Re: MUR6666/

Dear Mr. Jordan:

Reference is made to the above and to your correspondence of October 18, 2012.

In my looking into the gaps as noted in the Rhinebeck Bank record and the filings of my previous Treasurer, Misha Fredericks, it has become apparent to me that my previous Treasurer failed to accurately or completely report campaign expenditures. When she resigned as Treasurer, she provided me with a box of receipts; she inaccurately reported receipts (I know this for a fact, because even right in front of me she mixed up receipts from myself with those of volunteers, inexplicably).

Upon termination of Misha Fredericks, a subsequent campaign Treasurer was appointed. That campaign Treasurer, Andi Weiss-Bartczak was terminated on July 2, 2012, as Treasurer Weiss-Bartczak demonstrated an inability to professionally fulfill the role as Campaign Treasurer.

Both Campaign Treasurers Fredericks and Weiss-Bartczak came highly recommended; unfortunately, neither lived up to the Campaign's recommendations or simple professional standards, frankly (see last letter). The notification of the appointment of the subsequent Treasurer Andi Weiss-Bartczak was forwarded to the Federal Election Commission as required (I know this; paperwork was completed with FEC). It is unclear to me why the Commission has no information of the appointment of a successor Treasurer after Fredericks abruptly resigned (and again, Fredericks herself admitted to the media repeatedly in June that her resignation was based on political motives; this should not be ignored).

I understand the serious nature of my former Treasurers' mistakes, and as always will cooperate with the Federal Election Commission in trying to determine the errors committed by the Campaign Treasurers.

Should you have questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me on my cell:

Sincerely,

Joel C. Tyner
