1. I am Ruth G. Stauffer and I reside in Topeka, Kansas.
2. I am familiar with the allegations contained in Federal Election Commission Matter Under Review 4634. I became extremely interested in the elections of 1996, in large part because my son-in-law, Sam Brownback, was a candidate for the United States Senate from Kansas.
3. In order to support Sam's candidacy, I contributed $1,000 to both his primary and general election campaigns. Along with my husband, I also began to research political action committees which would contribute to conservative candidates who shared my points of view on various issues. In that regard, I also contributed to a number of political action committees which are named in the complaint in MUR 4634 and which I believed shared my points of view.
4. I also learned that various limitations controlled giving to federal elections. I wanted to both participate in the process and do nothing that would be harmful to Sam Brownback's candidacy.

5. In order to do this, I did contribute to PACs whose positions I agreed with but I never specified or directed any PAC to give to any specific candidate, including Sam Brownback.

6. I did not in any way earmark or otherwise direct through an intermediary or conduit any use for my contributions to the PACs. I did not in any way instruct the PACs about their use of the contributions I sent to them, either directly or indirectly, expressly or implicitly, orally or in writing.

7. I did not at any time either seek or receive assurances or information from any of the PACs that their contributions would be used in any particular manner, such as a contribution to any specific candidate, including Sam Brownback.

8. I had absolutely no knowledge or assurances or expectations how any of the PACs to whom I contributed would use the funds I sent them other than that they would be used to aid conservative candidates and projects. I certainly never retained any control over the funds I contributed to any PAC.

9. I never told any of the PACs that I contributed to that I was related to Sam Brownback.

10. I had no communications with either Sam Brownback (or his wife and my daughter, Mary) or anyone working on his campaign concerning my contributions to those PACs.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have executed this Affidavit this 24th day of June, 1997.
