50 percent) as tenants-in-common. My contributions were made by an individual as a tenant-in-common. From August 14, 1974, the Healey Building was owned by myself (50 percent) and Atlanta News Agency (50 percent) as tenants-in-common. Again, my contributions were made by an individual as a tenant-in-common.

I am enclosing copies of documents which establish the ownership of the Healey Building during the

Re: Federal Election Commission Letter to Southern Wholesalers Association, in re
MUR 638(78)

Dear Mr. Oldaker:

As a result of my conversation on April 5, 1979 with Ms. Deborah McFarland of your office, who is the attorney responsible for handling the above referenced matter, I am enclosing copies of correspondence from our client, Southern Wholesalers Association (the "Association") to the offices of United States Senator Herman E. Talmadge (Ga.) concerning the payment of certain monies for a speech given by him.

As explained to Ms. McFarland, the Association merely asked that Senator Talmadge speak at its annual convention to be held in Miami, Florida in March, 1975 and it was so agreed upon by his office, including the payment of an honorarium in the amount of $1,500 plus the Senator's expenses incurred for his appearance.

The Senator's speech was essentially made on the national general economy and was to a convention group which was comprised of the Association's membership from eight southern states and, additionally, many manufacturers representatives from throughout the country. Association members from Senator Talmadge's home state of Georgia represented less than five (5%) percent of the total in attendance.

After the speech and a request by the Senator's office for expenses incurred, Mr. Gary Buffington, then

83040412409

Mr. Oldaker

Administrative Assistant of Southern Wholesalers Association, forwarded the agreed upon honorarium of $1,500 to the Senator. Subsequently, the Senator's office, by telephone, requested that the fee be paid with two separate checks - one for $1,000 (plus airfare expenses) and another for $500 payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Realizing that $1,500 (plus expenses) was owed to Senator Talmadge as previously agreed upon, Mr. Buffington did as requested - merely assuming the Senator could direct how he wished to receive his money. Certainly Mr. Buffington neither then, nor now, had any reason to believe anything was being improperly done in the payment for Senator Talmadge's speech.

It was discussed with Ms. McFarland that, if necessary, Southern Wholesalers Association could take several legal positions on this matter. Such would include, among others, there being no active campaigning involved, no intent to influence any election or primary for a Senator which had just been elected several months before in 1974 (and who would not be eligible for reelection again until 1980) and who spoke only to a very small percentage of attendees from his home state, and the issue as to whether or not the Talmadge Newsletter Fund is a political committee within the terms of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971 (the "Act") or merely an administrative office account as has been contended. However, rather than raising these issues now, we thought it much more reasonable and practicable for all concerned that the very simple circumstances and actions surrounding this matter and total lack of any willful or knowing intent to possibly run afoul of the Act be presented to your office at this time.

If, after review of this matter and the circumstances surrounding the payment of the honorarium, we may be of further assistance to you or, if you reasonably believe that Southern Wholesalers Association may have violated the Act, please do not hesitate to contact me further.

Sincerely,

HEYMAN AND SIZEMORE

MEMORANDUM TO: The Commission

FROM: William C. Oldaker

SUBJECT: Request for Authorization to issue subpoenas in MUR 638(78)

In the General Counsel's Report of December 29, 1978, before the Commission on January 25, 1979, the possibility of unreported honoraria receipts, deposited into the Talmadge Newsletter Fund ("TNF"), was discussed. In response to questions sent with regard to the TNF, it now appears that the funds received by the TNF of $1,000 each from William J. Culley and David C. Murchison were in connection with speeches the Senator made before the Cardio-Pulmonary Doctors' Association and the Ceramic Tile Manufacturers Association.

We believe that depositions and document production will help clarify the nature of these funds. Accordingly, we recommend that the Commission authorize the issuance of subpoenas for deposition and document production to the following individuals:

1. William J. Culley, Esq.

Washington, D. C. 20036

We appreciate your advising us that the response of the Southern Wholesalers Association will be forthcoming in the near future. With regard to your inquiry about the applicability of 2 U.S.C. § 455, I would briefly point out that it is the Commission's position that section 455 is directed at criminal prosecutions and not Commission investigations.

Dear Mr. Oldaker:

This letter is in response to your letter of February 2, 1979, in which you state that the Federal Election Commission ("the Commission") has found reason to believe that I may have violated certain provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, ("the Act") and the Commission's regulations.

I appreciate the Commission's understanding of the circumstances which required my request for an extension of time to respond to your questions.

Your letter indicated that several errors may have occurred in my past campaign activities and in the preparation of certain of my candidate reports. I do not personally prepare my candidate reports. I have delegated the duty of determining both the form and content of such reports and of advising me how to comply with the Act and regulations to the officers of the Talmadge Campaign Committee. Any errors or oversights which may have occurred were unintentional and arose through inadvertence or misunderstanding of the requirements of the Act and regulations by the officers of the Talmadge Campaign Committee who prepared such reports for my signature. Although I relied on their interpretation, I, of course, accept full responsibility for any errors. Further amendments to reports which may be required will be filed with the Commission as soon as possible, and the assistance of the Commission in helping correct any of these unintentional errors or oversights will be appreciated.

The failure to file candidate reports in 1972 and 1973 resulted from the good faith belief that I was not a "candidate" for reelection in the years in question and therefore no report was required. As explained in previous communications, there was general confusion among officers of the Talmadge Campaign Committee during 1972 and 1973 as to when "candidate" status actually began. Under Georgia law, an individual cannot qualify as a candidate until the year of the election. Since my reelection occurred in 1974, the officers of the Talmadge Campaign Committee and members of my staff reached the determination that I could not be considered a "candidate" until 1974 and, therefore, candidate reports in 1972 and 1973 would be inappropriate. In addition, as explained in my letter to you dated September 18, 1978 the officers of the TCC were uncertain whether many expenses incurred in connection with my Senate office should be considered "for the purpose of influencing" my reelection or whether they should be considered personal office expenses.

It was not until 1975 that the Talmadge Campaign Committee understood that it was acceptable to pay from the campaign account many office-related expenses previously paid from my Special Account. The Talmadge Campaign Committee then reimbursed me for the expenses, originally paid from the Special Account, which were determined to be properly payable from campaign funds. The 1975 reimbursements were disclosed in the Talmadge Campaign Committee reports.

In considering the other possible violations outlined in your letter, I believe that it is important to remember the general confusion which has existed regarding the scope and applications of the Act from its effective date in 1972 until, in many cases, the present time. Prior to the adoption of the Commission's regulations, there were no definitive guidelines on many questions, and confusion understandably resulted. This problem has been compounded in my office due to various changes in personnel and in the officers of the Talmadge Campaign Committee. (Daniel Minchew, Chairman, 1972 to October, 1974; T. Rogers Wade, Chairman, October, 1974, to present; Dathine Brunson, Treasurer, 1972 to December, 1973; Allyne Tisdale, Treasurer, December, 1973, to July, 1975; Rita Hubler, Treasurer, July, 1975, to March, 1976; Allyne Tisdale, Treasurer, March, 1976, to present.) The Commission's regulations, effective April, 1977, which often differ from its earlier proposed regulations, have made compliance with the Act much easier to understand. However, even the applicability of many of these regulations is still less than clear.

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS

(1) (a) You have listed five instances where expenditures were made from the Special Account which were not subsequently reflected as in my candidate reports as campaign expenditures. Since a reimbursement was made in each case to the Special Account by the Talmadge Campaign Committee and fully disclosed, the Talmadge Campaign Committee officers believed that it was not necessary to report these transactions as personal campaign expenditures. These costs were not borne by me, but rather by the Talmadge Campaign Committee, as reported. There was no net effect in any instance on the Special Account. The Talmadge Campaign Committee officers at that time did not believe it necessary or proper to report intermediate transactions involving the Special Account as candidate expenditure because the Talmadge Campaign Committee, not the candidate, fully assumed responsibility for these costs. In signing candidate reports prepared for me, I did not consider expenditures from the Special Account which were reimbursed by the Talmadge Campaign Committee to be personal campaign expenditures which were reportable. There was certainly no intent to conceal such expenditures, nor were they at any time concealed. The Talmadge Campaign Committee fully disclosed the reimbursements to the Special Account and the nature of the expenses for which the reimbursements were made. This disclosure by the Talmadge Campaign Committee complies with the current policy of the Commission that reimbursed candidate expenses need be disclosed only by the Campaign Committee.

(b) No. Nor were the expenditures claimed as deductions either.

(2) During 1975, an office account, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, was established for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office-related communication expenses. Prior to the establishment of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, donations which were not for campaign purposes, but which were expressly made to defray newsletter expenses, were deposited in the Special Account. Certain expenditures for newsletter expenses were made from this account. The following donations were given to defray newsletter expenses and were deposited in the Special Account for such use:

5-4-73	- Greater Atlanta Credit Union Chapter, Atlanta, Georgia	$250.00
5-24-73	- Georgia Bankers Association	150.00
3-12-74	- Vivian P. Gravette	5.00
3-25-74	- Mrs. F. M. Acres	3.00
11-20-74	- Vivian P. Gravette	5.00

In late 1974, when the officers of the Talmadge Campaign Committee determined which expenses incurred by the Special Account were properly reimbursable to me from the Talmadge Campaign Committee account, the $413 for newsletter expenses were deducted from my total expenditures for office-related and campaign expenses before the reimbursement was made. Although these donations for newsletter expenses were not intended or accepted as campaign contributions, to insure full disclosure, these donations were reported and itemized in my amended candidate reports as receipts for newsletter expenses.

A clerical error in the preparation of the September, 1978 amended reports filed by me and the Talmadge Campaign Committee was made regarding the Vivian P. Gravette donations. (See Appendix I) Attached are amended reports to correct this clerical error.

(4) On January 9, 1976, I traveled to Montgomery, Alabama at the invitation of the Alabama Rural Electric Association to receive their "Eminent Service Award" for 1976. I received no honorarium from the Alabama REA.

(5) No. As shown by Appendix II, the Parkinson Strong Priscock check was a reimbursement of travel expenses and an honorarium for my appearance at the Wheat Center U.S.A. banquet. This honorarium was reported in my Rule 42 filing as "Wheat Center U.S.A."

(6) I have been unable to discover any discrepancy between my Rule 42 report for 1976 and my answer to your previous question. Please refer again to my Rule 42 form for 1976, of which, copies of pertinent pages are attached. (Appendix III). If you still believe a discrepancy exists I would appreciate your providing me with the information on which you base your question.

(7) No. Please refer to my Rule 42 report for 1977, a copy of the pertinent page which is attached (Appendix IV) indicating a $1,000.00 honorarium from Health Industry Mfg. Association. I do not understand the basis for your question and I would appreciate any information you could provide which would help me understand your belief that no such honorarium was indicated.

(8) Each of the following amounts was a travel reimbursement received by me.

American Health Care

Deposited: 3/15/77 - $76.50

On February 11, 1977, I traveled to New Orleans, Louisiana, and gave speeches to the American College of Nuclear Physicians and the National Health Lawyers Association. I received a $1000.00 honorarium for each speech. See deposit slip from Special Account and summary of honoraria received contained in my 1977 Rule 42 report. (Appendix V).

Federal Land Bank of St. Louis

Deposited: 3/28/77 - $138.00

I traveled to St. Louis, Mo. and spoke to a meeting of the Federal Land Bank of St. Louis on March 7, 1977. I received no honorarium. The Federal Land Bank of St. Louis made a voluntary donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, an office account established in 1975, for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office-related communication expenses.

American Bakers Association

Deposited: 4/20/77 - $210.00

On March 28, 1977 I traveled to Miami, Florida, to address the American Bakers Association. I received no honorarium for this speech. I did, however, receive an honorarium for a luncheon appearance in 1978 from the American Bakers Association which will be reported in my 1978 Senate disclosure reports.

(9) The expenditures from the Special Account in 1975 to Carterfone Communication Corporation for equipment rental expenses were not campaign related expenses and were therefore not required to be reported by the Act. Equipment rental expenses are ordinary and necessary expenses incurred in the normal operation of my office and when paid from Talmadge Campaign Committee funds, such expenditures have been fully disclosed by the Talmadge Campaign Committee in compliance with the Act. For your information, my records show that payments to the Carterfone Communications Corporation for equipment rental from July 1 until December 31, 1975 totaled $121.80 not $573.40. My records indicate, however, $573.40 was expended for recording studio fees during this period.

(10) The expenditures from the Special Account in 1976 and 1977 to Sun Crown for newsletter expenses were not campaign related expenses and were therefore not required to be reported by the Act. Newsletter expenses are ordinary and necessary expenses incurred in the normal operation of my office, and when paid from Talmadge Campaign Committee funds, such expenditures have been fully disclosed by the Talmadge Campaign Committee in compliance with the Act.

(11) I refer you to the March 14, 1979 response of Ms. Allyne Tisdale to your letter concerning the now terminated Talmadge Newsletter Fund. I concur with the statements made by Ms. Tisdale, Mr. Rogers Wade, and Ms. Rita Hubler regarding the establishment and operation of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. I always understood and considered the Talmadge Newsletter Fund to be an office account, not a campaign account, established for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office-related communication expenses.

(12) In the past, I have been offered small, personal gifts of cash from friends and constituents in Georgia. Though I no longer accept these gifts when they are offered to me, it has long been customary in Georgia for people to offer such small, personal gifts to some public figures.

(a) I did not keep records of these small gifts and thus have no reasonable basis for reporting how much money I may have received since April, 1977.

(b)(1) Statements of this nature were made to me on occasion by persons offering me small gifts.

(ii) For whatever incidental personal expenses I might incur.

(c) I do not recall any specific questions I may have asked when I was offered these small personal gifts. There was never any doubt, however, but that they were intended for my own personal use. I did not consider these gifts to be either campaign contributions or "funds donated."

(13) Neither I nor my office maintain or have listings of courtesy lodging which I have received. The attached information was recently furnished by the American Motor Hotel in Atlanta for 1977 and 1978. This courtesy lodging was not in connection with my reelection campaign. When in Georgia, it was my practice to remain overnight in my home at Lovejoy whenever possible. On occasion I have stayed in the homes of members of my family and personal friends. Courtesy lodging at the American Motor Hotel was offered for my personal convenience by a long-time friend who owns and runs the hotel. Since I could not stay at my home in Lovejoy during my divorce proceeding in 1977 and 1978 I accepted my friends hospitality.

I have no recollection regarding any courtesy lodging accepted in connection with campaign activities. It has always been my policy not to accept any courtesy lodging which would be in violation of the Act. Further, it is my understanding that courtesy lodging provided for personal convenience that is not in connection with campaign activities is not within the scope of the Act.

(14) My long-time personal friend, Mr. John Mitchell, has in the past offered courtesy automobiles for my personal use and convenience in the Atlanta area. These automobiles were not used by me in connection with campaign activities.

(b) I have no records of the specific instances nor do I recall the dates of such vehicle use. I do not believe, however, that I have used such vehicles since 1973.

(c) I have no means of determining the value of such courtesy automobile usage.

(d) Mr. John Mitchell offered these personal services to me. His address is: Mitchell Motors, Inc., 341 Spring Street, N.W., Atlanta, Georgia 30308.

(15) I have not maintained listings since January 1, 1968, concerning instances in which I may have used private air transportation to, from, and within Georgia or accepted commercial airline tickets. However, I have no specific recollection of having used such transportation in connection with campaign activities. I have not considered the acceptance of courtesy airline transportation to be within the scope of the Act.

The above answers present the relevant information I possess regarding your questions. I must reiterate that whatever errors may have occurred on my part or in the preparation of candidate reports on my behalf were the result of inadvertence or confusion concerning the requirements of the Act. No such errors were willful or intentional. Where errors have been discovered, attempts have been made to correct them.

Sincerely,

Herman E. Talmadge

Re: MUR 638 (78)
Letter February 2, 1978

Dear Mr. Oldaker,

With reference to your letter mentioned above, I am certainly unaware that I have violated any provisions of any act or law. I don't know what 2 U.S.C. 4416 (18 U.S.C. 610) is or refers to, but I assume by your letter an in kind contribution of the loan of an automobile is what is in violation.

You will find enclosed copies of correspondence concerning the loan of an auto from the Georgians For Talmadge Committee. Please note that this correspondence directed me to fill out a pledge sheet for which I did and returned to the committee. If inadvertently, the pledge sheet was improperly filled out, I was never notified to correct this by the committee. I would have been more than glad to have signed this pledge personally if I had been advised to do so. Regardless of the signed pledge there was never any money paid towards this pledge except the use of the auto which was purchased for $4330.00 (copies enclosed) and when returned was sold for $4395.00 (copies enclosed) giving a profit and taxable gain of $65.00 to the corporation. Consequently, there was no monetary pledge given at all and in essence there was actually a gain or profit of $65.00

If the Federal Election Commission feels I am in violation of some act or law, I respectfully request that no penalty or action be taken against me or my corporation. If I can be of any further assistance or if additional information is needed, please advise me.

Sincerely,

John B. Prince III

Dear John:

The car is excellent. Senator Talmadge and I put nearly 500 miles on it over the weekend - but fortunately he went back to Washington yesterday morning!

It is a tremendous help to a heavily-burdened campaign to have friends such as yourself, whose support is most tangible. The Senator is most appreciative, as I am sure he will express to you personally in the near future.

Enclosed is the insurance information you requested. If you could send me the monthly rental charge on the enclosed pledge sheet, along with the indicated information, it will keep us clear with the "powers that be". Thank you again for your kindness. Look forward to seeing you soon.

Sincerely,

T. R. Wade

STATEMENT OF T. ROGERS WADE
REGARDING THE ESTABLISHMENT AND ADMINISTRATION
OF THE TALMADGE NEWSLETTER FUND
(APPENDIX A)

In the spring of 1975, after conversations with staff members and other Senate offices, I decided to establish a "newsletter fund" to assist in defraying constituent communication related expenses in the office of Senator Herman E. Talmadge. After consultation with staff members of the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee, it was determined that we could establish such a fund as an "office account" which could be used to pay newsletter and other constituent services expenses incurred by our office.

By phone, I requested the counsel for the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee to supply me and Ms. Rita Hubler with the necessary information as to how to set up such an account. It is my recollection that we received some information which outlined the procedures we should follow. I do not recall precisely what the instructions for registering and reporting this account were, although I do remember we finally decided, since no other reporting forms were available, such an "office account" should use the registration and reporting forms used by campaign committees. The Talmadge Newsletter Fund was registered in August 1975, with myself as Chairman and Ms. Rita Hubler as Treasurer.

From time to time, various individuals made donations to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund which was maintained at the Citizens State Bank of Butler, in Butler, Georgia. Sometimes I would be asked by constituents and friends how they could best help the Senator do his job of communicating with the people of Georgia. On several occasions, when I was asked, I explained the heavy expenditure which was required to maintain our newsletter and other communication efforts and, as a result, some people sometimes made donations to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. At no time was it ever considered by me, Ms. Hubler, or Senator Talmadge to be a campaign account. It was to merely offset the expenditures which are inherent in the operation of a large constituent service oriented office. The expenditure records of the account will show that all expenditures went toward this end and that no campaign use was ever made of these funds.

On occasion, Senator Talmadge would receive invitations for speaking engagements which he would accept but where he would not accept an honorarium in conjunction with his speech. In such instances, I instructed Ms. Rita Hubler, Senator Talmadge's appointments secretary, to inform the sponsoring organization that the Senator would not accept an honorarium but that if the organization wished to do so, it might make a voluntary donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, an office account for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other expenses incurred in the operation of the office of Senator Talmadge. Ms. Hubler was also instructed to make clear to the organization that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was not a campaign account and that in no instance would Senator Talmadge's speech be conditioned on a donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. The purpose of my directions to Ms. Hubler was to insure that any possible donor to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund understood that the fund was an office rather than campaign account and that any donation to the fund should be for the purpose of defraying newsletter or other ordinary expenses incurred by Senator Talmadge's office.

In 1975, a representative of the Southern Wholesalers Association ("the Association") contacted me to invite Senator Talmadge to speak to the Association in Atlanta, Georgia. I was informed that the Association would like to give Senator Talmadge a $1500 honorarium for his appearance. Senator Talmadge accepted the invitation and I notified the Association that Senator Talmadge had agreed to address the group but would accept an honorarium of only $1000 pursuant to the Senate Rules. I informed the Association representative, however, that an office account, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, was being established for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses. I noted that a voluntary donation to the fund would be welcomed but that Senator Talmadge's speech was not contingent on such a donation. I explained that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was not a campaign account. I understood from this discussion that the Association wished to make a donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, and the Association forwarded a $500 donation in the form of a check made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Based on my discussion with the Association representative the $500 was received and treated by the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund as a donation for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses.

I also made the scheduling arrangements for Senator Talmadge's speech before the Cardio-Pulmonary Doctors Association with Mr. William Colley. I explained to Mr. Colley that Senator Talmadge would not accept an honorarium to speak to the doctors group, but I informed him of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund and told him the officers of the fund would welcome any voluntary donation to the fund for the purpose of helping defray newsletter and other office-related expenses, but that Senator Talmadge's speech would not be conditioned on such a donation. I explained to Mr. Colley that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was not a campaign account and would not accept campaign contributions for the purpose of influencing the election of Senator Talmadge. From our discussion, it was my understanding that Mr. Colley wished to make a $1000 donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund for defraying office-related expenses. The officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund received Mr. Colley's personal check made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund and treated it as an office account donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund.

When the rules of the Senate were changed in April 1977, abolishing office accounts, I instructed Ms. Allyne Tisdale, the new Treasurer of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, to close the account and deposit the remaining funds in the Talmadge Campaign Committee account which was kept at the National Savings and Trust Bank, Washington, D.C. My thinking was that the remaining funds in the account would continue to be spent for newsletter or other office-related expenses as was allowed by the Senate Rules and the "funds donated" provision of the Commission regulations.

My interpretation of Sec. 113 of the Commission regulations was that funds in the Talmadge Newsletter Fund account were "funds donated" as outlined in Sec. 113.1(a). Since office accounts were being abolished under the Senate Rules, it was my understanding that the proper procedure for compliance with Sec. 113.3 was to deposit any remaining funds in the Talmadge Newsletter Fund account into the Talmadge Campaign Committee account. Since there was no intention to use any of the transferred funds in connection with a federal election, it was my interpretation that the transfer would not be a violation of Sec. 113.5(b). There was certainly no intention to circumvent the rules of the Federal Elections Commission. This is evidenced, in my opinion, by the full disclosure reporting of this account as well as the reporting by the Talmadge Campaign Committee of the receipt of the transferred funds in a forthright and timely manner.

In summation, the account was set up and managed under my direction to defray normal operating expenses of Senator Talmadge's office, primarily newsletter related expenses. At no time was there ever any intention of using this fund to conceal campaign contributions or honoraria. This, of course, is evidenced by the full reporting of all receipts and by the records of the expenditures which were made from that account. Any possible mistake in filing, or ultimate disposition of funds was my responsibility and at no time was Senator Talmadge consulted as to how to set up the account, where the account was set up, what particular funds should be placed in the account, or the ultimate disposition of the funds once the account was closed.

Re: Federal Election Commission Letter in Re MUR 638(78) to Southern Wholesalers Association, Inc.

Dear Mr. Oldaker:

Our client, Southern Wholesalers Association, Inc., has forwarded to us for review and response, your letter to it of February 2, 1979 (and which was not received at its new address until February 12, 1979), on the above referenced matter.

We are currently investigating and reviewing the matter on their behalf and expect to reply to your inquiry. However, due to the death of my wife's father and funeral planned out of the country next week, I must, of necessity, defer a reply until after this funeral.

In the interim, we would appreciate receiving the Commission's position on the issue as to why the three (3) year statute of limitations as provided in 2 USCA § 455 is not applicable to the circumstances here under inquiry which occurred in August of 1975.

Thank you for your patience, and we would appreciate receiving a reply on the statute of limitations issue during the time I will be gone.

Sincerely,

HEYMAN AND SIZEMORE

re: MUR 638 (78)

Dear Mr. Oldaker:

This letter and enclosed attachments are in response to your letter to me dated February 2, 1979, in which you indicated the Federal Election Commission ("the Commission") has found reason to believe that the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, ("the Act") may have been violated by:

(1) The Talmadge Campaign Committee by failing to report contributions which were deposited in the Riggs National Bank, Account #01-08-184-921, during 1973 and 1974; and

(2) the Talmadge Newsletter Fund by accepting three possibly prohibited contributions.

I appreciate your understanding of the circumstances which necessitated my delay in responding. I hope this response will answer the questions contained in your letter and will demonstrate that the Commission should take no action against me, the current Talmadge Campaign Committee, or the terminated Talmadge Newsletter Fund beyond providing assistance in correcting any unintentional errors that may have arisen through inadvertence or misunderstanding.

Riggs Account - Talmadge Campaign Committee

As you probably know, the Riggs account is currently under investigation by both the Justice Department and the Ethics Committee. These bodies have obtained various records as a result of their investigation and also have taken testimony or statements from certain parties whose funds were deposited in the Riggs account. Since their investigation of the Riggs account is ongoing, and since I have no records of the Riggs account, I must refer you to Ms. Kathy Voelker, Department of Justice, and Mr. Carl Eardley, Special Counsel to the Senate Ethics Committee regarding this matter. Please note that a public hearing on the Riggs account is scheduled for April by the Senate Ethics Committee.

Daniel Minchew served as Chairman of the Talmadge Campaign Committee from 1972 through October 24, 1974. All possible campaign contributions deposited in the Riggs account (#01-08-184-923, opened by Daniel Minchew) occurred during Mr. Minchew's tenure as Campaign Committee Chairman.

I served as Treasurer of the Talmadge Campaign Committee from December, 1973 to July, 1975 and from March, 1976 to present. In my capacity as Treasurer, I have always in effect served only as a bookkeeper. Mr. Minchew, as Chairman, was responsible for the management and fundraising efforts of the Talmadge Campaign Committee. I had no control whatsoever over Mr. Minchew's activities. Neither I nor the current Talmadge Campaign Committee was ever aware of the Riggs account or of any possible campaign funds which may have been deposited into such account until the existence of the account was discovered by the Justice Department and the Senate Ethics Committee. Under the circumstances, it would be grossly unfair for the Commission to take adverse action against me or the current Talmadge Campaign Committee for any matters relating to the Riggs account of which we had no knowledge and over which we had no control.

Talmadge Newsletter Fund

At the outset of this response regarding the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, I want to emphasize that neither I, the current Talmadge Campaign Committee, nor the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, which was terminated in 1977, has ever consciously or intentionally violated the Act or the Commission's regulations. We have always attempted in good faith to operate and publicly disclose in compliance with the spirit and substance of what have proven to be often confusing, technical, and changing requirements of the federal election campaign laws and Senate Rules. The Talmadge Newsletter Fund registered as if it was a "political committee" and filed reports in a timely manner. The reports fully disclose all donors to and expenditures by the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. In all candor, we cannot help but wonder why we did not receive guidance in years past if our disclosed practices on their face were clearly deficient.

83040412507

William C. Oldaker, Esquire
Page Three

The Talmadge Newsletter Fund was established in August, 1975 and terminated in July, 1977 at the initiation of T. Rogers Wade, Administrative Assistant to Senator Herman E. Talmadge. Mr. Wade served as Chairman of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Ms. Rita Hubler served as Treasurer of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund from August, 1975 until March 9, 1976. I served as Treasurer from March 9, 1976 until the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was terminated in July, 1977.

As explained by Mr. Wade in his affidavit, (Appendix A), the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was established and administered as an office account for the purpose of receiving and disbursing funds donated to help defray newsletter and other office-related communication expenses incurred by the office of Senator Herman E. Talmadge. All receipts and disbursements of the account were for office-related communication expenses. The Talmadge Newsletter Fund neither accepted nor expended funds for the purpose of influencing the reelection of Senator Talmadge.

Although the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was not established or administered for campaign purposes, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund nonetheless was registered and reported as if it was a "political committee" because that was how its officers in good faith thought such an office-related account was required to be reported. In his affidavit (Appendix A), Mr. Wade explains how and why the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was created and reported.

The Act on its face clearly appears to allow a federal elected official to accept funds not in connection with a federal election from individuals and corporations for office support purposes. It is my understanding that a number of Senate offices had such accounts. However, there was widespread confusion concerning the treatment of office accounts under the Act during the 1975-1977 period when the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was created and operated. The Commission's frequently changing treatment of office accounts during 1975-1976 -- for example, that office account expenditures were automatically campaign expenditures; office account expenditures were campaign expenditures during the year of election; and then office account expenditures were campaign expenditures only if made "for the purpose of influencing" a federal election -- demonstrates the unsettled and confusing state of the law at that time. The Commission also stated in September, 1975, that a Congressional office account should be reported "as if" it was a "political committee." We were unaware of any other forms and procedures for reporting such accounts as required by law. I believe all of this confirms Mr. Wade's recollections as to the registration and reporting status of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund.

A total of $4801 was received in donations to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Newsletter and other office-related communication expenses were expended in the amount of $1961.51. As noted above, all donations and expenditures were fully and publicly disclosed in the reports filed by the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Pursuant to Rule 46 of Senate Resolution 110 adopted by the Senate on April 1, 1977, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was terminated on July 10, 1977. Funds in the amount of $2,839.49 were transferred to the Talmadge Campaign Committee on June 17, 1977. The intention of the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was that the remaining $2,839.49 would be disbursed from the Talmadge Campaign Committee account for newsletter or other office-related expenses which would be incurred after June 17, 1977. It was the good faith understanding of the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund that the transfer and expenditure of the remaining funds for office-related expenses was in compliance with the "funds donated" provisions of 11 C.F.R. Sec. 113 and the Senate Rules.

As Rogers Wade explained in his affidavit (Appendix A), the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund interpreted the "funds donated" provision of the Commission regulations, 11 C.F.R. Sec. 113.1(a), to include the funds donated to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Further, as "funds donated" we understood that Sec. 113 required that any such funds were to be deposited into: "(a) An account of the officeholder's principal campaign committee or other authorized committee pursuant to Part 103, or (b) an office account," pursuant to 11 C.F.R. Sec. 113.3.

To comply with the newly approved Senate rule abolishing office accounts, and to continue to comply with 11 C.F.R. Sec. 113.3, it was the belief of the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund that the proper action was to deposit any remaining "funds donated" in the Talmadge Newsletter Fund account into the Talmadge Campaign Committee account. There was no intention to use any funds transferred from the Talmadge Newsletter Fund to the Talmadge Campaign Committee in connection with a federal election. Therefore, it was our understanding that we were in conformity with the requirements of 11 C.F.R. Sec. 113.5(b). A review of the expenditures of the Talmadge Campaign Committee since June 17, 1977, shows that funds well in excess of $2,839.49 have been expended for newsletter printing and other office-related expenses not in connection with a federal election. We sincerely believe, therefore, that the transfer of funds from the Talmadge Newsletter Fund to the Talmadge Campaign Committee, which was fully disclosed in the reports of both the Talmadge Newsletter Fund and the Talmadge Campaign Committee, and the use of such transferred funds to defray ordinary and necessary expenses in the office of Senator Herman E. Talmadge, not in connection with a federal election, comply with the spirit and specifics of 11 C.F.R. Sec. 113.

Answers to Questions

- (1) (a) The Talmadge Newsletter Fund was an office account as discussed above.
- (b) The following documentation is enclosed to support the fact that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was always considered and treated as an office account:
- (1) Affidavit of T. Rogers Wade, Talmadge Newsletter Fund Chairman. (Appendix A)
  - (2) Affidavit of Ms. Rita Hubler, appointments secretary to Senator Herman E. Talmadge. (Appendix B)
  - (3) Itemized list of disbursements of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund during its existence, showing that disbursements were for newsletter or other office-related constituent communication expenses. (Appendix C)
  - (4) Itemized list of receipts of Talmadge Newsletter Fund. (Appendix D)
  - (5) Correspondence accompanying donations where available. (Appendix E)
  - (6) Bank records of Talmadge Newsletter Fund. (Appendix F)
- (2) (a) The officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund never considered any monies deposited or expended from the fund as campaign-related. All donations to and expenditures from the Talmadge Newsletter Fund were disclosed in a timely manner. The officers viewed the disclosure reports of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund it filed as meeting the disclosure and reporting requirements of the Act for an office account such as the Talmadge Newsletter Fund.

The officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund used several criteria to determine whether a particular receipt should be deposited and reported as a donation to the fund. These criteria included:

- (1) Information received from individuals indicating that a particular receipt was for the purpose of defraying newsletter or other office-related communication expenses.
- (2) Oral or written communications accompanying donations which would indicate that such donations were intended for the purpose of defraying newsletter or other office-related communication expenses.
- (3) The payee listed on a check was "the Talmadge Newsletter Fund."

Five contributions to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund were associated with speeches given by Senator Talmadge. The following summary outlines the circumstances surrounding these donations to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund:

CONTRIBUTOR	AMOUNT
Southern Wholesalers Association	$500

Senator Talmadge was invited to speak to the Southern Wholesalers Association ("the Association") in Atlanta, Georgia. The Association contacted Mr. Rogers Wade, Administrative Assistant to Senator Talmadge, to discuss arrangements for the speech and offered an honorarium of $1,500. Mr. Wade informed the Association that Senator Talmadge would accept the invitation to speak to the Association, but that he would only accept an honorarium of $1,000, pursuant to the Senate Rules. Mr. Wade also informed the Association that if it wished, it could make a contribution to an office account, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office-related communication expenses. Mr. Wade informed the Association that Senator Talmadge's speech was not contingent on a contribution to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund and that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was not a campaign account. Senator Talmadge addressed the Association in March, 1975, and received a $1,000 honorarium. The Association also made a donation in the amount of $500 to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund by check made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Since it was the understanding of the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund that the Association offered and intended the $500 as a donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office-related communication expenses, it was treated as such.

National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives

Mr. Lawrence Earls, personal accountant for Senator Herman E. Talmadge, invited Senator Talmadge to speak to the National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives ("the Society"). No honorarium was offered as consideration for the speech. Senator Talmadge agreed to speak to the Society as a personal favor to Mr. Earls. At a later date, the society forwarded a donation of $250 to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund by check made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. (See attached letter accompanying contribution from Mr. C. E. Smith, dated September 3, 1975, Appendix E). From conversations with Mr. Earls and the correspondence received from Mr. Smith, it was the understanding of the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund that the Society intended the $250 as a donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office-related communication expenses, and it was treated as such.

David Murchison

$1,000

Senator Herman E. Talmadge was invited to speak to the Ceramic Tile Manufacturers Association ("the Association"). Ms. Rita Hubler, who made the scheduling arrangements for this speech, advised the Association representative that Senator Talmadge would not accept an honorarium. She also noted that while the Senator's appearance was not contingent on a donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, the Association might wish to make a voluntary donation to this fund, which was an office account, not a campaign account, for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office-related communications expenses. Subsequently, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund received a personal check from David Murchison, an Association representative, in the amount of $1,000 made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. It was the understanding of the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund that this money was offered and intended to be a donation to the fund for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office-related communications expenses, and it was treated as such.

Federal Land Bank of St. Louis

$1,000

Senator Herman E. Talmadge was invited to be a speaker at the annual stockholders' meeting of the Federal Land Bank of St. Louis

33040412513

("the Bank"). Arrangements for this speech were made by Ms. Rita Hubler. Ms. Hubler informed an official of the Bank that Senator Talmadge would not accept an honorarium. She stated that the Bank might wish to consider making a voluntary donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, which was an office account, not a campaign account, for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office-related communications expenses, although the Senator's appearance was not contingent on such a donation. It was Ms. Hubler's understanding that the Bank would like to make such a donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. A check was subsequently received from the Bank in the amount of $1,000 made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Based upon Ms. Hubler's earlier discussion with the Bank representative, the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund understood that the $1,000 check was intended as a donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office-related communications expenses, and it was treated as such.

William J. Colley

$1,000

Senator Herman E. Talmadge was invited to speak to the Cardio-Pulmonary Doctors' Association and Mr. Rogers Wade, administrative assistant to Senator Talmadge, made the scheduling arrangements for this speech with Mr. William Colley. Mr. Wade explained to Mr. Colley that the Senator would not accept an honorarium. He also advised Mr. Colley that if the organization wanted to make a voluntary donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, which was an office account, not a campaign account, for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office-related communications expenses, they could do so, but the Senator's appearance would not be contingent on such a donation. It was Mr. Wade's understanding from Mr. Colley that he would like to make a $1,000 donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office-related communications expenses. Based upon Mr. Wade's discussion with Mr. Colley, the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund understood that Mr. Colley's personal check for $1,000 made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was intended as a donation to the fund for such purposes, and it was treated as such.

33040412514

In concluding this summary of the circumstances surrounding the receipt of the donations to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund in question, I must reemphasize that Ms. Hubler and Mr. Wade always expressly stated that the Senator would not accept an honorarium (other than the $1,000 honorarium from the Southern Wholesalers Association), that the person or organization involved might choose to make a voluntary donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, which was an office account, not a campaign account, for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office-related communications expenses, and that the Senator's appearance was not contingent on such a donation. The intention of Ms. Hubler and Mr. Wade in making these specific explanations was to prevent any misunderstanding from arising regarding the nature or treatment of any funds received by the Talmadge Newsletter Fund.

(b) See affidavit of Ms. Rita Hubler.

- (3) (a) These funds were in the form of personal checks made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund and were received, deposited, and treated by the Talmadge Newsletter Fund as office account donations made for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office-related communication expenses. (See outline of circumstances regarding Colley and Murchison donations in (2)(1).)

(b) The checks were made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund and were drawn on the personal accounts of Mr. Murchison and Mr. Colley.

- (4) See previous Riggs account discussion above.

In summary, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund attempted to comply with the primary purpose of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, of full disclosure of the financial activities of elected federal officials. I would like to reemphasize the fact that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was established and administered for the sole purpose of defraying newsletter and other office-related expenses incurred by the office of Senator Herman E. Talmadge, as a service to the people of Georgia. All receipts and expenditures were fully disclosed by the Talmadge Newsletter Fund in a manner the officers of the fund believed in good faith to be in compliance with the requirements of the Act and Commission guidelines.

I hope the Commission will deem it inappropriate to take any further action against the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, the current Talmadge Campaign

Attached is the statement of Mr. Rogers Wade. Unfortunately, Mr. Wade was forced to return to Georgia on short notice due to the death of his father-in-law, before he had the opportunity to sign the statement. We have confirmed with Mr. Wade by telephone that the contents of this statement are accurate. Upon his return to Washington, D.C., we will forward a signed copy.

STATEMENT OF T. ROGERS WADE
REGARDING THE ESTABLISHMENT AND ADMINISTRATION
OF THE TALMADGE NEWSLETTER FUND
(APPENDIX A)

In the spring of 1975, after conversations with staff members and other Senate offices, I decided to establish a "newsletter fund" to assist in defraying constituent communication related expenses in the office of Senator Herman E. Talmadge. After consultation with staff members of the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee, it was determined that we could establish such a fund as an "office account" which could be used to pay newsletter and other constituent services expenses incurred by our office.

By phone, I requested the counsel for the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee to supply me and Ms. Rita Hubler with the necessary information as to how to set up such an account. It is my recollection that we received some information which outlined the procedures we should follow. I do not recall precisely what the instructions for registering and reporting this account were, although I do remember we finally decided, since no other reporting forms were available, such an "office account" should use the registration and reporting forms used by campaign committees. The Talmadge Newsletter Fund was registered in August 1975, with myself as Chairman and Ms. Rita Hubler as Treasurer.

From time to time, various individuals made donations to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund which was maintained at the Citizens State Bank of Butler, in Butler, Georgia. Sometimes I would be asked by constituents and friends how they could best help the Senator do his job of communicating with the people of Georgia. On several occasions, when I was asked, I explained the heavy expenditure which was required to maintain our newsletter and other communication efforts and, as a result, some people sometimes made donations to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. At no time was it ever considered by me, Ms. Hubler, or Senator Talmadge to be a campaign account. It was to merely offset the expenditures which are inherent in the operation of a large constituent service oriented office. The expenditure records of the account will show that all expenditures went toward this end and that no campaign use was ever made of these funds.

On occasion, Senator Talmadge would receive invitations for speaking engagements which he would accept but where he would not accept an honorarium in conjunction with his speech. In such instances, I instructed Ms. Rita Hubler, Senator Talmadge's appointments secretary, to inform the sponsoring organization that the Senator would not accept an honorarium but that if the organization wished to do so, it might make a voluntary donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, an office account for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other expenses incurred in the operation of the office of Senator Talmadge. Ms. Hubler was also instructed to make clear to the organization that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was not a campaign account and that in no instance would Senator Talmadge's speech be conditioned on a donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. The purpose of my directions to Ms. Hubler was to insure that any possible donor to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund understood that the fund was an office rather than campaign account and that any donation to the fund should be for the purpose of defraying newsletter or other ordinary expenses incurred by Senator Talmadge's office.

In 1975, a representative of the Southern Wholesalers Association ("the Association") contacted me to invite Senator Talmadge to speak to the Association in Atlanta, Georgia. I was informed that the Association would like to give Senator Talmadge a $1500 honorarium for his appearance. Senator Talmadge accepted the invitation and I notified the Association that Senator Talmadge had agreed to address the group but would accept an honorarium of only $1000 pursuant to the Senate Rules. I informed the Association representative, however, that an office account, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, was being established for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses. I noted that a voluntary donation to the fund would be welcomed but that Senator Talmadge's speech was not contingent on such a donation. I explained that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was not a campaign account. I understood from this discussion that the Association wished to make a donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, and the Association forwarded a $500 donation in the form of a check made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Based on my discussion with the Association representative the $500 was received and treated by the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund as a donation for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses.

I also made the scheduling arrangements for Senator Talmadge's speech before the Cardio-Pulmonary Doctors Association with Mr. William Colley. I explained to Mr. Colley that Senator Talmadge would not accept an honorarium to speak to the doctors group, but I informed him of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund and told him the officers of the fund would welcome any voluntary donation to the fund for the purpose of helping defray newsletter and other office-related expenses, but that Senator Talmadge's speech would not be conditioned on such a donation. I explained to Mr. Colley that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was not a campaign account and would not accept campaign contributions for the purpose of influencing the election of Senator Talmadge. From our discussion, it was my understanding that Mr. Colley wished to make a $1000 donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund for defraying office-related expenses. The officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund received Mr. Colley's personal check made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund and treated it as an office account donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund.

When the rules of the Senate were changed in April 1977, abolishing office accounts, I instructed Ms. Allyne Tisdale, the new Treasurer of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, to close the account and deposit the remaining funds in the Talmadge Campaign Committee account which was kept at the National Savings and Trust Bank, Washington, D.C. My thinking was that the remaining funds in the account would continue to be spent for newsletter or other office-related expenses as was allowed by the Senate Rules and the "funds donated" provision of the Commission regulations.

My interpretation of Sec. 113 of the Commission regulations was that funds in the Talmadge Newsletter Fund account were "funds donated" as outlined in Sec. 113.1(a). Since office accounts were being abolished under the Senate Rules, it was my understanding that the proper procedure for compliance with Sec. 113.3 was to deposit any remaining funds in the Talmadge Newsletter Fund account into the Talmadge Campaign Committee account. Since there was no intention to use any of the transferred funds in connection with a federal election, it was my interpretation that the transfer would not be a violation of Sec. 113.5(b). There was certainly no intention to circumvent the rules of the Federal Elections Commission. This is evidenced, in my opinion, by the full disclosure reporting of this account as well as the reporting by the Talmadge Campaign Committee of the receipt of the transferred funds in a forthright and timely manner.

In summation, the account was set up and managed under my direction to defray normal operating expenses of Senator Talmadge's office, primarily newsletter related expenses. At no time was there ever any intention of using this fund to conceal campaign contributions or honoraria. This, of course, is evidenced by the full reporting of all receipts and by the records of the expenditures which were made from that account. Any possible mistake in filing, or ultimate disposition of funds was my responsibility and at no time was Senator Talmadge consulted as to how to set up the account, where the account was set up, what particular funds should be placed in the account, or the ultimate disposition of the funds once the account was closed.

STATEMENT OF RITA HUBLER

During the time I served as Treasurer of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund from August 1975 until March 9, 1976, I was responsible for keeping records, making deposits, and filing reports for the Talmadge Newsletter Fund under the supervision and direction of T. Rogers Wade, Talmadge Newsletter Fund Chairman. It was always my understanding that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was an "office account" established for the purpose of receiving funds to cover newsletter and other office related expenses. As Treasurer, I never treated the Talmadge Newsletter Fund as a campaign account and I was under instructions from Mr. Wade to administer the fund only for newsletter and other constituent communication purposes. As appointments secretary, I often scheduled speaking engagements for Senator Talmadge. The following outlines my understanding of the circumstances surrounding the particular donations to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund in question:

Southern Wholesalers Association - March, 1975 - $500

A representative of the Southern Wholesalers Association ("the Association") contacted Mr. Rogers Wade to invite Senator Talmadge to speak to the Association in Atlanta, Georgia. I was informed by Mr. Wade that Senator Talmadge would accept the invitation and an honorarium of $1000. Mr. Wade also informed me that the Association would like to make a voluntary donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund in the amount of $500 for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses. Based on Mr. Wade's discussion with a representative of the Association, the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund received and treated the $500 as a donation to the fund for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses.

3040412521

National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives -
September, 1975 - $250

---

Mr. Lawrence Earls invited Senator Talmadge to speak to the National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives ("the Society"). Senator Talmadge agreed to speak to this group as a personal favor to Mr. Earls. No honorarium was offered. At a later date, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund received a donation from the National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives in the amount of $250. Correspondence accompanying the donation clearly indicated that the $250 was donated by the Society to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses and was treated as such by the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund.

David Murchison - (Ceramic Tile Manufacturers Association) -

---

Senator Talmadge received an invitation to speak to the Ceramic Tile Manufacturers Association ("the Association"). I made the arrangements for this speaking engagement. I informed a representative of the Association that Senator Talmadge would speak to the group but would not accept an honorarium. I explained that the Association might wish to make a voluntary donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, which was an office account, not a campaign account, for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses, but that Senator Talmadge's speech was not contingent on such a donation. Subsequently, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund received a personal check from David Murchison, a representative of the Association, in the amount of $1000. It was my understanding and the understanding of the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund that the check was intended as a donation to the fund for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses, and was received and treated as such.

Federal Land Bank of St. Louis, Mo. - March, 1977 - $1000

Senator Talmadge was invited to speak to the annual stockholders meeting of the Federal Land Bank of St. Louis ("the Bank"). Senator Talmadge accepted the invitation, and I made the arrangements for the speech with Mr. Glenn Heitz, President of the Bank. I informed Mr. Heitz that Senator Talmadge would not accept an honorarium for the speech, but I stated that the Bank might wish to make a voluntary donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, an office account, for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses, but that Senator Talmadge's speech was not contingent on such a donation. I also explained that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was not a campaign account. It was my understanding from my discussion with Mr. Heitz that the Bank wished to make a $1000 donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses. This donation, in the form of a check made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, was received and treated by the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund as a donation to the fund based on the officers' understanding that the Bank intended the $1000 as an office account donation for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses.

William J. Colley - (Cardio-Pulmonary Doctors Association) -
February 17, 1977 - $1000

Senator Talmadge was offered and accepted an invitation to speak to a meeting of the Cardio-Pulmonary Doctors Association ("the Association"). Scheduling for this speech was made by Mr. Rogers Wade. I was informed by Mr. Wade that Mr. Colley wished to make an office account donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund to defray newsletter and other office related communication expenses. The Talmadge Newsletter Fund received the personal check of Mr. Colley in the amount of $1000 made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, and based on Mr. Wade's conversation with Mr. Colley, the check was received and treated as a donation to the fund for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses.

In all the above instances where donations were made to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, it was my understanding that the sponsoring group intended the donation as an office account donation for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses incurred by the office of Senator Herman E. Talmadge. Based on Mr. Wade's instructions, I attempted to make clear in each instance that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was not a campaign account and that no speech given by Senator Talmadge was contingent on a donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, so that no misunderstanding would result as to the nature or treatment of any monies received by the Talmadge Newsletter Fund.

Dear Herman:

I deeply appreciate the refund on my contribution to your campaign last year. Frankly, instead of just telling you to keep it, I wanted to get the refund because I think it will be very helpful sometimes under certain conditions.

I know that you have extra expenses in sending our your bulletin, and things of that kind, so I am enclosing herewith another check for $250 which I hope will be helpful in that respect. I am not making it the exact amount of the refund because I did not want to tie them together.

You have furnished great leadership for agriculture, and all of us are deeply grateful.

It shall be the duty of the Depositor to call and receipt for such statement within a reasonable time thereafter. The Bank, in its discretion, may at any time mail such statement to the Depositor at the Depositor's address as it appears hereon and the Depositor agrees to assume all responsibility for the advantages of statements and canceled checks as mailed and, if lost, to accept as correct the Bank's record of the account. It shall be the duty of the Depositor to carefully examine the statement and canceled checks and report to the Bank, within thirty days after the receipt of mailing of same, any errors, omissions, alterations, missing items, or discrepancies therein, and if no report is made within such time, the Depositor agrees to accept the stated balance as correct and to assume responsibility for, and hold the Bank harmless by reason of, the payment of any item reported in said account, and to release the Bank from all liability therefor. The Depositor also agrees to return immediately to the Bank any checks which do not belong to him.

Bank in no case shall be responsible for or be subject to any liabilities to depositor other than those imposed upon it by law for its own lack of good faith or its own failure to exercise ordinary care. The obligation to exercise ordinary care in the handling of items, including stop payment requests, shall be measured by the standard of the reasonableness of the banking procedure established by the transaction involved, and mere clerical error, inadvertence, or oversight without malice, or an honest mistake of judgment, shall not be or constitute as to any transaction a failure to perform such obligation or a failure to exercise ordinary care and in no case shall be deemed wrongful.

The depositor hereby authorizes the Bank, at anytime it deems itself insecure, or in case of the death or insolvency of the depositor, to charge or set off against any deposit of the depositor with the Bank any debts or obligations owing by the depositor to the Bank whether direct or indirect, secured or unsecured, absolute or contingent, joint or several, due to become due, whether as maker, endorser, guarantor, or otherwise, now existing or hereafter contracted or acquired by the Bank and wherever payable, and the interest thereon and expense, if any, which may be incurred by the Bank in connection therewith, and this agreement shall be construed to be the consent of the depositor to make such a charge or set off against his/her/their account(s) if consent be required by any present or future statute or law.

Depositor may not stop payment of any cashier's or certified check. If depositor requests Bank to stop payment on any item, depositor agrees to furnish Bank with the exact amount, date, number, name of payee and such other information pertaining to said item as Bank may request, and failure to furnish such information shall release Bank of any liability for any payment made contrary to said request. Depositor agrees to reimburse Bank for all expenses and loss resulting from refusing payment pursuant to his order, or if by reason of such payment other checks drawn by the Depositor are returned unpaid because of insufficient funds. Bank shall be under no duty to comply with any stop payment request, or any removal or revocation thereof, unless the same be given to Bank during regular banking hours and in such manner as to afford Bank a reasonable opportunity to act before the item is paid. Requests for stopped payment, and revocation or rescission of such requests (whether oral or written) shall also be subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the request form then issued by the Bank. When the time limitation of the stop payment request has expired the Bank may pay the check without inquiry or notice to the Depositor. However, any check which is presented later than six months from the issue date thereof may be refused by the Bank as stale dated.

The Bank may, in its discretion, refuse to certify any check.

The Bank may charge a reasonable fee for collecting checks drawn against insufficient funds, for account maintenance (whether the account is active or dormant), for account activity, for overdrafts, for returning checks drawn against insufficient funds, for stop payment requests or renewals thereof and for any unusual services rendered by the Bank in respect to the Depositor's account. All fees may be deducted from the Depositor's account, and the Bank shall not be liable for dishonoring checks because of insufficient funds resulting from the deduction of such fees.

The account may be closed by the Bank at any time by mailing a notice to the Depositor with a check for the balance, and the Bank shall not be liable for refusing to pay any check presented after said account is so closed.

The Bank may refuse payment of any check drawn on the account other than a check which has been purchased from the Bank or has been approved by the Bank.

The Bank may refuse to honor any check signed in form which does not agree with name of account and the signature (s) on this card.

Changes in the terms of this Agreement, may be made by the Bank from time to time and shall become effective upon the earlier of (a) the expiration of a thirty-day period of posting of such changes in the Bank, or (b) the mailing or delivery of notice thereof to the Depositor by enclosing the notice in the Depositor's monthly statement for one month.

This Agreement governs the transaction of business for this account, any contrary provision in the passbook or deposit slip notwithstanding.

Re: MUR 638(78)

Dear Mr. Minchew:

Based on information ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities, the Federal Election Commission has found reason to believe that you may have violated certain provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act").

Specifically, it appears that you may have violated section 302(b) of the 1971 Act (2 U.S.C. § 432(b)) by failing to render to the Talmadge Campaign Committee Treasurer a detailed account of contributions received in 1973 and 1974 and deposited into Riggs National Bank account #01-08-184-923.

Under the Act, you have an opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken against you. Please submit any factual or legal materials which you believe are relevant to the Commission's analysis of this matter. Where appropriate, statements should be submitted under oath.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "William C. Oldaker", is written over the typed name.

Dear Ms. McFarland:

Reference the $250 check paid to Senator Talmadge for his luncheon address at the 1975 annual convention.

Enclosed is a copy of our Bylaws. Article I indicates that this organization is incorporated in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

I wish to assure you, without reservation, that the disbursement was intended as an honorarium and was not intended for any political purpose or to influence any election in any way whatsoever.

In working with program chairmen over the past two years, I can assure you that their concern and fee payments have always been intended as honorariums. There has not been one single instance when payments to political figures or office holders has arisen. Most certainly, the subject of elections or political influence has never even been raised, much less been the subject of discussion.

The correspondence relating to the 1975 convention is not available. However, I will make every attempt to obtain a copy of the letter of invitation and check.

Respectfully,

RE: MUR 638 (78)

Dear Mr. Oldaker:

I am replying to your February 2, 1979 letter concerning our 1975 annual convention held in Atlanta during August 1975.

For your information, the office of the National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives was closed in Raleigh, NC, and opened in Richmond, VA on November 1, 1976, when I assumed the duties and responsibilities of secretary-treasurer.

I am writing to request that "no action" be taken against this organization for any violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, which may have occurred. My reasons for requesting "no action" are as follows:

1. Any violation which may have occurred was inadvertent on our part and in no way did we intend to commit any violation or illegality.
2. We solicit your concurrence that the amount was "immaterial" and urge you to find that the sum involved is sufficiently small so that it is readily apparent that this organization did not intend any statutory violation.
3. Our annual meetings are conducted by individual chapter members who hold full-time employment positions. They donate their time to conduct the convention which is sponsored by their chapter. Our annual meetings are rotated among chapters annually. Individuals who conduct the convention do it on a "one-shot" basis. They are neither familiar with the provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, nor do they possess detailed, in-depth knowledge of convention programs, speakers' arrangements, etc. Thus, our actions were all taken in "good-faith."
4. Detailed financial records are not available.

I have searched our files and am attaching the following:

1. A "true copy" of the financial statement submitted for the 1975 convention and extracted from our Minutes Record. This financial statement was presented to the Board of Directors at its mid-winter Board meeting in January 1976.

Mr. William C. Oldaker
February 19, 1979

2. A copy of the program booklet for the 1975 convention. Please note that page two shows Senator Talmadge as our luncheon speaker.

I trust that you will find the above information satisfactory. I can assure you that this organization consists of individuals who are committed to and have a deep respect for upholding the law. In no way, do we or have we ever, intended to violate prevailing statutes. And, we regret that you have found it necessary to have contacted us regarding this matter.

Respectfully,

John B. Sperry, Ph.D., CPA

Re: MUR 638(78)

Dear Mr. Oldaker:

In compliance with your request in letter dated February 2, I am submitting a sworn statement from Glenn E. Heitz, president of The Federal Land Bank of St. Louis, setting out factual circumstances surrounding the $1,000 check this corporation made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund.

As is readily apparent from the statement, this payment was never intended to be a campaign contribution but rather to compensate the Senator for his appearance as the main speaker at our Annual Stockholders Meeting banquet. At the time of the delivery of the check, members of the bank's staff were unaware that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was a registered political committee. The fact that a member of the Senator's staff directed payment to the fund, gave such method of payment an air of legitimacy that tended to suppress inquiry. In reviewing the factual circumstances, however, we do not believe that the $1,000 payment represents a violation of 2 USC § 441b.

This situation along with the attendant publicity has proven embarrassing to this bank and therefore we hope for an expeditious disposition. I suggest that any future communications concerning this matter be directed to myself.

Yours truly,

Walter C. Flefka

RE: Your File (MUR 638-(78))

Dear Mr. Oldaker:

This will have reference to your letter of February 2, 1979 concerning the above captioned file. The assumption that Georgia Bankers Association might have violated certain provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act") is, we believe, incorrect. In May 1973 Georgia Bankers Association issued an invitation to Senator Herman Talmadge to take part on the program of its convention in May. Senator Talmadge accepted the invitation and addressed those in attendance on Monday, May 14, 1973. Enclosed herewith is a copy of the program for that convention.

We agreed to pay Senator Talmadge an honorarium plus expenses. On May 18, 1973 two checks (Nos. 1226 and 1227) were issued to Herman E. Talmadge. Check No. 1226 in the amount of $150 was for travel and Check No. 1227 was for payment of his honorarium. Neither of these checks was in anyway to be construed as a campaign contribution.

We trust that the above information is sufficient to indicate that we have demonstrated that no action should be taken against Georgia Bankers Association. The enclosed program should be sufficient information to substantiate our belief; but if there is additional information which you feel should be submitted, let me know.

Very truly yours,

MEMORANDUM TO: The Commission

FROM: William C. Oldaker

SUBJECT: MUR 638(78)
In the Matter of Herman Talmadge, Talmadge Campaign Committee

Request for an extension of time in which to answer questions

Attached is a letter the Office of General Counsel has received from James Hamilton, Counsel for Senator Talmadge, requesting on behalf of the Senator an extension of time in which to answer the questions sent on February 2, 1979. Specifically, the request is to extend the time until May 15, 1979, when the Senate Ethics Committee will have concluded its consideration.

The General Counsel's office recommends that an extension be granted in light of the Senator's current hospitalization. An extension of an additional twenty (20) days, until March 19, 1979, seems appropriate.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

- 1) Grant to Senator Herman Talmadge an extension of time in which to answer the questions sent with the General Counsel's letter of February 2, 1979, until March 19, 1979.
- 2) Send the attached letter to James Jamilton,
Counsel for Senator Talmadge.

Dear Mr. Oldaker:

In your February 2, 1979, letter to Senator Herman E. Talmadge, you state that the Federal Election Commission has found reason to believe that Senator Talmadge may have violated certain provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act, and you request that he submit answers to certain detailed questions within twenty days.

The purpose of this letter is to ask the Commission to allow Senator Talmadge until May 15, 1979, to respond to these questions.

The circumstances that necessitate this request are most unusual. As you may know, Senator Talmadge is now participating in the Alcohol Rehabilitation Program at the Naval Regional Medical Center, Long Beach, California. For medical reasons his doctor strongly discourages contact with Senator Talmadge about matters concerning his Senatorial duties. While his doctor has not advised us when Senator Talmadge will be able to return to Washington, we anticipate that it will be some time in March.

Upon his return, Senator Talmadge will be faced with a great number of normal Senate matters which will have accumulated during his absence. Moreover, he must immediately begin preparation for a Senate Ethics Committee hearing concerning alleged improprieties relating to his office and campaign affairs. We expect that the Ethics Committee hearing will begin some time in April. The hearing will last at least a week; it may extend to two weeks.

In these circumstances, Senator Talmadge should be allowed at least until May to complete the Committee's questionnaire. I realize that the Commission, like other government investigating bodies, has important work to do. I submit, however, that a three-month extension is not an unreasonable request in view of the unique situation that exists.

Please bring Senator Talmadge's request for extension to the personal attention of the Commission's Members.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,

James Hamilton
Counsel for Senator Talmadge

Re: MUR 638(78)

Gentlepersons:

Based on information ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities, the Federal Election Commission has found reason to believe that the Southern Wholesalers Association may have violated certain provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act").

Specifically, it appears that the Southern Wholesalers Association may have violated 2 U.S.C. § 441b (18 U.S.C. § 610) by giving to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, a registered political committee, a campaign contribution on or about August 22, 1975 in the amount of approximately $500.00

Under the Act, you have an opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken against you. Please submit any factual or legal materials which you believe are relevant to the Commission's analysis of this matter. Where appropriate, statements should be submitted under oath.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, which appears to read "W. C. Oldaker", is written over the typed name.

Re: MUR 638(78)

Dear Mr. Minchew:

Based on information ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities, the Federal Election Commission has found reason to believe that you may have violated certain provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act").

Specifically, it appears that you may have violated section 302(b) of the 1971 Act (2 U.S.C. § 432(b)) by failing to render to the Talmadge Campaign Committee Treasurer a detailed account of contributions received in 1973 and 1974 and deposited into Riggs National Bank account #01-08-184-923.

Under the Act, you have an opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken against you. Please submit any factual or legal materials which you believe are relevant to the Commission's analysis of this matter. Where appropriate, statements should be submitted under oath.

Sincerely,

William C. Oldaker

Re: MUR 638(78)

Gentlepersons:

Based on information ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities, the Federal Election Commission has found reason to believe that the National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives may have violated certain provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act").

Specifically, it appears that the National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives may have violated 2 U.S.C. § 441b (18 U.S.C. § 610) by giving to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, a registered political committee, a campaign contribution on or about September 9, 1975 in the amount of approximately $250.00.

Under the Act, you have an opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken against you. Please submit any factual or legal materials which you believe are relevant to the Commission's analysis of this matter. Where appropriate, statements should be submitted under oath.

Re: MUR 638(78)

Dear Mrs. Tisdale:

Based on information ascertained to date in the Commission's investigation in MUR 638(78), the Federal Election Commission has found reason to believe that the Talmadge Campaign Committee and the Talmadge Newsletter Fund may have violated certain additional provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act").

Specifically, the Commission has found:

- (1) reason to believe that the Talmadge Campaign Committee may have violated § 304 of the 1971 Act (2 U.S.C. § 434(a)) by failing to report contributions which were deposited into the Riggs National Bank Account #01-08-184-923 during 1973 and 1974;
- (2) reason to believe that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund:
  - (a) may have violated 2 U.S.C. § 441b by accepting prohibited contributions from Southern Wholesalers Association, National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives and the Federal Land Bank of St. Louis;
  - (b) may have violated 2 U.S.C. § 439a and 11 C.F.R. § 113.5(b) by transferring funds to the Talmadge Campaign Committee after commingling funds prohibited as contributions pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441b.

As you are aware, under the Act you have an opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken against the Talmadge Campaign Committee, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund or you. Additionally, please submit answers to the enclosed questions within 20 days of receipt.

The Commission has also determined to take no further action with regard to the Talmadge Campaign Committee's and the Talmadge Newsletter Fund's apparent failure to comply with 2 U.S.C. §§432, 433, by not consolidating reporting through a principal campaign committee.

QUESTIONS TO ALLYNE D. TISDALE

1. The Talmadge Newsletter Fund registered as a political committee, supporting the candidacy of Senator Talmadge, and reported as a political committee until it terminated on October 10, 1977. This Fund has recently been characterized as an office account rather than an political committee.

(a) Was the Fund a political committee as it registered and reported or an office account?

(b) Furnish any documentation which would support your answer to (a) above.

2. The Talmadge Newsletter Fund reported receipt of a contribution in the amount of $1,000 from the Federal Land Bank of St. Louis, Mo., on March 7, 1977. According to a recent newspaper article in the Washington Star, the Bank officials state that they intended the $1,000 as an honorarium in payment for a speech made by Senator Talmadge.

(a) What criteria did you employ in your determination that the $1,000 was a reportable campaign contribution?

(b) Furnish any documentation that would justify your reporting this $1,000 as a political contribution.

3. The Talmadge Newsletter Fund reported receipt of contributions from William J. Culley (2/28/77, $1,000) and David C. Murchison (1/14/77, $1,000).

(a) Were these funds intended as:
(i) campaign contributions?
(ii) office account contributions?
(iii) honoraria?

(b) Were these funds the personal funds of the reported donors?

4. It has been reported that some deposits into the Riggs Account (# 01-08-184-923, opened by Daniel Minchew) were campaign contributions. The Federal Election Campaign Act, as amended, places the responsibility for reporting contributions upon the treasurer of political committees.

(a) Provide supplemental reports for 1973 and 1974 indicating which, if any, deposits into that account were given for the purpose of influencing a federal election.

(b) Provide statements from those individuals who maintain that the deposits emanating from them were not campaign contributions.

QUESTIONS TO SENATOR HERMAN TALMADGE

1. The Talmadge Campaign Committee has reported several itemized expenditures to you:

- May 31, 1974, reimbursement for "air travel - political trips" in the amount of $406.44;
- August 14, 1974, reimbursement for "Postage" in the amount of $109.40;
- March 5, 1975, reimbursement for "Hotel expense, J-J Day Dinner" in the amount of $56.16;
- November 17, 1976, payment to you for "entertaining the President-Elect, Vice President-Elect, Members of Congress, Lovejoy, Ga." in the amount of $200.00;
- March 20, 1978, reimbursement of "travel expenditures" in the amount of $134.36

Your candidate reports do not reflect expenditures made by you for which these reimbursements were made.

(a) Why did you not report your original payments as expenditures in your candidate reports for the relevant reporting periods?

(b) Did you declare any of the above reimbursements on your federal income tax reports for the relevant years?

2. Your Special Account indicates deposits on March 12, 1974 and November 20, 1974 in the amount of $5.00 each from Vivian P. Gravette, 2231 Brandler Road, Augusta, Georgia, 30906, for "newsletter expenses." These sums have never been reported by you as contributions received. A deposit into the Special Account was also made on March 25, 1974, in the amount of $3.00 from Mrs. F.M. Akers, 425 Carriage Drive, N.E., Atlanta, Ga., 30328. In your 1978 amendments to your 1974 reports, for the period March 1, 1974 to May 31, 1974, you reported the Akers deposit as a contribution for "newsletter expenses."

(a) What criteria were employed to distinguish the Gravette deposit from the Akers deposit when you determined that the Akers deposit was a campaign contribution but that the Gravette deposit was not?

(b) Furnish any documentation which you have that would support your not having reported the Gravette deposit as a contribution.

3. In your 1978 candidate reports for the period April 1, 1973 through June 30, 1974, you indicate the receipt of a contribution from "Greater Atlanta Credit Union Chapter, Atlanta, Georgia, 30303." Please furnish a more thorough mailing address and organizational name.

4. Your Special Account indicates a travel reimbursement from Alabama REA, deposited on January 28, 1976, in the amount of $56.73. The account indicates no honorarium receipt from Alabama REA during that year.

(a) Was an honorarium received by you from Alabama REA during 1976?

(b) if yes, please provide:

- (1) the date of receipt; and
- (2) the place of the event for which the honorarium was given.

(c) if not, was an honorarium recieved from that organization in 1975?

(d) if no honorarium was received by you from that organization in 1975 or 1976, for what purpose was the trip made for which you were reimbursed by this organization?

5. According to your Special Account, an honorarium in the amount of $1,000 was deposited on March 2, 1976, along with a deposit of $192.37 for what appears to be a travel reimbursement from Parkison Strong Priscock, Inc. A receipt from this corporation does not appear on you Senate Rule 42 filing.

Did you receive an honorarium from this organization in addition to the honoraria reported to the Senate?

6. Your Rule 42 filings indicate an aggregate honoraria receipt of $24,900 by you during 1976. Attachment IV to your September responses to the Commission's questions indicates an aggregate receipt of $25,000.

- (a) From whom did you receive the additional $100.00?
- (b) On what date did you receive the $100.00?
- (c) Describe your activity for which you received the $100.00.

7. Your special account indicates a deposit of a $1,000 honorarium on March 8, 1977, from Health Industries Mfg. Association. This organization was not reported as having given to you an honorarium on your Rule 42 filing.

Did you receive an honorarium from this organization in addition to the honoraria reported to the Senate?

8. Your special account indicates what appear to be travel reimbursement deposits from several organizations which were not reported by you as having given to you honoraria during those years:

- American Health Care
Deposited: 3/15/77
Amount: $76.50
- Federal Land Bank of St. Louis
Deposited: 3/28/77
Amount: $138.00
- American Bankers Association
Deposited: 4/20/77
Amount: $210.00

(a) With regard to each of the above, were these reimbursements for travel expenses?

(b) If yes:

(i) did you, your campaign committee or the Talmadge Newsletter Fund receive any of the following from each of these organizations, in connection with the trips for which you were reimbursed:

- (a) honoraria?
- (b) campaign contributions?
- (c) anything of value?

(ii) to what location did you travel?

(iii) on what date did you travel?

(iv) what was the purpose of your travel?

(c) If not travel reimbursements, for what purpose were each of the above amounts give to you?

9. The Talmadge Campaign Committee's March 10, July 10 and Year End Reports for 1975 indicate expenditures to Carterfone Communications Corporation for "equipment rental." The September 10, 1975, Talmadge Campaign Committee report shows no such expenditure to Carterfone during that quarterly period. Your Special Account, however, indicates payments to Carterfone in the amount of $573.40 between July 1 and December 31, 1975 for equipment rental.

Why were your payments to Carterfone in the amount of $573.40 not reported as expenditures on your candidate reports for the relevant periods?

10. The Talmadge Campaign Committee's April, July and October 1976 Reports show expenditures to Sun Crown for newsletter expenses. The Committee's 1976 year-end and April 1977 Reports show no expenditures to Sun Crown for newsletter expenses. Your Special Account, however, indicates payments to Sun Crown for newsletter expenses during those periods when the Committee did not report such expenditures.

Why were your payments to Sun Crown for newsletter expenses not reported as expenditures on your candidate reports for these reporting periods?

11. In your response to the Commission's initial questions you referred to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund as an office account. The Talmadge Newsletter Fund registered as a political committee, stating that it would support you as a candidate for the U.S. Senate in an aggregate amount in excess of $1,000.00 during the calendar year. The Fund also reported as a political committee until termination in 1977.

(a) Upon what basis do you support your current characterization of the Fund as an office account rather than a political committee?

(b) Furnish any documentation which would support your current characterization of the Fund as an office account.

12. Newspaper articles report that you have acknowledged receiving small cash gifts over several years.

8 3 0 4 0 4 1 3 6 7

(a) Since April 1977, approximately how much such money have you accepted?

(b) The Washington Post of 5/22/78 quoted you as stating that "They come and say they know I have a lot of expenses back in Washington and they want to help me."

(i) Does this statement accurately reflect the purpose for which these cash amounts were given?

(ii) List the types of expenses for which, to your knowledge, the money was given to you.

(c) List the specific efforts, including questions you asked, which you made when accepting these cash gifts to accurately ascertain the purpose for which the money was being given.

13. It has been reported that since January 1, 1962 you have accepted courtesy lodging on trips to Georgia.

(a) Furnish:

(i) dates of such accommodations

(ii) place at which such lodging was afforded

(iii) purpose of each trip during which such courtesy lodging was afforded

(iv) value of such lodging

(b) Did any campaign activity occur during such trips when courtesy lodging was afforded?

(c) Were any campaign expenditures made by you, the Talmadge Campaign Committee, Georgians for Talmadge or the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, during or in connection with any trips on which you received courtesy lodging?

(d) Were any United States Senate reimbursements claimed for expenses in connection with such trips during which you received courtesy lodging?

14. It has been reported that automobiles have been furnished to you by Mitchell Brothers since January 1, 1968:

(a) For what purpose were such automobiles/vehicles used?

83040412674

(b) What are the dates of such vehicle usages:

(c) What is the approximate value of the vehicle usages?

(d) Provide a current mailing address for Mitchell Brothers and the name(s) of any officers who have assisted you in obtaining the use of automobiles.

15. It has been reported that numerous organizations and individuals have provided to you air transportation to and from Georgia and around Georgia either on private planes or in the form of commercial airline tickets. For the period since January 1, 1968, furnish:

(a) the names of each person or entity and a current mailing address for each;

(b) the registered owner of any non-commercial planes used;

(c) the approximate value of each trip;

(d) the date of each trip;

(e) the purpose of each such trip.

General Counsel's Report

I. Previous Commission Action

On August 23, 1978, the Commission determined that there was reason to believe that Senator Herman Talmadge violated 2 U.S.C. §§434 [§ 304 of the 1971 FECA and § 204 of the 1974 FECA amendments], by initially failing to report campaign expenditures, loans and reimbursements for 1973, 1974 and 1975 and that the Talmadge Campaign Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 434 by initially failing to report campaign loans from the candidate for 1973 and 1974, and by reporting incompletely for 1975. On that same date the Commission also determined to send letters and questions to the respondents.

Both Senator Talmadge and the Talmadge Campaign Committee responded to the questions. Copies of the responses are attached. Shortly thereafter, the Senator and the Talmadge Campaign Committee re-amended their amended 1973, 1974 and 1975 filings re-characterizing the money spent by the Senator in 1973 and 1974 from "loans" to "candidate expenditures."

On October 6, 1978, the General Counsel's office sent letters to the Senate Committee on Ethics and the Department of Justice requesting that information in their files be made available to the Commission. The response from the Department of Justice is attached. The Senate Ethics Committee responded by telephone advising that the Commission could have access to their files. On November 2, 1978, the General Counsel's office wrote Senator Stevenson, Chairman of the Ethics Committee, advising the Committee of Senator Talmadge's and the campaign committee's re-amendments to their 1973, 1974, and 1975 filings.

II. Evidence and Analysis

Introduction

Senator Talmadge's last election was in 1974. He has never filed a waiver of his candidate reporting obligation pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 101.3.

In July 1978, Senator Talmadge filed amendments to his 1973 and 1974 candidate reports itemizing expenses he had made during those years and justifying the $26,912.44 which the Talmadge Campaign Committee transferred to him in January 1975. He had in 1973 filed no reports and in 1974 reported zero receipts and zero expenditures. The Talmadge Campaign Committee also filed amended reports for the same periods duplicating the itemization.

These reports characterized the expenses by the Senator as "loans" to the Talmadge Campaign Committee. In October 1978, both the Senator and the Talmadge Campaign Committee re-amended the 1973 and 1974 reports in order to recharacterize the expenses as "candidate expenditures" by the Senator, reimbursed by the Committee.

The Senator, as stated above, had been reimbursed by the committee in January 1975. This reimbursement, as it is now characterized by the Senator and the Committee, was reported by the Committee as a transfer in its 1975 reports. The amount of the reimbursement, according to the amended 1973 and 1974 reports, is equal to the total expenditures made by the Senator minus several contributions he had deposited into one of his own accounts. These contributions, to be discussed later in this report, also went unreported until the 1978 amendments.

The various accounts with which this report is concerned are:

1) Talmadge Campaign Committee ("TCC"): an ongoing campaign committee, originally registered in 1972. Its chairman has always been the Senator's Administrative Assistant and its treasurer one of the Senator's personal secretaries. It is a currently operating committee reporting in October 1978, $5,388 in quarterly receipts, $4,374 in quarterly expenditures, and $99,375.99 cash on hand at the end of the period. This committee reimbursed the Senator for the campaign expenditures he made during 1973 and 1974 (see above).

2) Special Account: a bank account belonging to Senator Talmadge, used to pay various office related items not officially reimbursable by the U.S. Senate. Reimbursement by the TCC for the Senator's campaign expenditures in 1973 and 1974 was deposited into this account. The Senator responded to FEC question 1(b)(i) that the following people had responsibility for making the expenditures and maintaining the account during 1973-1974:

Daniel Minchew, Administrative Assistant; Chairman of the Talmadge Campaign Committee (05/16/71 to 10/03/74)

Allyne D. Tisdale, Staff Assistant/ Financial Secretary; Secretary-Treasurer, Talmadge Campaign Committee

Dathine E. Brunson, Personal Secretary; Secretary-Treasurer, Talmadge Campaign Committee.

3) Talmadge Newsletter Fund ("TNF"): an account in existence between August 1975 and October 1977; registered as a political committee and reported on Form 3's; transferred remaining funds to TCC on 6/17/77 and terminated on 10/10/77; Chairman and Treasurer same as TCC's.

4) Georgians for Talmadge ("GFT"): an authorized campaign committee; registered in 1973 and terminated in 1975; transferred remaining funds to TCC after returning 42% of contributions for 1974 election to contributors; last Treasurer was T. Rogers Wade (Senator's Administrative Assistant and Chairman of TCC after 10/03/74 when Minchew left staff).

5) "Riggs Secret Account": an account opened in 1973 by Daniel Minchew (Senator's then Administrative Assistant and Chairman of TCC); remains open to date although dormant since 1974; opened in name of "Talmadge Campaign Committee"; Senator allegedly unaware of its existence until August 1978 (newspaper reports); account allegedly contains or did contain some campaign contributions.

Much of the information contained herein comes from our review of Senate Ethics' files, including an audit by the General Accounting Office ("GAO audit"). Recommendations are separately listed after the analysis.

A. Candidate Reports

The Commission determined on August 23, 1978, that there was reason to believe that Senator Talmadge violated 2 U.S.C.

83040412682

§ 434 by initially failing to report campaign expenditures, loans and reimbursements for 1973, 1974 and 1975. Additional possible violations are discussed below.

1) 1972 and 1973

Senator Talmadge did not file candidate reports during 1972 and 1973. According to the testimony of the Senator before the Select Committee on Ethics ("Ethics Committee") on 10/13/78, Senator Talmadge attributed the non-filing to staff error. According to Daniel Minchew's statement to the Ethics Committee on September 28, a staff memorandum was prepared on April 13, 1972, suggesting that the Senator need not file prior to 1974 because Georgia law, at that time, prevented him from declaring his candidacy until the year of the election. In response to the Commission's questions sent to Senator Talmadge, he reported that "[a]t the beginning of 1973 there was general confusion within the Talmadge Campaign Committee regarding the requirement of the new Federal Election Commission Law, particularly as to when 'candidate status' began..." [question 1(c)(i)].

Section 301(b) of the 1971 FECA defines a candidate as:

"...an individual who seeks nomination for election, or election, to Federal office, whether or not such individual is elected, and, for purposes of this paragraph, an individual shall be deemed to seek nomination for election, or election, if he has (1) taken the action necessary under the law of a State to qualify himself for nomination for election, or election, to Federal office, or (2) received contributions or made expenditures, or has given his consent for any other person to receive contributions or make expenditures, with a view to bringing about his nomination for election, or election, to such office;"

On June 28, 1973, Senator Talmadge wrote to the Honorable Charles Campbell, Chairman, Georgians for Talmadge Committee "authorizing 'Georgians For Talmadge' to solicit or receive contributions or make expenditures on behalf of my candidacy for re-election to the United States Senate."

On April 19, 1972, the Talmadge Campaign Committee ("TCC"), registered with the Secretary of the Senate as a single candidate political committee. The TCC reported its address as 109 Senate Office Building (Senator Talmadge's office), its Treasurer as Dathine Brunson, (Talmadge's personal secretary) and its Chairman as Daniel Minchew (Senator Talmadge's Administrative Assistant). As early as April 7, 1972 - October 26, 1972, the TCC reported receiving individual contributions in the amount of $2,000 and expenditures in the amount of $2,493.80.

In 1978, Senator Talmadge filed 1973 candidate reports itemizing $14,669.11 in expenditures. This is the amount for which the TCC reimbursed him in January 1975 (TCC reported this transfer in its March 10, 1975 Report as a "transfer out" to "Herman E. Talmadge Special Account".) The initial 1978 amendments indicated that the amounts spent by the Senator were loans to TCC. The later filed amendments re-characterized these amounts spent as candidate expenditures reimbursed by the TCC rather than loans.

Analysis: Senator Talmadge was a "candidate" under Section 301(B) of the 1971 FECA in 1972 and 1973. He received "contributions" (introduction) and, as reported in 1978, made "expenditures". Moreover, in 1973 he had given his consent to both TCC and Georgians For Talmadge to receive contributions and make expenditures on behalf of his candidacy for re-election. Failure to file Candidate Reports in 1972 and 1973 appears to be a violation of Section 304(a) of the FECA of 1971.

2) 1974

In 1974 Senator Talmadge began filing candidate reports, reporting zero receipts and zero expenditures.

In 1978, the Senator amended the 1974 reports to show $12,243.33 in itemized loans to the TCC and then re-amended the 1974 reports to characterize the monies spent as candidate expenditures reimbursed by the TCC. This amount was reimbursed to Senator Talmadge on 1/30/75, the day he signed his year-end report showing zero receipts and expenditures, and was reported by the TCC as a "transfer out" in its March 10, 1975 Report.

The TCC in its 1974 Reports also indicated the following expenditures. The TCC expenditures raised the possibility of additional unreported 1974 candidate expenditures:

a) 5/31/74 "Talmadge, Herman E. - special Account, 109 Russell Senate Office Bldg., reimbursement: air travel - political trips, $406.44."

83040412684

b) 8/14/74 "Talmadge, Herman E. - Special Account, 109 Russell Senate Office Building, Postage, $109.40."

Analysis

a) Amended Reports: If the 1974 expenses paid by the Senator were loans, as originally reported in the first 1978 amendments, both Senator Talmadge and the TCC had an obligation to report. Section 304(b)(5) of the 1971 Act provides that reports filed under § 304(a) shall disclose:

(5) each loan to or from any person within the calendar year in an aggregate amount or value in excess of $100, together with the full names and mailing addresses (occupations and the principal places of business, if any) of the lender and endorsers, if any, and the date and amount of such loans;

If, as Senator Talmadge now reports, the monies spent were candidate expenditures, Senator Talmadge was required to itemize all which were over $100 and report the total sum of his expenditures. Section 304(b)(9) and (11) require a candidate to report:

(9) the full name and mailing address (occupation and the principal place of business, if any) of each person to whom expenditures have been made by such committee or on behalf of such committee or candidate within the calendar year in an aggregate amount or value in excess of $100, the amount, date, and purpose of each such expenditure and the name and address of, and office sought by, each candidate on whose behalf such expenditure was made;

(11) the total sum of expenditures made by such committee or candidate during the calendar year;

b) Political trip and postage reimbursements: these raise the possibility of additional failures to report candidate expenditures. It is unclear from the TCC reports whether the Senator's original payment, for which he was reimbursed by the TCC, was an "expenditure". The Commission should seek further clarification in this regard.

3) 1975-78

The TCC's reports for the years 1975-1978 indicate transfers to the Senator. These transfers raise the possibility of unreported candidate expenditures for the years indicated. The Senator has consistently reported zero receipts and zero expenditures. 1/

(a) 1975 - Senator Talmadge's Candidate Reports for 1975 indicate zero contributions and zero expenditures. The TCC reported, as an itemized expenditure in the July 10th Report, a payment to "Senator Herman E. Talmadge, 109 Russell Senate Office Building, reimbursement, Hotel Expense, J-J Day Dinner, $56.16."

(b) 1976 - Senator Talmadge reported zero expenditures and zero contributions in his 1976 candidate filings. The TCC, in its Year-end Report, reported an itemized expenditure to "Herman E. Talmadge, U.S.S., 109 Russell Senate Building, Entertaining The President-Elect, Vice-President-Elect, Members of Congress, Lovejoy, Georgia, $200.00."

(c) 1978 - Senator Talmadge's April 10th and July 10th Candidate Reports indicate zero receipts and zero expenditures. The TCC April 10th Report indicates an itemized expenditure to "Herman E. Talmadge, reimbursement for travel expenditures, $134.26."

Analysis: It is unclear from the TCC reports whether candidate "expenditures" were made and reimbursed. The Commission should seek clarification as to whether "expenditures" were made by the Senator.

1/ The Senator's October 10th Quarterly Report for 1978 was amended to show receipts of $50.00. These receipts were received, according to this filing, in 1972 and 1973. (see attached Appendix A re Sloane, Walden and Hightower). These contributions were, according to this report, discovered in a recent, personally conducted audit of the Special Account and had been inadvertently deposited into that account. See Senator's response to FEC question 2(d). In the 1978 amendments to the 1973 and 1974 Reports, two of these contributions were deducted from the Senator's total itemized expenditures for 1973 and 1974 in order to show that the precise amount of money the Senator was reimbursed in January 1975 by the Talmadge Campaign Committee was accurate. It would appear, therefore, that if they used in 1975 (when the Senator was reimbursed) the calculations reported in 1978 to determine the amount that TCC would give the Senator, they had to have been aware of these contributions at that time, eg. 1975.

B. The Special Account

1. Campaign Contributions deposited

a) several items from individuals were deposited into the Special Account during the period 1972-1974. These deposits have now, in the 1978 Amendments, been reported as campaign contributions. A list of these contributions is attached as Appendix A.

Analysis: Failure by the Senator to report receipt of these campaign contributions during the reporting periods in which received appears to be a violation of section 304(a) and (b) of the 1971 Act [2 U.S.C. § 434].

b) The Special Account also indicates the following deposits from individuals which have not been reported as campaign contributions:

- (1) Vivian P. Gravette
2231 Brandler Road
Augusta, Georgia 30906
deposited: 03/12/74 - $5.00
deposited: 11/20/74 - $5.00

Analysis: Receipt was reported by the Senator on his 1974 "Statement of Contributions and Honoraria" pursuant to Senate Rule 42 and 44 ("Rule 42 filing"). However, the special account indicates both deposits were for "newsletter expenses" as was the Mrs. Akers deposit (see Appendix A). The Commission should seek an explanation for the varying treatment and how such distinctions were drawn.

- (2) Diane B. Anderson
5535 Mt. Vernon Pwky, NW
Atlanta, Georgia 30327
deposited: 09/11/73 - $100.00

Analysis: This item was reported on the Rule 42 filing. It has never been reported as a campaign contribution. There appears to be no reason to believe at this time that it was a campaign contribution.

83040412687

c) Several organizational checks/monies were also deposited into the special account during 1973:

- (1) Greater Atlanta Credit Union Chapter
Atlanta, Georgia 30303
deposited: 05/04/73 - $250.00
- (2) Georgia Bankers Association
William-Oliver Building
Atlanta, Georgia 30303
deposited: 05/24/73 - $150.00

In his 1978 amendments to his 04/01/73 - 06/30/73 candidate campaign reports, Senator Talmadge reported these deposits as itemized contributions "for Newsletter Fund." In these amended reports, the Senator deducted these above amounts from the campaign expenditures he itemized as having been made in 1973 thereby reducing the total to the amount the TCC had reimbursed him in 1975.

Analysis: These receipts have now been characterized as contributions by the Senator in his 1978 amendments and, therefore appear to amount to a failure to report in 1973 as required by section 304(a) and (b) of the 1971 Act. They might also amount to prohibited contributions pursuant to section 441b. The Georgia Bankers Association reincorporated in June of 1944, according to the Georgia Secretary of State. The Greater Atlanta Credit Union does not appear to be registered with the Georgia Secretary of State but might be an organization chartered pursuant to an Act of Congress.

2. A review of the GAO Audit of the Special Account has raised questions concerning matters other than the above deposited campaign contributions: (a) is it an "office account" under FEC regulations; (b) has the Senator violated the Section 441i limitations on honoraria; and (c) have additional candidate "expenditure" not be reported?

a) Is the Special Account an office account under Commission Regulations, 11 C.F.R. § 113.1 et seq., thus requiring reporting?

On April 13, 1977, the FEC office account regulations were prescribed. Under 11 C.F.R. § 113.1(b), an office account is an account which: (1) was established for the purpose of supporting the activities of a federal office holder; (2) contains excess campaign funds and funds donated; and (3) does not contain only personal funds of the officeholder and/or funds appropriated by Congress.

Analysis: Senator Talmadge, in response to our questions, eg. 1(a), had responded that the "principal sources of funds... are and have been honoraria, interest on short-term commercial paper, and reimbursements from U.S. Senate." A review of the GAO audit of the Special Account since April 1977, when the regulations were prescribed, reveals that deposits since that time have been honoraria, travel reimbursements for speaking engagements, and Senate reimbursements, all of which are personal funds or funds appropriated by Congress.

Thus, while the purpose of this account appears to satisfy the "office account" definition (see Senator's answer to FEC question 4(a)), the nature of the funds deposited therein since the prescription of the regulations prevent the Special account from being designated an "office account."

b) Has the Senator violated the section 441i limitations on acceptance of honoraria?

Analysis: Section 441i limits each honorarium to no more than $2,000 and establishes a calendar year aggregate of $25,000 in honoraria received. This section was added to the Commission's jurisdiction in 1976, effective May 11, 1976. The Commission has no reporting requirement nor relevant forms. However, under Senate rules such receipts are required to be publically reported. Because Senator Talmadge advised the FEC that his honoraria are deposited into his special account, a comparative review was made of his special account and his Rule 42 filing. This review raises several questions:

- (1) 1976 (Rule 42 filing reported total receipt of $24,900 2/ in honoraria)

(a) The special account indicates a travel reimbursement from Alabama REA, deposited on 1/28/76. No

2/ In attachment IV to his responses to FEC questions, Senator Talmadge reported total receipts of $25,000 in 1976.

honorarium from that organization is reported for 1976. It might well be reported as an honorarium received in 1975. We should seek an explanation in this regard.

(b) A $1,000 honorarium was deposited into the Special Account on 3/2/76 plus a deposit of $192.37 for what appears to be a travel reimbursement from Parkinson Strong Priscock, Inc. This receipt was not reported in the Senator's Rule 42 filing. However, a $1,000 honorarium was reported on the Rule 42 filing in the amount of $1,000 from Wheat Center USA, 15 East 2nd, Hutchinson, Kansas, 67501. These might well be the same receipt. We should seek explanation with regard to these reports.

(2) 1977 (Rule 42 filing reported total receipt of 24,700 in honoraria for 1977).

(a) The Special account indicates the deposit on March 8 of a $1,000 honorarium from Health Industries Mfg. Association. This honorarium was not reported in the Rule 42 filing. However, the Rule 42 filing indicates a $1,000 honorarium from the College of American Pathologists, received on March 8 for a speech in Innesbrook, Fla. on March 6 which the special account does not reflect. We should seek an explanation.

(b) The special account indicates several deposits for travel reimbursements but shows no accompanying honorarium received. A travel reimbursement from the Federal Land Bank of St. Louis was one, and this alerted us to the possibility that a deposit from that Bank into the Talmadge Newsletter Account might be an honorarium rather than a contribution as was reported to the FEC. We therefore suggest that an explanation be sought for all of the following (See Talmadge Newsletter Fund section for further comment with regard to the Federal Land Bank):

(i) American Health Care deposit on 3/15 in the amount of $76.50

Senator Talmadge received Honoraria from the American College of Nuclear Physicians and the National Health Lawyers Assoc. in the amount of $1,000 each for a speech(s) in New Orleans on 2/11/77. These honoraria were deposited on 3/15 along with a travel reimbursement in the amount of $76.50 from the American College of Nuclear Physicians. It might well be that American Health Care split the travel expense.

(ii) Federal Land Bank of St. Louis: deposit on 3/28 in the amount of $138.00

The Senator did not report receiving an honorarium from the Bank in his Rule 42 filing. However, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund indicates a $1,000 contribution (the fund registered as a political committee and reported on Form 3's) on March 7, 1977. Newspaper reports indicate that on that date the Senator spoke to the Bank's annual stockholders' meeting and that the Bank officials intended the $1,000 as an honorarium (see further detailed discussion under Talmadge Newsletter Fund below).

(iii) American Bankers Association deposit on 4/20 in the amount of $210.00

No honorarium reported.

(c) Have candidate "expenditures" not been reported?

Analysis: Our review of the GAO audit of the Special account along with a review of the TCC filings raises questions regarding the reporting of campaign expenditures. There appear to be some matters reported at various times as campaign expenditures but at other times not reported at all. During the times when such expenses were not reported, however, the Senator did make payments of a seemingly identical nature from his special account. Thus, the issue is raised as to whether "expenditures" have not been reported. The two following charts illustrate the issue as to whether those items paid out of the special account and, therefore not reported should have been reported as expenditures.

C. Talmadge Newsletter Fund

The Talmadge Newsletter Fund ("TNF") was registered on August 22, 1975 with the Secretary of the Senate on political committee forms. From that date until 10/10/77, the TNF reported quarterly on Form 3's.

A review of the TNF by the General Counsel's Office reveals at least one 4/ corporate contribution reported (8/22/75, Southern Wholesalers Association, incorporated in June 1945) and one contribution reported from a Federal Land Bank, a "corporation organized by the authority of [a] law of Congress." 2 U.S.C. § 441b. On June 17, 1977 the remaining 5/ $2,839.49 in the TNF was reported as "transferred out to an affiliated committee," the TCC. On October 10, 1977 the TNF filed a termination report.

The review of the TNF by the General Counsel's office raises the following questions:

- 1) Is the TNF a political committee or an office account?

TNF registered as a political committee, naming a chairman and a treasurer. It continually reported as a political committee, using Form 3, and upon termination it reported transferring its remaining funds to TCC, identifying TCC as an "affiliated committee." Moreover, a review of the TCC and the TNF during TNF's existence indicates that most of the newsletter expenses were paid by TCC and most of the newsletter contributions were deposited into the TCC.

However, during the period of time after the effective date of the 1974 Amendments, when section 439a was enacted, but before prescription of our regulations (11 CFR § 113.1 et seq.) and the issuance of office account reporting forms, several Congressional offices inquired about reporting for office accounts. While there appears to be no written confirmation, the recollection

4/ TNF reported receipt of $250.00 from the National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives. It is unclear at this time whether this organization is incorporated.

5/ The General Counsel Office's review of the TNF filings, using the reported receipt and expenditure figures, indicates that upon termination TNF should have had $8.94 remaining although TNF reported '0'.

of several FEC staff members reveals that the suggestion was made that political committee forms could be used for disclosure purposes for office accounts. Moreover, the Senator and staff, at least at this time, consider that the TNF was an office account. See Senator's response to FEC question 4(a).

Analysis: The Commission could accept at face value that the account was a political committee. As such, several of the contributions would appear to violate 2 USC § 441b (18 USC § 610). Moreover, since TNF was separately reporting, rather than filing with a principal campaign committee, a violation of section 434(a)(2) [202(b)(2) of the 1974 Amendments] would appear to have occurred.

On the other hand, due to the lapse of time between enactment of section 439a and prescription of our office account regulations on April 13, 1977, the Commission might accept the current description of TNF as an office account/newsletter account. Under this designation, the transfer of any funds to TCC after April 13, 1977 would appear to constitute a violation of 11 CFR § 113.5(b) because of the commingling of corporate contributions.

(2) Has the section 441i limit on honoraria receipt been exceeded? The reporting of TNF also raises questions with regard to the receipt of honoraria and the section 441i limit enacted in 1976 (see also comments above re special account).

(a) TNF reported a contribution from the Federal Land Bank of St. Louis, P.O. Box 491, St. Louis, Mo. in the amount of $1,000 on 3/7/77. Federal Land Banks are chartered by the Farm Credit Administration, an independent agency of the federal government, under the current authority of the Farm Credit Act of 1971, 12 USC § 2001 et seq; thus, the problems discussed above about contributions prohibited by section 441b or transferring commingled funds from an office account to a political committee account.

Aside from the above possible violations, however, the question arises as to whether the $1,000 was a contribution or an honorarium. Our special account review revealed a travel reimbursement deposit on 3/28/77 from the Land Bank. Most travel reimbursements deposited into the special account had corresponding honoraria deposits. A recent newspaper article has indicated that the Land Bank officials intended it as an honorarium for a speech the Senator gave at the corporation's annual stockholder's meeting. Should this money turn out to be an honorarium, Senator Talmadge would be over the $25,000 limit of 2 U.S.C. § 441i. He has reported receipt of $24,700 in 1977.

(b) The TNF reported receipt of $1,000.00 on 2/28/77 from William J. Culley, Esq., 1200 17th St., N.W. Washington, D.C. 20036. Mr. Culley is also listed on the Senator's Rule 42 filing as having given $500 along with the National Ethical Pharmaceutical Association of St. Petersburg, Fla. (which also paid $500) for a speech the Senator gave in Washington, D.C. on 4/21/74.

(c) The TNF reported receipt of $1,000 on 1/14/77 from David C. Murchison, Esq., 1730 Pa. Ave., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20006. No previous record of an honorarium receipt from Mr. Murchison was located.

Analysis: Further questions need to be asked about the Federal Land Bank's payment in order to determine if it was an honorarium or a contribution. As the Commission stated in AO 1978-32, requested on behalf of Senator Talmadge, "... all circumstances incident to the making and receipt of a gift of money, or other thing of value, are relevant on the question of whether the gift is intended as a political contribution or as an honorarium."

With regard to the 1977 Culley and/or Murchison monies, the Commission may, in light of the 1974 Culley honorarium and the currently questioned Federal Land Bank issue, wish to seek further information.

D. Georgians for Talmadge

Georgians for Talmadge ("GFT") was an authorized campaign committee which registered with the Secretary of the Senate on July 27, 1973. In its statement of organization, GFT reported that it was not affiliated or connected with any other organization, that it was a single candidate committee, supporting only Senator Talmadge, that any residual funds would be paid either to the TCC or returned pro rata to contributors in the event of dissolution, and that it expected to terminate following the Nov. 1974 election. It terminated in October 1975, having transferred all remaining funds in its account to the TCC on 7/17/75.

A review of the GFT filings raises several possible violations:

(1) During 1974, two in-kind contributions were reported by GFT on each of its quarterly reports:

- (a) John Prince, II
P.O. Box 128
Tifton, Ga. 31794
President
Prince Retail & Leasing Systems, Inc.
Tifton, Ga.
Aggregate amount: $1,189.40
Purpose: Automobile
- (b) Ed Elson
57 Forsyth St., N.W.
Atlanta, Ga. 30303
President
The Healey Bldg. Co.
Atlanta, Ga.
Aggregate amount: $1,870.00
Purpose: Office Space

Analysis: The above in-kind contribution by John Prince, II, raises the possibility of a corporate contribution prohibited by section 441b if the automobile(s) belonged to the corporation and if the corporation was not timely paid for the use of its automobile(s). It has not yet been determined if Healey is a corporation, but this in-kind contribution raises the same issues. The Commission should seek clarification of the status of Healey and seek documentation that Mr. Prince and, if Healey is a corporation, Mr. Elson paid their corporations for the use of the car and office space.

(2) The 1974 Amendments to FECA added the provision (§ 202 (b) and § 203 of the 1974 Amendments) requiring consolidated filings. 2 U.S.C. §§ 433(e) and 434(a)(2). These sections became effective as of January 1975. The TCC and GFT did not file consolidated reports although both committees disclosed expenditures and receipts.

Analysis: Senator Talmadge did not designate a principal campaign committee through which other authorized committees should have filed. However, during the short period of time in 1975 when the consolidated filing provision was in effect and GFT was still in existence, GFT was in the process of closing its books, returning pro rata 42% of contributions and terminating. It had operated for 1 1/2 years without legally having to consolidate reporting with TCC. While the lack of consolidated filings appears to be a technical violation, there appears to be no need to pursue this matter at this time.

E. "Secret Riggs Account"

The Riggs Account was opened on July 3, 1973 by Daniel Minchew in the name of the "Talmadge Campaign Committee" while Mr. Minchew was Senator Talmadge's Administrative Assistant and the TCC Chairman. Senator Talmadge reports that he was unaware of the existence of this account until the Justice Department and the Senate Ethics Committee subpoenaed the account records on about August 24, 1978. Since late 1974, the account has remained dormant but still contains $113. According to Senate Ethics, the Deposits in question include:

		associated with
William Manning	$ 1,000	Bibb Mfg. Co.
J.C. "Bud" Shaw	5,000	Carpet Co.
Thomas Arnold	1,000
Howard B. Keck	2,000	Superior Oil Co.
Claude C. Cook	500	Cook & Co.
Parke Brinkley	500	Nat'l Agriculture Chemical Assoc.
H.P. Williams	500	Agriculture
William Fickling	250
John E. Ray	100	Union Paper Co.
Ralph Kittle & 9 Other Internat'l Paper Executives	1,000	Internat'l Paper Co.

Some of the contributors have acknowledged to newspapers that their contribution was for the purpose of influencing a federal elections, while some have stated that the money was given to the Senator for whatever purpose he saw fit.

To the knowledge of the General Counsel's office, neither the Senator nor the TCC has sought to identify and to file with the Commission those sums which were campaign contributions during 1973 and 1974 but were deposited into the Riggs account.

Analysis: Inasmuch as the FECA places the reporting responsibility upon candidates and committee treasurers, Senator Talmadge and/or the TCC should be required to amend their 1973 and 1974 reports or file supplemental reports to accurately reflect any contributions which might be or have been contained in this account. Statements from those individuals who now allege that their donations were not contributions should be requested. Because Mr. Minchew was chairman of TCC and because the question of the Senator's knowledge of the account is still an issue, the Commission should limit a determination of RTB to the TCC at this time.

8 3 0 4 0 4 1 2 6 9 8

It also appears that Mr. Minchew violated § 302(b) of the 1971 Act [2 USC § 432(b)] by failing to render to the TCC treasurer a detailed account of the contributions received.

830404112699

F. Miscellaneous

(1) 1974 Loan Repayment: On 5/9/74 the TCC reimbursed Senator Talmadge $6,123.36 for loans from 1968 and 1969. This expenditure was reported in the July 1974 TCC Report but had not previously been reported and carried forward by the TCC.

Analysis: Section 304(b)(12) of the 1971 Act provided that each report under § 304 shall disclose:

"the amount and nature of debts and obligations owed by or to the committee, in such form as the supervisory officer may prescribe and a continuous reporting of their debts and obligations after the election at such periods as the supervisory officer may require until such debts and obligations are extinguished."

Senate regulations, in effect at that time, provided for continuous reporting only of debts incurred on or after April 7, 1972:

Every debt incurred, or a contract, agreement, or promise to make a contribution or expenditure entered into on or after April 7, 1972, which is in writing and exceeds the amount of $100, shall be reported in separate schedules on the reporting forms prescribed by the Secretary until such debts, contracts, agreements and promises are paid, liquidated, canceled, forgiven or otherwise extinguished....

Thus, no reporting violation occurred with regard to this transaction.

(2) Principal Campaign Committee: Senator Talmadge has never designated a principal campaign committee.

Analysis: Under §202(b) of the 1974 Amendments and § 432(e) of the current Act, each candidate for federal office is required to "designate a political committee to serve as his principal campaign committee." Senator Talmadge has never been routinely requested to do so by Reports Analysis because he has not been in an election since 1974.

The Commission should send to Senator Talmadge a Form 2 to be completed and appropriately filed.

(3) Pocket Money: It has been reported and Senator Talmadge has acknowledged accepting "small cash gifts" over the years. This money raises two questions of concern to the FEC: (1) was any of the money given for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, or election of the Senator; and (2) was the money given for the purpose of supporting the Senator's activities as a Federal officeholder?

(a) The § 431 definition of "contribution" turns not upon the recipient's opinion of the purpose for the gift, but rather upon whether it was given for the purpose of influencing a federal election. Yet, newspaper articles indicate that these cash gifts were not reported to the FEC because ... "Mr. Talmadge says, he did not consider them to be campaign contributions" (New York Times, 8/3/78) nor were they "solicited as campaign contributions." (Washington Star, 5/21/78).

Analysis: It would appear that the criteria employed by the Senator in distinguishing personal gifts from contribution/-gifts is inadequate. However, it also appears that the proof problems of showing that some of the gifts were contributions would be insurmountable, especially inasmuch as no records appear to have been maintained. However, the Commission should question the Senator with regard to what criteria he actually employed.

(b) The second issue raised by these "small cash gifts" relates to the Commission's office account regulations which were prescribed on April 13, 1977.

11 CFR § 113.1(a) defines "funds donated" as "all funds including, but not limited to, gifts... which are donated for the purpose of supporting the activities of a Federal or State officeholder." Section 113.3 requires that all funds donated to a Federal officer who is a candidate for Federal office be deposited either into an office account or into the principal campaign committee's or other authorized campaign committee's account.

Analysis: Senator Talmadge has been quoted as stating that "[t]hey [constituents, friends, etc.] come and say they know I have a lot of expenses back in Washington and they want to help me." (Washington Post, 5/22/78). If this statement accurately reflects the purpose of any funds received after April 13, 1977, it would suggest a possible violation of the Regulations.

The Commission should request from the Senator more information regarding the donors purpose for giving these cash amounts.

(4) Motel/Hotel Accommodations: The newspapers have reported that the Senator has received courtesy lodging on his trips home to Georgia for years. Senate Ethics accounted for $450 worth of such lodging in 1977 and $240 for 1978 as of May 20, 1978 at the American Motor Hotel ($15/night, government rate). Senate Ethics also noted that prior to 1977 the senator spent most of his time in Georgia at the Talmadge Farms in Lovejoy. According to a Senate Ethics conversation with Mr. Goldstein, the president and principal shareholder of the Hotel, the courtesy lodging began in 1962 but increased significantly in 1976 upon the Senator's divorce. Mr. Goldstein also told the Committee that he had contributed to the Senator's campaign and that the reason for the courtesy lodging was that the Senator's presence "drew" other politicians to his hotel. Senator Talmadge's Amended Rule 42 filing shows $450 for 1977 in hotel accommodations from the Atlanta American Motor Hotel.

Analysis: With regard to such courtesy lodging, as opposed to the pocket money situation, the donor(s) are more or less isolated. This might well be a situation in which, regardless of the stated intent of the donor, the facts and circumstances of the donation overcome any allegation of its being a personal gift.

However, even if the courtesy lodging does not fall within the definition of a "contribution," it might well fall within the 11 CFR 113.1 definition of "funds donated" under the rationale of AO 1977-50. In that AO the Commission concluded that payment to vendors by NRSC for office-related materials or services on behalf of Senators would trigger the Senator's office account reporting requirement as well as the NRSC's reporting requirement because such payments were "for the purpose of supporting the activities of a Federal... officeholder."

The Commission should request from the Senator more detailed information concerning the purpose and dates of the trips during which he was given lodging and whether any campaign activities occurred during those trips.

(5) Car: According to Senate Ethics testimony a question has arisen about the possibility of corporate contributions in the form of lending automobiles to the Senator. Mitchell Brothers has lent cars to the Senator.

The Commission should request further information with regard to when such arrangements were made and for what purposes the cars were used.

(6) Airplane rides and airline tickets: The Senator has reportedly received frequent air travel from numerous corporations and individuals (eg. Atlanta Gas and Light, Georgia Power, Home Federal Savings and Loan, Charles Mason, Scott Hudgens) either in private planes or in the form of commercial airline tickets. Some of the travel reportedly was for campaign purposes.

The Commission should seek further information in order to determine if any such travel was an unreported contribution from an individual or a corporate contribution.

Amount: $10.00

(i) On the Senator's amended reports to the FEC for the period 3/1/74-5/31/74, filed in 1978, this item was characterized as an contribution "For Newsletter Expense." It was deducted from the total amount of itemized expenditures the Senator reported in 1978 as having been made in 1974 thereby reducing the total amount to the amount TCC reimbursed the Senator in 1975. This "reduction" of the amount by which the TCC reimbursed the Senator in January 1975 because of the receipt in 1974 of this contribution must be juxtaposed to the Senator's statement, in response to FEC question 2(d) that the inadvertent deposits of campaign contributions into the special account "were discovered only during the recent [last three months] review of my personal accounts."

(ii) On the Senator's Amended October 10, 1978 report, dated 10/17/78, this item was reported as a contribution received on 4/12/73 and inadvertently deposited in the Special Account. The Senator reported having transferred funds in this amount to TCC on 9/18/78.

(iii) Senator Talmadge also reported receiving this money on his 1973 Rule 42 filing.

(i) This item was reported on the Senator Rule 42 filing.

This item was reported as a contribution received for "newsletter expenses" in the Senator's 1978 amendments to the 3/1/74 - 5/31/74 Campaign report. It was deducted from the itemized expenditures made by Senator Talmadge thereby reducing the amount the Talmadge Campaign Committee refunded him in 1975. See Major Walden (i) above.

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20463

Honorable Herman Talmadge
United States Senate
Washington, D.C.

Re: MUR 638 (78)

Dear Senator Talmadge:

Based on information ascertained to date in the Commission's investigation in MUR 638(78), the Federal Election Commission has found reason to believe that you may have violated certain additional provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act").

Specifically, the Commission has found reason to believe that you may have:

- (a) violated § 304(a) of the Act of 1971, by initially failing to file candidate reports in 1972 and 1973;
- (b) violated § 304(a) and (b)(3) of the Act of 1971 by initially failing to report receipt of contributions in 1972, 1973 and 1974 from G. Michael Sloane, Majors Walden, G.B. Hightower, Mrs. F.M. Akers, and Vivian P. Gravette;
- (c) violated 18 U.S.C. § 610 (currently 2 U.S.C. § 441b) by accepting prohibited contributions in 1973 from Greater Atlanta Credit Union Chapter and Georgia Bankers Association;
- (d) violated § 204 of the 1974 Amendments to the Act, 2 U.S.C. § 434, by failing to report expenditures during 1975, 1976, 1977 and 1978 for equipment rental, newsletter expenses, travel expenses, postage, hotel expenses and entertainment;
- (e) violated 2 U.S.C. § 441i(a)(2) by accepting honoraria during the calendar years 1976 and 1977 over and above the aggregate limitation;

(f) violated 11 C.F.R. § 113.1 et seq., by accepting "funds donated" and 2 U.S.C. § 434 and 11 C.F.R. § 103.3 by accepting campaign contributions in the form of small cash gifts and not depositing them into a campaign account or an office account;

(g) violated 11 C.F.R. § 113.1 et seq., by accepting courtesy lodging and air travel without reporting its receipt as funds donated;

(h) violated 18 U.S.C. § 610 and 2 U.S.C. § 441b by accepting prohibited contributions or 2 U.S.C. § 434 by failing to report contributions in the nature of courtesy lodging, airplane transportation or airline tickets or reimbursement for such and automobile use;

As you are aware, under the Act you have an opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken against you. Additionally, please submit answers to the enclosed questions within 20 days of receipt.

The Commission has also determined to take no further action with regard to your apparent failure to designate a principal campaign committee and a campaign depository in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 101.2. Enclosed you will find an FEC Form 2, used to so designate, to be appropriately completed and filed by you.

Sincerely,

William C. Oldaker
General Counsel

QUESTIONS TO SENATOR HERMAN TALMADGE

1. The Talmadge Campaign Committee has reported several itemized expenditures to you:

- May 31, 1974, reimbursement for "air travel - political trips" in the amount of $406.44;
- August 14, 1974, reimbursement for "Postage" in the amount of $109.40;
- March 5, 1975, reimbursement for "Hotel expense, J-J Day Dinner" in the amount of $56.16;
- November 17, 1976, payment to you for "entertaining the President-Elect, Vice President-Elect, Members of Congress, Lovejoy, Ga." in the amount of $200.00;
- March 20, 1978, reimbursement of "travel expenditures" in the amount of $134.36

Your candidate reports do not reflect expenditures made by you for which these reimbursements were made.

(a) Why did you not report your original payments as expenditures in your candidate reports for the relevant reporting periods?

(b) Did you declare any of the above reimbursements on your federal income tax reports for the relevant years?

2. Your Special Account indicates deposits on March 12, 1974 and November 20, 1974 in the amount of $5.00 each from Vivian P. Gravette, 2231 Brandler Road, Augusta, Georgia, 30906, for "newsletter expenses." These sums have never been reported by you as contributions received. A deposit into the Special Account was also made on March 25, 1974, in the amount of $3.00 from Mrs. F.M. Akers, 425 Carriage Drive, N.E., Atlanta, Ga., 30328. In your 1978 amendments to your 1974 reports, for the period March 1, 1974 to May 31, 1974, you reported the Akers deposit as a contribution for "newsletter expenses."

(a) What criteria were employed to distinguish the Gravette deposit from the Akers deposit when you determined that the Akers deposit was a campaign contribution but that the Gravette deposit was not?

(b) Furnish any documentation which you have that would support your not having reported the Gravette deposit as a contribution.

3. In your 1978 candidate reports for the period April 1, 1973 through June 30, 1974, you indicate the receipt of a contribution from "Greater Atlanta Credit Union Chapter, Atlanta, Georgia, 30303." Please furnish a more thorough mailing address and organizational name.

4. Your Special Account indicates a travel reimbursement from Alabama REA, deposited on January 28, 1976, in the amount of $56.73. The account indicates no honorarium receipt from Alabama REA during that year.

(a) Was an honorarium received by you from Alabama REA during 1976?

(b) if yes, please provide:

- (1) the date of receipt; and
- (2) the place of the event for which the honorarium was given.

(c) if not, was an honorarium recieved from that organization in 1975?

(d) if no honorarium was received by you from that organization in 1975 or 1976, for what purpose was the trip made for which you were reimbursed by this organization?

5. According to your Special Account, an honorarium in the amount of $1,000 was deposited on March 2, 1976, along with a deposit of $192.37 for what appears to be a travel reimbursement from Parkison Strong Priscock, Inc. A receipt from this corporation does not appear on you Senate Rule 42 filing.

Did you receive an honorarium from this organization in addition to the honoraria reported to the Senate?

6. Your Rule 42 filings indicate an aggregate honoraria receipt of $24,900 by you during 1976. Attachment IV to your September responses to the Commission's questions indicates an aggregate receipt of $25,000.

83040412712

- (a) From whom did you receive the additional $100.00?
- (b) On what date did you receive the $100.00?
- (c) Describe your activity for which you received the $100.00.

7. Your special account indicates a deposit of a $1,000 honorarium on March 8, 1977, from Health Industries Mfg. Association. This organization was not reported as having given to you an honorarium on your Rule 42 filing.

Did you receive an honorarium from this organization in addition to the honoraria reported to the Senate?

8. Your special account indicates what appear to be travel reimbursement deposits from several organizations which were not reported by you as having given to you honoraria during those years:

- American Health Care
Deposited: 3/15/77
Amount: $76.50
- Federal Land Bank of St. Louis
Deposited: 3/28/77
Amount: $138.00
- American Bankers Association
Deposited: 4/20/77
Amount: $210.00

(a) With regard to each of the above, were these reimbursements for travel expenses?

- (b) If yes:
  - (i) did you, your campaign committee or the Talmadge Newsletter Fund receive any of the following from each of these organizations, in connection with the trips for which you were reimbursed:
    - (a) honoraria?
    - (b) campaign contributions?
    - (c) anything of value?
  - (ii) to what location did you travel?
  - (iii) on what date did you travel?
  - (iv) what was the purpose of your travel?

8 3 0 4 0 4 1 2 7 1 3

(c) If not travel reimbursements, for what purpose were each of the above amounts give to you?

9. The Talmadge Campaign Committee's March 10, July 10 and Year End Reports for 1975 indicate expenditures to Carterfone Communications Corporation for "equipment rental." The September 10, 1975, Talmadge Campaign Committee report shows no such expenditure to Carterfone during that quarterly period. Your Special Account, however, indicates payments to Carterfone in the amount of $573.40 between July 1 and December 31, 1975 for equipment rental.

Why were your payments to Carterfone in the amount of $573.40 not reported as expenditures on your candidate reports for the relevant periods?

10. The Talmadge Campaign Committee's April, July and October 1976 Reports show expenditures to Sun Crown for newsletter expenses. The Committee's 1976 year-end and April 1977 Reports show no expenditures to Sun Crown for newsletter expenses. Your Special Account, however, indicates payments to Sun Crown for newsletter expenses during those periods when the Committee did not report such expenditures.

Why were your payments to Sun Crown for newsletter expenses not reported as expenditures on your candidate reports for these reporting periods?

11. In your response to the Commission's initial questions you referred to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund as an office account. The Talmadge Newsletter Fund registered as a political committee, stating that it would support you as a candidate for the U.S. Senate in an aggregate amount in excess of $1,000.00 during the calendar year. The Fund also reported as a political committee until termination in 1977.

(a) Upon what basis do you support your current characterization of the Fund as an office account rather than a political committee?

(b) Furnish any documentation which would support your current characterization of the Fund as an office account.

12. Newspaper articles report that you have acknowledged receiving small cash gifts over several years.

83040412714

(a) Since April 1977, approximately how much such money have you accepted?

(b) The Washington Post of 5/22/78 quoted you as stating that "They come and say they know I have a lot of expenses back in Washington and they want to help me."

(i) Does this statement accurately reflect the purpose for which these cash amounts were given?

(ii) List the types of expenses for which, to your knowledge, the money was given to you.

(c) List the specific efforts, including questions you asked, which you made when accepting these cash gifts to accurately ascertain the purpose for which the money was being given.

13. It has been reported that since January 1, 1962 you have accepted courtesy lodging on trips to Georgia.

(a) Furnish:

(i) dates of such accommodations

(ii) place at which such lodging was afforded

(iii) purpose of each trip during which such courtesy lodging was afforded

(iv) value of such lodging

(b) Did any campaign activity occur during such trips when courtesy lodging was afforded?

(c) Were any campaign expenditures made by you, the Talmadge Campaign Committee, Georgians for Talmadge or the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, during or in connection with any trips on which you received courtesy lodging?

(d) Were any United States Senate reimbursements claimed for expenses in connection with such trips during which you received courtesy lodging?

14. It has been reported that automobiles have been furnished to you by Mitchell Brothers since January 1, 1968:

(a) For what purpose were such automobiles/vehicles used?

33040412715

(b) What are the dates of such vehicle usages:

(c) What is the approximate value of the vehicle usages?

(d) Provide a current mailing address for Mitchell Brothers and the name(s) of any officers who have assisted you in obtaining the use of automobiles.

15. It has been reported that numerous organizations and individuals have provided to you air transportation to and from Georgia and around Georgia either on private planes or in the form of commercial airline tickets. For the period since January 1, 1968, furnish:

(a) the names of each person or entity and a current mailing address for each;

(b) the registered owner of any non-commercial planes used;

(c) the approximate value of each trip;

(d) the date of each trip;

(e) the purpose of each such trip.

Mrs. Allyne D. Tisdale

Re: MUR 638(78)

Dear Mrs. Tisdale:

Based on information ascertained to date in the Commission's investigation in MUR 638(78), the Federal Election Commission has found reason to believe that the Talmadge Campaign Committee and the Talmadge Newsletter Fund may have violated certain additional provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act").

Specifically, the Commission has found:

(1) reason to believe that the Talmadge Campaign Committee may have violated § 304 of the 1971 Act (2 U.S.C. § 434(a)) by failing to report contributions which were deposited into the Riggs National Bank Account #01-08-184-923 during 1973 and 1974;

(2) reason to believe that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund:

(a) may have violated 2 U.S.C. § 441b by accepting prohibited contributions from Southern Wholesalers Association, National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives and the Federal Land Bank of St. Louis;

(b) may have violated 2 U.S.C. § 439a and 11 C.F.R. § 113.5(b) by transferring funds to the Talmadge Campaign Committee after commingling funds prohibited as contributions pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441b.

As you are aware, under the Act you have an opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken against the Talmadge Campaign Committee, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund or you. Additionally, please submit answers to the enclosed questions within 20 days of receipt.

The Commission has also determined to take no further action with regard to the Talmadge Campaign Committee's and the Talmadge Newsletter Fund's apparent failure to comply with 2 U.S.C. §§432, 433, by not consolidating reporting through a principal campaign committee.

QUESTIONS TO ALLYNE D. TISDALE

1. The Talmadge Newsletter Fund registered as a political committee, supporting the candidacy of Senator Talmadge, and reported as a political committee until it terminated on October 10, 1977. This Fund has recently been characterized as an office account rather than an political committee.

(a) Was the Fund a political committee as it registered and reported or an office account?

(b) Furnish any documentation which would support your answer to (a) above.

2. The Talmadge Newsletter Fund reported receipt of a contribution in the amount of $1,000 from the Federal Land Bank of St. Louis, Mo., on March 7, 1977. According to a recent newspaper article in the Washington Star, the Bank officials state that they intended the $1,000 as an honorarium in payment for a speech made by Senator Talmadge.

(a) What criteria did you employ in your determination that the $1,000 was a reportable campaign contribution?

(b) Furnish any documentation that would justify your reporting this $1,000 as a political contribution.

3. The Talmadge Newsletter Fund reported receipt of contributions from William J. Culley (2/28/77, $1,000) and David C. Murchison (1/14/77, $1,000).

(a) Were these funds intended as:

- (i) campaign contributions?
- (ii) office account contributions?
- (iii) honoraria?

(b) Were these funds the personal funds of the reported donors?

4. It has been reported that some deposits into the Riggs Account (# 01-08-184-923, opened by Daniel Minchew) were campaign contributions. The Federal Election Campaign Act, as amended, places the responsibility for reporting contributions upon the treasurer of political committees.

83040412719

(a) Provide supplemental reports for 1973 and 1974 indicating which, if any, deposits into that account were given for the purpose of influencing a federal election.

(b) Provide statements from those individuals who maintain that the deposits emanating from them were not campaign contributions.

Re: MUR 638(78)

Dear Mr. Elson:

Based on information ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities, the Federal Election Commission has found reason to believe that you may have violated certain provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act").

Specifically, it appears that you may have violated 2 U.S.C. § 441b (18 U.S.C. § 610) by consenting to an in kind contribution to Georgians for Talmadge from the Healey Building Co. when, in 1974, the use of office space was donated to that campaign committee.

Under the Act, you have an opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken against you. Please submit any factual or legal materials which you believe are relevant to the Commission's analysis of this matter. Where appropriate, statements should be submitted under oath.

Sincerely,

William C. Oldaker
General Counsel

re: MUR 638(78)

My dear Mr. Oldaker:

Enclosed are the answers to the questions found in your letter of August 28, 1978, concerning Federal Election Commission Matter Under Review MUR 638(78) and a brief statement as permitted by the federal election laws.

Amended candidate and Talmadge Campaign Committee reports for the period in question will be filed with the Secretary of the Senate as soon as possible. These reports will more precisely characterize the reimbursements I received in 1975 for the expenses I incurred on behalf of the Talmadge Campaign Committee in 1973 and 1974.

The answers presented do not deal with the purported campaign account opened in 1974 in the Riggs National Bank by my former Administrative Assistant, Mr. Minchew, which has been a subject of various newspaper articles.

As I have previously stated, this account was opened without my knowledge or consent; I only learned of it within the past four weeks.

Yours sincerely,

Herman E. Talmadge

MUR 638 (78)

QUESTIONS

1. Attached are copies of the cover pages of the amended reports you filed with the Commission for the years 1973, 1974 and the first two months of 1975.

- (a) In your report for the first quarter of 1973, you listed "zero" cash on hand at the beginning of the quarter (see line 7 of form 3), and negative cash balances on hand for each succeeding reporting period. What was the source(s) of all the funds you expended for the items listed in your 1973 and 1974 reports?

Funds were expended from my Special (personal) Account. The principal sources of funds in this account are and have been honoraria, interest on short-term commercial paper, and reimbursements from the United States Senate. (Excess reimbursements from the Senate for the years 1972-1977 which totaled $37,125.90 have been repaid to the Senate.) See also answers to 1(c), 2(d), 4(c), and 4(d).

- (b) (i) During the period of time that these reported expenditures were being incurred (i.e. 1973 and 1974), in what account(s) were the bookkeeping entries for the expenses entered? Supply copies of the bookkeeping entry pages for all these expenditures.

Special Account: 20-56-07-5.

The originals of check stubs and bank statements, including deposit slips and canceled checks, are presently in the possession of:

Ms. Kathleen Voelker
Attorney at Law
U.S. Department of Justice
Federal Triangle Building-Room 414
315 Ninth Street, Northwest
Washington, D.C. 20530
202/739-4518

Ms. Voelker is aware that the Federal Election Commission may request access to these bank records, and I am sure she will be willing to cooperate with the Commission in this regard.

Bookkeeping summaries prepared by the Treasurer of the Talmadge Campaign Committee are attached: ITEM I.

83040412733

- (ii) Supply the name(s), address(es) and job title(s) of any persons who had the responsibility for making these expenditures or maintaining these accounts.

Daniel Minchew, Administrative Assistant (5-16-71 to 10-3-74)
Chairman, Talmadge Campaign Committee
16 Fourth Street, Southeast, Washington, D.C. 20002

Allyne D. Tisdale, Staff Assistant/Financial Secretary
Secretary-Treasurer, Talmadge Campaign Committee
8315 North Brook Lane-#1105, Bethesda, Maryland 20014

Dathine E. Brunson, Personal Secretary
Secretary-Treasurer, Talmadge Campaign Committee
501 Slaters Lane, Alexandria, Virginia 22134

- (c) In your report for the first two months of 1975, you indicate reimbursements of two loans from your campaign committee, one on 1/4/75 for 1973 expenditures of $14,669.11 and the other on 1/30/75 for 1974 expenditures of $12,243.33.

- (i) When was it determined that these expenditures by you were to be considered as loans to your campaign?

At the beginning of 1973 there was general confusion within the Talmadge Campaign Committee regarding the requirements of the new Federal Election Commission law, particularly as to when "candidate status" began and what could be properly classified as a "candidate expenditure" under the Act.

A decision was made by the Talmadge Campaign Committee to avoid any problem concerning disbursements from campaign funds which might not be allowable campaign expenditures. We, thus, decided that certain expenses would be paid from my personal account. The intention was that I would be reimbursed by the Talmadge Campaign Committee at a later date once a review of expenses was made and it was better understood when my status as a candidate began and which expenses could correctly be designated "campaign expenditures."

Toward the end of 1974, the decision was made by the Talmadge Campaign Committee that $26,912.44 in expenses, which had been paid from my Special Account mentioned above, could be properly designated "campaign Expenditures" for 1973 and 1974 pursuant to the broad discretion allowed a candidate and his principal campaign committee to determine what expenses were incurred for the purpose of influencing the election of a person to a Federal office.

Subsequently, in 1975, I was reimbursed for these expenses. The Talmadge Campaign Committee reported this reimbursement.

In the amended reports of June 19, 1978, we referred to these expenditures from my Special Account as loans. Whether or not this is the correct terminology, the fact is that the expenditures were campaign expenditures which we believe were properly reimbursable.

- (ii) What documentation, if any, supports these expenditures as having been loans? Supply copies of such documents.

There is no such documentation. See answer to 1(c)(i).

- (iii) This report lists the refunds as going to the Herman E. Talmadge Special Account, 20-56-07-5. Is this correct? If so, supply copies of the cancelled checks and account records which show these transfers.

Yes. Records are in possession of the U.S. Department of Justice. See answer to 1(b)(i). Photostats of canceled checks and other related records are attached: ITEM II.

2. Regarding the account to which the reimbursements as described in question 1(c) above, were made:

- (a) Supply the name of the account, and the name and address of the financial institution where the account is located.

Herman E. Talmadge, Special Account: 20-56-07-5.
Trust Company of Georgia, One Park Place, Northeast, Atlanta, Georgia 30303

- (b) When was the account opened and, if appropriate, when was it closed?

During the 1950's. The account is still active.

- (c) What are/were the source(s) of the funds in this account?

See answer to 1(a).

- (d) Since 1973, have campaign contributions ever been deposited in this account? If so, state the dates, sources and amounts of such deposits.

During the last three months a complete review of my personal accounts has been conducted, including an audit of my Special Account. This review and the audit show that a small number of campaign contributions were inadvertently deposited in my Special Account, rather than in the Talmadge Campaign Committee account. These deposits were the result of clerical errors and were discovered only during the recent review of my personal accounts. See attached list: ITEM III. Reimbursement to the Talmadge Campaign Committee account has been made and will be reflected in the campaign committee reports for the quarter ending September 30, 1978.

83040412735

- (e) Were the expenditures you listed in your amended campaign reports for 1973 and 1974 paid from this account?

Expenses listed in the amended reports were paid from the Special Account.

- (f) What has been the largest balance in this account for each year from 1973 to the present?

Year	Book Balance	Commercial Paper	Total
1973	$ 8,726.92	$45,000.00	$53,726.92
1974	13,768.00	75,000.00	88,768.00
1975	12,128.39	75,000.00	87,128.39
1976	14,506.14	-0-	14,506.14
1977	14,027.71	-0-	14,027.71
1978	12,379.57	-0-	12,379.57 (Through August)

(The above sums are the largest end-of-the-month balances. The largest daily balance within the month would have to be ascertained from the bank records in possession of the U.S. Department of Justice: See answer to 1(b)(i).)

- (g) Supply the name(s), address(es) and job title(s) of any persons who had responsibility for maintaining this account and/or had authority to sign checks.

See answer to 1(b)(ii).

3. In the Washington Star article of May 21, 1978, your campaign committee treasurer and financial secretary, Allyne D. Tisdale, reportedly stated that after the above described reimbursements were placed in your special account, they were then transferred to your personal account.

- (a) Is this correct?

No. I have two personal accounts: (1) The Special Account which contains primarily honoraria, interest on short-term commercial papers, and Senate reimbursements; (2) A private account which contains my Senate salary, investment income, etc., from which I pay strictly personal expenses.

In the past my honoraria have been placed in the Special Account as a cushion for paying whatever expenses are required from the Special Account; excess funds are often transferred from the Special Account to my private account. The reimbursements from the Talmadge Campaign Committee were not transferred to the private account since the reimbursements were for expenses paid from the Special Account. Attached is a list of honoraria received by the Special Account and the amounts transferred to date to my private account: ITEM IV.

- (b) If so, what is the date(s) this transfer occurred? Supply copies of the cancelled check(s) and account records which show this transfer.

Not applicable.

- (c) What is the name and number of your personal account, and the name and address of the financial institution where the account is located?

Mr. or Mrs. Herman E. Talmadge: 20-56-06-7.
Herman E. Talmadge: 12-93-63-8.

Trust Company of Georgia, One Park Place, Northeast, Atlanta, Georgia 30303

- (d) When was this personal account opened and, if appropriate, when was it closed?

Opened: 1950's; closed 1-21-74.
Opened: 1-24-74; still active.

- (e) What are/were the source(s) of funds in this personal account?

Salary, interest, dividends, investments in real property, returns from timber sales, etc.

- (f) Since 1973, have campaign contributions ever been deposited in this account? If so, state the dates, sources and amounts of such deposits.

No campaign funds have been deposited in the private accounts.

- (g) Since 1973, have campaign contributions ever been deposited in this account? If so, state the dates, sources and amounts of such deposits.

See answer to 3(f).

- (h) What has been the largest balance in this account for each year from 1973 to the present.

Year	Book Balance	Commercial Paper	Total
1973	$27,727.17	$ 75,000.00	$102,727.17

4. In an article which appeared in the Washington Star on July 12, 1978, it was reported that you have maintained an office / account over the years to defray "official expenses."

(a) Is this correct?

I now maintain the Special Account from which certain office-related expenses are paid. I maintain no "office account."

The Talmadge Newsletter Fund was organized on August 22, 1975, but was combined with the Talmadge Campaign Committee on June 17, 1977. The Fund was registered with the Secretary of the United States Senate and assigned Identification Number S-2070. Receipts and Expenditures Reports are on file with the Secretary of the United States Senate. Deposits to the Fund were from contributions designated for newsletter purposes; expenditures were for the same purpose.

(The Talmadge Campaign Committee manages the Talmadge Campaign Committee account.)

(Lovejoy Investment Company account, 03-26-30-6, at the Trust Company of Georgia, Atlanta, Georgia, is for a closely-held family corporation.)

- (b) If so, is this account separate from the Herman E. Talmadge Special Account, No. 20-56-07-5? If it is separate, when was this office account established and, if appropriate, when was it closed?

See answer to 4(a).

- 7
- (c) In the same article, it is reported that the funds in this account consist of "honorariums, Senate reimbursements, campaign funds, and miscellaneous reimbursements from private groups and individuals."

- (i) Does this account consist of any and/or all of these items?

The Special Account principally contains honoraria, interest on short-term commercial paper, and Senate reimbursements for official reimbursable expenses. As related in 2(d), the review of the Special Account has shown that a small amount of contributions were inadvertently deposited in it. See ITEM III.

As to miscellaneous reimbursements from private groups and individuals: On occasion, expenditures were made from the Special Account for the purchase of tickets to various functions, Delta Dash Service for expediting delivery of various documents, etc.. Such sums were later reimbursed to the account by the persons requesting the expenditure involved.

- (ii) Which, if any, of these items are not in this account?

See answer to 4(c)(i).

- (iii) If there are campaign funds contained in this account, describe the source of the funds, dates received and amounts.

See answer to 4(c)(i).

- (d) Are there other sources of funds for this account not mentioned in the article? If so, describe them.

Proceeds from the annual birthday party given in my honor were for two years deposited in the Special Account.

- (e) Supply the name(s), address(es) and job title(s) of any persons who had responsibility for this account and/or had authority to sign checks.

20-56-07-5: Trust Company of Georgia, One Park Place, Northeast

- (g) What has been the largest balance in this account for each year from 1973 to the present?

See answer to 2(f).

5. How many office accounts, if any, have you maintained since 1973?

- (a) If you have maintained any, please list the name of each one and answer questions e and f from question 4.

- (b) In addition, please give the source(s) of the funds in this/these accounts.

See answer to 4(a) and 4(b).

6. Since 1973, were you ever the recipient of in-kind contributions of goods and services (i.e. including, but not limited to, meals, courtesy auto rentals, vacations)? If so, please describe.

Yes. Attached are the in-kind contributions to my campaign which my records and those of the Talmadge Campaign Committee reflect. See ITEM V. To the best of my knowledge, the Talmadge Campaign Committee and I have received no other goods and services which should be properly designated "in-kind contributions to my campaign."

Of course, as is true regarding any Senator or Congressman, I have received personal gifts that were not campaign related or given for the purpose of influencing any nomination or election.

re: MUR 638(78)

Dear Mr. Oldaker:

This is in response to your letter of August 28, 1978, which came into my possession on September 19, 1978, the delay having resulted from recent changes in the address for the Talmadge Campaign Committee.

An amended report for the Talmadge Campaign Committee for January 1, 1975, through February 28, 1975, will be delivered to the Secretary of the United States Senate within a few days. The amended report will be more specific in describing the reimbursements made by the Talmadge Campaign Committee to Senator Herman E. Talmadge for campaign related expenditures incurred during 1973 and 1974.

If additional information is needed, please let me know and I shall provide it immediately.

Thank you very much, and with kindest regards, I am

Yours sincerely,

MUR 638 (78)

QUESTIONS

1. Attached is a copy of the first page of Schedule B of the Talmadge Campaign Committee's amended report you filed for the first two months of 1975. On this page (lines 1 and 2), you indicate that the reimbursements to Senator Talmadge's Special Account, were for loans.

- (a) When was it determined that these expenditures by the Senator were to be loans?

The reference to these expenditures as "loans" will be modified by way of an amended Talmadge Campaign Committee report to be filed as soon as possible. Although the terminology of the amended report filed on July 14, 1978, may be incorrect, the Talmadge Campaign Committee believes the expenditures were campaign expenditures and were properly reimbursable.

At the beginning of 1973, there was a great deal of confusion within the Talmadge Campaign Committee regarding the new federal campaign laws, particularly regarding when candidate status began and what could be properly classified as a campaign expenditure under the new Act.

The Committee wanted to avoid the problem of making disbursements from campaign funds which might not be deemed acceptable campaign expenditures. Therefore, the decision was made that, until it was absolutely clear which expenses were allowable campaign expenditures, certain expenses would be paid from the personal funds of Senator Talmadge. Our intention was that the Committee would reimburse Senator Talmadge at a later date, once time allowed the Committee to make a review of the expenses and after we better understood when candidate status began and which expenses could be properly designated campaign expenditures.

Toward the end of 1974, the Talmadge Campaign Committee made the decision to reimburse the Special Account after a careful review of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, amendments to the Act, and explanatory information which we had received concerning the Act. Exercising the broad discretion allowed a principal campaign committee to determine what expenses are incurred for the purpose of influencing an election to federal office, the Committee determined that expenses incurred by the Special Account during 1973 and 1974 totaling $26,912.44 were reimbursable as campaign related. The reimbursement was made in early 1975 and reflected in the Talmadge Campaign Committee report.

- (b) What document(s), if any, support these expenditures as having been loans? Supply copies of any such documents.

There is none.

- (c) This report lists the refunds as going to the Herman Talmadge Special Account, 20-56-07-5. Is this correct? If so, supply copies of the cancelled checks and account records which show these transfers.

Yes. The reimbursements were payable to Herman E. Talmadge, Special Account, 20-56-07-5. Attached are photostats of the Committee's National Savings and Trust Company statements as of January 10, 1975, and February 11, 1975. Also enclosed are photostats of canceled checks #265 ($14,669.11), #286 ($12,243.33), and checkbook stubs relating to these statements. See ITEM I.

2. In an article in the Washington Star dated June 2, 1978, you were reported as stating that "when we felt good in ourselves that these (expenditures from Talmadge's personal funds for campaign purposes) were campaign related" and when "... we felt sure that they were campaign expenditures," the Senator could be reimbursed. Is this correct?

See 1(a).

- (a) If so, what factors led to your determination that the expenses were campaign related and not official?

See 1(a).

See also the enclosed work sheets prepared during the latter part of 1974 which itemized and summarized the expenditures from the Special Account which the Talmadge Campaign Committee determined to be expenditures incurred for the purpose of influencing the reelection of Senator Talmadge to the United States Senate: ITEM II.

83040412744

3. Were any expenditures from the "Special Account" during 1973 and 1974 not considered campaign related?

Yes.

- (a) If so, specify which expenditures.

Summaries are attached for 1973 and 1974 in which are listed expenditures other than those which were reimbursed by the Talmadge Campaign Committee: See ITEM III. Among these expenditures are:

1. Office expenses reimbursable by the Senate; such as, telephone service charges incurred outside Washington, D.C., subscriptions to periodicals, postage, etc.
2. Travel expenses reimbursable by the Senate for official travel or reimbursable by the sponsoring organizations for speaking engagements.
3. Purchases of tickets to various functions, air courier service for expediting delivery of various documents, etc. Such sums were later reimbursed to the account by the persons requesting the expenditure involved.
4. Other miscellaneous noncampaign related expenses.

Our open investigation involves possible violations of 18 U.S.C. §§1001, 287 and 641 through misuse of federal funds as well as possible election law violations. We must request, therefore, that you postpone interviewing either Senator Talmadge or Daniel Minchew until such time as our investigation is completed. At that time we will turn over to you all information which would be helpful to you, within the rules of grand jury secrecy and the Privacy Act.

Your understanding and cooperation are greatly appreciated.

Re: MUR 638(78)

Dear Senator Stevenson:

On August 4, 1978, Special Counsel Carl Eardley requested the Commission's opinion with regard to Senator Talmadge's amended reports and the reporting requirements of the FECA of 1971, as amended. On October 6, 1978, I advised you that the Commission's inquiry into possible violations is still in progress. The Commission has taken no position on this particular question as yet and it appears that our investigation into possible campaign violations will be continuing for some period of time. However, with regard to the technical question which Mr. Eardley posed, the following preliminary response seems accurate.

Mr. Eardley specifically asked if Senator Talmadge's amendments to his January 1973 - February 28, 1975 reports, submitted in June and July 1978, fulfill the reporting requirements of FECA. It appears that the June and July amendments, containing the initial characterization of the monies spent as campaign related, would have facially satisfied the then applicable statutory reporting requirements of the 1971 Act if the amendments had been timely filed.

Since Mr. Eardley's letter, Senator Talmadge and his campaign committee have filed revised amended reports. These most recent amendments change the characterization of the monies spent in 1973 and 1974 from loans by Senator Talmadge to the committee (see §301(e) of Pub. L. 92-225), as was reported in the June and July amendments, to candidate "expenditures" under §301(f) of the 1971 Act (predecessor to 2 U.S.C. §431(f)). The result of this change in characterization is to retroactively extend the 1973 and 1974 reporting obligation to the Senator (see, §304 of Pub. L. 92-225, predecessor to 2 U.S.C. §434).

As I explained in my October 6 letter, the Commission's inquiry into all possible violations is still in progress. Again, we regret that we are unable to definitively comply with your request concerning the amended 1973 and 1974 reports at this time. However, we hope the above information, while not an official Commission decision or opinion, will be of some assistance to you. Once the Commission concludes its entire inquiry and arrives at its decision the conclusions will, of course, be available to your Committee. As I also requested in my October 6 letter, we ask that this information remain confidential in accordance with §437g(a)(3)(B) of the Act.

Re: Mur 638(78)

Dear Mr. Chairman:

As you are probably aware, Special Counsel Carl Eardley earlier wrote to Chairman Aikens asking whether Senator Herman Talmadge's amended reports fulfilled the reporting requirements of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the Act). At that time the Commission had opened an inquiry into possible violations of the Act but had reached no conclusions and, under Section 437g(a)(3)(B) of the Act, was required to maintain the confidentiality of the investigation.

The Commission's inquiry into the possible violations of the Act by Senator Talmadge is still in progress. In this respect, the testimony and evidence given before your Committee in connection with its investigation of Senator Talmadge may contain information which would aid the Commission in its determination of what, if any, action should be taken. Accordingly, we request that copies of the hearing transcripts and other evidence be made available to the Commission for its files or review.

While we regret that we are still unable to comply with your earlier request because no conclusions have, as yet, been reached, we are hopeful that your committee will be able to share the information you have obtained.

As pointed out earlier, Section 437g(a)(3)(B) of the Act prohibits the making public of any investigation conducted by the Commission without the express written consent of the person with respect to whom the investigation is made. In accordance with this statutory requirement, we ask that this request remain confidential.

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

1325 K STREET N.W.
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20463

MEMORANDUM TO: The Commission
FROM: William C. Oldaker
SUBJECT: News Article on Senator Herman Talmadge

33040412775
On May 23, 1978, an article which appeared in the Washington Star was referred to the Office of General Counsel by Margaret McCormick, Executive Assistant to Commissioner Harris (see Attachment A). The article described gifts and in-kind goods and services given to Senator Talmadge of Georgia, which were not reported to the Commission, and Ms. McCormick requested that we prepare a memorandum as to whether any of the activities described constitute violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act. The original article, and articles which have subsequently appeared in various other papers, state with some particularity that over the years, the Senator received "small gifts of cash", "courtesy lodgings", and "free clothing" during his many trips back to his home state, and that he has used "small gifts of cash...to cover thousands of dollars in personal cash expenditures over the years".

In considering whether this information indicates possible violations of the Act, the Commission raised some preliminary questions and asked this office to analyze the information in light of these questions.

1) Does AO 1977-7 preclude the Commission from considering these gifts as campaign contributions? In AO 1977-7, the Commission stated the Act did not apply to a situation where Congressman George Hansen intended to solicit gifts for his personal expenses and where he would take specific steps to insure that this money would not be used for campaign purposes. (see Attachment B). Here, Senator Talmadge claims the gifts to him came unsolicited. While he stated he never considered the gifts campaign contributions, there is no indication that he systematically told the donors what he would or would not use the money for*, nor did he ask the donors to state to him what they intended the gifts to be used for. The distinction between the Hansen and the Talmadge cases is sufficient to warrant the conclusion that the Act may cover the Talmadge case.

2) At the time these gifts were given, was Senator Talmadge involved in campaigning? The Senator was last up for re-election in 1974, so there should be no question that he was campaigning at least some time during 1973-74.** As to post-1974 campaign activity the evidence is as follows: On both the 1975-76 and 1977-78 indexes of disclosure documents, Senator

*It should be noted that the original article quotes Talmadge as saying: "They (the gift-givers)...know I have a lot of expenses back in Washington and they want to help me."

**In this regard, we point out that Sen. Talmadge, unlike Cong. Hansen, did not even decline these gifts or deal with them differently during the period immediately prior to an election.

Talmadge's campaign committee and candidate reports show receipts and expenditures. This financial activity indicates a sufficient campaign context as defined by 2 U.S.C. §431(b)(2) to warrant the Commission's further consideration of this matter.

3) Does Commission policy with regard to the Statute of Limitations preclude the Commission from exercising jurisdiction over acts occurring more than three years ago? On October 20, 1977, the Commission considered a proposed conclusion that the three year statute of limitations does not apply to the processing of civil cases. While the Commission neither accepted nor rejected this conclusion, at least one MUR now in progress (MUR 448) is concerned with transactions which began more than three years ago. Our investigation there has uncovered later transactions which may indicate more recent and continuing violations, and a failure by Senator Talmadge and/or his campaign committee to report gifts in 1974 may similarly indicate continuing violations. Furthermore, if the Senator is now campaigning for re-election in 1980, and since he is still receiving these gifts, the violations may be of a current nature as well. The Commission therefore, ought not to decline jurisdiction over this matter on the basis of the statute of limitations.

FACTS

During 1973-74 Senator Talmadge expended $26,912 in personal funds for his re-election campaign. After signing sworn statements that he did not use personal funds for his campaign, it was revealed that he was reimbursed the full $26,912 by his campaign committee in early 1975. While the Senator states he always used the small gifts of cash as "pocket money" and to "defray expenses", this money became part of his personal funds. As such, these gifts increased his ability to give personal funds to his campaign. Accordingly, these contributions would have to be reported pursuant to 2 U.S.C. §434(b)(3), (Title III §304(b)(3), which was applicable February 7, 1972), which requires that "each report shall disclose...the total sum of individual contributions made to or for such...candidate during the reporting period..." Senator Talmadge has stated that he has not reported these receipts on his reports, thus indicating possible violations of 2 U.S.C. §434(b)(3)/§304(b)(3). In addition, these receipts (if determined to be political contributions), must be deposited into either a) an office account of the officeholder's principal campaign committee, or b) an office account pursuant to 11 CFR §113.3 (or Title I §309(a)(1) which was applicable October 15, 1974). Similarly 11 CFR §103.3(a) requires that "all contributions received by a candidate...shall be deposited into a checking account in the appropriate campaign depository by the candidate, or by the treasurer of the committee or his or her agent, within ten days of the candidate's receipt thereof.."

In numerous articles, one of Senator Talmadge's staff members disclosed that the Senator received free lodging for "maybe 10-15 years" at an Atlanta motel owned by a close friend. The acceptance of lodging without charge while campaigning is a violation of 11 CFR §104.3(a)(1) which requires that "each in-kind contribution shall be valued at the usual and normal charge on the date received and reported if in excess of $100 on the appropriate schedule of receipts, identified as to its nature and listed as an in-kind contribution". Similarly, the Senator's acceptance of clothing during a campaign period would have to be reported as an in-kind contribution pursuant to 11 CFR §104.3(a)(1).*

RECOMMENDATION

In view of the questions raised with regard to possible FECA violations, we recommend this matter be assigned a MUR number.

Date:

William C. Oldaker

*Regulation D of the regulations issued by the Secretary of the Senate, which were revised in February 1974, also provided for reporting of in-kind contributions. That regulation required that the contribution must be declared at "fair market value". No $100 threshold was allowed before reporting was required.

Talmadge Says He Used 'Small Gifts' for Expenses

The Washington Star

WASHINGTON, May 21—Senator Herman E. Talmadge, a Georgia Democrat and a millionaire, says he has used "small gifts of cash" from friends and supporters to cover thousands of dollars in personal expenditures over the years.

Commenting on an unusual disclosure in his current divorce settlement proceedings—that he wrote only one check to "cash" during the first seven years of this decade—Mr. Talmadge said that his Georgia backers had routinely given him most of the "pocket money" he has needed during his 31 years in public office.

The Senator also said in an interview last week that he had received much of his clothing free, and frequently enjoys free lodging during trips to his home state.

"Wherever I go" in Georgia, the 64-year-old Senator said, "people entertain me, lodge me, give me small amounts of money. My out-of-pocket expenses come from donations friends give me, $5, a $10 bill, sometimes $15 or $20. They come up and say they know I have a lot of expenses back in Washington and they want to help me."

Says Cash Was Gifts

He said he had never reported the cash as income because it represented gifts, which recipients are not required to declare under the Internal Revenue Code. He added that he had never considered the money to be campaign contributions. Political contributions are considered taxable income if diverted for personal use, the Internal Revenue Service has ruled, and Senate rules also prohibit the conversion of campaign funds.

"We don't spend campaign funds for personal purposes," Mr. Talmadge said. Senator Talmadge's acceptance of cash gifts was first suggested in court files in McDonough, Ga., near Atlanta, where he is engaged in a bitter property dispute with his former wife, Betty whom he divorced last year.

An analysis of his financial holdings, disclosed during the court proceedings, showed that from 1970 to 1976 he wrote only one check to cash, for $300. Among his more than 1,000 personal checks during that period, only one other, also for $300, appears to have been for the same purpose; it was made out to himself.

Further, the records showed, Mr. Talmadge for years has maintained a "special" bank account, consisting of honorariums, Senate reimbursements and campaign funds, to defray "official expenses."

When he was giving a deposition last summer, the Senator was questioned extensively about the special account and also his sources of cash.

W. Stell Huie, the Atlanta lawyer who represents Mrs. Talmadge, suggested that Mr. Talmadge might not have reported on his tax returns substantial income he received from the special account. The Senator responded that he "seriously" doubted that his accountants had made mistakes in filing his tax returns.

When asked the source of his cash, Mr. Talmadge testified, "I don't know." Asked to speculate on the source of his cash, he said, "Well, it could have been contributions from friends, gifts, honorariums or something of that nature."

But in the interview last week, Mr. Talmadge, who is chairman of the Agriculture Committee and was a member of the Senate Watergate Committee, was clear, and emphatic, on the source of his cash.

While not placing a dollar amount on the gifts he has received over the years, he said several times that his pocket money had long been furnished by friends and supporters.

When it was pointed out that his response appeared to conflict with his sworn court testimony that he "very rarely" received cash, he said he thought his former wife's lawyer was asking about campaign cash.

Says Gifts Were Volunteered

"They [the cash gifts] weren't solicited as campaign contributions," Senator Talmadge said. "They were volunteered as gifts—small, inconsequential amounts."

Mr. Talmadge's frugality is apparently legendary among his staff aides and friends. One former staff member who asked not to be identified said: "He's been receiving suits and slacks from a Georgia company for years. I remember they'd come in with a box of clothes, suits and slacks. He wouldn't have them altered unless somebody would do it free."

The former staff member recalled that the Senator also received free lodging for "maybe 10-15 years" at an Atlanta motel owned by a close friend.

James L. Bentley Jr. of Atlanta, a former Georgia state official and friend of Mr. Talmadge for 35 years, recalled that the Senator "never needed a lot of money."

Finds Nothing Improper

Gordon Roberts, press secretary for Mr. Talmadge, conceded that the Senator may have "a peculiar life style," but said there was nothing improper about Mr. Talmadge's accepting cash gifts.

According to net worth statements filed in his divorce case and reviewed by The Washington Star, Mr. Talmadge has been a millionaire for years. The most recent net worth data in the court files covered his assets and liabilities at the close of 1976.

Senator Talmadge said in testimony that he was "broke," but in discovery proceedings he filed two net worth statements for 1976 that showed him to be a millionaire. One statement claimed a net worth of $1,680,442, while the other showed a worth of $1,186,691.

The bulk of his holdings were listed as real estate, including a mansion and 1,388 acres in Lovejoy; stocks; and cash or commercial paper immediately convertible to cash worth $217,000.

No Bombshells From Senate

Financial Reports Tell Much About Congress

By ADAM CLYMER
Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, May 24—The typical senator is worth close to half a million dollars, does not invest heavily in areas close to his work in the Senate and is unlikely to hold any formal outside positions, except for an occasional membership on a college board of trustees or the like. The 10,000-odd pages in the Senate's stack of financial disclosures, like the even higher pile that the House produced earlier this month, offer no bombshell revelations about Congress. But they tell quite a bit about the institution, as much for what they appear to disprove as for what they appear to prove.

For example, the Senate's sympathy toward defense spending greater than the House's—hardly seems the consequence of the Senators' own holdings. Twenty-five of 96 senators own stock in the 60 largest defense contracting concerns, but only six have holdings worth $50,000 or more.

On the Appropriations Committee, much smaller proportion, only five out of 24, hold those stocks.

On the Armed Services Committee, a somewhat larger proportion, seven of 19, hold such stock. But defense spending there has few more zealous advocates than John G. Tower, Republican of Texas. Although he noted his wife's business and holdings were completely separate from his own, the always impeccably dressed Texan reported no assets at all in defense contractors or anywhere else.

Similarly, 16 of the 96 Senators who reported—four were given extensions of time to file—have farm and ranch holdings; three of 18 members of the agriculture committee, the same proportion as in the Senate overall, reported such holdings.

Or consider one of the most controversial issues of the day—oil and gas. Russell B. Long, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, reported holdings of $1,120,047 in oil royalties and stock in the industry.

Johnston Also an Advocate

That could make him a defender of the industry, which he plainly is. But he is no more an advocate than Senator J. Bennett Johnston, the other Louisiana Democrat, who reported holdings worth from $5,001 to $15,000 in oil property.

The two Louisianans represent their state, where energy is a major industry. So, for that matter, does Senator Edward M. Kennedy, Democrat of Massachusetts and a foe of the industry, even though he personally holds about 140 oil properties of one description or another.

There are a series of important cautions in dealing with the Senate reports. First of all, except for Mr. Long and Senator Dennis DeConcini, Democrat of Arizona, no one with extensive holdings provided precise figures.

They were not required to do that, instead reporting assets, or liabilities in 10 sets of ranges starting with from $1 to $5,000 to more than $5 million.

Administration Used Approach

This approach was not invented by Congressional concealers. It was used last year by the Carter Administration, with the sanction of Common Cause, the so-called citizens' lobby that has pressed for disclosure, on the theory that what the public had a right to know was how substantial a possible conflict of interest might be, not dollars-and-cents net worths.

Another major area of caution is that the Senators have had more than a year since the passage of the ethics rules to arrange their affairs to eliminate obvious conflicts, or the appearance of them, if they chose. No one noted that he had decided to sell off embarrassing stock, but some members may have.

And whatever the disclosure system does to the holdings—and the liabilities which may sometimes cause a more severe conflict of interest—of current senators, it plainly serves as a deterrent to them and their successors, to warn them of improper dealings.

The reports give a clear impression of who the very rich and the relatively poor are in the Senate, for to most Americans it probably will not matter very much if two Republicans, John C. Danforth of Missouri and John G. Heinz 3d of Pennsylvania, are worth $7 million or $17 million, the outside ranges of their net worth according to the reports.

Reports Instructive About Senate

But the reports, even with the wide ranges, can be instructive about the Senate as a whole. While taking the midpoint of the dollar ranges may be totally misleading for an individual, it is a fairly reliable tool for the Senate as a whole, or for a particular group of Senators.

So a computer study of the reports by CBS News and The New York Times could say with some confidence that the median Senator, one with half above and half below that figure, had assets of $531,000 and liabilities of $87,000, meaning he was worth about $444,000.

The median Republican had more than the median Democrat, and the median committee chairman had still more, with assets of just over $1,000,000.

That was one end of the scale. At another there are a group of Senators, mostly younger Democrats, reporting no assets other than homes and compulsory deposits in retirement systems. One of them was wondering late this winter, on his first invitation to the prestigious Gridiron Dinner here, if he really had to rent white tie and tails for the occasion. He was finding it hard to come up with the rental fee.

Senator Herman E. Talmadge of Georgia says he has long accepted gifts of cash, clothes and lodging that he did not report as income. Page A16.

Millionaire Senator Counts on Handouts

By Edward Penn
Washington Star Staff Writer

Millionaire Sen. Herman E. Talmadge says he has used "small gifts of cash" from friends and supporters to cover thousands of dollars in personal cash expenditures over the years.

According to a highly unusual revelation in his current divorce settlement proceedings — that he wrote only one check to cash during the last seven years of this decade — Talmadge explains that his Georgia backers have routinely handed him most of the "pocket money" he's needed throughout his 31 years in public office.

And he maintains that his out-of-pocket cash needs are only about $25 a week.

The Georgia Democrat also said in an interview last week that he has had the good fortune of getting much of his clothing free, and he said he frequently enjoys courtesy lodging on his many trips back to his home state.

ACCORDING TO TALMADGE, he can hardly step across the state line in Georgia without one of his friends or supporters giving him a few dollars.

"Wherever I go (in Georgia), people entertain me, lodge me, give me small amounts of money," said the 64-year-old senator.

"My out-of-pocket expenses come from donations friends give me, $5, a $10 bill, sometimes $15 or $20. They come up and say they know I have a lot of expenses back in Washington and they want to help me."

He said he has never reported the cash as income because it represents gifts, which recipients are not required to declare under the Internal Revenue Code. He added that he has never considered the funds to be campaign contributions. Political contributions are considered taxable income if diverted for personal use, the IRS has ruled, and Senate rules also prohibit conversion of campaign funds.

"We don't spend campaign funds for personal purposes," Talmadge said.

Talmadge's unusual method of getting pocket money was first hinted at in court files in McDonough, Ga., near Atlanta. The senator is engaged in a bitter property dispute with his former wife, Betty, whom he divorced last year.

AN ANALYSIS of Talmadge's financial holdings, disclosed during the court proceedings, showed that from 1970 to 1976 he wrote only one check to cash, for $300. Among his more than 1,000 personal checks during that period, only one other — also for $300 — appears to have been for the same purpose; it was made out to himself.

Further, the records showed, Talmadge for years has maintained a "special" bank account — consisting of honorariums, Senate reimbursements and campaign funds — to defray "official expenses."

When he was giving a deposition last summer, Talmadge was questioned extensively about the special account and also his sources of cash.

At one point Atlanta attorney W. Stell Huie, who represents Mrs. Talmadge, suggested that Talmadge might not have reported on his tax returns substantial income he received from the special account. The senator responded that he "seriously" doubted that his accountants had made mistakes in filing his tax returns.

IN TESTIFYING about his expenses, Talmadge said "most of my transactions, except very limited expenses, are by check." He said he needed pocket money only for food and gas for his personal car.

When asked the source of his cash, Talmadge testified, "I don't know." Asked to speculate on the source of his cash, Talmadge said, "Well, it could have been contributions from friends, gifts, honorariums or something of that nature." He said he could not recall the source of the "$100 or so in my pocket now..."

But in the interview last week, Talmadge, who is chairman of the Agriculture Committee and was a member of the Senate Watergate Committee, was clear — and emphatic — on the source of his cash.

While not placing a dollar amount on the gifts he's received over the years, he said several times that his pocket money had long been furnished by friends and supporters.

When it was pointed out that his response appeared to conflict with his sworn court testimony that he "very rarely" receives cash, the senator said he thought his former wife's lawyer was asking about campaign cash.

"They (the cash gifts) weren't solicited as campaign contributions," Talmadge said. "They were volunteered as gifts — small, inconsequential amounts."

TALMADGE'S FRUGALITY is apparently legendary among his current and former staff aides and friends. Said one former staff member who asked not to be identified:

"He's been receiving suits and slacks from a Georgia company for years. I remember they'd come in with a box of clothes, suits and slacks. He wouldn't have them altered unless somebody would do it free."

The former staffer recalled that the senator also received free lodging for "maybe 10-15 years" at an Atlanta motel owned by a close friend.

James L. Bentley Jr. of Atlanta, a former Georgia state official and friend of Talmadge for 35 years, recalled that the senator "never needed a lot of money," and added:

"When you're governor of a state or a senator, people stumble all over themselves to pick up a restaurant check."

Gordon Roberts, press secretary for Talmadge, conceded that his boss may have "a peculiar lifestyle." Roberts said he wished he could get by on $25 a week in cash, but said there was nothing improper about Talmadge accepting cash gifts. "He doesn't even remember who gave him the money," Roberts said.

ACCORDING TO net worth statements filed in his divorce case and reviewed by The Washington Star, Talmadge has been a millionaire for years. The most recent net worth data in the court files covered his assets and liabilities at the close of 1976.

Talmadge claimed in testimony that he was "broke," but in discovery proceedings he filed two net worth statements for 1976 that showed him to be a millionaire. One statement claimed a net worth of $1,680,442, while the other showed a worth of $1,186,691.

The bulk of his holdings were listed as real estate — including a mansion and 1,388 acres in Lovejoy — stocks, and cash or commercial paper immediately convertible to cash worth $217,000.

Talmadge also furnished a reporter with his financial disclosure report for 1977 which he filed last week with the secretary of the Senate. While no precise values are required to be listed on the statement, Talmadge's financial picture does not appear to have changed substantially during 1977.

One major source of income for Talmadge has been honorariums for speaking engagements around the country. From 1971 to the present, he's collected $152,000 in such fees, much of it from trade associations interested in agricultural or health care legislation. In addition to chairing the Agriculture Committee, Talmadge heads the Finance subcommittee on health.

For years, Talmadge said, he has deposited honorarium fees in his special account as he receives them, and declares them on his tax returns as income. The fees cover official expenses, and he said he periodically transfers them to his main personal account when his special account is replenished with Senate office allowances and reimbursements for official travel.

IN THE PAST, according to Allyne D. Tisdale, his secretary who handles the special account and his separate campaign account, campaign funds also were occasionally placed in the special account. This was done, she said, to reimburse the senator for political expenditures paid from personal funds deposited in the special account. She said political expenses are now paid exclusively from his campaign account.

The transfers of campaign funds into the special account totaled slightly more than $40,000 between 1968 and 1976, an analysis of Talmadge's financial records showed. The largest transfers were in 1975: $14,669 on Jan. 4 and $12,243 on Jan. 30. On both occasions, Tisdale said, the funds were then transferred into Talmadge's main personal account.

"These campaign funds were transferred in 1975 to reimburse (Talmadge) for campaign expenses paid by him in 1973 and 1974" from the special account, Tisdale explained. "The transfers were cleared by our accountant."

Lawrence Earls, the Peat, Marwick and Mitchell accountant who handles Talmadge's tax returns, said the campaign committee was given a list of checks showing each politically related expenditure by the special account before the campaign funds were transferred.

It was primarily the transfer of the campaign funds, however, that caused Mrs. Talmadge's lawyer, Huie, to question whether Talmadge had received non-taxed income. Huie said during Talmadge's deposition that an analysis of the special account in a four-year period that included 1975 indicated that the senator might not have paid taxes on $25,348 in reimbursements.

Earls told a reporter that Huie's analysis was faulty. Earls said that the special account could not properly be analyzed by isolating any given period. Rather, he said, the entire history of the account's activity had to be considered to evaluate the account accurately.

HE SAID THE SENATOR often had to use personal funds from the account to pay official and political expenses not entirely covered in a given year by official reimbursements or campaign funds. Talmadge would later be reimbursed for those personal outlays, he said, and that's why in some years reimbursements to the account exceeded expenses.

In testimony in the court case, Earls described the account "as a fully tax paid fund for the simple reason that the . . . honorariums and the interest income have been picked up as taxable income in each of the years that the returns have been prepared."

While declaring that he never used campaign funds for personal purposes, Talmadge acknowledged that an automobile purchased for $2,945 in 1976 by his campaign committee has been used personally by his former wife for more than a year. He said his attorney has asked Mrs. Talmadge to return the car, but she has refused.

He said his campaign committee has been paying the insurance and repair bills on the car because "I don't want her to wreck the car" and have the campaign committee "liable for it."

Before Mrs. Talmadge took control of the car, Talmadge said, he used it on political trips when he returned to Georgia. He said he never used it for personal purposes.

Paul A. Howell, one of Mrs. Talmadge's attorneys, said she had been driving the car since prior to the divorce proceedings, which Talmadge initiated in December 1976. He said the Talmadge campaign committee had never demanded return of the car.

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

1325 K STREET N.W.
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20463

March 30, 1977

AO 1977-7

Honorable George Hansen
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C. 20515

Dear Mr. Hansen:

Your letter of February 18, 1977, sets forth a plan for solicitation of personal funds by a holder of Federal office to provide "financial security" for the officeholder and requests an advisory opinion as to application of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"), and the Commission's proposed regulations, to the plan as described.

Your letter describes the conditions under which the personal funds would be solicited, accepted, and utilized:

- (1) The personal funds would be solicited either in person or by mail.
- (2) In order to overcome the presumption that the donations were contributions, all solicitations for personal gifts would be accompanied or immediately followed up by a letter stating the purpose of the solicitation and requesting the donor to sign a card to be returned with the gift affirming such purpose of the gift. The statement of purpose in the solicitation letter will be as follows:

"The purpose of this solicitation is to obtain personal funds for (name of office holder) for his (her) personal use. Funds obtained by this solicitation will not be used for the purpose of influencing any nomination or election and will not be used in any campaign by or in behalf of (name of office holder) and will not be used by him (her) in any way to promote or to maintain the official activities of (name of office holder)."

The statement of affirmation of purpose and amount of the gift on the card to be signed by the donor and returned with the gift will be as follows:

"I, the undersigned, hereby affirm that the purpose of this gift in the amount of $_____ is donated to (name of office holder) for his personal use only, and that this gift is not given to influence any nomination or election or as a campaign contribution or for the purpose of promoting or maintaining the official activities of (name of office holder)."

- (3) No gifts will be solicited, or knowingly accepted, which are prohibited by sections 114.2 and 115.2 of the proposed F.E.C. Rules and Regulations.
- (4) No such solicitation will be conducted during any one year period prior to a general election.
- (5) The solicitation effort will not be conducted or staffed by persons on the office holder's staff who are on the federal payroll or by persons employed and paid by the office holder or his campaign committee in the immediate past campaign.
- (6) The solicitation will not be conducted within the Congressional District of the office holder nor would constituents be knowingly solicited.
- (7) The solicitation effort will be self-supporting and will repay personal "start-up" funds advanced by the office holder for its operation.
- (8) All disbursements from gifts received will be paid out solely for costs of the solicitation effort or to the personal account of the office holder.

- (9) As a condition to allowance of such solicitation for personal funds, the office holder will not make expenditures from personal funds at any time in the future following commencement of the solicitation. An affidavit foreswearing future use of personal funds for expenditures will be executed by the office holder in a form approved and/or provided by the Federal Election Commission.
- (10) As a condition to allowance of such solicitation for personal funds, the proposed solicitation letter and return affirmation card shall be submitted to the Federal Election Commission for approval.
- (11) An accounting of the solicitation effort shall be reported to the Federal Election Commission on a monthly basis or at such other times as requested by the Commission. The accounting shall contain at least the following:
- (a) The amount of each gift, the date of its receipt, and the name and address of each donor related to each gift.
  - (b) The amount of each disbursement, the date of its payment, the name and address of the payee, and the purpose of the payment if not made to the personal account of the office holder.

Based on your representations as to how the personal fundraising would be conducted and the conditions under which gifts would be solicited and accepted, the Act and proposed regulations would not apply. Accordingly, there is no obligation to submit to the Commission any letters, cards, affidavits, or reports related to the described plan for personal fund solicitation.

Although the conclusion stated above is premised on conducting the fundraising in accordance with all the conditions set forth in your letter (other than those stating that materials would be submitted to the Commission), the Commission emphasizes, in particular, the importance of complying with paragraphs (8) and (9) which indicate that personal funds received as a result of the described plan, as well as other personal funds of the officeholder, will not be expended (after the plan is put into operation) at any time for the purpose of influencing the nomination or election of the officeholder to Federal office. 2 U.S.C. §431(f). The Commission further understands that the condition set out in paragraph (9) above, foreswearing future use of personal funds for campaign expenditures, would also preclude the officeholder-candidate from assuming any joint, contingent, or other liability on loans obtained for past or future campaign purposes by or on behalf of an authorized campaign committee of the officeholder.

The Commission's conclusion that the described plan is not within the Act should not be construed as Commission endorsement or approval of the plan; nor does the Commission purport to express any views on the applicability of other laws outside its jurisdiction, including the provisions of Title 18 of the United States Code, to the described personal fundraising plan. The Commission also notes the possible application of the Rules of the House of Representatives to this situation, but may express no opinion with respect to application of those rules. Finally, the Commission expresses no opinion as to any Federal tax ramifications connected with the described activity since those issues are within the jurisdiction of the Internal Revenue Service.

This response constitutes an advisory opinion concerning the application of a general rule of law stated in the Act to a specific factual situation set forth in your request. 2 U.S.C. §437f.

Sincerely yours,

Vernon W. Thomson
Chairman for the Federal Election Commission

MEMORANDUM TO: The Commission
FROM: William C. Oldaker W.C. Oldaker
SUBJECT: News Article on Senator Herman Talmadge

On May 21, 1978, the attached article appeared in the Washington Star describing gifts and in-kind goods and services given to Senator Herman Talmadge of Georgia, which were not reported to the Commission, in possible violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act.

The article states with some particularity that over the years, the Senator received "small gifts of cash", "courtesy lodgings", and "free clothing" during his many trips back to his home state. The Senator said he never considered the funds and favors to be campaign contributions because he considered them personal gifts. Nevertheless, the Senator's trips to Georgia may have been campaign related as he is running for re-election and his campaign committee has reported both receipts and expenditures for 1976, 1977, and 1978.

Regardless of the fact that some of these contributions may be "small", 2 U.S.C. §441a(a)(8) considers them contributions. Other statutory and regulatory provisions require the reporting and depositing of all campaign contributions, (i.e. 2 U.S.C. §434(b)(3); 11 CFR §§113.3, and 103.3(a)). Furthermore, in-kind contributions such as courtesy lodging and free clothing must be reported pursuant to 11 CFR §104.3(a)(1).

In view of the questions raised with regard to possible FECA violations, we recommend this matter be assigned a MUR number and an investigation be initiated.

Senator Herman E. Talmadge
109 Russell Senate Office Building

Re: MUR 638(78)

Dear Senator Talmadge:

This is to notify you that on August , 1978, the Commission found reason to believe that you may have violated 2 U.S.C. §434 of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended.

The amended reports you filed with the Commission for 1973, 1974 and 1975, together with other information available to us, indicates that in 1975, you were reimbursed $26,912.44 by your campaign committee for campaign expenditures you made in 1973 and 1974. These amended filings are at odds with your reported failure to file any statements in 1973 and the statements you originally filed in 1974 and 1975, in possible violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act. In addition, your amended reports for 1973, 1974 and 1975 are incomplete in that they fail to specify the date (or dates) you loaned the $26,912.44 to your Committee in possible violation of the Act.

Under the Act, you have an opportunity to present any materials which you think demonstrate to the Commission that no action should be taken against you. Such materials, where appropriate, should be submitted under oath and sent to us within ten days of your receipt of this letter. In addition to any information you may wish to provide, please answer the attached questions under oath. This information will be considered prior to any further action by the Commission.

This letter of notification shall remain confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. §437g(a)(3) unless you state to the Commission in writing that you wish the investigation to be made public. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Lester Scall (202) 523-4052, the attorney assigned to this matter. We have numbered this Matter Under Review "MUR 638 (78)." Please refer to this number in all future correspondence.

Sincerely,

William C. Oldaker
General Counsel

Re: MUR 638 (78)

Dear Ms. Tisdale:

This is to notify you that on August , 1978, the Commission found reason to believe that the Talmadge Campaign Committee may have violated 2 U.S.C. §434 of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended.

The amended reports filed by the Committee with the Commission for 1973, 1974 and 1975, together with other information available to us, indicates that in 1975, Senator Talmadge was reimbursed by the Committee $26,912.44 for campaign expenditures he made in 1973 and 1974. The amended filings are incomplete in that they fail to specify the date (or dates) the Committee received the loan of $26,912.44 from Senator Talmadge in possible violation of the Act.

Under the Act, you have an opportunity to present any materials which you think demonstrate to the Commission that no action should be taken against you. Such materials, where appropriate, should be submitted under oath and sent to us within ten days of your receipt of this letter. In addition to any information you may wish to provide, please answer the attached questions under oath. This information will be considered prior to any further action by the Commission.

This letter of notification shall remain confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. §437g(a)(3) unless you state to the Commission in writing that you wish the investigation to be made public. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Lester Scall (202) 523-4052, the attorney assigned to this matter. We have numbered this Matter Under Review "MUR 638(78)." Please refer to this number in all future correspondence.

Attached please find copies of letters and reports filed by Senator Talmadge and his committee since June 1, 1978. The reports filed by the Senator indicate that they are amendments for the period from January 1, 1973 through December 31, 1973. We shall keep you informed of any further amendments. Please advise if any further action is required by our office.

Dear Mr. Kimmett:

It has recently come to my attention that certain technical errors were made in the preparation and filing of the 1973-1975 Receipts and Expenditures Reports of the Candidate, and the Talmadge Campaign Committee.

These errors evidently arose due to the confusion which existed during those years in question regarding the interpretation and application of the new Federal Election laws.

The purpose of this letter is to inform you of the intent to file amended reports on behalf of the Candidate and the Talmadge Campaign Committee as expeditiously as possible, so that any errors may be corrected.

The Committee Treasurer is presently on a 2-week vacation trip. We will submit the amended reports as soon as possible after her return.

Thank you very much for your consideration in this regard.

With every good wish, I am

Sincerely,

CONFIDENTIAL

Honorable Adlai E. Stevenson
Chairman
Committee on Ethics
United States Senate
Washington, D. C. 20510

Re: Mur 638(78)

Dear Mr. Chairman:

As you are probably aware, Special Counsel Carl Eardley earlier wrote to Chairman Aikens asking whether Senator Herman Talmadge's amended reports fulfilled the reporting requirements of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the Act). At that time the Commission had opened an inquiry into possible violations of the Act but had reached no conclusions and, under Section 437g(a)(3)(B) of the Act, was required to maintain the confidentiality of the investigation.

The Commission's inquiry into the possible violations of the Act by Senator Talmadge is still in progress. In this respect, the testimony and evidence given before your Committee in connection with its investigation of Senator Talmadge may contain information which would aid the Commission in its determination of what, if any, action should be taken. Accordingly, we request that copies of the hearing transcripts and other evidence be made available to the Commission for its files or review.

While we regret that we are still unable to comply with your earlier request because no conclusions have, as yet, been reached, we are hopeful that your committee will be able to share the information you have obtained.

As pointed out earlier, Section 437g(a)(3)(B) of the Act prohibits the making public of any investigation conducted by the Commission without the express written consent of the person with respect to whom the investigation is made. In accordance with this statutory requirement, we ask that this request remain confidential.

The attorney handling this matter is Assistant General Counsel Lester Scall (telephone no. 523-4052). Please feel free to contact him concerning this request.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

Mr. Philip B. Heymann
Assistant Attorney General
Criminal Division
Department of Justice
Washington, D.C. 20530

Re: MUR 638(78)

Dear Mr. Heymann:

The Federal Election Commission has found reason to believe that Senator Herman Talmadge and the Talmadge Campaign Committee have violated Section 434 of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. In connection with the Commission's investigation of this matter, the Senator has informed us that certain bank records we requested from him are in the custody of the Criminal Division. These records, together with other information your office may have obtained in connection with its investigation of Senator Talmadge, would aid the Commission in its determination of what, if any, action it should take.

Accordingly, we request that copies of the bank records be made available to the Commission for its files and that you advise us of other information in your possession which may be relevant to the Commission's investigation and which can be made available to us.

In connection with the Commission's investigations of this matter, we remind you of the confidentiality provisions of 2 U.S.C. §437g(a)(3)(B).

The attorney assigned to this matter is Assistant General Counsel Lester Scall (phone number 523-4052). Please contact him concerning this request.

In the Matter of )
Senator Herman Talmadge ) MUR 638 (78) Talmadge Campaign Committee )

INTERIM REPORT

On August 23, 1978, the Commission found reason to believe that 1) Senator Herman Talmadge violated 2 U.S.C. §434 by initially failing to report campaign expenditures, loans and reimbursements for 1973, 1974 and 1975, and 2) the Talmadge Campaign Committee violated 2 U.S.C. §434 by initially failing to report campaign loans from the candidate for 1973 and 1974, and by reporting incompletely for 1975.

On September 19, 1978, we received the materials from Senator Talmadge in response to our questions to him. The Talmadge Campaign Committee received its notification letter on September 19th and has advised us that they will shortly submit the answers to the questions propounded to them.

When all the information is received and analyzed we will be in a position to make appropriate recommendations to the Commission.

Dear Mr. Hamilton:

I am writing in regard to your request for an extension of the deadline for submission of responses to the questions posed to Senator Talmadge in connection with the Commission's notice that it had reason to believe that he violated the Federal Election Campaign Act.

This will confirm that we have granted a ten day extension. The new deadline for submission is therefore September 18, 1978.

If you have any questions, please contact Lester Scall at (202)-523-4052.

Re: Senator Herman E. Talmadge

Dear Mr. Scall:

The purpose of this letter is to request an extension of time until September 29, 1978, to reply to Mr. Oldaker's August 28, 1978, letter to Senator Talmadge.

An extension is required to allow Senator Talmadge sufficient time to respond to the questions accompanying that letter and to present other information he considers appropriate to the Commission.

As I informed you Friday on the telephone, the staff member responsible on a day-to-day basis for the Senator's campaign and financial records is Mrs. Allyne Tisdale. Recent demands have been made for various materials and information from these records by the Senate Ethics Committee, the Department of Justice, the Internal Revenue Service and attorneys involved in the Georgia divorce proceedings concerning the Senator. Because these prior demands continue to occupy a considerable amount of her time, Mrs. Tisdale needs the requested extension to compile the information the Commission seeks.

We appreciate your consideration of this request.

Sincerely,

James Hamilton

Re: MUR 638(78)

Dear Ms. Tisdale:

This is to notify you that on August 23, 1978, the Commission found reason to believe that the Talmadge Campaign Committee may have violated 2 U.S.C. §434 of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended.

The amended reports filed by the Committee with the Commission for 1973, 1974 and 1975, together with other information available to us, indicates that in 1975, Senator Talmadge was reimbursed by the Committee $26,912.44 for campaign expenditures he made in 1973 and 1974. The amended filings are incomplete in that they fail to specify the date (or dates) the Committee received the loan of $26,912.44 from Senator Talmadge in possible violation of the Act.

Under the Act, you have an opportunity to present any materials which you think demonstrate to the Commission that no action should be taken against you. Such materials, where appropriate, should be submitted under oath and sent to us within ten days of your receipt of this letter. In addition to any information you may wish to provide, please answer the attached questions under oath. This information will be considered prior to any further action by the Commission.

This letter of notification shall remain confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. §437g(a)(3) unless you state to the Commission in writing that you wish the investigation to be made public. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Lester Scall (202) 523-4052, the attorney assigned to this matter. We have numbered this Matter Under Review "MUR 638(78)." Please refer to this number in all future correspondence.

QUESTIONS

1. Attached is a copy of the first page of Schedule B of the Talmadge Campaign Committee's amended report you filed for the first two months of 1975. On this page (lines 1 and 2), you indicate that the reimbursements to Senator Talmadge's Special Account, were for loans.
- (a) When was it determined that these expenditures by the Senator were to be loans?
  - (b) What document(s), if any, support these expenditures as having been loans? Supply copies of any such documents.
  - (c) This report lists the refunds as going to the Herman Talmadge Special Account, 20-56-07-5. Is this correct? If so, supply copies of the cancelled checks and account records which show these transfers.
2. In an article in the Washington Star dated June 2, 1978, you were reported as stating that "when we felt good in ourselves that these (expenditures from Talmadge's personal funds for campaign purposes) were campaign related" and when "... we felt sure that they were campaign expenditures," the Senator could be reimbursed. Is this correct?
- (a) If so, what factors led to your determination that the expenses were campaign related and not official?
3. Were any expenditures from the "Special Account" during 1973 and 1974 not considered campaign related?
- (a) If so, specify which expenditures.

GENERATION OF MATTER

Beginning in May, 1978, news articles about Senator Herman Talmadge of Georgia appeared, describing possible violations by the Senator and his campaign committee of the Federal Election Campaign Act. 1/ The articles, especially those in the Washington Star, describe with some particularity how, in 1973 and 1974, Senator Talmadge had first indicated that he expended no personal funds for campaign purposes and how in 1975 he was reimbursed $26,912.44 by his campaign committee for campaign expenditures he made. (See attachment A for relevant articles, and especially the June 2, 1978 Washington Star article). 2/

1/ The articles were apparently triggered by the records of a trial in Georgia where the Senator is involved in a property settlement dispute with his former wife.

2/ The articles also state that over the years, the Senator received "small gifts of cash," "courtesy lodging" and "free clothing" during his many trips back to his home state, and that he used "small gifts of cash...to cover thousands of dollars in personal cash expenditures over the years." In the absence of any apparent connection between these allegations and the statutes under the Commission's jurisdiction, we make no recommendation as to these allegations.

On May 23, 1978, one of these news articles was referred by Margaret McCormick, Executive Assistant to Commissioner Harris, to the General Counsel's Office for consideration. On June 28, 1978, the Commission, after considering a General Counsel's Report in this matter, voted to assign a MUR number to the matter and directed the General Counsel to prepare a recommendation as to what further action might be appropriate.

SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

The staff has reviewed the information in the articles, together with campaign reports from Senator Talmadge and the Talmadge Campaign Committee now on file with the Commission.

Senator Talmadge's principal campaign committee, the Talmadge Campaign Committee, was set up in April, 1972 and the Senator was last up for re-election in 1974. The Committee is still in existence and has been reporting receipts and expenditures to the Commission for each year since 1974. Under the 1971 Act, Senatorial candidates as well as Committees supporting them were required to report to the Secretary of the Senate. In connection with this reporting requirement Senator Talmadge, for 1973, filed no statements disclosing any personal campaign expenditures. In April 1974, after being notified by the Secretary of the Senate that statements were required, (see attachment B) Senator Talmadge filed sworn statements for that year claiming he had personally not made any campaign expenditures.<sup>3/</sup> On January 4, 1975, the Talmadge Campaign Committee reimbursed the Senator $14,669.11, and on January 30, 1975, $12,243.33, for personal expenses the Senator had made for campaign purposes in 1973 and 1974, respectively. (see attachment C) The specific expenditures were not reported at that time.

Senator Talmadge, in June and July, 1978, submitted amended campaign reports for 1973, 1974 and the first two months of 1975.<sup>4/</sup> The Committee filed an amended report for the first two months of 1975 on July 14, 1978. These reports indicated $26,912.44 as campaign expenses, itemizing how the expenditures had been made <sup>5/</sup> and showing a reimbursement of this amount by the Committee to a special account that the Senator maintained. (see attachment E).

3/ In a response letter to the Secretary of the Senate's Office, the Senator said the delay in filing the first 1974 report was "inadvertent."

4/ The Senator signed all his reports on June 19, 1978, but on that date submitted only the reports for 1973. The cover letter from his campaign committee chairman, T. Rogers Wade, to the Secretary of the Senate, stated that the other reports "are currently under review." On July 14, 1978, the Senator submitted his 1974 and 1975 reports. (see attachment D).

5/ The expenditures included expenditures for the Senate recording studio, entertainment, printing, the Senate restaurant, flowers for constituents, and membership dues to various organizations such as Moose Clubs, BAR association, VFW, etc.

The special account into which the reimbursement checks were deposited was described by the June 2, 1978 and July 12, 1978 Washington Star articles as the Senator's "special" bank account or "office account," which consisted of honorarium fees, Senate reimbursements and campaign funds. In the Washington Star article of May 21, 1978, Allyne D. Tisdale, who was committee treasurer at the time, reportedly said that the funds were then transferred to the Senator's main personal account.

In the July, 1978 amendments, both the Committee and the Senator characterized the transfer of $26,912.44 as repayment of a loan. The articles set out no statements from the Senator as to why the $26,912.44 in expenditures was not timely reported.<sup>6/</sup>

6/ In the June 2, 1978 Washington Star article T. Rogers Wade, the current Campaign Committee Chairman, and Senator Talmadge's current administrative assistant, reportedly notarized the Senator's January 30, 1975 statement to the Secretary of the Senate whereby Senator Talmadge stated he had made no campaign expenditures from personal funds for a nine week period ending December 31, 1974. On that same day it was Wade who reportedly signed a campaign committee check for $12,243.33 to reimburse the Senator for personal expenses in 1974. Wade is quoted as saying in response to this, "I have no real good explanation." In a Washington Post article of July 19, 1978, Wade was further reported as saying in regard to the reporting of 1974 campaign activity, "There was monumental confusion about what you could or couldn't do under the FEC rules. We were relying on the FEC as a safety check, and they never did catch it." While the Federal Election Campaign Act amendments were signed into law on October 15, 1974, the Commission itself did not begin operating until April, 1975.

Allyne D. Tisdale was reportedly asked why the campaign committee itself had not shouldered these campaign expenses originally. She was quoted as saying that, "At the time...we were treating them as 'official' expenses, but then we decided they were campaign related and it was proper for the campaign to reimburse him." She stated that when "...we felt good in ourselves that these were campaign related..." and that when "...we were sure they were campaign expenditures," the Senator could be reimbursed. There is no indication of what led the Senator and his campaign aides to change their views on the nature of these expenses. Talmadge's accountant, Lawrence Earls, was reported in the Washington Star article of May 21, 1978 as stating that before the Committee transferred these funds, it was given a list of checks showing each politically related expenditure from the Senator's "special account."

PRELIMINARY LEGAL ANALYSIS

Section 434 of the FECA, as amended in 1976 (originally enacted February 7, 1972, Pub. L. No. 92-225, Title III, §304, 86 Stat. 14) (hereinafter referred to as §434 of the Act) requires political committees and candidates to file reports of receipts and expenditures. Section 434 (b) (4) of the Act requires candidates and committees to identify in their reports any other candidates or committees from which or to whom transfers of funds were made, and §434(b) (5) requires the reporting of each loan including the date of the loan. Section 434(a) (1) (A), (B) and (C) fix the dates on which such reports shall be filed.

As Senator Talmadge's and the Talmadge Campaign Committee's amended reports show, the Senator had made campaign expenditures in 1973 and 1974 and was reimbursed by the Committee in 1975. While the Committee originally reported the reimbursements in 1975, it was only in the amended reports that both the Committee and the Senator characterized them as reimbursements of loans. The Senator, by filing no statements in 1973 for that year violated §434(a). During 1974, and for the first two months of 1975, the Senator violated §434(a) and (b) by originally filing incorrect reports stating he had made no expenditures and by failing to report the reimbursements. Both the Senator and his Committee violated §434(b) (5) by failing to report the date (or dates) of the loan of the $26,912.44.

Given that the reporting violations began as early as 1973, a question arises as to whether the statute of limitations prevents the Commission from exercising jurisdiction. In this regard, the Internal Revenue Code, which sets out a tax system "premised largely on the theory of self-assessment," U.S. v. Gilmore, 222 F. 2d 167 (5th Cir. 1967), is instructive. Section 6510(a) of Title 26 of the U.S. Code provides that the amount of tax imposed shall be assessed within three years after a return is filed while §6501(c) provides for specific exceptions to this three year limitation period. In summarizing the instances where this limitation period would cease to run, the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals noted that even ...failures or delays in filing a return for any reason, justifiable or not, are specific instances where the self-assessment system is thwarted, and in each case, Congress has provided that time will not bar assessment or collection until the return is filed. Lucia v. U.S., 474 F. 2d 565, 570-1 (1973), En banc.

Here the Federal Election Campaign Act contains disclosure requirements which are similarly based on self-reporting.

The requirements in 1973 were similar to those in effect today. With regard to the Senator himself, the initial reporting violations began in 1973 when he failed to file any statements with the supervisory officer, the Commission's predecessor. Since it was only in June and July, 1978, that the Senator filed amended reports declaring the transactions which occurred from 1973 through early 1975, his reporting violations should be considered as continuing violations at least until this time. The Committee's reporting violations also began in 1973, when it failed to report the loan, or loans, from the Senator. Its July, 1978 amended filing showing this reimbursement should similarly be considered as continuing the violation at least until this time.<sup>7/</sup> Moreover, as this report shows, not even the recent filings by the Senator and his Committee constitute full disclosure.

In view of the absence of any civil limitation period in the Act, the Commission ought to adopt the position that any self imposed period of limitation on Commission action should not begin to run until respondents have made full disclosure.

RECOMMENDATION

We recommend the Commission find reason to believe that,

1. Senator Herman Talmadge violated 2 U.S.C. §434 by initially failing to report campaign expenditures, loans and reimbursements for 1973, 1974 and 1975.
2. The Talmadge Campaign Committee violated 2 U.S.C. §434 by initially failing to report campaign loans from the candidate for 1973 and 1974, and by reporting incompletely for 1975.

The Commission should also approve the attached letters and questions to respondents.

<sup>7/</sup> In this regard, we also note that the filings by the Senator for the years 1973 to the present, and the filings by his principal campaign committee for each year since 1974, showing receipts and expenditures, have placed the Senator in a continuing and current candidate status. # Millionaire Senator Counts on Handouts

By Edward Pound

Washington Star Staff Writer

Millionaire Sen. Herman E. Talmadge says he has used "small gifts" from friends and supporters to cover thousands of dollars in personal cash expenditures over the years.

Responding to a highly unusual question in his current divorce settlement proceedings — that he wrote only one check to "cash" during the past 10 years of this decade — Talmadge explains that his Georgia backers have routinely handed him most of the "pocket money" he's needed throughout his 31 years in public office.

And he maintains that his out-of-pocket cash needs are only about $25 a week.

The Georgia Democrat also said in an interview last week that he has had the good fortune of getting much of his clothing free, and he said he frequently enjoys courtesy lodging on his many trips back to his home state.

ACCORDING TO TALMADGE, he can hardly step across the state line in Georgia without one of his friends or supporters giving him a few dollars.

"Wherever I go (in Georgia), people entertain me, lodge me, give me small amounts of money," said the 64-year-old senator.

"My out-of-pocket expenses come from donations friends give me, $5, a $10 bill, sometimes $15 or $20. They come up and say they know I have a lot of expenses back in Washington and they want to help me."

He said he has never reported the cash as income because it represents gifts, which recipients are not required to declare under the Internal Revenue Code. He added that he has never considered the funds to be campaign contributions. Political contributions are considered taxable income if diverted for personal use, the IRS has ruled, and Senate rules also prohibit conversion of campaign funds.

"We don't spend campaign funds for personal purposes," Talmadge said.

Talmadge's unusual method of getting pocket money was first hinted at in court files in McDonough, Ga., near Atlanta. The senator is engaged in a bitter property dispute with his former wife, Betty, whom he divorced last year.

AN ANALYSIS of Talmadge's financial holdings, disclosed during the court proceedings, showed that from 1970 to 1976 he wrote only one check to cash, for $300. Among his more than 1,000 personal checks during that period, only one other — also for $300 — appears to have been for the same purpose; it was made out to himself.

SEN. HERMAN TALMADGE
'They want to help me.'

Further, the records showed, Talmadge for years has maintained a "special" bank account — consisting of honorariums, Senate reimbursements and campaign funds — to defray official expenses.

When he was giving a deposition last summer, Talmadge was questioned extensively about the special account and also his sources of cash. At one point Atlanta attorney W. Stiel Hue, who represents Mrs. Talmadge, suggested that Talmadge might not have reported on his tax returns substantial income he received from the special account. The senator responded that he "seriously" doubted that his accountants had made mistakes in filing his tax returns.

IN TESTIFYING about his expenses, Talmadge said "most of my transactions, except very limited expenses, are by check." He said he needed pocket money only for food and gas for his personal car.

When asked the source of his cash, Talmadge testified, "I don't know." Asked to speculate on the source of his cash, Talmadge said, "Well, it could have been contributions from friends, gifts, honorariums or something of that nature." He said he could not recall the source of the $100 or so in my pocket now.

But in the interview last week, Talmadge, who is chairman of the Agriculture Committee and was a member of the Senate Watergate Committee, was clear — and emphatic — on the source of his cash. While not placing a dollar amount on the gifts he's received over the years, he said several times that his pocket money had long been furnished by friends and supporters.

When it was pointed out that his response appeared to conflict with his sworn court testimony that he "very rarely" receives cash, the senator said he thought his former wife's lawyer was asking about campaign cash.

"They (the cash gifts) weren't solicited as campaign contributions," Talmadge said. "They were volunteered as gifts — small, inconsequential amounts."

TALMADGE'S FRUGALITY is apparently legendary among his current and former staff aides and friends. Said one former staff member who asked not to be identified: "He's been receiving suits and slacks from a Georgia company for years. I remember they'd come in with a box of clothes, suits and slacks. He wouldn't have them altered unless somebody would do it free."

The former staffer recalled that the senator also received free lodging for maybe 10-15 years at all Atlanta hotels owned by a close friend.

James L. Bentley Jr., of Atlanta, a former Georgia state official and friend of Talmadge for 35 years, recalled that the senator "never needed a lot of money," and added: "When you're governor of a state or a senator, people stumble all over themselves to pick up a restaurant check."

Gordon Roberts, press secretary for Talmadge, conceded that his boss may have "a peculiar lifestyle." Roberts said he wished he could get by on $25 a week in cash, but said there was nothing improper about Talmadge accepting cash gifts. "He doesn't even remember who gave him the money," Roberts said.

ACCORDING TO net worth statements filed in his divorce case and reviewed by The Washington Star, Talmadge has been a millionaire for years. The most recent net worth data in the court files covered his assets and liabilities at the close of 1976.

Talmadge claimed in testimony that he was "broke," but in discovery proceedings he filed two net worth statements for 1976 that showed him to be a millionaire. One statement claimed a net worth of $1,680,442, while the other showed a worth of $1,186,631.

The bulk of his holdings were listed as real estate — including a mansion and 1,388 acres in Lovejoy — stocks, and cash or commercial paper immediately convertible to cash worth $217,000.

Talmadge also furnished a reporter with his financial disclosure report for 1977 which he filed last week with the secretary of the Senate. While no precise values are required to be listed on the statement, Talmadge's financial picture does not appear to have changed substantially during 1977.

One major source of income for Talmadge has been honorariums for speaking engagements around the country. From 1971 to the present, he's collected $152,000 in such fees, much of it from trade associations interested in agricultural or health care legislation. In addition to chairing the Agriculture Committee, Talmadge heads the Finance subcommittee on health.

For years, Talmadge said, he has deposited honorarium fees in his special account as he receives them, and declares them on his tax returns as income. The fees cover official expenses, and he said he periodically transfers them to his main personal account when his special account is replenished with Senate office allowances and reimbursements for official travel.

IN THE PAST, according to Allyne D. Tisdale, his secretary who handles the special account and his separate campaign account, campaign funds also were occasionally placed in the special account. This was done, she said, to reimburse the senator for political expenditures paid from personal funds deposited in the special account. She said political expenses are now paid exclusively from his campaign account.

The transfers of campaign funds into the special account totaled slightly more than $40,000 between 1968 and 1976, an analysis of Talmadge's financial records showed. The largest transfers were in 1975: $14,663 on Jan. 4 and $12,243 on Jan. 20. On both occasions, Tisdale said, the funds were then transferred into Talmadge's main personal account.

"These campaign funds were transferred in 1975 to reimburse (Talmadge) for campaign expenses paid by him in 1973 and 1974 from the special account," Tisdale explained. "The transfers were cleared by our accountant."

Lawrence Earls, the Peat, Marwick and Mitchell accountant who handles Talmadge's tax returns, said the campaign committee was given a list of checks showing each politically related expenditure by the special account before the campaign funds were transferred.

It was primarily the transfer of the campaign funds, however, that caused Mrs. Talmadge's lawyer, Hule, to question whether Talmadge had received non-taxed income. Hule said during Talmadge's deposition that an analysis of the special account in a four-year period that included 1975 indicated that the senator might not have paid taxes on $25,248 in reimbursements.

Earls told a reporter that Hule's analysis was faulty. Earls said that the special account could not properly be analyzed by isolating any given period. Rather, he said, the entire history of the account's activity had to be considered to evaluate the account accurately.

HE SAID THE SENATOR often had to use personal funds from the account to pay official and political expenses not entirely covered in a given year by official reimbursements or campaign funds. Talmadge would later be reimbursed for these personal outlays, he said, and that's why in some years reimbursements to the account exceeded expenses.

In testimony in the court case, Earls described the account "as a fully tax paid fund for the simple reason that the . . . honorariums and the interest income have been picked up as taxable income in each of the years that the returns have been prepared."

While declaring that he never uses campaign funds for personal purposes, Talmadge acknowledged that an automobile purchased for $2,045 in 1976 by his campaign committee has been used personally by his former wife for more than a year. He said his attorney has asked Mrs. Talmadge to return the car, but she has refused.

He said his campaign committee has been paying the insurance and repair bills on the car because "I don't want her to wreck the car" and have the campaign committee "liable for it."

Before Mrs. Talmadge took control of the car, Talmadge said, he used it on political trips when he returned to Georgia. He said he never used it for personal purposes.

Paul A. Howell, one of Mrs. Talmadge's attorneys, said she had been driving the car since prior to the divorce proceedings, which Talmadge initiated in December 1976. He said the Talmadge campaign committee had never demanded return of the car.

More on Talmadge's Money

Records Show 'Refund' Accepted Same Day He Said None Was Due

By Edward T. Pound
Washington Star Staff Writer

Sen. Herman E. Talmadge filed a series of sworn statements with the Senate declaring that he spent no personal funds on his 1974 re-election campaign. But on the same day he signed the last of those statements, he was reimbursed $12,000 by his political committee for expenses he claimed were campaign-related.

The Georgia Democrat was unavailable for comment, but aides conceded that campaign-related expenditures that Talmadge covered with personal funds in 1974 should have been reported on candidate statements he filed under oath with the Senate.

Responding to inquiries by The Washington Star, T. Rogers Wade, Talmadge's administrative assistant and campaign chairman, said the statements would be amended to show that Talmadge made personal campaign expenditures in 1974.

WADE SAID HE sent a letter yesterday to the secretary of the Senate — with whom the statements were filed — notifying the secretary that amended reports would be filed.

"In retrospect, I agree the statements were not accurate," Wade said. But, he insisted "there was no conscious effort" on the part of Talmadge or his staff to violate the campaign reporting law.

"Obviously they (the statements) are not false and I couldn't label them as such," Wade said. "I would say it was a mistake, it was an oversight on the part of the staff. It was an oversight."

The inaccurate statements were turned up in an analysis of Talmadge's campaign records at the Federal Election Commission as part of an inquiry into his financial affairs.

Talmadge, now in his 22nd year in the Senate and chairman of the Agriculture Committee, has long been a millionaire. But two weeks ago he acknowledged in an interview that he has used small cash gifts from friends and supporters to cover thousands of dollars in personal cash expenditures during his public career.

IN RECENT DAYS, Talmadge, a popular Georgia figure who easily won re-election four years ago, has not been available for comment. Aides reported that he was fishing in southern Georgia and could not be reached to explain why he chose to file statements that claimed no expenditures.

See TALMADGE, A-8

A review of his campaign records showed that Talmadge began filing the required candidate's statements of "receipts and expenditures" in 1974 only after prodding by the secretary of the Senate's office. That office then had supervision over Senate campaign matters.

Moreover, the review showed that Talmadge, in apparent violation of the campaign law then in effect, failed to file any statements on campaign expenditures he made from personal funds in 1973. Those expenditures also were reimbursed by his campaign committee, and Wade said the long-overdue statements reflecting the expenditures also will be filed with the secretary of the Senate.

When informed of Talmadge's failure to disclose his personal expenditures in his 1973 and 1974 candidate statements, an FEC source said the senator should have revealed the outlays if they were campaign-related. "The purpose of the law then, as now, is disclosure — to show what was being spent on a campaign," he said.

THE ANALYSIS OF Talmadge's campaign records also showed that his campaign committee did not publicly report about $40,000 in campaign funds until questions were raised four years ago by the secretary of the Senate's office.

But aides insisted they had been meticulous in attempting to comply with campaign reporting requirements. They said mistakes resulted from what they characterized as "oversights" and their own confusion with the campaign law.

Talmadge, 64, who was a member of the special Senate Watergate committee, told a reporter two weeks ago that transfers of campaign funds to his personal account were legitimate, and that he had never used political funds for personal expenses. Political contributions are considered taxable if converted to personal use, the IRS has ruled.

It was his disclosure about his practice of accepting cash, however, that stirred the most public interest. He maintained that his out-of-pocket cash needs are only about $25 a week, and that most of his cash came from people who walked up to him and handed him amounts ranging from $5 to $20.

That disclosure prompted Sen. Adlai E. Stevenson, D-Ill., chairman of the Senate Select Committee on Ethics, to announce that the panel will review the matter next week at its regular monthly meeting. Talmadge asked the committee to "expeditiously determine" whether his practice of accepting cash violates the law or Senate rules.

TALMADGE'S UNUSUAL method of obtaining his pocket money was first hinted at in court files in Georgia, where the senator is engaged in a bitter property dispute with his former wife, Betty, whom he divorced last year.

The court files also contain substantial details on Talmadge's financial holdings, and show that he has maintained a "special" bank account consisting of honorarium fees, Senate reimbursements and campaign funds. He says he uses the account — which he said is "personal" — to defray "official expenses."

Campaign funds totaling slightly more than $40,000 between 1968 and 1976 were deposited in the account, however, to reimburse the senator for campaign expenditures he paid from the account, according to Alynne D. Tisdale, his financial secretary and campaign treasurer. She said that political expenses are now paid exclusively by his campaign committee.

Campaign report questioned

The largest transfers of campaign funds occurred in January 1975, when Talmadge was reimbursed $26,912 for campaign-related expenditures he made from the special account in 1973 and 1974, Tisdale said. One transfer — $14,669 — covered 1973 expenditures; the other — $12,243 — was for 1974.

THE FUNDS WERE transferred, Tisdale acknowledged, despite Talmadge's failure to file sworn statements in 1973 disclosing personal campaign expenditures, and his 1974 statements claiming he personally had not made any campaign expenditures. She said she didn't notice the contradiction.

Under the campaign law in effect during 1973 and 1974, candidates for federal office were required to file personal statements disclosing contributions and expenditures. This filing was in addition to reports submitted by campaign committees.

Talmadge's main campaign committee was set up in April 1972, and a summary of his personal special account, disclosed in his divorce case, shows that he was describing 1973 disbursements from the account as campaign expenses and related.

However, he never filed statements with the secretary of the Senate in 1973 disclosing that fact.

IN APRIL 1974, he belatedly began filing sworn statements when he was notified by the secretary of the Senate's office that he was required by law to make the submissions.

Talmadge filed a series of statements and in each case swore that he had no receipts nor expenditures during the various reporting periods in 1974.

His final statement was filed Jan. 30, 1975 — covering a nine-week period that ended the prior Dec. 31 — and was notarized by his campaign chairman, Wade.

That same day, Wade acknowledged, he signed a campaign committee check for $12,243 payable to Talmadge's special account as reimbursement for "campaign-related" expenditures incurred personally by the senator in 1974.

Asked to explain how he wrote a check reimbursing Talmadge for campaign expenses while at the same time notarizing the statement that the senator had no campaign expenses, Wade said, "I have no real good explanation."

WADE REPEATEDLY described the failure to file 1973 statements — and the submission of inaccurate statements in 1974 — as oversights on the part of Talmadge's staff. "It seems to me that it's an awfully large oversight," he said, "but I guess it can be done."

Wade provided The Star with a breakdown of the 1973 and 1974 expenditures for which Talmadge was reimbursed by the campaign committee. They included large expenditures for the Senate recording studio, entertainment, printing, and the Senate restaurant, among other items.

Asked why the campaign committee didn't just pick up the expenses at the time — rather than Talmadge personally — Tisdale, the campaign treasurer, gave this explanation:

"At the time the senator was making the expenditures in 1973 and 1974, we were treating them as 'official' expenses, but then we decided they were campaign-related and it was proper for the campaign to reimburse him."

We decided to transfer these funds to his special account as campaign reimbursements, when we felt good in ourselves that these were campaign-related. We hesitated to use the campaign account until we were sure they were campaign expenditures."

Tisdale noted that the campaign committee reported transfers of $26,912 to Talmadge's special account on its campaign reports filed in early 1975. She acknowledged, however, that the public report does not explain the transfers.

WADE SAID HE WILL correct that oversight. He said he will file an amended campaign report listing the campaign expenditures for which Talmadge was reimbursed.

In his letter to J.S. Kimmitt, the secretary of the Senate, Wade wrote:

"It has recently come to my attention that certain technical errors were made in the preparation and filing of the 1973-1975 receipts and expenditures reports of the candidate (Talmadge's sworn statements), and the Talmadge Campaign Committee."

"These errors evidently arose due to the confusion which existed during those years in question regarding the interpretation and application of the new federal election laws.

"The purpose of this letter is to inform you of the intent to file amended reports on behalf of the candidate and the Talmadge Campaign Committee as expeditiously as possible so that any errors may be corrected."

Talmadge's campaign committee had to correct another oversight several years ago. In February 1974, it filed an amended campaign report listing for the first time about $40,000 in commercial paper it had long held.

THE NOTES HAD been held by the committee since before April 1972, when it first registered as a committee under the initial campaign disclosure law, according to Wade. Prior to that time, campaign committees were not required to file public reports.

The amended report was filed after the campaign committee was informed by the office of the secretary of the Senate that commercial paper was a "form of cash on hand" and should be reflected that way on reporting forms, according to former Talmadge campaign chairman Daniel Minchew.

Minchew said one reason the committee didn't report the $40,000 for almost two years was because it couldn't find a place on the reporting forms to record the asset. He said he reported the funds when the matter was clarified by the secretary of the Senate's office as being a cash asset.

"The main reason we didn't report it was that it was an oversight on my part and a failure to understand the law," said Minchew, now chairman of the U.S. International Trade Commission, which he joined in October 1974 after also serving as Talmadge's administrative assistant. "There was never anything sinister, but we should have reported it from the very beginning."

IRS to Audit Talmadge Tax Returns

By Edward T. Pound
Washington Star Staff Writer

The Internal Revenue Service will audit the 1975 and 1977 tax returns of Sen. Herman E. Talmadge because of reported irregularities in his financial affairs, according to informed sources.

The civil tax audit, which could lead to a criminal investigation by the IRS, will not begin until after the Senate Ethics Committee completes its investigation of the Georgia democrat, the sources said. The one-month-old committee probe could take several more months to finish.

Meanwhile, sources said the Justice Department also was beginning to show interest in Talmadge's financial affairs. Department officials here and in Atlanta have begun reviewing questions raised about Talmadge's finances to determine whether the department should open a criminal investigation, the sources reported.

THESE DEVELOPMENTS come at a time when Talmadge, a 22-year

Senate veteran and influential chairman of the Agriculture Committee, has been under increasing attack for the way in which he has handled his finances.

His problems began in May when he acknowledged to The Washington Star that he had casually accepted cash from Georgia constituents to cover most of his pocket money needs throughout his 31-year public career. The disclosure was followed by other stories pinpointing additional irregularities, both in his personal and campaign finances.

Talmadge, who was a member of the Senate Watergate Committee, could not be reached for comment yesterday. Gordon Roberts, his press secretary, said the senator's staff was not aware "of any IRS audit, either planned or under way," or of the Justice Department's interest in Talmadge's financial affairs.

When asked about the Justice Department review, William L. Harper, the U.S. attorney in Atlanta, said he could neither confirm nor deny that such a study was under way.

"I appreciate your interest, but ... it's inappropriate under policies of the Department of Justice to discuss potential cases or even say there is one," Harper said.

According to reliable sources, however, both the IRS and the Justice Department appear to be most interested in Talmadge's handling of his "special" office account.

THE OFFICE ACCOUNT, which the senator has maintained over the years to defray "official" expenses, consists of honorariums, Senate reimbursements, campaign funds and miscellaneous reimbursements from private groups and individuals. Talmadge considers the account to be of a "personal" nature because he pays income taxes each year on honorarium and interest income placed in the account.

In 1975, one of the years to be examined by the IRS, Talmadge's campaign committee transferred $26,912 in campaign funds to the special account. Aides have explained that the funds were reimbursements to the senator for campaign expenditures he made from personal funds in connection with his 1974 re-election effort.

Talmadge emphasized in an interview two months ago that he had never diverted political funds for personal use. The IRS has ruled that political funds are considered taxable income if converted to personal use.

In June, Talmadge ordered his own audit of the special bank account after a reporter noted discrepancies involving Senate funds he had placed in the account. For example, the Senate reimbursed Talmadge about $19,000 for official expenses and travel in 1975, yet account records reviewed by a reporter show only $8,700 in disbursements that year.

TALMADGE HAS PROMISED to repay the Senate if the audit being conducted for him by Peat, Marwick and Mitchell — a nationally known accounting firm that has long handled his tax work — shows he received excessive Senate funds.

Last month Talmadge's personal accountant, Lawrence Earls, a partner in the Peat, Marwick and Mitchell firm, said the IRS recently conducted an audit of the senator's 1976 tax return and concluded that he owed the government taxes on an additional $5,907 in income.

That amount was carried in the special account as "excess" receipts, Earls explained. He said he didn't know if the money represented excess Senate reimbursements because of the mixture of funds in the account.

The audit of Talmadge's 1976 return was made before questions were raised publicly about his financial affairs. Still, the IRS does not plan to reopen its examination of the 1976 tax return at this time, according to reliable sources.

"The IRS has to assume they did the 1976 audit correctly," said one investigator familiar with IRS procedures. "They can reopen that year, but they have to have an indication of something that they missed."

THE AUDIT of Talmadge's 1976 return was made by revenue agents in Atlanta, and the new examination also will be conducted by that office. Earls was recently told by the IRS that an examination was forthcoming, according to informed sources, but he said yesterday in a brief telephone conversation:

"I don't have any comments — you'll have to get them from the senator."

Sources said the IRS decided to hold up its audit of Talmadge's 1976 and 1977 returns until the Senate Ethics Committee completes its work.

One prominent tax lawyer said the delay, while representing a "courtesy" that probably would not be extended to other taxpayers, seemed "fairly practical" because they'll (the IRS) want access to precisely the same materials that are before the Ethics Committee. He noted that the committee has a General Accounting Office auditor reviewing Talmadge's special account.

In a civil audit, the attorney explained, there is generally a three-year period in which legal action can be taken from the time a return is filed. The statute of limitations on Talmadge's 1975 return, filed in 1976, expires next year. Thus, the lawyer said, the IRS can audit back only to 1975.

The tax attorney said, however, that civil audits can lead to criminal investigations by the IRS. He explained, "If the revenue agent discovers something indicative of a possible crime having been committed by a taxpayer, he's obliged to refer the matter to a special agent in the intelligence division, which conducts criminal investigations. The intelligence division can accept or decline the matter." In such cases, the statute of limitations extends beyond three years.

News of the IRS' decision to audit Talmadge's returns comes only a few days after his former wife, Betty — in a motion filed with the Georgia Supreme Court by her lawyers — said Talmadge did not pay taxes on substantial stock gifts he made to her between 1965 and 1972.

FRANCIS D. VALDES
 SECRETARY

United States Senate

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY
 WASHINGTON, D.C. 20510

April 4, 1974

Honorable Herman M. Talridge
 United States Senate
 103 Russell Office Building
 Washington, D. C. 20510

GA DEM C57

Dear Senator Talridge:

I am writing to advise you that this office has not received a candidate's report of receipts and expenditures which appears to be due from you under the Federal Election Campaign Act.

Section 301(b) of the Act defines a candidate as an individual who has (1) taken the action necessary under the law of a State to qualify himself for nomination or election to Federal office, or (2) received contributions or made expenditures, or given his consent for any other person to do so with a view to bringing about his nomination or election.

Inasmuch as a political committee supporting your candidacy has registered with this office, it would appear that you would qualify as a candidate under part (2) of the definition noted above.

Please note that Section 304 of the Act requires each person who meets the definition of candidate for the United States Senate to file reports of receipts and expenditures periodically on June 10, September 10, January 31, March 10, and also fifteen and five days before any election, including primaries and runoffs. Candidate reports should be made on Senate Election Form #2 (blue form).

Such reports should continue to be made by a candidate until such time as he ceases to receive contributions or make expenditures in connection with an election, or authorizes other persons to do so. Termination should be indicated on line (d) of the candidate report forms.

Late filings will be made a matter of public record along with any letter of explanation that you may choose to submit. I am sending you a supply of the forms necessary for compliance with the law.

Sincerely yours,

Darrell St. Claire
 Assistant Secretary of the Senate

re: MJR 638(78)

Dear Mr. Oldaker:

This is in response to your letter of August 28, 1978, which came into my possession on September 19, 1978, the delay having resulted from recent changes in the address for the Talmadge Campaign Committee.

An amended report for the Talmadge Campaign Committee for January 1, 1975, through February 28, 1975, will be delivered to the Secretary of the United States Senate within a few days. The amended report will be more specific in describing the reimbursements made by the Talmadge Campaign Committee to Senator Herman E. Talmadge for campaign related expenditures incurred during 1973 and 1974.

If additional information is needed, please let me know and I shall provide it immediately.

Thank you very much, and with kindest regards, I am

Yours sincerely,

Re : MUR 638(78)

1. (a) The reference to these expenditures as "loans" will be modified by way of an amended Talmadge Campaign Committee report to be filed as soon as possible. Although the terminology of the amended report filed on July 14, 1978, may be incorrect, the Talmadge Campaign Committee believes the expenditures were campaign expenditures and were properly reimbursable.

At the beginning of 1973, there was a great deal of confusion within the Talmadge Campaign Committee regarding the new federal campaign laws, particularly regarding when candidate status began and what could be properly classified as a campaign expenditure under the new Act.

The Committee wanted to avoid the problem of making disbursements from campaign funds which might not be deemed acceptable campaign expenditures. Therefore, the decision was made that, until it was absolutely clear which expenses were allowable campaign expenditures, certain expenses would be paid from the personal funds of Senator Talmadge. Our intention was that the Committee would reimburse Senator Talmadge at a later date, once time allowed the Committee to make a review of the expenses and after we better understood when candidate status began and which expenses could be properly designated campaign expenditures.

Toward the end of 1974, the Talmadge Campaign Committee made the decision to reimburse the Special Account after a careful review of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, amendments to the Act, and explanatory information which we had received concerning the Act. Exercising the broad discretion allowed a principal campaign committee to determine what expenses are incurred for the purpose of influencing an election to federal office, the Committee determined that expenses incurred by the Special Account during 1973 and 1974 totaling $26,912.44 were reimbursable as campaign related. The reimbursement was made in early 1975 and reflected in the Talmadge Campaign Committee report.

- (b) There is none.
- (c) Yes. The reimbursements were payable to Herman E. Talmadge, Special Account, 20-56-07-5. Attached are photostats of the Committee's National Savings and Trust Company statements as of January 10, 1975, and February 11, 1975. Also enclosed are photostats of canceled checks #265 ($14,669.11), #286 ($12,243.33), and checkbook stubs relating to these statements. See ITEM 1.

Re: MUR 638(78)

2. See 1(a).

(a) See 1(a).

See also the enclosed work sheets prepared during the latter part of 1974 which itemized and summarized the expenditures from the Special Account which the Talmadge Campaign Committee determined to be expenditures incurred for the purpose of influencing the reelection of Senator Talmadge to the United States Senate: ITEM II.

3. Yes.

(a) Summaries are attached for 1973 and 1974 in which are listed expenditures other than those which were reimbursed by the Talmadge Campaign Committee: See ITEM III. Among these expenditures are:

1. Office expenses reimbursable by the Senate; such as, telephone service charges incurred outside Washington, D.C., subscriptions to periodicals, postage, etc.
2. Travel expenses reimbursable by the Senate for official travel or reimbursable by the sponsoring organizations for speaking engagements.
3. Purchases of tickets to various functions, air courier service for expediting delivery of various documents, etc. Such sums were later reimbursed to the account by the persons requesting the expenditure involved.
4. Other miscellaneous noncampaign related expenses.

To the best of my knowledge, the above information is accurate.

Thereupon

WILLIAM J. COLLEY

a witness, was called for examination by counsel for the Federal Election Commission and, after having been sworn by the notary, was examined and testified as follows:

EXAMINATION BY COUNSEL FOR THE FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION:

BY MR. OLDAKER:

Q Do you swear to tell the whole truth and nothing but the truth, so help you, God?

A I do.

Q Would you state your full name for the record?

A William Joseph Colley, C-o-l-l-e-y.

Q Your current business address?

A 2550 M Street, N.W., Suite 800, Washington, D. C., 20037.

Q What is your current line of business?

A I am an attorney in practice in Washington, D.C.

Q Are you with a firm?

A I am of counsel to the firm of Patton, Boggs and Blow.

Q What type of practice do you have, sir?

A I have a general practice. However, most of my practice is devoted to legislation and representing clients on the Hill. And as such I am a registered lobbyist.

Q For approximately how many organizations are you a registered lobbyist?

A I think currently I am registered for about 29 corporations and associations.

Q Are you registered as a lobbyist for the Pulmonary Doctors Association?

A I am registered for -- the organization's correct name is Cardio-Pulmonary Contractors Association.

Q What is that association?

A This is a group of companies who provide respiratory therapy services to patients in hospitals. The corporations contract to provide the service and the equipment to the hospital so the hospital doesn't have to purchase equipment, and hire personnel to do it.

It is what in the HEW vernacular is called under-arrangements, which means a contractual arrangement with a hospital.

Q Does this organization have what is commonly known as a political action committee, if you know?

A They do not.

Q Do you know if they make political contributions

3304043170

MILTON & GREENWOOD REPORTING ASSOCIATES, INC.

PHONE: (202) 833-3598

themselves?

A As such, they do not. However, as their lobbyist, I make personal contributions to members of Congress, in their name, so to speak, so that when I make the contribution the Senator or Congressman knows that I am making a contribution on behalf of a client.

Q What form do these contributions usually take? Are they usually by instrument, by check?

A Yes. In every instance they are by check so that there is a record, under FEC requirements since 1974. I always make the contribution either by my personal check or a bank treasurer's check or a cashier's check from the bank.

Q What is your personal account number, if you know, that you make these checks from?

A It varies. I have accounts with several banks in Washington. The one that I am using currently is with the National Bank of Washington. I will have to look at my check here to get the account number.

It is account 3-745-92-9. That is the National Bank of Washington. The account is under "William J. Colley, Attorney at Law."

Q During 1977 did you have another account that you used?

A Yes. I had accounts -- and still have accounts -- with the Union First Bank, with Riggs Bank and I guess it is just those three.-- Riggs, Union First and National Bank of Washington.

Q During 1977 did you make, to your knowledge, a contribution to Senator Talmadge, either his campaign fund or his office account, commonly known as the Newsletter Account?

A Yes. In February of 1977 I made a personal contribution of $1,000 to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund.

Maybe it was the Talmadge Newsletter Account. I can't remember. As soon as my check gets here I can refresh what it was. But it was the Newsletter account.

Q What were the circumstances surrounding that contribution, if you recall?

A I have known Senator Talmadge for many years, and had been in touch with his office. His position on the Senate Finance Committee and as Chairman of the Health Subcommittee is one of importance to my clients.

So what I have done -- like for many other members of Congress -- is from time to time make contributions to their -- if they are running for reelection -- to their political campaign, or if they are not running, to their office to help defray the expenses they incur.

8304043172

MILTON & GREENWOOD REPORTING ASSOCIATES, INC.

PHONE: (202) 833-3598

Senator Talmadge had a unique situation in 1977. In 1976 Jimmy Carter was elected President. He was from Georgia, the same state as Senator Talmadge. At the inauguration in 1977 many, many people came up from Georgia to celebrate the new President's inauguration.

As such, they would go to Senator Nunn's and Senator Talmadge's offices. And Senator Nunn and Senator Talmadge -- as the eight members of the House of that state -- would offer cokes, hamburgers, whatever, to these people and under the circumstances they do not have an expense account. They have to pay those out of their pocket.

So what happens is that many lobbyists or friends of these members of Congress will make a contribution to their office account so that they can defray some of their expenses in sending newsletters back home and buying cokes and hamburgers for their visitors, that sort of thing.

Q What were the circumstances surrounding the contribution itself? Was it solicited, do you recall?

A No. After I got the letter -- and I have given it thought -- obviously, it is difficult to recall the exact circumstances. But to my recollection -- and I am pretty sure because I have been in close touch with Talmadge's office over the years -- I volunteered, I made a voluntary personal contribution to his office account.

8 3 0 4 0 4 3 1 7 3

Sometimes, like anything else, I am solicited by members of Congress to make contributions or go to their fund raisers or whatever. But in this instance, I believe -- and I am sure that I contacted his administrative assistants -- I said I would like to help the Senator, and made a contribution.

Q Who was his administrative assistant at that time?

A Rogers Wade.

Q What did you say when you contacted him, if you recall?

A To my recollection, it was a "stopped in for a cup of coffee," and chatted with him, asked if I could help out in any way.

I noticed that we talked about the fact that Senator Talmadge, in the previous month of January -- in fact, the first time I talked about trying to help out was when about 600 -- Senator Talmadge is Chairman of the Agriculture Committee. When he had this large number of people from Georgia that came in in the third week in January, he offered coffee and doughnuts and things like that to the visitors. They had it in the Agriculture Committee; I think some 600 people showed up in one day. So if you can picture after the election of President Carter that the Georgia delegation -- there was a tremendous amount of people that came up here and they expected, since they were in Washington, that they could go see their Congressman or Senator.

That gave me the idea that I knew he was paying for this out of his pocket, that I should make a contribution to help him out.

Q Did you make this contribution out of your personal account?

A Yes, I made it out of my personal account.

Q Do you recall which account it came from?

A My secretary will bring in the check shortly. If we could come back to this. I am trying to remember, and I am positive that it was the National Bank of Washington, my personal checking account.

What will happen is when my secretary walks in here she will show me a check that is Union First. But I believe it was the National Bank of Washington.

Q On the memo entry on some of these checks was there any indication as to which client it was for?

A No. The check was just made out to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. There was no indication in the memo relative to it because it was --

Q Was it earmarked from any client?

A No, it was not.

Q This was generally from you?

A Yes. This was a personal contribution from me and on my personal checking account, after taxes. It was on my behalf rather than the behalf of one of the 29 clients that I work with.

Q Are there times when you do make contributions either to newsletter accounts or to campaign accounts that are, for lack of a better word, earmarked from a client to the candidate, out of your personal account?

A Yes. Often I will make a contribution for a particular purpose, such as an honorarium for a member to give a speech. I will indicate at the time to that member what the client's name and organization is so that when he speaks to them he will know who had made the contribution to his honorarium.

Q Do you bill clients in these cases for those amounts?

A No. My relationship with my clients is that rather than have a formal relationship, they pay me a fee and they expect me out of that fee to make my contributions on their behalf to various members of Congress.

Q Is this true for the -- I am sorry. I cannot remember the name of the --

A Cardio-Pulmonary Contractors Association. Yes, I am on a retainer to the Cardio-Pulmonary Contractors Association although they know that that retainer in addition to my legal services involves contributions to politicians. It is not a formal arrangement where I have to have their approval or tell them where I am making the contributions.

I just make them out of my personal account after I have received the retainer.

Q On the retainer itself do you pay income tax?

A Yes, I do. It is for legal services. So it is taxable income.

Q Do your retainers go into the firm account or your personal account?

A They go to my personal account. May I back up just a little bit?

Q Surely.

A On some of my clients, they pay the firm and then I draw money from the firm, so to speak. So I take that back when I said they all. Some clients pay Patton, Boggs and Blow. Some clients pay me directly.

Q With the client we have been talking about, they pay you directly?

A Yes. They send me a check made out to me personally.

Q With those clients that pay the firm, is the whole amount of the retainer then passed through to your account?

A No. The ones that pay the firm I receive hourly remuneration. It may go to ten or fifteen diferent attorneys in the firm.

I am paid $150 an hour for my time. I submit to the firm for those clients that pay the firm, every two weeks, and hourly billing. Then the firm bills them for it.

Q Going back to the matter where you contacted Mr. Wade, have you on other occasions contacted Mr. Wade or anyone in the Talmadge office to make contributions to the newsletter account?

A Yes, both the newsletter account -- I have contacted the office over the years to make either political contributions to the newsletter account or to honoraria. I am trying to recollect back in 1974, when Senator Talmadge ran; I contacted his office. At that time his administrative assistant was a Mr. Campbell. I told him we would like to help Senator Talmadge in his reelection campaign. As I recall we gave him -- I recommended one of my clients to give him $10,000. The American Medical Association was the client. They gave, as I remember it, $5,000 from the American Medical Political Action Committee and $5,000 from the Georgia Medical Society Political Action Committee.

8 3 0 4 0 4 3 1 7 8

Q When was that?

A The last time he ran was in 1974. I think we gave him $10,000.

Q The American Medical Association and the --

A And the Georgia Medical Society, from their political action committee.

Then in 1974, I can recall asking Senator Talmadge to speak to a client of mine. It was in May of 1974, and I gave him him $1,000. In that instance it was a thousand dollar contribution as an honorarium. Rather than the Newsletter, it went to Senator Talmadge personally.

I made the check out to Senator Talmadge. It was for giving a speech for another client at that time, National Ethical Ethical Pharmaceutical Association.

Q As far as the honorarium in that case, how would you make the check out?

A I would make it out to Senator Herman Talmadge. And then down in the memo section of the check, I would put NEPA honorarium.

MR. OLDAKER: Off the record.

THE WITNESS: Back on the record?

BY MR. OLDAKER:

Q Surely.

A Here is the material and the copy of this check. I was right, it is the National Bank of Washington. Here is the copy of the check.

Q You don't have a copy of this check, do you?

A I do. I would be happy to give you a copy. Here is a copy of the check, photostatic copy, both sides, how it was cashed, what bank. I brought the original to show it was an actual replica of the check.

MR. OLDAKER: Would you mark this Exhibit 1?

MR. OLDAKER: Let the record reflect that Mr. Colley has given us a check numbered 147 from the National Bank of Washington, dated February 28, 1977, to the Talmadge Newsletter Account in the amount of $1,000.

The line behind the memo entry is blank. It has been marked as Exhibit No. 1.

THE WITNESS: What I was doing was I was trying to show a pattern here. But I am not a very good bookkeeper. When it was an honorarium I would put down that it was for an honorarium. But I am trying to get some examples.

My secretary used to keep a record. Here is another Georgia one. If it was going out to someone, she would list the Senator and whether it was a political contribution or whether it was an honorarium. I thought I had some examples to show you of how I differentiate between honorarium and political contributions.

BY MR. OLDAKER:

Q I hand you the exhibit numbered 1. Do you recall around that time a speech given by Senator Talmadge to any one of your clients' groups?

A Yes. I can recall during this period of time that we had a meeting here in Washington. I wanted a Senator to come and speak to the people, which I am sure you are familiar with. When you bring a group of clients into Washington they always like to see a Senator. This was a luncheon.

They asked me if I could get someone to come over and give a speech to them. I asked Senator Talmadge if he would be willing to come to the Regency Hyatt Hotel on Capitol Hill and have lunch with my clients and talk to them about what the health committee of the Senate Finance Committee was going to do.

Q Which client was this?

A This was the Cardio-Pulmonary Contractors Association.

Q Do you recall the date that occurred?

A It was in February of 1977.

Q Do you recall if it was before or after this check, which is February 28, 1977?

A It was before. As I recall the speech, it was in the middle of February of 1977.

Q Do you recall discussing with anyone in the Talmadge office, or Senator Talmadge himself, the question of an honorarium before that speech?

A Not specifically with that speech. I can recall in January of 1977 asking how the Senator's schedule was going to be during the year and what his obligations as far as commitments to organizations was. As I recall this was before the inauguration. So it was right about, I would say, the second week of January when they came back in the 95th Congress.

8304043132

MILTON & GREENWOOD REPORTING ASSOCIATES, INC.

PHONE: (202) 833-3558

Q What was that discussion?

A Just asking, I think I contacted Rita Hubler first, his personal secretary. I do recall. I have a close relationship with Senator Talmadge's office, the people in his office like Russ King, his legislative assistant, Rita Hubler, his personal secretary.

Often when clients come to town, especially those from Georgia, they will want to see the Senator. So I call his secretary and make an appointment and bring them in. We have a cup of coffee and chat with the Senator for a while.

But I asked what his schedule was going to be for the year, knowing that he is in great demand. That was January, I think, of 1977.

Q Did they indicate his readiness to accept honoraria at that time or not to accept it?

A As I recall the conversation -- and this is difficult because I do have contacts with a lot of offices -- as I recall the conversation was with Rogers Wade at this time.

There had been a series of administrative assistants, from Campbell to Dan Minchew, to Rogers Wade, and now his administrative assistant is a fellow by the name of Will Ball.

My recollection was that he was booked completely, that he had already been contacted by organizations and had made commitments that would tie up his schedule for honoraria.

Q When you say booked completely, what do you mean?

A In the Senate in 1977 the rules of the Senate were that a Senator could only accept $25,000 in outside -- not necessarily outside -- speeches, honoraria, and that most of the top Senators, at that time Senator Humphrey, Senator Long, Senator Talmadge, were in such great demand that usually by January they were booked for the $25,000.

Q For the year?

A For the year. That was the limit that they could take.

Q What would be your options if they were booked?

A You would hope that through your personal relationship with the office and the things that you have done in the past, like in Talmadge's case where I raised not only $10,000 in 1974, but we had a group of physicians in Georgia that put together, out of their own pocket, about $25,000 for his campaign, that even though they were booked, couldn't accept honoraria, that they would agree to give a speech if you asked them to talk with clients or give a speech or join a group for dinner or lunch or whatever.

Q So then sometime after this, I guess, you said was prior to the inauguration, so prior to January 20th, sometime after that you contacted the office regarding the speech which was given in February?

A Yes, that is correct.

Q At that time was there any discussion of honoraria?

A No, because when I asked him to give the speech he had already committed himself for $25,000, so there was no way that I could give him an honorarium for the speech.

Q Who did you discuss this with at that time, the speech?

A I talked to Rita Hubler and Russ King, and Rogers Wade in the office.

Q Did they agree to put it on his schedule? I am not sure how they handle such matters.

A They said they would check and see what his schedule would be. They wanted to know when the group was going to be in town and where they were going to be. They would see if he would be willing to do it.

Q Did they get back to you on that?

A Yes. I got a phone call saying that the Senator would be in town and would be willing to come over to the Hyatt and have lunch with us and give a speech.

Q Was there any written correspondence?

A No. I looked through my files on this completely. I couldn't find, nor do I recall, any correspondence because the way I dealt with Senator Talmadge's office, it was on a personal, stopping in, talking with his staff, on a personal basis rather than a formal letter writing thing.

Q In general, in dealing with the Talmadge office, did you deal through correspondence or was it usually verbal?

A No. Invariably, in dealing with Senator Talmadge's office--his was one of the offices where it was a personal thing. I would stop in, talk to his staff, or talk to the Senator.

Q Did you make any other contributions to the newsletter account during 1977, that you recall, the Talmadge Newsletter Account?

A This is an interesting area. Yes. I thought I did. I have searched the files. It was my understanding that I had made a couple of contributions to the newsletter account in 1977.

Yet, I can only find one check. That is this check that is Exhibit 1, for $1,000. In my own mind I thought I made a couple because I checked, and they didn't have very much money in their account and I said, "Well, I will see what I can do." I thought I made two contributions.

Q Did you make any contributions during 1977 that you recall to the Talmadge political fund?

A No. He was not up for reelection in 1977. I was not contacted by his campaign committee or anybody to make a political contribution to him.

Q Since you have gotten notified of this subpoena, have you had any conversations with anyone in the Talmadge office?

A Yes. When I received a phone call from a reporter for the Atlanta Constitution, his name was Seth Kantor, after I received the inquiry from the reporter, I contacted Talmadge's office to let them know I had been contacted by this reporter and what I had told the reporter in response to his questions about my relationship with Senator Talmadge and my relationship of political contributions to his campaign in 1974, and even before that, in 1968.

I talked, at the time, to Mr. Ball. Rogers Wade was out of town. But as I recall Rogers Wade did call me because he was contacted by the same reporter. The article that appeared in the newspaper in Atlanta was the fact that the lobbyist had made these contributions to the Senator.

Q Do you recall what was discussed in that conversation?

A Yes. I recall speaking with both Rita Hubler and Ball, and I think -- I am trying to remember now. I either talked to Rogers here or he was out of town and he called me, and I indicated to them what I had told the reporter, that I made these personal contributions to the Senator's newsletter account and that they were unsolicited and I made them voluntarily on my own behalf.

The article that appeared in the newspaper said to the effect that Rogers Wade and the spokesman -- there was a Gordon somebody -- Gordon Roberts, who is the press secretary for Talmadge was contacted by the same reporter. I didn't talk to Gordon. But when the article appeared it said the spokesman for Talmadge indicated that the contributions by Colley were voluntary and unsolicited.

Q Did you talk to Mr. Wade at all about the speech that was given in February of 1977?

A Yes. I recall checking with him as to the Senator's schedule, and if he would be available to give the speech.

Q Do you recall talking to him recently about that speech?

A No. This was back in 1977, before the speech.

Q When you talked to Rogers Wade back in 1977 about the speech, did you talk to him at that time about the possibility of making a contribution to the newsletter account?

A I think I had already indicated when I talked to him about the speech, I had already indicated that I would like to make a contribution to the newsletter account. Yes, I did talk to him about making a contribution.

Q Did he indicate any amount that would be acceptable? Were there any limits that you knew of, as far as contributions to such accounts?

A No. The rule that I have always used was a thousand dollars. When I make a personal contribution I limit my contributions to any one office or any one individual to $1,000.

Q A time?

A A thousand dollars maximum, I take that back; a thousand dollars a year. That is what threw me on this one because I thought I made a couple, which was unusual. But Talmadge's relationship was a little different than others. But I couldn't find any record other than the thousand dollars.

8304043189

Q Beyond the personal contributions that you make to various candidates, do your clients make contributions out of their political action funds, also?

A If they have a political action committee, yes. Often I will ask my clients to make personal contributions out of their own pocket for particular members of Congress.

On those organizations like the American Medical Association where they have a large political action committee, they will make them out of their AMPAC. Companies that don't have political action committees or organizations that do not have, then often on behalf of a particular member of Congress, I will call my clients and ask them, it would be a favor to me if they made a contribution to a member who is running for election.

As you know, Senators only run every six years. In 1977 Talmadge wasn't running for anything. He is up for reelection in 1980, next year. So there was no solicitation to make a political contribution in 1977.

Q With a client like the American Medical Association that is large, you mentioned that you would call someone and then they would, at times, make a contribution from their political action committee; would you also call their state

8304043190

MILTON &amp; GREENWOOD REPORTING ASSOCIATES, INC.

PHONE: (202) 833-3598

organization?

A Yes. The way that the American Medical Association is organized is that their national political action committee will not make a political contribution unless the state political action committee of the physicians' requested it or agreed that that would be the candidate they wanted to support.

We try never to get the national organization in conflict with the state where maybe the state doctors would not like a particular candidate, so you would not send money into the state unless the state agreed that that was the candidate of their choice.

I think in 1976 -- I take that back -- 1972 we spent about $4 million in political contributions. We were very careful to coordinate the state and the national organization so that there would be no conflict or hard feelings between the two.

Q One of your functions as their Washington lobbyist is you --

A Yes, one of the functions I had as a lobbyist was to indicate to the state and the national organization the particular voting record or the type of regard the member of Congress had for organized medicine and whether he was a supporter or an opponent to the objectives of organized medicine. Obviously, we wouldn't recommend money for an opponent. But we would try to get candidates who were favorable to organized medicine reelected, just like coke labor does for their candidates. They make their contributions. We would make them.

8304043191

MILTON & GREENWOOD REPORTING ASSOCIATES, INC.

PHONE: (202) 833-3598

What I would do would be, from Washington contact both the state and the national organization and try to get funds for a candidate that I thought was worthy of being reelected.

Q And try to coordinate that?

A Coordinate the two. What I would do -- for example, in Georgia, since we are on Senator Talmadge, in 1974, and 1973, the year before the election -- is I would talk to the physicians in the Georgia Medical Society and find out their concerns or their feeling about Senator Talmadge and then I would request that they would support him.

Then I would go to AMPAC and when I was there in 1973, on that particular issue, I tried to get more. They said their limit was $10,000 to any one candidate. He really didn't have an opponent. Then I went back to Jim Kauffman, a physician in Atlanta and said we got to do better than $10,000. He got some physicians together and we got about 25 more thousand for him.

Q When you say 10,000 that is 5 --

A $5,000 from the national organization and $5,000 from the state.

Q I guess the PACs' limits were $5,000?

A Yes, at that time the limits that the multi-candidate political action committees could give would be $5,000 maximum.

Q Is the Medical Association currently a client of yours?

A It is very tenuous. They call me for certain things, like Governors' conference work and so forth. But I am not on a retainer to the American Medical Association.

Q Were you at one time?

A Yes, I was on retainer but I had a conflict that I was retained by the College of American Pathologists and there was a conflict between AMA and the college. So I found it in my best interests to not be retained.

So in 1975 or 1976 -- either in the end of 1975 or the first part of 1976 I stopped my retainer from AMA.

Q What is the relationship -- since I don't really understand the client we have been talking about --

A The Cardio-Pulmonary Contractors Association?

Q Yes, does it have any relationship with the Medical Association?

A No; only in the fact that they contract with hospitals and that they have physicians that they hire and often some of the companies that belong to Cardio-Pulmonary Contractors Association, physicians are in their organization, and they belong to AMA, in that sense.

Q As to the check that we have marked Exhibit 1, a Xerox copy of it, do you know if you sent that to the Talmadge Newsletter Account by mail or if you hand-delivered it?

A I hand-delivered it.

Q Who would you hand-deliver it to? If you recall.

A I am not trying to be evasive here.

Q I understand.

A You get involved in these things, and even your own memory fails you sometimes. I am sure I gave it to one of two people. I either gave it to Rita Hubler or I gave it to Rogers Wade.

Q Do you recall where you would have given it?

A In their office. This was not a political contribution. Therefore, it was not bound by the law about transferring funds on federal property. So on this newsletter--

8304043194

PHONE (202) 833-3598

Q You didn't have to go out to the corner?

A Right, meet them on the steps.

You know it is a situation where everybody gets involved in these technicalities of the law. But I am sure that I hand-carried it and I either gave it to Rita or Rogers, one of the two.

Q You say that it, to your mind, was not a political contribution under the law at that time?

A No. This wasn't a political contribution. So I didn't handle it like I would a political contribution. Political contributions I invariably mail to the campaign, and find out where the committee is, usually in the state or whoever the campaign chairman is and then I mail the check there.

What I usually do, obviously, in order to make sure the credit is given me, I send a copy of the letter to the individual member of Congress.

So that I don't send him the check but I send it to his committee and then with a carbon copy to the Senator so he knows I made it.

Q You send the attached letter?

A Right. I couldn't find any letters on this. This is why I know I hand-carried it up to the office. However, I don't want to put myself in a situation where -- I could have given this to the Senator. I don't know. I am sure I did not. But on some checks I have given checks to the member of Congress or the Senator.

830404 3195

I would give it to him personally, outside of their office if it was a political contribution.

Q How do you handle an honorarium? Is that different than the two incidences we are talking about?

A Yes. When I am involved where there is an honorarium involved, I discuss it with the member. Usually I try to have a check so that I give it to the Senator or Congressman at the time he gives the speech, when we are riding back to his office or before, whatever.

But political contributions I mail or give to their committee or their representative.

Q How about a political contribution from a PAC like AMPAC, do they mail it or do they send it to you to mail?

A It varies. Sometimes they will send it and we will hand-carry it. Other times it is mailed back to the state and it is given by a physician in his state. They put the two together and give the $10,000 or $5,000 or whatever, and they give it to the member in his state.

MR. OLDAKER: Off the record.

(Discussion off the record.)

BY MR. OLDAKER:

Q Are you aware of any difference of opinion between yourself and others?

A Yes. I treated this, during the time I was contacted by the reporter in Atlanta, I had treated this as a personal contribution to the newsletter account. It was not a political contribution. It was not an honorarium in my mind.

However, I have heard that the check that I made out to the newsletter account was transferred into the Senator's account and listed as an honorarium. But that was not my intention, it was not my understanding of it.

But the reporter, Seth Kanter, brought up this and I am trying to remember whether it was Rogers Wade or Will Ball who told me -- I am really not trying to be evasive. But my check was put into, not to the newsletter account.

To pay for newsletters and hot dogs and hamburgers, a lot of members of Congress, until recent years when FEC sort of frowned on it, they had what was called office accounts where they would run the extraordinary expenses of the office with the money that the lobbyists or people would give them.

8304043197

MILTON & GREENWOOD REPORTING ASSOCIATES, INC.

PHONE: (202) 833-3598

But I had been led to believe that this check that I gave was transferred into the Senator's honorarium account and documents were filed with the FEC that this was an honorarium.

Q If it were an honorarium would you make it out to the Senator personally or would you make it out to his newsletter account?

A No, I would make it out to the Senator personally. All honoraria I have given in the years that I have been here in Washington, I have never given an honorarium, other than to the personal name of the member of Congress, because he has to list that as income. It is tax deductible to him. It is an honorarium that is tax deductible.

When you make an honorarium, you can take a deduction for business expense.

Q We have had an affidavit from Rogers Wade. I don't know if he told you he had given us an affidavit.

A No, he did not.

Q In that affidavit he states, and I quote--and you can have a copy of this to look at, if you want.

He states -- and I say this not in an attempt to impeach you but just so you know what the record is and you can respond to it, if you want. He states, "I explained to Mr. Colley that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was not a campaign account and would not accept campaign contributions for the purpose of influencing the election of Senator Talmadge. From our discussion, it was my understanding that Mr. Colley wished to make a thousand dollar donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund for defraying office-related expenses. The officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund received Mr. Colley's personal check made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund."

830404312E

MILTON & GREENWOOD REPORTING ASSOCIATES, INC.

PHONE (202) 833-3598

That seems exactly the same.

Let me read you earlier on, he said, "I also made the scheduling arrangements for Senator Talmadge's speech before the Cardio-Pulmonary Doctors Association with Mr. Colley. I explained to Mr. Colley that Senator Talmadge would not accept an honorarium to speak to the Doctors' group, but I informed him of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund and told him the officers of the fund would welcome any voluntary donation to the fund for the purpose of helping defray newsletter and other office-related expenses but that Senator Talmadge's speech would not be conditioned on such a donation."

Would that refresh your recollection at all as to the conversation you had with Mr. Wade?

A Yes, that was the understanding that the contribution

I made was unrelated to any speaking engagements by the Senator, or quid pro quo, so to speak, that I did not make this contribution with the understanding that it had anything to do with the Senator's personal account, honorarium or his limitation that he had with the Senate.

Q It is the third paragraph on page 2 of this affidavit. I would ask that the affidavit be marked as Exhibit 2, only for the purposes of referencing this, and referencing paragraph 3 of page 2. It is the second full paragraph on page two.

A That was my recollection of the circumstances surrounding my contribution at the time; although I thought I had volunteered the contribution to the account.

(The document referred to was marked Exhibit No. 2, a copy of which is attached to the original of this deposition.)

BY MR. OLDAKER:

Q Have there been any other instances that you recall offhand where a Senator or Congressman has been, as you indicated before, booked up for the year, as far as honoraria where you have later made a contribution to their office account?

A Yes. I can recall some situations where I would ask a particular Senator or member of the House of Representatives and find that they had already reached it without any, again, quid pro quo. But if they did a favor by talking, giving a speech anyhow, it was sort of an understanding that you would show your appreciation in some manner; later, if he were running for office, to make a political contribution to his campaign in some form.

I can remember Congressman Stucky had an office account. He would ask that you make a contribution to his office account. One that just happened recently was I asked Senator Kennedy to give a speech to a group at a dinner. He said that he would not accept an honorarium but that if we wanted to make -- it wasn't necessary, but if we wanted to make a contribution -- we offered him a thousand dollars -- to the Bobby Kennedy Memorial Fund, that that would be appreciated. So he came to the dinner, made the speech, and we made a check out for a thousand dollars to the Bobby Kennedy Memorial Fund.

Another one that happens quite often is that Senator Long does not accept honoraria. However, I asked him to give a speech one time and he said that he would be happy to give the speech. During our ride to the dinner he made a suggestion that a particular member of Congress was having a difficult time for reelection and perhaps we might want to help them by making a political contribution. These are the things that happen all the time.

8 3 0 4 0 4 3 2 0 1

MILTON &amp; GREENWOOD REPORTING ASSOCIATES, INC.

PHONE: (202) 833-3598

Another time you will have somebody like Senator DeConcini; he would not accept an honorarium. He came and we had dinner. He gave a speech. He suggested -- but it wasn't necessary -- a charity in his state that would appreciate a contribution. So what we have done invariably is, taking the hint from a particular Senator or Congressman, we would, instead of giving it to them, give it to the charity that they would designate.

I can remember Congressman Rostenkowski one time suggesting we make a contribution to the school that he went to in Chicago, that type of thing. This happens all the time with lobbyists, where some members -- especially when I was representing AMA -- some members did not want to have it reported where people could find out that the doctors gave them money. So they would ask that you send it somewhere else.

That was also back in the days before FEC. It is the old situation where you say, "Will it help you if we come out and support you or would you be better off if we come out and oppose you, and you will get more votes in your district if we oppose you?"

That is what happens on these issues.

MILTON & GREENWOOD REPORTING ASSOCIATES, INC.

PHONE: (202) 833-3598

Q When you would give something, like to Mr. Rostenkowski's school would you designate it as coming from him? -

A Yes. We would write a letter saying on behalf of Congressman Rostenkowski we are making this contribution in his name and the same way with Senator DeConcini. We would do the same.

We wrote a letter to the charity and indicated it was being done in the Senator's name. Senator Bentsen does that, too.

Lloyd Bentsen doesn't like to take honoraria. So he will usually mention some charity in Texas. We would send a letter with a copy to the Senator so he would know that we actually had done what we told him we would.

Some Senators ask cash. We have a policy that we never give cash.

Q That sounds like a sensible policy.

A We always have checks to back up any contribution.

Q Do you feel that these designated contributions are done on a quid pro quo basis?

A It is difficult to come up with a real honest answer. I don't mean that the way it sounds. Yes. Here is my reaction.

I obviously would not have made any contribution to that particular charity or to a school unless I felt that I was doing it on behalf of a Congressman who had done me a favor by going out of his way to come and meet with my clients and give a speech or sit at a luncheon or something of that nature.

So if you put it in a quid pro quo, would I have voluntarily sent that money to that charity, not unless the Congressman told me about it.

Q Would you think probably the same thing were true here if Mr. Wade had mentioned it, to the newsletter account?

A No. I think this is an exception. There are other exceptions that I could mention. I try to keep a continuing relationship with certain offices.

However, if I made a contribution to an office fund, like Congressman Stuckey had one, and Senator Humphrey used to have one, you would expect some response when you would ask a favor from that office to meet with your clients or to -- I really wouldn't put it as quid pro quo.

It is sort of part of the game that is played as lobbyists with members of Congress. You know you are not going to get favorable consideration if you don't show some favorable consideration of helping them.

I was amazed in 1977 with the tremendous onslaught in the Georgia delegation. Every member of the Georgia delegation, including the two Senators said they never had seen that many people in their life, after President Carter came up here to be the President. They just had to pay for it.

People don't understand members of Congress don't have office accounts, expense accounts. When the high school band comes up here and they parade in the Senator's office and they get hamburgers and cokes, that is out of the Senator's pocket. Most lobbyists do make contributions to offset some of that.

I have been asked and complied where they would ask me to pick up a dinner. Congressman Kirwan would have a group. If you wanted him to speak to your group, he would say, "All right, you be the captain at Paul Young's." The captain at Paul Young's meant you would take his people out to dinner.

I don't know if you put that quid pro quo, but you have to do it in order to survive in the business.

A Only in sort of a summary, is that if any of my records -- I always have tried to keep a copy of everything, records of checks, cancelled checks and so forth, that if any of them can be of assistance -- Senator Talmadge has, over the years spoken to a lot of my clients without any checks involved.

In some instances it was an honorarium that he did expect a check and I made the check out to the Senator. In this instance it was not my understanding that this was an honorarium.

Q I guess I have one final question. In the cases -- and I think you answered it before, but in the cases of an honorarium that you pay on behalf of a client out of your personal account, it would be out of an account like the National Bank of Washington?

A Yes. They would be drawn on Washington Banks. It would either be my personal account or a cashier's check, the treasurer's check from a bank.

Q Would you get reimbursed for those honoraria from those organizations as opposed to contributions you said you did not?

A Political contributions, never have. One, the National Pharmaceutical Alliance would usually, in the last four years, they would contribute half. If we gave somebody $1,000 then they would send me an additional check of $500 in addition to my monthly retainer. But often speeches that were honoraria, I wouldn't get reimbursed.

They just figured I would be spending that money out of my retainer they give me every year, that that was what they were paying me for.

Q How did this client handle it?

A On this client, Cardio-Pulmonary Contractors Association has never reimbursed me for honoraria, nor have they reimbursed me for any political contributions. They retained me four years ago at a monthly retainer. That is what I receive every month.

What I do with the money -- in other words, I would be ahead of the game if I didn't make any contributions because they don't ask who I give the money to. I don't have to get their approval. Nor do, when they have a meeting and I have a speaker there, if I don't have a speaker they don't seem to care one way or the other. I am probably ahead of the game by not spending the money.

Q Except you might lose your client.

A That is the point. It is part of being a Washington

STATEMENT OF T. ROGERS WADE
REGARDING THE ESTABLISHMENT AND ADMINISTRATION
OF THE TALMADGE NEWSLETTER FUND
(APPENDIX A)

In the spring of 1975, after conversations with staff members and other Senate offices, I decided to establish a "newsletter fund" to assist in defraying constituent communication related expenses in the office of Senator Herman E. Talmadge. After consultation with staff members of the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee, it was determined that we could establish such a fund as an "office account" which could be used to pay newsletter and other constituent services expenses incurred by our office.

By phone, I requested the counsel for the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee to supply me and Ms. Rita Hubler with the necessary information as to how to set up such an account. It is my recollection that we received some information which outlined the procedures we should follow. I do not recall precisely what the instructions for registering and reporting this account were, although I do remember we finally decided, since no other reporting forms were available, such an "office account" should use the registration and reporting forms used by campaign committees. The Talmadge Newsletter Fund was registered in August 1975, with myself as Chairman and Ms. Rita Hubler as Treasurer.

From time to time, various individuals made donations to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund which was maintained at the Citizens State Bank of Butler, in Butler, Georgia. Sometimes I would be asked by constituents and friends how they could best help the Senator do his job of communicating with the people of Georgia. On several occasions, when I was asked, I explained the heavy expenditure which was required to maintain our newsletter and other communication efforts and, as a result, some people sometimes made donations to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. At no time was it ever considered by me, Ms. Hubler, or Senator Talmadge to be a campaign account. It was to merely offset the expenditures which are inherent in the operation of a large constituent service oriented office. The expenditure records of the account will show that all expenditures went toward this end and that no campaign use was ever made of these funds.

On occasion, Senator Talmadge would receive invitations for speaking engagements which he would accept but where he would not accept an honorarium in conjunction with his speech. In such instances, I instructed Ms. Rita Hubler, Senator Talmadge's appointments secretary, to inform the sponsoring organization that the Senator would not accept an honorarium but that if the organization wished to do so, it might make a voluntary donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, an office account for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other expenses incurred in the operation of the office of Senator Talmadge. Ms. Hubler was also instructed to make clear to the organization that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was not a campaign account and that in no instance would Senator Talmadge's speech be conditioned on a donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. The purpose of my directions to Ms. Hubler was to insure that any possible donor to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund understood that the fund was an office rather than campaign account and that any donation to the fund should be for the purpose of defraying newsletter or other ordinary expenses incurred by Senator Talmadge's office.

In 1975, a representative of the Southern Wholesalers Association ("the Association") contacted me to invite Senator Talmadge to speak to the Association in Atlanta, Georgia. I was informed that the Association would like to give Senator Talmadge a $1500 honorarium for his appearance. Senator Talmadge accepted the invitation and I notified the Association that Senator Talmadge had agreed to address the group but would accept an honorarium of only $1000 pursuant to the Senate Rules. I informed the Association representative, however, that an office account, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, was being established for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses. I noted that a voluntary donation to the fund would be welcomed but that Senator Talmadge's speech was not contingent on such a donation. I explained that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was not a campaign account. I understood from this discussion that the Association wished to make a donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, and the Association forwarded a $500 donation in the form of a check made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Based on my discussion with the Association representative the $500 was received and treated by the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund as a donation for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses.

I also made the scheduling arrangements for Senator Talmadge's speech before the Cardio-Pulmonary Doctors Association with Mr. William Colley. I explained to Mr. Colley that Senator Talmadge would not accept an honorarium to speak to the doctors group, but I informed him of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund and told him the officers of the fund would welcome any voluntary donation to the fund for the purpose of helping defray newsletter and other office-related expenses, but that Senator Talmadge's speech would not be conditioned on such a donation. I explained to Mr. Colley that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was not a campaign account and would not accept campaign contributions for the purpose of influencing the election of Senator Talmadge. From our discussion, it was my understanding that Mr. Colley wished to make a $1000 donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund for defraying office-related expenses. The officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund received Mr. Colley's personal check made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund and treated it as an office account donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund.

When the rules of the Senate were changed in April 1977, abolishing office accounts, I instructed Ms. Allyne Tisdale, the new Treasurer of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, to close the account and deposit the remaining funds in the Talmadge Campaign Committee account which was kept at the National Savings and Trust Bank, Washington, D.C. My thinking was that the remaining funds in the account would continue to be spent for newsletter or other office-related expenses as was allowed by the Senate Rules and the "funds donated" provision of the Commission regulations.

My interpretation of Sec. 113 of the Commission regulations was that funds in the Talmadge Newsletter Fund account were "funds donated" as outlined in Sec. 113.1(a). Since office accounts were being abolished under the Senate Rules, it was my understanding that the proper procedure for compliance with Sec. 113.3 was to deposit any remaining funds in the Talmadge Newsletter Fund account into the Talmadge Campaign Committee account. Since there was no intention to use any of the transferred funds in connection with a federal election, it was my interpretation that the transfer would not be a violation of Sec. 113.5(b). There was certainly no intention to circumvent the rules of the Federal Elections Commission. This is evidenced, in my opinion, by the full disclosure reporting of this account as well as the reporting by the Talmadge Campaign Committee of the receipt of the transferred funds in a forthright and timely manner.

In summation, the account was set up and managed under my direction to defray normal operating expenses of Senator Talmadge's office, primarily newsletter related expenses. At no time was there ever any intention of using this fund to conceal campaign contributions or honoraria. This, of course, is evidenced by the full reporting of all receipts and by the records of the expenditures which were made from that account. Any possible mistake in filing, or ultimate disposition of funds was my responsibility and at no time was Senator Talmadge consulted as to how to set up the account, where the account was set up, what particular funds should be placed in the account, or the ultimate disposition of the funds once the account was closed.

I signed the check and it was given to Mr. Kelly, who, in turn, delivered it to Senator Talmadge.

Q Admiral Kelly?

Q Did you deal with him often?

A Yes, I would say I dealt with him often.

Q I have a check from David C. Murchison, Number 765, on the National Savings and Trust Company of Washington, D. C., dated January 14, 1977, the amount of $1,000 to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund. Is this an extra copy?

I should add in answer to the last question that the Association requested me to advance the honorarium on its behalf to Senator Talmadge, which I did, and then thereafter they reimbursed me in the same amount.

Q Was this something you did ordinarily, getting reimbursed by a trade association for an honorarium? Is this something you did often?

A No.

Q Did you ever do it before?

A Not to my knowledge.

Q Have you ever done it since?

A No. I will explain how it came to occur.

The luncheon meeting which Senator Talmadge addressed was held on Monday, January 17. On the preceding Friday, which was January 14, Mr. Kelly had been in Senator Talmadge's office to complete the arrangements for the luncheon which was held in a dining room in the Senate Office Building. A member of Senator Talmadge's staff asked Mr. Kelly --

8 3 0 4 0 4 3 2 2 1

MILTON & GREENWOOD REPORTING ASSOCIATES, INC.

PHONE: 202/833-3598

Q Do you know who that was?

A I am not sure. I had no contact whatsoever with Senator Talmadge or his staff in connection with these arrangements.

However, Mr. Kelly then came to my office late in the day on Friday to ask about the honorarium check. I telephoned the headquarters of the Association in New York and Dr. DePodwin, who was the Executive Manager of the Association, asked me if I would advance the check since he was in New York and we were in Washington, and I furnished a letter from Dr. DePodwin to you today which explains that event. But in short, there was no Association check to deliver and they requested me to advance the honorarium with the statement that they then would reimburse me.

I have also included in the papers that we furnished today the billings and the reimbursement by the Association.

Q The reimbursement that was made by the Association since they, I would take it, did not have a political fund was from the corporate treasury fund?

A I assume it was.

Q You don't know?

A I think I do know, and the answer would be it was from their general funds.

MR. OLDAKER: Would you mark this as Exhibit 1?

Let the record reflect that Exhibit 1 is the check from David C. Murchison to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund dated January 14, 1977, in the amount of $1,000. And Exhibit 2 is a letter that Mr. Murchison has given us from Horace J. DePodwin Associates Inc.

(The documents referred to were marked Exhibits No. 1 and 2 for identification, and attached hereto.)

BY MR. OLDAKER:

Q Have you in the past arranged for speakers to speak and then later given them or had honoraria paid to them in some manner?

A No, sir.

Q Have you since that time?

A I don't believe I can recall any instance. It is not my regular business in any sense.

Q You mentioned that you were reimbursed by the Association. I have a letter of June 16, 1977, from Barbara Epstein to David C. Murchison.

A Yes.

Q Is this the letter which accompanied the reimbursement?

A It is.

MILTON & GREENWOOD REPORTING ASSOCIATES, INC.

Q What account was the reimbursement out of, if you recall?

A I don't recall. It was a check made out to me which was a check drawn by Ceramic Tile Manufacturers of the United States and made payable to me in the same amount.

MR. OLDAKER: Would you mark that as Exhibit 3, please?

(The document referred to was marked Exhibit No. 3 for identification, and attached hereto.)

BY MR. OLDAKER:

Q I have a letter of March 16, 1977, from David C. Murchison to Horace DePodwin. Do you recall that letter? Is that a copy of the letter you sent?

A It is one of two letters, as I recall, that I wrote to Dr. DePodwin on the matter of the honorarium that was paid to Senator Talmadge.

Q And the letter was sent?

A Yes, sir.

Q And with the attachments -- there were two attachments -- were they enclosed with the letter?

A That statement which is attached was handed personally to Dr. DePodwin with a copy of the check.

Q When was that?

8 3 0 4 0 4 3 2 2 5

A It was on or about the same day. It may have been two or three days either way. I don't recall.

Q Is there any reason you didn't send it together?

A No, the letter does not transmit a statement. The letter simply was reminding Dr. DePodwin that I had not been reimbursed and we had a statement prepared which my secretary informs me was delivered personally to them. It was one of a number of statements. I believe there is another statement that was rendered to them.

MR. OLDAKER: Would you mark the letter of March 16 as Exhibit 4 and the statement as Exhibit 5?

(The documents referred to were marked Exhibits No. 4 and 5 for identification, and attached hereto.)

MR. OLDAKER: Off the record.

(Discussion off the record.)

MR. OLDAKER: Back on the record.

BY MR. OLDAKER:

Q You were talking about the affidavit by Tom J. Kelly and how it came into being.

A Yes. After I received your subpoena which called for information relating to the invitation that was extended to Senator Talmadge to make a speech and to the matter of the — honorarium, neither of which events I had anything to do with, I felt that it would be helpful to have an explanation of the question of the invitation and the honorarium and contacted Mr. Kelly and requested him to provide an explanation of exactly how the invitation was extended and the matter of the honorarium, and I have handed you an affidavit which describes that.

8 3 0 4 0 4 3 2 2 6

Q I have an affidavit from Tom J. Kelly and this is the affidavit?

A It is.

MR. OLDAKER: Mark this as Exhibit 6.

(The affidavit referred to was marked Exhibit No. 6 for identification, and attached hereto.)

BY MR. OLDAKER:

Q I have a list here of Senators who attended the CTMUS luncheon hosted by Senator Talmadge on January 17, 1977. They are John McClellan, Richard Schweiker, Jesse Helms, Robert Morgan, Richard Stone and Lawton Chiles. Were any of these other Senators, to your knowledge, paid honoraria for attending?

A Not to my knowledge. None of these Senators you have mentioned made speeches or otherwise participated in the meeting. They were guests, along with others who were present. They were, of course, the member manufacturers of the Association were present at the luncheon meeting, the Senators you have named and a number of additional people who were in the audience. It was a rather large group.

8 3 0 4 0 4 3 2 2 7

Q It is correct that you never contacted Senator Talmadge or any of his staff members prior to the making of the speech regarding the speech?

A I have never had any contact whatever regarding the speech.

Q Did you talk to Senator Talmadge at the speech at all?

A No, sir, except just prior to the luncheon meeting a delegation composed of the president of the Association and several other people stopped by Senator Talmadge's office and walked with him from his office to the dining room in the Senate Office Building where the luncheon was held, and I exchanged pleasantries with him at that time. However, I have not talked with him before or since on the subject.

Q Did you talk with him about the honorarium during that conversation?

A No, sir. That was exclusively handled by Mr. Kelly on behalf of the Association.

Q I have a letter of March 7 from your firm to a Dr. Glenn Meyers signed by you. Do you recognize that letter?

A I do.

Q And does this represent a bill to the organization?

A It does not represent a bill as such. It is a letter to Dr. Meyers who assisted Dr. DePodwin in managing the Association. It is summarizing outstanding billings that had not been paid.

Q I note that in paragraph three it says: I have also not been reimbursed for the honorarium advanced to Senator Talmadge.

A Yes.

Q And that is the $1,000 honorarium that we are talking about?

A That is the same.

MR. OLDAKER: Would you mark this as Exhibit 7

(The letter referred to was marked Exhibit No. 7 for identification, and attached hereto.)

BY MR. OLDAKER:

Q I have a memorandum of November 19, 1976 to you from a JFB re the CTMUS luncheon.

A Yes, sir.

8 3 0 4 0 4 3 2 2 9

Q Do you recall that memorandum?

A I do.

Q Who is it from?

A JFB are initials standing for John F. Bruce, a lawyer in my firm.

Q And what relationship did he have with this matter?

A He was responsible for advising the Association and was actually responsible, as I recall, for preparing the agendas and the minutes of the meetings and performing corporate legal work for the Association.

I might add that there was a Board of Directors meeting as well as an Executive Meeting of the Board of Directors at the same time and we have also furnished the minutes of those meetings to you.

MR. OLDAKER: Would you mark the copy of this memorandum dated November 19, 1976 as Exhibit 8?

(The memorandum referred to was marked Exhibit No. 8 for identification, and attached hereto.)

THE WITNESS: One other thing in regard to those minutes. May I just see them a moment?

MR. OLDAKER: Sure.

THE WITNESS: Attached to the minutes of the Board of Directors meeting held on January 16 which was the day prior to the luncheon are financial statements which, as I recall, show the amount expended per annum for government relations. I call that to your attention because of a previous question you asked about political action committees which we do not have and the item is $12,525 for government relations.

BY MR. OLDAKER:

Q What would that generally be for?

A That would cover the retainer paid to Mr. Kelly for his consulting work on government related matters, not lobbying.

Q And that was paid by the Manufacturers Association and not by your law firm?

A By the Manufacturers Association. It is an annual figure.

MR. OLDAKER: Would you mark these minutes of January 16, 1977 signed by John M. Thompson, Jr. as Exhibit 9.

(The minutes referred to were marked Exhibit No. 9 for identification, and attached hereto.)

BY MR. OLDAKER:

Q Do you know the address of Admiral Thomas J. Kelly? We have an address here of 1208 Connecticut Avenue, Northwest,

MILTON & GREENWOOD REPORTING ASSOCIATES, INC.

PHONE: (202) 833-3598

Room 806, Washington, D. C. Do you know if that is correct?

A I do not believe it is correct.

Q Do you know how we could obtain his correct address?

A I can obtain it for you, although I am certain it is listed in the telephone directory for the District of Columbia. Mr. Kelly is approximately 85 years old and is in semi-retirement, and I believe he lives on Connecticut Avenue but further out than what was his previous address, but he does live in Washington and I am certain that it is listed in the directory.

Q Did you know or have any reason to know what Senator Talmadge's honoraria receipts were for 1977?

A No, sir.

Q Were any inquiries made, to your knowledge, as to the amount of money he had received during 1977 when your honorarium was paid?

A No, I know of no such inquiry.

MR. OLDAKER: Do you have any questions?

MR. NIELDS: No, I don't, but perhaps it would be well to put on the record your conversation with Miss McFarland concerning the third specification in the subpoena.

THE WITNESS: Yes. I discussed the third specification by telephone with Miss McFarland and my understanding was that a statement of my relationship would be agreeable in lieu of an attempt to locate documents which would describe that relationship. I don't believe any document exists, I might add, and I have been General Counsel to the Association throughout the time of its existence, which was approximately from 1965 to 1978.

MR. OLDAKER: It is no longer in existence?

THE WITNESS: Perhaps I should add in early 1978 its operations were merged into a larger association by the name of the Tile Council of America, which is also composed of the same manufacturers, essentially, and a merger took place at that time to the Association is no longer in existence as such but its activities are being presently carried out by the Tile Council of America.

MR. OLDAKER: Do you represent the Tile Council?

THE WITNESS: I do.

MR. OLDAKER: I have no further questions. Thank you very much.

THE WITNESS: Thank you, sir.

MR. OLDAKER: We will adjourn at this time.

Dear Mr. Murchison:

This will confirm our discussion of today concerning Senator Talmadge's appearance as principal luncheon speaker at the January 1977 annual meeting of Ceramic Tile Manufacturers of the United States, Inc., a trade association whose accounts were managed by Horace J. DePodwin Associates, Inc., 350 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York, from December 1965 to February 1978, when its operations were transferred to Tile Council of America, a larger association of ceramic tile manufacturers with headquarters in Princeton, New Jersey.

The 1977 annual meeting was held in Washington, D.C. The meeting included the transaction of association business, four talks at luncheon on public policy issues of special concern to ceramic tile manufacturers, including one by Senator Talmadge.

Senator Talmadge was invited by Mr. Thomas J. Kelly, a consultant to the association, to give the principal luncheon address. Mr. Kelly had advised the association that Senator Talmadge's honorarium would be $1,000.

Because the check preparation and signing procedures we were using did not allow the transmittal of the check for the honorarium to Mr. Kelly in Washington in time for the meeting, we requested you to advance the honorarium to Senator Talmadge on behalf of the association. Subsequently, the association reimbursed you for the honorarium advanced on its behalf.

During our conference, you showed me the letter and attachment you received from the Federal Election Commission. I can assure them that the payment to Senator Talmadge was at no time intended or represented to be anything other than an honorarium for his speech.

All of the foregoing relating to this payment is confirmed by the books and records of the association.

Sincerely,

Dear Horace:

At the CTMUS annual luncheon, I paid the honorarium for Senator Talmadge by personal check since no one had a CTMUS check. The amount should be reimbursed to me directly, rather than the law firm, since the check was drawn on my personal account. Will you remind Glenn at your convenience of this outstanding amount?

Many thanks.

THOMAS J. KELLY, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

For some years, up until February 15, 1978, I served as a consultant to Ceramic Tile Manufacturers of the United States, Inc.

The 1977 annual meeting of this association was held in Washington. I assisted in the arrangements for that meeting and suggested that Senator Talmadge be invited to be the principal luncheon speaker. The association accepted this suggestion, and I personally extended the invitation to Senator Talmadge, who explained to me that his honorarium was $1,000. I then reported the amount of the honorarium to the association, which authorized me to proceed on this basis.

On Friday, January 14, 1977, the last working day before the meeting, when I was in Senator Talmadge's office to complete the luncheon arrangements, a member of his staff advised me that the honorarium check should be made payable to Talmadge Newsletter Fund. I then relayed these instructions to Mr. Murchison's secretary and requested her to type the check accordingly. On January 17, just prior to the luncheon meeting at which Senator Talmadge spoke, I delivered the check to Senator Talmadge's office.

Exhibit No. 6

At no time was this payment discussed or represented by any party, or intended by me, to be anything other than an honorarium for the Senator's speech.

8304013246
Admiral Kelly came by today and said that, after discussion with the people in Senator Talmadge's office, it appears that the Vandenberg Room is the only room available in the Capitol building on January 17. He also said that Senator Talmadge's office has advised that it is better to keep this luncheon within the confines of the Capitol building, or we may lose some Senators that would otherwise attend; that the room only holds about 30 people; and that there cannot be a lot of speeches after lunch because one can only hold those Senators still for about ten minutes after such a luncheon. Senator Talmadge's office advises that we either have Talmadge and one other person speak briefly after the luncheon and let "table-conversation" take care of the rest, or have the addresses made during the time lunch is being served.

6           EXAMINATION BY COUNSEL FOR THE FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

7                   BY MS. McFARLAND:

8           Q       Would you state for the record your name.

9           A       Thomas Joseph Kelly, U.S. Navy, Retired.

10          Q       And your address?

11          A       3930 Connecticut Avenue, Northwest, Apartment 201.

12          Q       In Washington?

13          A       Yes.

14          Q       And your telephone number?

15          A       Emerson 2-3965.

16          Q       Are you currently employed?

17          A       Yes; I am retained as a consultant by the Ceramic 18       Tile Manufacturers Association.

19          Q       Have you been in that position for some period of 20       time?

21          A       About 12 years; something like that. Then it was a 22       different organization. The organization has been changed.

1 Q What are your duties in regard to that position?

2 A To advise them in Washington on problems about exports
3 and imports.

4 Q So you have contact with various government agencies?

5 A When it is necessary, but I can't remember when we had 6 one. But I am there.

7 Q At their call?

8 A Yes.

9 Incidentally, I was employed by Mercedes-Benz on the same
10 basis, and for three years they didn't call, so they fired me.

11 (Laughter.)

12 BY MS. McFARLAND:

13 Q Do you represent associations of that type?

14 A Yes. I also represented at one time Max Factor.

15 Q Among your duties is arranging speeches? Do you do
16 that sort of thing?

17 A Once in several years. There was one you are talking 18 about. That was the first in about five or six years.

19 Q You were a representative for the Ceramic Tile
20 Manufacturers Association during the period of 1977?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Have you arranged for a speech, or did you arrange for

1 a speech during 1977 for Senator Talmadge to speak before that 2 association?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Could you just briefly explain how it came about/

5 A Yes. Dave Murchison is the man who I contact here,
6 the contact for the association. And one day he asked me,
7 he said, "Tom, we are going to have the annual meeting of the 8 Association here, and we are going to have a lunch, and it would 9 be nice to have somebody from the Hill who is knowledgeable,
10 pleasant and interesting to address them, and somebody who comes 11 from a State that has tile manufacturing facilities in the State."

12 I knew Georgia had tile manufacturing, and Senator Talmadge
13 is personable, and knowledgeable, and pleasant, and an old
14 fishing friend, and I said, "Why not Senator Talmadge?"

15 And he said, "Do you think he will do it?"

16 And I said, "I can try."

17 I called his office and made an appointment to see him the 18 next day. I don't know whether you know, but Senator Talmadge 19 gets up at 4 or 5:00 in the morning and makes his breakfast and 20 is in the office by 7:00. One secretary is always there. I
21 don't know how she likes it, but she is always there. I had 22 an appointment for 7:00. He is a very busy man. I went in to

3 somebody to talk to them for 10 or 15 minutes about things of 4 interest to them and of interest to the country as a whole, and 5 I suggested you, and would you be available to address them?"

6 And he immediately went to his desk and asked what date,
7 turned over the calendar page and said, "I am free." He said,
8 "Yes; I will." He said, "The honorarium is $1,000."

9 I said that was all right. He wanted the check made out
10 to such-and-such activity, and he said, "I would like to have 11 it fairly soon."

12 I said, "Very well, sir, thank you."

13 And I got up and left.

14 Q Do you know approximately what date that was?

15 A No, dear. I would have to check back.

16 Q It was shortly before the speech?

17 A I would say two or three weeks before.

18 Q So you spoke directly to Senator Talmadge, and he 19 told you he would like an honorarium?

20 A He said the honorarium was $1,000; almost his exact
21 words.

22 Q Before the speech did you have any other discussions

1 with the Senator or his staff members with regard to the 2 honorarium?

3 A No.

4 Q So the next time the $1,000 came up was --

5 A When you called.

6 Q So, during that meeting he had suggested you make 7 out the check to the place it was made out to?

8 A Yes. To the firm.

9 Q So none of the staff members suggested to you the 10 way to make out the check?

11 A No.

12 Q Why was it that Mr. Murchison wrote the check himself?

13 A That is very easy to explain; because the Senator said
14 he wanted the check fairly soon. Why, I don't know.

15 So I came down and told Dave, and he said that it takes 16 about 10 days to clear it through the people in the organization.

17 Q In the Association?

18 A Yes. But he said, "There is no question about it.
19 I will write out the check and you can take it up to him, Tom."

20 So that is the reason he wrote out the check.

21 Q To your knowledge he expected to be reimbursed?

22 A Oh, yes. He was going to be reimbursed.

1 Q So your entire discussion was with Mr. Murchison.
2 You suggested Senator Talmadge, and you talked to Senator
3 Talmadge?

4 A Yes.

5 Q To your recollection there were no discussions about 6 the amount of money or the purpose for the money or to whom 7 to make out the check between your conversation with the Senator
8 and the actual speech?

9 A That was the conversation. That was all of the 10 conversation. I put the check up the next day and gave it to 11 the staff. Who it was, I don't know. I don't know what 12 happened to it, but I turned it over and explained to them
13 what it was for.

14 Q So that was the one conversation that you had with 15 the Senator and his staff about the money?

16 A Never discussed it with the Senator since. I haven't
17 told him I am coming up here today.

18 Q The check was made out to the Talmadge Newsletter
19 Fund?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And the way you became aware of the account?

22 A The Senator told me to have it made out that way.

1 MR. WHITE: May I interject something? The affidavit that
2 Admiral Kelly made out, in going over it with Admiral Kelly,
3 there is a discrepancy in it. It was a mistake at the time
4 Admiral Kelly made the affidavit. That part of the affidavit
5 which says, "A member of this staff advised me that the honorarium
6 check should be made payable to Talmadge Newsletter Fund."

7 It is technically wrong. It was the Senator himself.

8 BY MS. McFARLAND:

9 Q Had you ever heard of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund
10 before?

11 A No.

12 Q When the Talmadge Newsletter was brought up were you 13 told what that fund involved?

14 A No.

15 Q So you were never told whether it was an office account?

16 A All I know was it was an honorarium, and as an 17 honorarium, he could do any damned thing he wanted to with it.

18 Q I would like give a copy of the affidavit made out in 19 the City of Washington, District of Columbia, and signed on April 20 10, 1979, to be marked as Exhibit A, and ask if you can identify 21 it and identify the signature.
22

(The affidavit of Thomas J. Kelly was marked Exhibit No. A, for identification, and attached to the court copy of this deposition.)

MR. OLDAKER: Off the record.

(Discussion off the record.)

BY MS. McFARLAND:

Q I think we want on the record to have you identify the signature.

A That is my signature.

Q And you made this affidavit?

A Yes. I signed it. Dave Murchison made it out. I signed it.

Q With the correction, it is accurate?

A Yes.

Q Just to be absolutely sure I am going to ask you some questions that seem redundant. Were you ever told that the Senator would not accept an honorarium?

A That he would not accept --

Q Yes.

A No. He told me what the honorarium was for.

Q I have here a sworn statement from Rita Hubler, who you know.

8304043267

MILTON & GREENWOOD REPORTING ASSOCIATES, INC.

PHONE: (202) 833-3598

1 A Yes.

2 Q She was at this time the Senator's personal secretary,
3 and an office of what is known as the Talmadge Newsletter Fund,
4 and she has submitted a sworn statement which I would like to 5 go through sentence by sentence, if I could and you can tell
6 me whether or not that sentence is accurate.

7 MR. WHITE: Do you have an extra copy of it?

8 MR. OLDAKER: Give them a moment to look through it if 9 they want.

10 BY MS. McFARLAND:

11 Q I am going to go through this sentence by sentence.
12 On page two, the second paragraph, it says, "David Murchison - 13 Ceramic Tile Manufacturers Association" - January 17, 1977 -
14 $1,000.

15 Senator Talmadge received an invitation to speak to the 16 Ceramic Tile Manufacturers Association.

17 A Yes.

18 Q "I made the arrangement for this speaking engagement."

19 A Rita Hubler made the arrangements?

20 Q Rita Hubler is saying, "I made the arrangements for 21 this speaking engagement."

22 A She made the arrangements for where the luncheon was

1 to be held, but the arrangement for the speech was made by
2 Senator Talmadge when he accepted.

3 Q "I informed a representative of the Association that 4 Senator Talmadge would speak to the group but would not accept
5 an honorarium."

6 A No. That is not true. The conversation with him was 7 he would speak to the group on that date, an honorarium was 8 $1,000 and he would like the check now.

9 Q "I explained that the Association might wish to make 10 a voluntary donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, which was 11 an office account, not a campaign account, for the purpose of 12 defraying newsletters and other office-related communication
13 expenses, but that Senator Talmadge's speech was not contingent
14 on such a donation."

15 A No. It was an honorarium paid to him to do anything
16 he wanted to, and I did not discuss that anybody.

17 Q "Subsequently, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund received 18 a personal check from David Murchison, a representative of the 19 Association, in the amount of $1,000."

20 A That is right.

21 Q The remainder of the paragraph, I think, is 22 self-explanatory, and is not something you could testify to.

1 MS. McFARLAND: I would like to introduce as Exhibit B
2 this affidavit for the purpose of that particular paragraph.

3 (The statement of Rita Hubler
4 was marked Exhibit No. B, for 5 identification, and attached to 6 the court copy of this deposition.)

7 (Discussion off the record.)

8 BY MS. McFARLAND:

9 Q Why don't you make that statement.

10 A What?

11 Q That your answers were to the best of your knowledge.

12 A I am sorry; I don't know exactly what you want.

13 MR. WHITE: To clarify your testimony in regard to this.
14 It is to the best of your knowledge. You don't know of any 15 conversation that Ms. Hubler had, for example?

16 THE WITNESS: No. I took the check up the next morning,
17 and I don't remember whether I gave it to Ms. Hubler or not,
18 but there was no conversation with me regarding anything else,
19 and this was an honorarium.

20 BY MS. McFARLAND:

21 Q When you took the check up do you remember if you gave 22 it to a male or a female person?

A I am sorry. I don't know whether it was her or the 1 assistant there, but I am sure I told them it was an honorarium

2 for the speech.

3 Q Do you know many people in the Senator's office?

4 A Well, honey, I used to know them, but I haven't been 5 up there for many months, and I don't know whether I am on a
6 kissing basis with them or not.

7 Q But you have dealt with them over the years?

8 A Just to say, "Hello; is the Senator in?" Nothing more 9 than that.

10 Ms. Hubler made the arrangements for the luncheon.

11 Q When you say that, you mean --

12 A For the room, and so forth.

13 BY MR. OLDAKER:

14 Q Do you have anything you want to add?

15 A No. He is a good friend, and I am sorry he is having 16 trouble.

17 Q Did you go the speech?

18 A Yes. I was there.

19 Q Did you talk to the Senator at that time?

20 A I don't think so. He is busy. He comes in; had his 21 lunch; made his speech, and goes. He is a wonderful man. I 22 don't know how he got into all this.

AFFIDAVIT

THOMAS J. KELLY, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

For some years, up until February 15, 1978, I served as a consultant to Ceramic Tile Manufacturers of the United States, Inc.

The 1977 annual meeting of this association was held in Washington. I assisted in the arrangements for that meeting and suggested that Senator Talmadge be invited to be the principal luncheon speaker. The association accepted this suggestion, and I personally extended the invitation to Senator Talmadge, who explained to me that his honorarium was $1,000. I then reported the amount of the honorarium to the association, which authorized me to proceed on this basis.

On Friday, January 14, 1977, the last working day before the meeting, when I was in Senator Talmadge's office to complete the luncheon arrangements, <sup>he</sup> ~~a member of his staff~~ advised me that the honorarium check should be made payable to Talmadge Newsletter Fund. I then relayed these instructions to Mr. Murchison's secretary and requested her to type the check accordingly. On January 17, just prior to the luncheon meeting at which Senator Talmadge spoke, I delivered the check to Senator Talmadge's office.

At no time was this payment discussed or represented by any party, or intended by me, to be anything other than an honorarium for the Senator's speech.

APPENDIX B

STATEMENT OF RITA HUBLER

During the time I served as Treasurer of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund from August 1975 until March 9, 1976, I was responsible for keeping records, making deposits, and filing reports for the Talmadge Newsletter Fund under the supervision and direction of T. Rogers Wade, Talmadge Newsletter Fund Chairman. It was always my understanding that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was an "office account" established for the purpose of receiving funds to cover newsletter and other office related expenses. As Treasurer, I never treated the Talmadge Newsletter Fund as a campaign account and I was under instructions from Mr. Wade to administer the fund only for newsletter and other constituent communication purposes. As appointments secretary, I often scheduled speaking engagements for Senator Talmadge. The following outlines my understanding of the circumstances surrounding the particular donations to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund in question:

Southern Wholesalers Association - March, 1975 - $500

A representative of the Southern Wholesalers Association ("the Association") contacted Mr. Rogers Wade to invite Senator Talmadge to speak to the Association in Atlanta, Georgia. I was informed by Mr. Wade that Senator Talmadge would accept the invitation and an honorarium of $1000. Mr. Wade also informed me that the Association would like to make a voluntary donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund in the amount of $500 for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses. Based on Mr. Wade's discussion with a representative of the Association, the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund received and treated the $500 as a donation to the fund for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses.

National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives -
September, 1975 - $250

Mr. Lawrence Earls invited Senator Talmadge to speak to the National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives ("the Society"). Senator Talmadge agreed to speak to this group as a personal favor to Mr. Earls. No honorarium was offered. At a later date, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund received a donation from the National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives in the amount of $250. Correspondence accompanying the donation clearly indicated that the $250 was donated by the Society to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses and was treated as such by the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund.

David Murchison - (Ceramic Tile Manufacturers Association) -
January 17, 1977 - $1000

Senator Talmadge received an invitation to speak to the Ceramic Tile Manufacturers Association ("the Association"). I made the arrangements for this speaking engagement. I informed a representative of the Association that Senator Talmadge would speak to the group but would not accept an honorarium. I explained that the Association might wish to make a voluntary donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, which was an office account, not a campaign account, for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses, but that Senator Talmadge's speech was not contingent on such a donation. Subsequently, the Talmadge Newsletter Fund received a personal check from David Murchison, a representative of the Association, in the amount of $1000. It was my understanding and the understanding of the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund that the check was intended as a donation to the fund for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses, and was received and treated as such.

Federal Land Bank of St. Louis, Mo. - March, 1977 - $1000

Senator Talmadge was invited to speak to the annual stockholders meeting of the Federal Land Bank of St. Louis ("the Bank"). Senator Talmadge accepted the invitation, and I made the arrangements for the speech with Mr. Glenn Heitz, President of the Bank. I informed Mr. Heitz that Senator Talmadge would not accept an honorarium for the speech, but I stated that the Bank might wish to make a voluntary donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, an office account, for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses, but that Senator Talmadge's speech was not contingent on such a donation. I also explained that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was not a campaign account. It was my understanding from my discussion with Mr. Heitz that the Bank wished to make a $1000 donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses. This donation, in the form of a check made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, was received and treated by the officers of the Talmadge Newsletter Fund as a donation to the fund based on the officers' understanding that the Bank intended the $1000 as an office account donation for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses.

William J. Colley - (Cardio-Pulmonary Doctors Association) -
February 17, 1977 - $1000

Senator Talmadge was offered and accepted an invitation to speak to a meeting of the Cardio-Pulmonary Doctors Association ("the Association"). Scheduling for this speech was made by Mr. Rogers Wade. I was informed by Mr. Wade that Mr. Colley wished to make an office account donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund to defray newsletter and other office related communication expenses. The Talmadge Newsletter Fund received the personal check of Mr. Colley in the amount of $1000 made payable to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, and based on Mr. Wade's conversation with Mr. Colley, the check was received and treated as a donation to the fund for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses.

In all the above instances where donations were made to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, it was my understanding that the sponsoring group intended the donation as an office account donation for the purpose of defraying newsletter and other office related communication expenses incurred by the office of Senator Herman E. Talmadge. -Based on Mr. Wade's instructions, I attempted to make clear in each instance that the Talmadge Newsletter Fund was not a campaign account and that no speech given by Senator Talmadge was contingent on a donation to the Talmadge Newsletter Fund, so that no misunderstanding would result as to the nature or treatment of any monies received by the Talmadge Newsletter Fund.
